“United City Speaks and notes on events, issues” [Issue #574]

Rudy Cole seems to prematurely dismiss a campaign by bicycle advocates for bike lanes on Santa Monica Boulevard. The corridor is the most heavily-traveled in our city and is a direct route between the Westside and points east, including West Hollywood and Hollywood. Bicyclists travel the corridor every day to get to the major jobs centers of the Westside and UCLA but must do battle with buses and impatient drivers - all without the benefit of lanes, pavement markings, or even share-the-road signage.

Corrections, Issue #574:

- In the cover story, the year of death of the late Beverly High coach Sax Elliot was incorrectly identified. Sax Elliot actually died in 1996. Also, the Knights society at Beverly High was not based on academics; rather on scholarship, school service, dependability and sportsmanship.
- The new Beverly Hills-owned commercial building's correct address is 331 Foothill Road.

Few motorists would risk their lives by bicycle community in the region, and isn't that part of our transportation problem? Too few folks using alternate transportation means too many cars on the road. Bike-friendly infrastructure not only protects cyclists entitled to ride all of the streets in our city, but it reduces motorist liability too. Simply put, bikes belong, so let's plan for them to accommodate bikes safely.

Bike lanes on Santa Monica would also advance policy objectives. It's federal and state policy to encourage increased fuel-efficiency and to reduce greenhouse gas emissions. It's federal and state policy, too, as of January, to create 'complete streets' that accommodate pedestrians and cyclists as well as motorists.

The city has already committed to moving ahead on a bottom-up, $13 million reconstruction of Santa Monica Boulevard (lanes or no lanes). It would be the first major improvement since the state ceded the boulevard to the city in 2005. Indeed road conditions are awful and we must bring it up to standard. Why not accommodate cyclists according to the letter and spirit of our policies, not to mention responsibility to ensure the safety of ALL who use our roads?

There are two items in Rudy Cole's last column that I must comment on. First, Rudy notes that he cannot bring himself to vote for anyone but a Democrat because it would have disappointed his liberal mother. As one of my favorite commentators, Dennis Prager, pointed out in a recent article, so many registered Democrats vote for Left-wing candidates who do not share their views for purely emotional, nonsensical reasons. In Rudy's case, it is because his mother would disapprove of him voting Republican. (I have to wonder, why doesn't he vote Republican because his more conservative father might have disapproved of him voting Democrat?) Unfortunately, too many people in California think like Rudy, and that's why we continue to elect the irresponsible, Left-leaning legislatures and city governments that have run this state and some cities into the ground.

Second, there is some delicious irony in his discussion of the wacko-Leftists that run the hate-filled airwaves of KPFK 90.7 FM. I am glad to see that Rudy has acknowledged that KPFK is out in far-Left field. (The programming there is loaded with anti-Israeli, anti-American propaganda, and there are even programs that openly promote the idea that 9/11 was an inside job by the Bush administration.) Rudy often paints conservatives with a very broad brush, and he's frequently attacked the increasingly powerful Tea-Party as if they were a bunch of extremists and kooks, rather than patriotic Americans worried about the fiscal health of the country. If I were like Rudy, it would be easy for me to liken all liberals to the KPFK crowd in a similar way, but I know

City to subsidize $1.6 million loan for City Manager housing in Beverly Hills

Jeff Kolin

The city council voted 4-1 to subsidize City Manager Jeff Kolin an up to $1.6 million loan for housing. Kolin, who currently rents a South La Peer Drive house owned by the city, has elected to purchase his own home in Beverly Hills or its surrounding area. Councilmember John Mirisch opposed the motion.

As per the employee agreement signed by Kolin and the City, the City guarantees Kolin a low-interest loan if he decides to purchase a house within a 10 mile radius of Beverly Hills City Hall. The maximum loan would be for up to $1.6 million or the appraised value of the home, to be determined by an appraisal satisfactory to the city or obtained at the city's cost. The loan would have an interest rate of 3 percent for the first 10 years and 3.25 percent thereafter, which Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association Executive Director Kris Vosburgh said is considerably lower than any resident could expect to get. The loan is based on a 30-year term. The City Council decided to offer Kolin a loan up to $1.6 million, Beverly Hills Chief Financial Officer Scott Miller said. "I think that's what the City Council thought the value of a home in Beverly Hills was," Miller said. "I know that the city managers home that we own was valued at approximately $1.5 million."

Kolin's current home on South La Peer is owned by the city after its previous owner City Manager Rod Wood retired. The city has not made any decisions on what to do with this house, Miller said. After it is re-appraised, the council will have a better idea of the best way they can make money off of it. "We'll bring the council several options," Miller said. "One of them is [to] keep the house and lease it until times get better, or just sell it. But obviously the city council isn't going to want to sell it for a loss."

International City/County Management Association (ICMA) Regional Director Dave Mora said low-interest city loans occur in areas where the cost of housing is very high and there is the expectation that the City Manager live in the city. "Loans depend completely on the cost of housing in the community," Mora said. "I'd assume what you're looking at for housing costs in Beverly Hills is above average. It's really a marketplace situation."

Vosburgh said the only other example of a city giving a loan likes this that he could think of was the City of Bell. "I'm not saying it's illegal, I'm just saying that's the only other one that comes to mind," Vosburgh said. "That's a phenomenal amount of money."

People who receive a $274,999 annual salary like Kolin does, should be able to provide for their own housing, Vosburgh said.

"I'm not saying it's unique," Vosburgh said. "I'm just saying in this economic climate, it's not the kind of thing the taxpayers can afford to do for their employees."

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING:

DATE: October 14, 2010

TIME: 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard

LOCATION: Council Meeting Room 280A
Beverly Hills City Hall
455 North Rexford Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

The Planning Commission of the City of Beverly Hills, at its REGULAR meeting on Thursday, October 14, 2010, will hold a public hearing beginning at 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard to consider:

A request for a Conditional Use Permit to allow a new, 37,129 square foot exercise club (Equinox Fitness Club) to be located at 9465 Wilshire Boulevard. Operation of an exercise club does not require issuance a Conditional Use Permit; however, an exercise club may not be located on the ground floor of any building located within the Business Triangle, occupy more than 25 feet of ground-floor street frontage within the Pedestrian Oriented Area, nor have any windows that allow exercise areas to be viewed from the street without the issuance of a Conditional Use Permit. The proposed exercise club would be located within the Business Triangle and occupy a portion of the ground floor of the building, occupy more than 25 feet of ground-floor street frontage within the Pedestrian Oriented Area, and would have windows that allow exercise areas to be viewed from the street. Therefore, a Conditional Use Permit is required for the abovementioned aspects of the project.

