“Courier letter of the editor: Jan 18, 2011: Douglas vs. Richmond”

Regarding a Letter in the January 14, 2011, Courier, the writer shows no shame indicting [Supt.] Dick Douglas and the Board of Education without foundation. Of course, one must always consider the source of such ramblings.

The Board made the right decision to bring on Douglas, who recently retired from a 10 year stint as Principal and Superintendent in Montecito. Douglas has brought stability and experience in a most difficult period: lawsuits, basic aid, Measure E and changes of management at all levels. And while “new technologies” are important, righting the ship must be a top priority in the near term.

If the letter writer would take a moment to read the District’s newly revised Technology Plan, she would find goals and advances on par with and exceeding most schools.

As to new technologies, Superintendent Douglas has considerable experience presiding over the implementation and integration of educational technologies both in Montecito and at Hawthorne School. In Montecito, where this writer had the opportunity to visit, the use of contemporary technologies, applications and classroom integration were robust.

During the 1990’s and up to Douglas’ untimely and unfortunate departure in 1999, he was instrumental in guiding the expansion of technology at Hawthorne School. Interactive laser disc players and media, mounted TVs in many classrooms, a budding network including servers and early access to the internet are just a few of the initiatives undertaken by Douglas and his staff.

One memorable example of his involvement was the selection of new library software. After reviews and previews by his committee, an application was selected. Unfortunately, it was not approved at the district level. However, many years later that same library application was purchased and installed at all four K-8 schools, an excellent choice! Douglas was ahead of the curve then, give him a chance to do the same now.

The board has renewed its interest in finding a new superintendent, the criteria for which is well established, including “proactive and innovative.” In the meantime, Douglas is the right man for the time.

And please, at least have some respect for bow ties!

Kobor building case goes to court Friday

The ongoing saga with the Kobor building under-construction at the corner of Wilshire and Robertson has taken a turn with the hiring for former three-term Beverly Hills Tom Levyn, who will negotiate on behalf of the developer.

The owners of 8767 Wilshire, the Kobor Family Trust, have brought a legal suit against the city of Beverly Hills, which won't allow the building to be partially converted to medical use, alleging the city is illegally biased against medical use and against the handicapped.

Levyn is the political mentor and campaign chair of Vice Mayor Barry Brucker, who voted against the Kobor medical usage when it came before the Council last. Levyn was an honorary chair of the Re-Elect Barry Brucker campaign.

"It doesn't matter to me who they retain," said Brucker. "I have a lot of friends in Beverly Hills and that holds no bearing on how I make decisions. ... Look at my voting record and look at what I hope is a very high level of integrity, not based on what lawyer they hired."

Brucker voted in the majority against the project when the City Council initially stopped the construction with a 3-2 vote against the proposal. In the event, Brucker changes his vote, the Kobor building will be allowed to have medical facilities in the mixed-use building that had been denied such privileges only last year.

Levyn joins attorney Benjamin Reznick, who is the counsel of record.

The $40-million suit alleges that, "Instead of following its own review standards, City officials impermissibly chose to focus on Petitioner's refusal to pay the City a ransom in the form of parking substantially in excess of City Municipal Code requirements, or some other equally expensive 'public benefit.' City decision-makers also used Petitioner's application to advance their broader policy agendas against certain types of development despite the fact that the City's General Plan and Zoning Code explicitly allow the petitioner's proposed project."

At least one Councilmember disagrees with this categorization.

"It's not a shakedown," said Councilmember John Mirisch. "It's not just about the money; it's about the negative impact on the residential neighborhood."

The City Council denied the building medical usage arguing it will cause traffic congestion and add to a saturation of medical facilities in the area. The city council voted to cap the amount of new or expanded medical usage in commercial zones in the entire city earlier this month. Limiting the amount of medical facilities has been a long-discussed priority of the city council.

"I think what the city did was wrong on many levels, not the least of which is the fact that it clearly discriminated against disabled people," said Reznick, referring in part to a City Council discussion about the impact of use of handicapped placards in vehicles in the city.

The Kobor building is under construction and is now being funded by the Kobor family after its initial financier, City National, pulled out. Allowing medical facilities in the building is the only way to secure a new loan for the construction, Kobor argues.

The planning commission and city council approved the initial plan for a four-story 75,116-square foot building was proposed with 358 parking spaces.