In addition to the request to allow a portion of the exercise club to be located on the ground floor of the building and have exercise areas visible from the street, the applicant requests a Conditional Use Permit to allow a shared parking arrangement between the exercise club and existing offices within the building. The Planning Commission may issue a Conditional Use Permit to allow up to 50% of the required parking for the exercise club to be satisfied through a shared parking arrangement if it can be demonstrated that sufficient parking is available and that the exercise club operates at different peak hours than those of the existing office uses within the building.

This project has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The project qualifies for a Class 1 Categorical Exemption for operational changes within an existing commercial facility, and the project has been determined not to have a significant environmental impact and is exempt from the provisions of CEQA.

Any interested person may attend the meeting and be heard or present written comments to the Commission.

According to Government Code Section 65009, if you challenge the Commission's action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

If there are any questions regarding this notice, please contact Ryan Gohlich, Associate Planner in the Planning Division at 310.285.1194, or by email at rgohlich@beverlyhills.org. Copies of the applications, plans, and Categorical Exemption are on file in the Community Development Department, and can be reviewed by any interested person at 455 North Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

million is the maximum amount Kolin can take out for the loan and he doesn't have to use it all if he can find a house for cheaper.

"[$1.6 million] is limit that we were comfortable doing," Delshad said. "We're staying away from anything that would look like people in [the City of] Bell or anything. We're very much aware of that and we want to make sure that we don't have excessive compensation. This is a loan, not excessive compensation."

Delshad said the loan to Kolin is not a gift. Kolin currently pays a mortgage and payments on a house in Santa Rosa, where he was city manager before he was hired in Beverly Hills.

"He's a special case," Delshad said. "He could not sell his house [in Santa Rosa] so he could not have the amount of money that was needed for a down payment or another loan. We tried to help him out, it's not a gift at all."

While Mirisch said he felt Kolin has been doing a good job, in light of lower-paid employees being forced to take furloughs this kind of perks are no longer financially appropriate.

"The whole paradigm of how cities are run and financed needs to be looked at," Mirisch said. "I believe it needs to start from the top. Some of these benefits that have been common, we really should rethink. Jeff's salary is not a secret, he's very well compensated and I feel uncomfortable with the benefit of a $1.6 million loan."

Miller said Beverly Hills is not the only city to provide loans to their city managers as incentive for them to live within the city they serve, which is not a requirement but is generally preferred by the city councils.

"There's several cities that do this especially in areas where the cost of housing is extremely high and the city councils require their city managers to live in town," Miller said. "This is not unusual."

The deal agreed to by the City Council, however, would not require Kolin to live in Beverly Hills, just within a 10 mile radius of City Hall.

Culver City offers three different kinds of housing compensation to their city manager. Under the relocation and temporary housing assistance provision, Culver City reimbursed City Manager John Nachbar

BHUSD presidents and principals wine and dine

Principals, Assistant Principals, Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, BHUSD Board of Education members and PTA presidents gathered Wednesday, September 29 for the Presidents and Principals evening at Wolfgang's Steakhouse. The PTA Council organizes the annual event as an opportunity for socializing in a relaxed setting, said PTA Council President Monique Gibbons.

"When the principals see each other, they're generally working on an issue with the district administration," Gibbons said. "When the PTA presidents see each other, we're working on the PTA. It's a nice relaxing evening and I think any sort of team building is beneficial. Even if I don't play to call a particular principal, I think it helps us to know who they are."

for the moving expenses of moving his household from Overland Park, Kansas to Culver City and gave Nachbar a $20,000 net payment for temporary housing assistance. Culver City also offered Nachbar a loan for his housing.

"If [Nachbar] purchases a house within Culver City, he can get a low-interest loan for up to 90 percent of the purchase price from the city," Culver City Chief Financial Officer Jeff Muir said.

In Santa Monica, the city manager is offered loan for up to $1.3 million with an interest rate of 3.27 percent paid off over up to 30 years. City Manager Rod Gould only used $1 million of the loan. No matter how much is left on the loan, after Gould stops working in Santa Monica he has two years to pay it all back.

Smaller houses in Beverly Hills sell for around $2 million while homes in Culver City are sold for approximately $600,000 to $800,000 with houses in Santa Monica selling for over $1 million, but are on average cheaper.

Your hesitance belies any evidence of leadership. You chose to ignore the facts - not only that no resident or business person in Beverly Hills will be benefited by moving the subway station one block in Century City--but that your colleagues at the School Board voted unanimously to oppose these "alternative routes"; that there will be immediate loss of flexibility to the District in school modernization; that no expert, staff, EIR consultant or anyone else can guaranty that there won't be noise, vibration, seismic or geological effects on students, teachers and homeowners; that no expert, staff, consultant or anyone else can guaranty that there won't be construction defects and accidents as there have been numerous times recently of major impact;

City Council refuses to declare definitive opinion on subway route

The City Council decided Tuesday they will not go on record as opposing the Westside Subway Linden or Lasky route that will tunnel under Beverly High because there was not a unanimous vote. But the Council did unanimously agree that the their preferred local alternative is the Santa Monica Boulevard route.

Vice Mayor Barry Brucker and Councilmember's Nancy Krasne and that your constituents' property values near the tunneling would be devastated during at least the pre-construction period; and on and on. Your staff and their consultants can say anything they want to you, but they simply CANNOT refute the foregoing.

Your lack of leadership in the face of all these facts, and your need to wait and wait and wait, is astounding.

By the way, Mr. Mayor, if your Committee's charge and actions were only to support 30/10, then why did they show up at numerous Council and School Board and Chamber meetings urging everyone they could talk to not to take a position against the Linden and Lasky routes and to wait and wait and wait. What did any of that have to do with their only charge--30/10?

Superintendent Dick Douglas, Tommy Lasorda and Hawthorne Principal Toni Staser

Former Dodgers Manager Lasorda speaks to Hawthorne about pursuing dreams

Vice President of the Dodgers Organization and former Dodgers Manager Tommy Lasorda spoke at Hawthorne on Monday. He spoke to two assemblies full of students, teachers and staff about the importance of respecting parents and teachers and the importance of dreaming big.

Lasorda came to Hawthorne because of a social studies assignment first-grade teacher Stephanie Lehrer gave her first-grade class.

"I have this social studies assignment that is basically on community helpers and occupations," Lehrer said. "The homework assignment was sent out to all the parents and asked them if they would like to come to class to talk about what they do for a living or if they have any family or friends that might want to speak."

Lehrer's student Miles Platt's father, Ben, works for the National Baseball League. By chance, Ben had lunch with Lasorda on the day he received the note about his son's assignment and asked Lasorda if he wanted to speak to the first grade class. Lasorda decided instead of speaking to just one class, he wanted to speak to the entire school.

"[Lasorda is] very graciously doing that for us," Lehrer said. "He's quite an inspiration."

Lehrer said she hopes Lasorda, and other parents, coming to speak will show students that they can be more than just doctors or lawyers.

"[The assignment is for students] to know their potential about what they can do one day and to realize there's a lot more in the world than their own small environment," Lehrer said.

Hawthorne principal Toni Staser said the assemblies were wonderful. Lasorda spoke at assemblies for both the middle school students and the first through fifth grade.

"At each assembly, [Lasorda's] speech addressed the importance of students having dreams, working towards their goals, the importance of education, and having a winning spirit," Staser said. "He is a wonderful role model--having followed his dreams through hard work and determination."

"Lively subway route hearing at Roxbury Park" [Issue# 574]

Dear Mayor Delshad and Dr. Brien:

I cannot tell you how disappointed I am--as will be hundreds and hundreds of residents and your constituents, when they hear that you refused to oppose the Linden alternative and the Lasky alternative when you had the opportunity to do so on Tuesday.

I am afraid you will find that your ill-advised positions may halt the entire subway project, if--as I believe they will--the entire rest of the City rises up and continues to oppose the subway entirely if the Linden or Lasky routes are chosen. And please understand, we WILL make our voices heard loudly in Washington D.C.

You wanted to wait until the DEIR came out; you did; it came out weeks ago; and you now want to wait still longer. You serve neither your City nor your constituents well in this regard.

Beverly Hills Bar Association Leadership Installed

The Beverly Hills Bar Association's key leadership for its 2010-11 fiscal year – including President Stephen L. Raucher, with Reuben, Raucher & Blum, and his cabinet – were installed by Presiding Justice Dennis Perluss of the California Court of Appeal at the bar association's annual Installation and Awards Dinner on Tuesday, September 28 at the Four Seasons Hotel in Los Angeles.

The keynote speaker was André Birotte, Jr., US Attorney for the Central District of California, who leads the largest United States Attorney's Office outside the District of Columbia. Birotte discussed the day-to-day operations involved with serving some 17 million Californians, and his goals for his division.

Several BHBA awards were presented for outstanding service. Proceeds from the Installation and Awards Dinner support the educational and community outreach programs of the BHBA. The Beverly Hills Bar Association, serving the Los Angeles region since 1931, is the sixth largest bar association in California with more than 4,000 members. Its mission is to serve its members, to lead the legal profession and to advocate for justice in the community.

John Mirisch agreed that the only route they would support was the Santa Monica Boulevard option and they openly opposed the other routes. Mayor Jimmy Delshad and Councilmember Willie Brien wanted to wait for more information before they took a stance.

Because the city has not been able to come to a consensus about what their standpoint will be, Metro has extended the comment period for the city to October 22. Public comments are still due to Metro no later than October 18.

Southwest Homeowner Association President Ken Goldman said that among all of the other reasons that Beverly Hills residents have brought up for opposing the subway coming through residential areas and under the high school, such as children safety and construction issues, there is another reason for opposing the Constellation routes. If a Beverly Hills resident has a house up for sale right now, the prospect of a subway being built near the house will keep it from being sold.

"[Choosing the Linden or Lasky routes will have] a drastic affect on pre-construction home values, of homes that it goes under or near," Goldman said. "In the event that a so-called locally preferred alternative is adopted and the Lasky or Linden alternative is adopted, as you know at best if Mayor [Antonio] Villaraigosa's 30/10 plan is adopted, the subway will be finished in 2019-2020 if it's not adopted and funded by congress, that completion date is 2035."

Vice Mayor Barry Brucker said that while the subway is important to Beverly Hills and the surrounding communities, he has specifically seven issues with the two alternative routes. These issues include the safety and security under the high school and the impact if Metro needed to bore holes or dig trenches, in case of a problem, would be significantly higher than on Santa Monica Boulevard. Also, Brucker noted a discrepancy between what Westside Subway Extension Project Director David Mieger said in the Roxbury Park Metro presentation and the draft EIS/EIR.

"The school district had mentioned that they are in the middle of their bond measure analysis and looking at all options for rebuilding the high school, which may include subterranean parking," Brucker said. "Interestingly, [Mieger] mentioned the tunneling would be between 95 and 125 feet under Beverly High. However the [draft EIS/EIR] section 4.125 states that underneath the district office it would be approximately 60 ft and underneath the high school it would be approximately 72 feet."

Delshad and Brien decided to wait until the October 19 meeting, when they are scheduled to receive reports on further information seismic and geological studies from staff and consultants.

Delshad said that they will decide if they are going to come out against the Linden and Lasky routes in two weeks when the rest of the comments from staff and engineers have been received.

"We'll have more knowledge to make a final decision of what the position of the city council as a whole will be," Delshad said. "We thought that it's not at this point proper to take that all or nothing at all vote, which some of the councilmember's stand for. I don't think we have all the knowledge and all the information until our city staff gathers all of that then we make a decision. We don't want it to be emotional, we want it to be based on fact and information.