The developer came back later to ask for allowances. In September 2006, the planning commission put restrictions on the building's land use: no medical, no coffee shops and no pharmacy. It also required 21 parking spaces for general public. Council added that the building may have no rooftop usage and must have 51 parking spaces for public, as well as be built in an environmentally friendly way.

The approved final plan was 60,856 square feet of general office space and 14,260 sq feet of retail, for a 75,116 square foot total and 215 private parking spaces plus 51 public parking spaces.

The Kobors accepted it and registered it with Los Angeles County Recorder's Office.

Shortly thereafter, an amendment was filed to allow medical use, among other things. Specifically, the Kobors asked for 54,900 square feet of medical use, 2000 square feet of restaurant or sundry shop, 4,696 square feet of general office, 12,404 square feet of retail and 1,116 square feet of pharmacy and the removal of public parking spaces requirement. They wanted to offer 336 parking private spaces, with 70 to 80 available to the public through a valet service.

The Planning Commission said it would cause increased traffic and reduce the planned parking in the area. It would cause twice as many daily trips -- nearly 3,000-- would increase incursion of office traffic into residential neighborhoods, and traffic impacts with pedestrians.

"I think we need to send a clear message [about] the integrity of the process, the commitments made by the applicants and the very much hard work that was done by the planning commission and staff," said Brucker when he voted against the amendments. "I will leave with you this one comment, it's [former mayor] Mr. [Joe] Tilem, back in '06, he said 'This project with a Class-A office, this represents the best thinking of the commission and the staff.' And I think he was right."

Kobor attorney Reznick said he feels the law on their side, when contacted on Tuesday.

Should the judge rule in favor of the city, the Kobors could still bring building amendments before the City Council again. Should that happen, Brucker says he will remain among the decision makers.

"I would not recuse myself because that would suggest that I'm not able to stay objective," said Brucker. "Anyone who would suggest otherwise is just making noise."

142 with Judge Mark Windham. Current Newport Mesa Unified School District superintendent Hubbard pled not guilty. Court clerk was unable to say why the change was necessary.

According to reports, defense attorneys spent more than four hours questioning assistant superintendent Alex Cherniss over BHUSD's financial protocol and documents on Tuesday, the first day of the hearing.

Despite the charges, the Newport-Mesa Unified School District Board of Education has stood unwaveringly behind Hubbard. He has remained on the job and been defended in local press by other school officials.

Christiansen remains in custody at the women's detention facility in Lynwood but her attorney has made a motion to reduce her bail amount, from its current $2 million.

The hearing continued until after press time.

Hubbard's Newport-Mesa Board standing by him

Former BHUSD superintendent Jeffery Hubbard's school district, the Newport-Mesa Unified School District, has been supportive and defensive of their new superintendent.

The Board of Education there has historically circled around any member facing damaging charges. Three years ago, an NMUSD board member was charged with drunk driving. The Board stood behind him.

This year, when Hubbard faced charges of misallocation of school funds, the NMUSD board has stood behind him.

"All of us feel that he's innocent until proven guilty and the situation is not impairing his ability to function as a superintendent," said NMUSD Board president Walt Davenport. "We all see it as a very fluid situation subject to evaluation at any point."

At the moment, Davenport said the Board feels the hearing is "going in a positive direction."

Recently, a board member told the Daily Pilot that the language used between Hubbard and Christiansen in e-mails released recently by the BHUSD was typical speak for the former BHUSD official.

"To be real honest, he has e-mailed me and said, 'love ya' and 'sweetheart' and 'hang in there,' and 'Thanks, babe,'" Fluor said to the Daily Pilot last week. "So, you know, he's a very affectionate person and expresses himself and does say some witty things, and that's the type of relationship when you're working with a superintendent. You develop a bond of trust and closeness that's not necessarily sexual."

Davenport said the Board has not had any conversation about would happen to Hubbard if he were found guilty.

El Rodeo carjacking suspects arrested

Four suspects were arrested in conjunction with the carjacking that occurred outside El Rodeo school last week.

Maria Torres, 19, German Lopez, 19, and one male and one female 17 year olds were taken into custody after a Los Angeles Police Department officer identified the stolen vehicle at the corner of Slauson Ave and Crenshaw, Tuesday, Jan. 11, just after 10 p.m.

Carjackings in this neighborhood are "extremely rare," according to a police spokesman.

Citizens' budget review announced

The Citizens' Budget Review Committee will reveal what they found in a two year evaluation of the city's finances.