BHUSD reevaluates bullying policy after incidents in the district

Beverly Vista parents Jennifer Terrell Schwartz, Hillary Kornbluth, Marti Ornest and Joy Zaki came to speak at the open session of an emergency Board of Education meeting Tuesday, about their concerns over bullying in the BHUSD. The board decided to look at the issue of bullying at their next meeting, October 11, to attempt discuss how the district can both punish students who bully and assist those who are bullied.

"I've asked for this to be on the agenda for our meeting [October 11] to go over the existing policy and we'll see if there's something that we need to address in our current policy and see if there is something we need to add," Board of Education President Steven Fenton said. "We take this very seriously."

As it currently stands, the district bullying policy does not clearly state what the consequences are for bullying. The policy says, "students who violate district rules and regulations may be subject to discipline including but not limited to suspension, expulsion, transfer to alternative program in accordance with board policy and administrative regulation and contact with local law enforcement as appropriate." But the district does not define what it considers to be bullying nor does it give specific consequences if bullying is to occur.

Fenton said the board is going to look at the policy and see where it can be changed.

"The policy needs to be tightened," Fenton said.

Terrell Schwartz said in light of the suicides that have been going on around the country caused by bullying, the district needs to create parity among all five schools in regards to the policy.

"The violations need to be clearly defined with respective reprimands," Terrell Schwartz said. "With the media [covering the tragedy of this issue], I want to make sure that we have a clear definition of the policy as it stands in our district. The district needs to have a coordinated and unified plan for dealing with discipline and bullying issues."

My recommendations for state office

And a big sell, and two heroes

By Rudy Cole

Did you notice the missing person in this election? The Republicans have an incumbent governor, Arnold Schwarzenegger, but most of their candidates for office seem to have never heard his name.

Arnold first won election, at least in part, because former Governor Gray Davis could not find his way out of the Sacramento deadlock and pass a state budget, and was recalled. Now, this governor and this state legislature, frustrated by the same archaic two thirds vote requirement for budget approval, are setting state records for living without a budget.

Politically, what has happened to our governor in this election is indeed bizarre. His own party is not running on his record or even seeking his endorsements, and the Democrats are not attacking him. I suppose being ignored is something Davis might even have preferred.

Maybe this could all change today or Friday when the legislature and the governor finally unveil a likely compromise budget.

Despite all the possible issues that should have motivated voter interest, this election cycle has, mostly, laid a gigantic political egg. If you know where the candidates stand on the two thirds legislative vote requirement, funding for schools, environmental protection, creating new jobs and new industries or even repairing our decaying infrastructure, you are in a very special minority.

Will this election be remembered because Meg Whitman's $120 million plus spending toppled all and every record for spending for governor in this or any other state's history? The Republicans actually picked a fairly moderate nominee in Whitman, despite her strident appeal to the party's right flank during the primary. But if she has a vision for the state's future, it has been blurred by her totally negative attack mode style campaign.

If the voters of California don't know Jerry Brown by now, they never will. No person has held more offices and been more visible than Brown, not even Hiram Johnson the Republican reformer who was both governor and United States Senator.

However, even his campaign has some misty messages. What does he mean when he argues that many decisions should be left to local government? To do that would mean repealing Jarvis (Proposition 13) which made the state the primary source for local school revenues and drastically limited local governments taxing ability. A good idea, but not likely to happen in our lifetimes. What we need is state constitutional reform, removal of the two thirds legislature vote rule, modification of term limits and an economic recovery program that boldly embraces environmental challenges.

Negative campaigning, by both Brown and Whitman, may not repulse the voters, but in balance, Brown is clearly the most experienced, the most visionary and the most competent of the two. Of course, he has made some big mistakes in his long career, but there has never, ever been one touch or allegation of corruption.

Based on his extensive resume, the voters know Brown and his record of leadership. He will make education a top priority, and our schools are in deep trouble. Our national ranking is a disgrace. From kindergarten to our top universities, how we fund and reform education will also have dramatic impacts on jobs and the economy. Our economy has always been more robust when our education leads rather than falls behind the rest of the nation.

From support of law enforcement to the environment, Brown has evolved into more of a pragmatist with a responsible vision than an ideologue with too rigid a perception of reality tests. As he says, this is the right time in his life and in our state's for a new start.

Whitman could have excited us with an outsider's approach to our challenges, instead she offered nothing other than nearly hysterical attacks on her opponent. Yes, she needed to keep her right wing intact, but once she prevailed in the right leaning primary, we would have welcomed real answers to real problems and not all of the far too obvious distortions of Brown's record.

For Governor: Jerry Brown.

The Senate race is even less informative, however the choice is really more obvious. Carly Fiorina did not move from her more extreme ultra-conservative primary campaign to a more moderate stance in the final, as was expected. Her appeal has been a strident message to the far right, and it has left the voters with no real choice.

How ludicrous to make the most important issue of the election a request by Barbara Boxer to be called "Senator" instead of "Madam" or "Mam."

Boxer is tough, no question. Probably this style would not be as much of an issue if she was a male candidate, but her strength of feeling does serve our state. She is uncompromising on the environment, and this has made her a very big target of the special interests, mostly the oil and utility groups she has long battled.

Interestingly, up to now there has been no effort to bring the new darling of the far right, Sarah Palin, to California. Just maybe it would not work to have the former Alaska governor stand on the shores of Santa Barbara and exclaim, as she did prior to BP and the Gulf implosion, "Drill Baby Drill," her cry for support of off shore oil exploration.

We know Boxer, she fights hard, but she does it for the right reasons for all of California.

Barbara Boxer for United States Senator.

Before my few Republican friends rush to their email tools, I have a surprise: My choice for state attorney general is Republican Steve Cooley.

No, I don't agree with him on a whole litany of issues, but he has demonstrated a dedication to a fair, honest approach to law enforcement that has made his office a model of integrity and efficiency. He has been an excellent district attorney and he will be a fair, balanced and open attorney general. His opponent, San Francisco District Attorney, Kamala Harris, has been far too divisive in her own county/city even though her position on some issues may be commendable.