"Over the past two years, the Citizens' Budget Review Committee has spend hundreds of hours evaluating the city's budget with the objective to evaluate the city's budget, develop revenue generating ideas and recommend spending cuts to the city council," according to the release.

The meeting will highlight the city's financial past, present and future.

The committee includes Edward Brown, Eliot Finkel, Abner Goldstine, Jim Jahant, Offer Nissenbaum, Kathy Reims, Richard S. Rosenzweig and Joan Seidel.

Resident starts nationwide program to bring books into school libraries, BHUSD

Simon Gornick

Beverly Hills resident Simon Gornick saw his young daughter reading inside Beverly Vista's library when he concocted an idea that would bring more books into the impoverished libraries of public schools.

"Normally, when you have one of these ideas you don't actually do anything about it," said Gornick. "In this particular case I mentioned it to a friend of mine who is a web developer in Iowa and together we cranked something out."

Sara Jacobson, Gornick's partner

The result is the six-week-old School Library Exchange program, a website that connects national school libraries' book wishlists with the power of Amazon and online shopping.

Libraries list the books they need and donors can simply log onto the site, purchase the book on behalf of the library and wait for the gift to hit the shelves.

Beverly Hills High School and Beverly Vista have joined the program, along with more than 300 other schools across the country.

Beverly High has 220 books on its current wishlist. So far, BHHS librarian Karen Boyarsky has received one-- a book titled "Promiseland" that Boyarsky purchased through the website in honor of Simon.

The average copyright date of BHHS library's 22,000 books is around 1980, Boyarsky said.

"So our books are twice the age of our students," she laughed. "We are desperate for a lot of them."

Gornick presented the plan to the Board of Education last week, saying that if the website becomes successful he will consider registering it as a non-profit organization.

"With education budgets being hit hard, one of those areas kept in a holding pattern are school libraries because they aren't seen as a direct part of school curriculum," said Gornick. "I want Beverly Hills to be the proving ground for how we can turn this into a wider phenomenon.

Douglas attends Governors Budget Workshop

Beverly Hills Unified School District superintendent Dick Douglas attended the Governor's Budget Workshop in Long Beach Tuesday.

Sponsored by the School Services of California, Inc., the workshop outlined the strengths and weaknesses of the governor's 2010-2011 budget and cautioned against the coming shortfalls that may affect schools.

The state is faced with unprecedented situation of balancing a budget with an approximately $20 billion shortfall.

The session laid out the two financial possibilities facing the state, and school districts. One reality included a five-year extension of the current tax scale; another included those taxes not being extended, which could translate into about $350 per student in cuts.

Dick Douglas

"There were 100s of people at two sessions," said Douglas. "Everybody was walking out of there shaking their heads."

Douglas said the information he gained from the meeting will be useful as BHUSD officials and the finance committee draft a budget.

Psychosocial issues with aging

The Senior Care Lecture Series will hold a meeting about the "psychosocial issues with aging" next week.

Flournoy, Dawson, Corman named to BHHS Alumni Hall of Fame

Undersecretary of Defense Michele Flournoy, filmmaker Eugene Corman and Emmy-winner Ian Dawson were appointed to Beverly High's Alumni Hall of Fame last week.

They will inducted in a ceremony on April 7 at the high school.

Flournoy, a 1979 graduate, has steadily moved up the ranks to achieve her current post as Undersecretary of Defense for Policy. She was an active member of politics and government at Beverly High, with teachers recalling her maturity and interest in the government programs offered. She was awarded the Secretary of Defense Medal for Outstanding Public Service in 1996, the Department of Defense Medal for Distinguished Public Service in 1998 and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff's Joint Distinguished Civilian Service Award in 2000.

"I am honored," said Flournoy in a statement. "I am also grateful for the exceptional educational opportunities and mentoring I had while a student at BHHS. The quality of the education I received in the Beverly Hills public school system was a tremendous foundation for college, graduate school and public service."

Corman, a summer 1944 graduate, has held an extensive entertainment career and most notably won an Emmy as producer of a "Woman Named Golda." His brother, Roger, is a summer 1943 graduate and was installed on the Hall of Fame last year. His son, Craig, is a member of the Planning Commission.

Dawson, a 1985 graduate, today works for Prologue and has won a handful of Emmys for his work in design and graphics for the entertainment industry. He got his start at Beverly High's graphic design program, often being asked to teach the class on behalf of a substitute. His father, Mitch Dawson, is former planning commissioner and mother, Bobbe Joe, is a longtime beautician.

The Beverlywood resident said he can't take all the credit for his success: He has worked with great creative teams in his career, and had great teachers and programs at his disposal at a young age.

"It's a great honor," said Dawson in an interview. "I know that's it hard for school districts to have money to do the things that they want to do but, boy, the graphics program, for me, and all the different arts programs are really important."

They will be inducted at a ceremony on April 7.

Zoet named Community Services director

The City of Beverly Hills has named Steve Zoet as the new Director of Community Services. Zoet has more than 30 years of experience in the field of recreation programming and served as Assistant Director of Community Services - Recreation and Parks and most recently as interim director of Community Services after previous director Steve Miller retired last year.

Steve Zoet

"We are delighted that Steve Zoet has agreed to become Community Services director," Beverly Hills City Manager Jeff Kolin said in a statement.

"He is a seasoned Community Services veteran with a tremendous record of accomplishment throughout his career. During his time in Beverly Hills and in other communities he has been an innovative and creative manager whose ideas will help guide the Beverly Hills Community Services Department as we move forward."

"I am thankful for the trust and confidence instilled in me by Jeff," Zoet said in a statement. "I look forward to working more closely with residents and appointed and elected officials in providing new programs and addressing the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead."

Before coming to Beverly Hills in 2008, Zoet was director of Parks and Recreation for the city of Northglenn, Colorado. He has held numerous other positions in community services and recreation departments in cities in California and Washington. He attended Michigan State University, graduating with a degree in Parks, Recreation and Tourism and has pursued post-graduate studies in Public Administration at San Francisco State and Cal State Northridge universities. Zoet worked previously in Beverly Hills as a recreation supervisor from 1983-1992.

speaker series and bimonthly events.

BHEF board member Nathalie Kunin and her mother Sandra Pressman are organizing the group.

"This is a way to bring grandparents into their grandchildren's lives," said Pressman.

The idea was spawned two years ago when Kunin joined BHEF. Her children were attending private school The Center, which has held a grandparent's forum for the last 8 years. Pressman was an active participant in that program.

BHEF CEO Dev Hankin joined Pressman at a meeting late last year and encouraged that the program be started in Beverly Hills.

Last week, the council finally got its start at the Pressman home with nearly 20 people in attendance. The BHEF is actively recruiting more grandparents with grandkids in Beverly Hills schools to attend the next meeting in March.

"In Beverly Hills, there are people from all different backgrounds and it has brought us all much closer together because we have found a common thread and that's in our grandchildren," said Pressman.

The speaker series is likely to include authors and psychologists to speak about family issues and other issues the group agrees upon.

Grandparents must have grandchildren in the BHUSD but do not have to live in Beverly Hills to join. Grandparents are welcome to stay in the group after their grandchildren have graduated from BHUSD.

Delshad among hundreds attending U.S. Mayors Conference

Beverly Hills Mayor Jimmy Delshad headed to Washington, D.C., this week to take part in the 79th annual U.S. Conference of Mayors.

He joins more than 230 mayors nationwide at the winter meeting from Jan 19 to 21.

The scheduled meetings include discussions of the economy, private-public partnerships, domestic violence, recycling and greetings with officials including President Barack Obama and former House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, D-Calif.

Los Angeles Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa and other Southern Californian mayors are scheduled to attend as well.

"It's a wonderful experience and it's a way mayors can share their ideas and successes and challenges in their community and use each other as resources," said Vice Mayor Barry Brucker, who attended the conference when he was mayor. "The one beauty of going to the mayors' conference is that no one there is running against each other and we're all there to help each other out."

City perks and permits

And why do the Brits hate us?

By Rudy Cole

You have to admire her candor, but when Jill Tavelman Collins was honored by the city council last week for her six years of service as a member of the city's Recreation and Parks Commission she managed to open up a whole new debate on the use of official parking permits.

After thanking the council for the traditional plaque and gift to departing commissioners, the ex-wife of famed British rock star Phil Collins, said something about the "elephant in the room," meaning the council chamber, was the nice little perk of a parking pass, and that she expected soon to be appointed to yet another commission with a new permit.

Then came the part that made the council squirm: She also wanted to thank the council on behalf of her daughter Lillie, the highly talented young entertainer, who was indeed pleased to display and use one of the permits the city gave the "family."

For many years, the city has issued "Class One" parking permits to present to former members of the city council, the elected city treasurer and current members of city commissions.