We know Cooley and we trust him. I especially approve of his tough enforcement of the Brown (Open Government Act) and the work of his unit on public integrity. No, not every Brown Act violation needs prosecution, but just being vigilant and responsive have made local government more aware of the fact that they are being watched.

For Attorney General: Steve Cooley.

Next week: opinions on the other races and some state propositions.

A REALLY BIG SELL

By now you have probably heard about the sale of the former Robinsons-May property, or 9900 Wilshire, as it is now called. Not since the Indians were conned in the sale of Manhattan has there been such a fluctuation of property values.

When our own, and highly regarded, real estate investment and management company, New Pacific, purchased the site for 33.5 million and turned it around for a reported cash sale of $500 million to Britain's young and innovative Candy brothers in only a few years, the financial community went into deep shock. Then, when the Candy's primary lender, an Icelandic bank took a dive, their real estate empire imploded and 9900 sought bankruptcy protection. Soon the lenders, led by Mexico's Carlos Slim, reportedly the world's richest person, began looking for a buyer, despite earlier reports Slim might have his own development scheme.

After weeks of rumors and speculation, including the possibility that the well respected Beverly Hilton owner, Beny Alagem, might make an offer for the property, Tuesday it was finally announced that the Hong Kong private equity conglomerate, Joint Ventures International, was the successful bidder.

(The same company now owns the Beverly Wilshire Hotel.)

The reported purchase price: close to $150 million, which means the lenders took a $350 million shower.

How a bidding war, with many possible buyers, remained so out of the news, is interesting. We heard rumors, including one that about $30 million was the hoped for sale price, but not even our Chamber of Commerce had an inkling of what was really taking place.

According to our sources, the lenders did consider offers that would have required serious changes in the entitlements. Some interests were indeed proposing a major, resort type hotel and convention center. However, Bob Tanenbaum, president of the North Homeowner Association reportedly said, "if that happens, we will have 500 new members."

What the new owners are planning, at least for now, is a "prestigious, upscale housing condominium project," with no hotel elements. That, plus some limited commercial, is what the city approved.

Not quite accurate in some of the news reports is that there was ever a formal proposal by the Candy brothers to convert their project to include any kind of hotel. They did float that idea in some public comments, but that was never presented to the city for approval or even consideration. Converting back to commercial would have and remains, very difficult and unlikely.

We had the sale story Monday, one day before it broke, and had the able Anita Zusman Eddy, economic director of the Chamber of Commerce, confirm it for us, but alas no publication until today. Yes, we still love scoops and exclusives.

TWO HEROES

Speaking of able and helpful people, one of our most competent city staffers, Cheryl Burnett, who handled press relations for the city, is leaving us to become communications director for Los Angeles County Supervisor Don Knabe.

Although most of her prior experience was in the private sector, Burnett quickly became the trusted and respected press contact at city hall. Every reporter that ever worked with her admired her professional skills, and most important, her sense of personal integrity. When she gave the media information, we knew it could be believed.

During her tenure, the city's information flow became far more interesting and newsworthy. Not one to place herself ahead of her client, in this case the city, she did her job professionally, with great skill and never self-promoting. We will miss her.

I guess you had to be there to believe it, but our diminutive former mayor Dr.

Charles Aronberg, not only performed a life saving rescue job recently, but managed to lift a 250 pound plus man off the floor.

Father of the paramedics program in Beverly Hills, it was somewhat ironic that Dr. Aronberg, an eye surgeon, had to use emergency skills to save the life of a restaurant patron in Santa Monica.

Dr. Aronberg was having an early dinner with two grandchildren, Leo, almost three, and Kate, just past one year, when a patron at Fish Enterprise in Santa Monica collapsed, and fell, violently choking.

Somehow, Dr. Aronberg managed to lift him and apply the Heimlich method, saving the heavy guys life. Interestingly, bigger waiters and restaurant staff simply watched, but did not help in the lifting.

When it was over, and the man was obviously going to survive, another patron, asked: "Is there a doctor in the house?"

Thanks to Chuck's daughter, Cindy, for the story. Of course, I well remember when Chuck took a nasty hit, and hard fall during a Police Celebrity-Basketball game, bringing groans from the audience, only to see Chuck immediately jump up and chase an opponent. Dr. Aronberg was on the police team.

Rudy Cole served for eight years as a member and chair of the city's Recreation & Parks Commission. He was also President of the Greystone Foundation and served on three other city committees. Rudy can be reached at: Rudy@bhweekly.com.

Beverly High Assistant Principal Chuck Kloes said he encountered two students last week who were found bullying through texting. Although this is difficult to prove, it is punishable under the bullying policy.

"Kids are using texts to be critical of another student," Kloes said. "The only way you can [can discipline the person responsible] is when students save the texts. We're really clamping down on that when we can catch them."

With parents pushing bullying back to the forefront of the board's agenda, Board of Education member Brian Goldberg said he feels the board can do more to combat bullying and that he wants to be proactive.

"In 2009, we passed a revision to the bullying policy that includes cyber bullying, but there is more that we can do," Goldberg said. "[We need to give the] kids the tools to deal with bullying. Bullying doesn't happen just in elementary, middle and high school but in life. So, the more we can equip our students to cope and deal with bullying in a proactive and positive way, the better it will serve them beyond BHUSD."

Namvar pleads not guilty to wire fraud
Iranian-Jewish businessman Ezri Namvar pled not guilty Monday to charges that he stole $23 million from clients who gave his company, Namco Financial Exchange, money from real estate transactions.

Namco Financial Exchange is a 1031 company who holds onto money in between real estate transactions so the investor will not have to pay taxes on it while transferring the money from one property to another.

After being forced into involuntary bankruptcy in 2009, Namvar was indicted on five counts of wire fraud by a grand jury Tuesday, September 21.

As reported in the Weekly, Issue #574, The five counts of wire fraud are based on transactions that Namvar could not complete in 2008, said Namvar's defense attorney Marc Harris.

"The allegation indictment says for five of his clients in 2008, he took money in from them after they sold their first property," Harris said. "When they found the other property, because of the financial meltdown of Namco and Ezri and all of this investments, he didn't have the money. He had taken it, put it into other things and the money wasn't there when these people called upon it and they couldn't complete the second transaction and lost their money."

A. David Youssefeyeh, a local Iranian Jewish attorney who since December 2008 has been advising nearly 20 Iranian Jewish creditors with claims against Namvar, said he can't begin to anticipate what the outcome of Namvar's trial will be but hopes that Namvar will find a way to pay his creditors back.

"What I hope will happen is that he will repatriate the money he's been hiding overseas and use that to pay his creditors," Youssefeyeh said. "He has had extensive dealings with Israel. In fact, at the time that his company was going bankrupt, he was offering creditors a condo in one of his buildings in Israel [instead of getting their money back]."

Namvar, who is out on a $300,000 bail, is scheduled to return to court for a status conference November 1.

Charlotte Spadaro found not guilty on municipal charges

Former Beverly Hills Mayor Charlotte Spadaro was found not guilty by Superior Court Judge Michele Levine on 30 violations of the Riverside Municipal Code. Spadaro was originally charged with 242 counts of municipal violation but Levine only allowed 30 to go to trial in the "interest of justice."

Charlotte Spadaro

Riverside Municipal Code 8.12.010 requires all dogs more than four months old to be licensed and have rabies vaccinations. During a inspection of Spadaro's

Jasmine Street property in Riverside on February 10, 2009, the Department of Animal Services found more than 240 dogs on the property who were more than four months but did not meet the requirements.

Director of Animal Control for Riverside Robert Miller testified that he allowed the property to be operated as a kennel, exempt from the requirement for individ-

BEVERLY HILLS' FIRST LADY

The Weekly's interview with Lonnie Delshad.

By Marla Schevker

Lonnie Delshad is the wife of Mayor Jimmy Delshad. Always outspoken, she spoke to us Tuesday in a Weekly exclusive.

Tell us about yourself

I lived in Israel until I was five and my mother became ill, so my parents decided to move back to Chicago so she could get better medical attention. They were both Americans, both true Zionists and had settled in Israel in 1930 and were there from 1930 to 1952. We all have very strong ties to Israel, the peace process and what's been going on there.

I'm involved in a lot of various Jewish activities. We're involved with the American Israel Public Affairs Committee and another organization called Citizens Empowerment Center in Israel that is trying to change the political laws in Israel to make it more of a representative democratic society than how it is now, but that's a long term kind of venture. We're also involved in a few of the Jewish hospitals in Israel. Going to visit Israel is like going to visit home for us. My parents have since passed on, but now it's Jimmy and I passing that onto our children so they too will have a strong connection to Israel.

Tell us about your family

I'm married to [Beverly Hills Mayor] Jimmy Delshad and we've been married for 42 years. We have two children, a daughter Debra who is married to Cedric [Banks] and they have a two year old son named Jonah. We have a son Daniel who is married to Caroline and they do not have children yet. I don't want to push but I want more grandchildren. Our children went to Sinai Akiba Jewish Day School until the 8th grade. Since we were living in Beverly Hills both of our children decided they wanted to go to Beverly high. They did and did very well. I feel going to the high school was a wonderful experience. It was a way to integrate them coming out of a Jewish day school into the public school world. I think their experience with a public high school made their college experience even better. Both of the kids went onto college at USC and graduated. Debra has a law degree from Loyola Law School and right now is working in the music industry and Daniel is our little entrepreneur until I had Debra. That's when Jimmy said 'I'd really like you to be a stay-at-home mom.' At that time we were young and we were able to do it. I think in today's world not a lot of young families can do that. At the time, we lived in Beverlywood. That's where we purchased our first home and we were there for 17 years. Then we moved into Beverly Hills, since we were thinking about sending the kids to Beverly High, and we've been in Beverly Hills for almost 20 years. I love Beverly Hills. I feel safe. It's not because of Jimmy's involvement in the political field but living in Beverly Hills, being able to walk everywhere, having the best police department and having the best fire department in the world.

I was a preschool teacher and I taught school

What is it like being a grandmother?

Being a parent is like planting the seeds and watching the tree grow and being a grandparent, now is watching the fruit grow on the trees. The times that I spend are not ever enough, it is such a special time in my life and I truly feel blessed that I'm around and that I can see it and experience it. It's like having candy and you can't have enough of the candy to get rid of that sweet tooth. It's delicious. I try to see him at least three or four times a week and even if it's for an hour a day, I see him as much as I can. I probably could have had four or five children. I was blessed to have one of each. At that point, Jimmy said let's quit because we have two healthy children and we felt really blessed. It gives me energy. If there's a cloudy day, playing with my grandson, makes the gray skies go away, the rain go away and the sun come out. It's like watching a young child explore all over again and to see what he likes and where he'll go and how does he experience life in a younger form. Whether it's kicking the ball to him or whether it's rolling the ball or hearing him giggle as he's able to kick the ball straight or riding his bike for the first time. It's all these little experiences that I can't get enough of.

How did you meet Jimmy?

I met Jimmy at UCLA. I had graduated from Northwestern University in Chicago and I was doing my student teaching at UCLA. I was a part of a very large Jewish organization. Jimmy asked me about it and I said 'why don't you come up for the weekend, we have a weekend retreat.' He did, and then we didn't see each other for a while. We met again, two years later, started dating, and I guess the rest is history.

What did the Jewish organization do?

It was a Zionist organization, called Student Zionist Organization, I don't know if it's still in existence. It was one that supported Israel and they also had various activities, I think it was a good way for Jewish students to keep in touch, get together and to be involved. They also had trips going to Israel. I went to Israel through the organization and that was my first trip going on my own since I had left Israel when I was five. I fell in love all over again. It's like there was a ual dog licenses. Miller declined to comment stating the Riverside Animal Control is still dealing with Spadaro on a variety of other issues.

Under Riverside Municipal Code section 8.12.100, dogs kept at kennels are not required to be individually license.

As reported in the Weekly, Issue #571 former Beverly Hills Mayor Charlotte Spadaro pled not guilty to 16 misdemeanor counts of animal cruelty, Thursday August 19. A continuance was placed on Spadaro's trial readiness conference, originally scheduled for September 29, to December 1.

Spadaro asked for this postponement because she is currently acting as her own attorney and needs more time to prepare her argument and decide if she is going to get another attorney, Riverside Attorney Public Information Officer John Hall said.

These charges are from April 23, when the Riverside County Department of Animal Services rescued 24 dogs, a cat and four kittens from Spadaro's property on Myers Street in Riverside.

If found guilty of the misdemeanor charges Spadaro faces one year in jail and a $20,000 fine per count, although the punishments could potentially be served concurrently, said Hall.

Riverside City Attorney Greg Priamos declined to comment.

BHHS Football Team Loses To Canyon

A failure to capitalize on scoring opportunities and make stops on third downs led to the Beverly High football team's first loss of the season, according to coach Donald Paysinger.

"We played well," Paysinger said after the 31-21 loss to Canyon Country Canyon in a nonleague game at Nickoll Field Friday night. "We let one slip away from us."

The Cowboys (4-0) took a 17-0 lead on a 28-yard field goal by Mohammad Roknipoor with 37 seconds left in the first quarter, a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Jonathan Jerozal with 7:16 left in the second quarter and Jerozal's 17-yard touchdown pass to Drew Wolitarsky with 4:20 remaining in the second quarter.

The Normans (3-1) responded with quarterback Josh Newman's one-yard run 1:12 before halftime and Newman's 47-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Countryman with nine seconds left in the first half.

However, Beverly Hills was unable to get any closer than three points. Canyon scored the only touchdown of the third quarter on Darius Rudolph's 67-yard run.

The Normans were again able to pull within three on Newman's five-yard pass to Countryman with 8:33 left in the fourth quarter, but the Cowboys scored 2:03 later on a 13-yard run by Rudolph, who ran for 175 yards on 23 carries.

Newman completed 19 of 35 passes for 324 yards.

"He was able to find the open receiver and hit him," Paysinger said. "The offensive line played well. They didn't give up a sack and gave Josh time to throw the ball."

In his first game since undergoing off-season shoulder surgery, Countryman caught five passes for a team-high 140 yards, while teammate Daniel Jack caught a team-high six passes for 82 yards.

Frank Brown rushed for 110 yards on 19 carries for the Normans, who outgained Canyon, 475 yards to 431.

Jerozal completed 16 of 21 passes for 247 yards for the Cowboys, who were ranked sixth in the Southern Section Northern Division poll released Monday.

Beverly Hills is scheduled to play host to Mission Hills Alemany Friday at 7 p.m. at Nickoll Field in its final nonleague game of the season.

"The key is to try to slow down the passing game and continue to play well on offense," Paysinger said.

The Warriors (5-0) were ranked fifth in the Pac-5 Division poll released Monday. Alemany averaged 42.75 points in its past four games after opening the season with a 20-17 victory over Oaks Christian. The Normans are ranked 10th in the Western Division poll.

Paysinger was named last week as ABC7/NFL Coach of the Week, which includes a $1,000 grant from the NFL for the school's football program.

Coaches are nominated by e-mails from viewers. The recipients are selected based on a variety of factors, including service to their community and the support they provide their teams, according to Cheryl Fair, ABC7's vice president and news director.

The award was announced on a story shown on the station's Saturday night college football postgame show.

Paysinger said he has been contacted by some people he had not heard from in years as a result of the story about the award.

I think someday Jimmy and I would love to have a home in Israel and use it as a place where we go for three months of the year and come back to the States. It's very gratifying. I think that Jimmy would definitely get involved in the Israeli Government to see what he could do, whether it would be helping in the PR or whatever. I would get involved in teaching English in the school system. I just think that's what it's all about. I think that's why Jimmy became involved, whether it was being a president of Sinai Temple and running for office in Beverly Hills. I felt that we needed to give back to the community and to the world. It's part of who we are. There's a Jewish expression called "Tikun Olam," we all need to repair the world. I just feel like if I have two pieces of bread I'm willing to give one of my pieces of bread away.

What does it mean to you to be a Zionist?

To me, being a Zionist, it's really kind of who I am. Someday I would love, if I can't live there full time, to live there part-time and be a part of the Israeli people. It's going back to my homeland; it's supporting it in whatever I can. If I can't be there then I want to support the way I can whether it's through all different types of Jewish organizations. Whether it's volunteer work or giving money, I think that we all can be involved.

I think it's important for us to make sure that there is always a homeland for the Jewish people. That people can come from wherever they are and have a place to live and live in peace and not be afraid to be Jewish. Right now, we're living in a time where right now there is a high terrorist alert. It makes me sad that people are afraid to travel. There have been times that American Jews have stopped going to Israel and it's really the Christian community that has supported Israel 150 percent.

Israel to me is a spiritual homeland that whether you are Jewish or not, I think it's a safe country to be in or to be able to walk around and feel the history that has gone on. You don't need to be Jewish to have that feeling.

What has it been like for you to have your husband serve as mayor?

He's been mayor twice and I think each time, it's been a journey. It's been a very exciting journey and I'm extremely proud of him. I feel by Jimmy being mayor they also have me because I like going to a lot of the different activities and events that he goes to, they have two ambassadors in the community and I think that's a plus. I think being mayor has been an incredible experience for him. It's like for the first time being the first Persian-American to be elected [in Beverly Hills] was a tremendous accomplishment and it just keeps getting better. He wanted to make sure that there were certain things that needed to be accomplished, whether it was the smart city initiative or to create the health and safety commission or doing the 9.02.10 activity and hooking it into the taste of Beverly Hills. I think that he's trying to trademark Beverly Hills as much as he can and to bring more money into Beverly Hills from visitors as we experienced in the taste of Beverly Hills and the 9.02.10. The 9.02.10 sold out and the subsequent events were attended by 80 percent of non residents and 20 percent of residents and I hope that will change next year and the year after. I think our residents need to know about the fabulous event.

I love going to events whether it's the Black and White Ball, the fireman dinner or going to the Maple Counseling Center Crystal Ball. I think all of these events are a part of Beverly Hills and are important places for us to support.

Debra, Cedric and Jonah Banks; Caroline and Daniel Delshad

I attended Team Beverly Hills and I think it was a tremendous experience.

What was it like to be on Team Beverly Hills?

I did it the first year that Jimmy was on city council, eight years ago. It was fabulous. I think that any resident in Beverly Hills should be part of Team Beverly Hills. It shows you the workings of the city that I was not aware of. Whether it's going to the water station, the fire department, restaurants, it's going to parks and recreation; it's covering every part of Beverly Hills and learning more about it. You don't have to pay for it; all you need to do is be a resident. I learned about the water treatment center, I learned how the Fire Department handles certain incidents, I saw how they were able to dust a print in the police department, and we were able to shoot guns in a scenario to see how quick our minds and our eyes could be. We were able to go at that time to the Beverly Wilshire Hotel. We started at the bottom of the hotel which is truly a city within itself and we saw where they do the laundry, where they do some of the cooking, we went through the kitchen and experienced that. We also went up into the penthouse suite where Pretty Woman was filmed. We were able to meet new members in our community. After that, it also teaches you how to become a commissioner.

For me I'd rather be on a commission, but

I say, you know are you sure you know what we're doing here and his answer is always the same, 'yes I love what I'm doing.' As long as he loves what he's doing I will support him 150 percent.

Do you want Jimmy to run again?

I want him to be happy and whatever decision he decides upon, I'll support him.

Do you think Jimmy will run again?

We've discussed it back and forth and I'm not sure. It's his decision. I think within the next few weeks he'll make a decision.

What has it meant to you to be Beverly Hills first lady?

I feel honored and privileged that I was given this opportunity. I wish that I could be more involved within the community whether it would have been to do something but I think I'll do that after Jimmy is no longer mayor. When that time comes, then I'll go into the community. I was involved with Greystone and I felt like I needed to pull out to allow Jimmy not to have any conflicts.

I feel a sense of pride, I feel a sense of tremendous accomplishment, I feel honored, I feel blessed, these are all very positive adjectives of how I feel. This is a dream. Did I ever believe that at the age of 62 that I would be so involved in such a huge city, even though it's a small city, I never dreamt that. Leaving Israel, going to Chicago, being a teacher, being a mother, being a wife, being a friend, being the first lady, that's just the frosting on the cake.

Looking back on the last eight years, what have you learned about yourself?

[I've learned] to be real patient. Because there are times that Jimmy was unavailable to meet me at a certain time so I had to learn to adjust to that or going to various events and not being able to say let's say spend as much time with our friends. But we also have decided that come Friday night, Jimmy is home. We don't go to anymore events on Friday nights unless it's something that is really important or he might stop by and come home and have a Shabbat dinner because that's what's important to us and our family.

It's not necessarily being able to get in touch with him, but knowing I'll see him when he comes home in the evenings. I think it's something that you learn. Jimmy used to travel a lot with his business so I learned to expect it and go with the flow. You just can't always expect that I'm going to have a little buddy to play around with. I get those buddy times when we go away for vacations. That's when I get his undivided attention and that's the best times. It keeps my heart warm until I get the next moment.

What inspires you to be involved in so many charities?

I'm passionate in making sure that our children have a future, whether it's clean, fresh air or it's cleaning up our beaches. I like to go down on Thanksgiving Day and feed the homeless. I like doing those things. I like that I can throw on a pair of jeans and go down and do volunteer work. I like to go and help. I just want to be there to help if I can. I don't need to make a difference in a huge business, I just want to make little steps and I'm real happy with that.

Is it hard to listen when Jimmy gets attacked for his decisions?

It's very hard and I do take it personally and that's why politics is not for me. The worst part is that my children are affected and they take it so personally. Jimmy's got a tougher skin; he's tougher than I am on that part. I think he handles it in a different way. I take it personally and I think that he looks at it as people may not have all the information. There's times that not be part of the politics. That's just not my forte. I've done that when I was president of so many different organizations and charities. It's great to see Jimmy do it and I love watching him. I think he's great and I think he's terrific at it. It's not an easy thing and I'm so proud of him. I haven't even thought about [which one I would join, but] since I'm so involved in so many different charities maybe I'd go on the Charitable Solicitation Commission as my first one. But I'll wait until it's the right time. Right now, I'm just having too much fun watching Jimmy and being a grandparent.

(SOLO PARA USO DE LA CORTE)

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF:
(LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):
NORA GARIBOTTI, an individual
You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos en un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales.

CAN YOU TURN YOUR $1 MILLION IRA INTO $10 MILLION?

If you are over 70 and have accumulated more money in your IRAs and Pensions than you need to live on, Alan Kaye can show you how to create more money for your heirs and favorite charities than you ever anticipated!

At age 70½, people who have IRAs, Pensions and 401k plans are required to take minimum annual distributions that are subject to ordinary income tax. If you don't spend or give that money away, it could be subject to estate taxes as well. After income and estate taxes, those in the highest brackets could be leaving their families less than 1/3 of what they anticipated.

Why bother to make "wise" investments when it is likely that more than half of your accumulated wealth will go to the government instead of your family?

Simple Solutions!

If you have a large amount of money in your IRA, you can gift your annual distribution to your family, using that money to buy a life insurance policy that would create tax-free money for your heirs. In many cases, using the money to buy life insurance could give your heirs more than they would receive after-tax, by continuing to accumulate the funds in their retirement plans.

Assuming that your retirement plan earns a return of 5% annually, you could withdraw that amount without diminishing the principal. One client with a $1 million IRA used his annual distribution to buy $3 million of life insurance to benefit his family. If he doesn't spend the principal, his plan is to leave the balance of his IRA to his own charitable foundation.

Under current law, without life insurance, his $1 million IRA would have to grow to more than $10 million, so that after income and estate taxes, his family could get the same $3 million that life insurance would pay tax-free. What's more, he can now leave more money to charity than he ever expected to.

Why wait for your $1 million retirement plan to grow to $10 million? As president of the Alan Kaye Insurance Agency and vice president of Barry Kaye Associates, Alan Kaye has helped thousands of people meet their goals by creating insurance plans that best satisfy their needs.

If you are over 70 years old and not maximizing the use of your assets, find out how life insurance can provide you with the opportunity to leave more tax-free money for both your heirs and charities. Call for a complimentary consultation and be sure to ask when Alan Kaye's next seminar will be held in your area.