These permits allow holders not to pay for metered parking, allow parking in all other permit areas, but are not legal in red zones, commercial loading zones or handicapped parking spaces.

Theoretically, and here's the part that made the council uncomfortable, the ordinances specify that they are to be used only when the holder is on some kind of city business.

Giving a second permit to a family member is supposedly not permissible, but the ambiguity in the rules are that holders may request additional permits for number of cars owned.

Some years back, a then commissioner and collector of exotic automobiles, and he had dozens, requested permits for each of his cars. As I remember it, he was limited to five.

Recently, the city treasurer, Eliot Finkel, requested a permit for an additional assistant treasurer, an appointment he made for a voluntary position without compensation. Briefly, that triggered a discussion on the rationale for granting the permits. Not sure how it was resolved.

Of course, the permits are a perk and always have been. No one actually even attempts to determine if users are on city business, and since our councilmembers receive only marginal benefits and commissioners none, why not give them a small privilege of free parking?

As for the Collins, mother and daughter, they have given many years of service to the city, including significant support for improvements at Greystone. Just not too wise to make announcements of rule stretching at a public meeting, on television. And adding anticipation of a soon to be made new appointment to another commission, when that process is supposedly open and not predetermined, may have been a might too frank.

The city rules may be required by state law: that exemptions from parking rules can only be made for "official city business." If not, it may be time to remove that requirement and actually face the obvious: this is a reward for city service. At the moment, the city has issued 186 Class One permits.

In the interests of full disclosure, when I was a member and chair of the Recreation and Parks Commission, I fondled with affection my little permit and in that brief dating period before Josette taught me the benefits of marital bliss, my parking privilege was a great dating tool: "No, I don't need to put any money in the meter, I am a city official." Trust me, I needed any advantage possible.

As for commissions, they have escalated in a mostly positive way: more citizen involvement in city government. One of the first commissions was civil service, charged with setting rules for hiring and firing of city workers and for holding hearings on disciplinary matters, including discharging.

An early member of this commission was George Kohneim, a leading commercial builder in the 1960s to 1980s, and also a primary benefactor of Vista Del Mar and other charities.

In time, the duties of this commission passed to the city manager and department or division heads, and the commission was abolished. The council did assign building permit processing first step applications to a planning commission in the 1950s when it was the only agency reviewing compliance with codes and the general plan.

When Hertz built a rental car office at the corner of Wilshire and Santa Monica in the mid-1960s, the council decided it needed some restraints on commercial design prior to council review, and it created the Architectural Commission. Unfortunately, it took decades to give this commission, and the council, oversight on the design of residential properties.

Parking and Traffic and Fine Arts were also created and have specific responsibilities. The first to monitor transportation issues including a first stop for residential preferential parking permit restrictions and the latter for an approval process in accepting and approving fine arts in public places. (Under our rules, a builder may be required to provide public art in lieu of full compliance with codes. Some of our many public sculptures in the commercial area were approved and mandated because a builder exchanged art for less than required parking spaces, as one example.)

However, it was during Allan Alexander's term as mayor that the commission system really expanded, giving far more opportunity for residents to participate in local government. Health and Safety, Recreation and Parks, Human Relations, Design Review, Solicitations and others followed during Alexander's tenure or shortly after.

For membership on most commissions, you must be a legal resident of the city. There are some exceptions: If a required category, such as landscape designer for the Architectural Commission, can not be filled by a resident the council may appoint a non-resident.

(The city's web site has a full list of city commissions and an explanation of their responsibilities. Also listed are current members and the expiration dates of their terms in office in case you have an interest in serving.)

QUICK NOTES:

Sometimes I think the primary function of the community press is to confirm rumors that rapidly spread throughout our village.

The most recent gossip was that Sue Brucker, our soon to be mayor and onetime school board member and president's Barry Brucker's wife, was considering running for school board in the November election.

Sue does have her own list of credits. She has been a leading PTA officer, president of her Temple and a frequent political campaign strategist, and not just Barry's successful efforts.

Apparently not true. If she did enter the race, it could well have inhibited Brucker's own plans to seek a third term on the city council.

So far, the only announced candidate in the board election is board vice president Dr. Brian David Goldberg. Our sources are that former presidents and current members Myra Lurie and Steven Fenton will not be candidates.

Goldberg would be seeking a second term as would Fenton. Lurie her third, having easily won her second.

As for any possible informal term limits for school board, one of the best ever to serve, Bernice Hutter, was elected four times.

You probably have received many, but the so obviously phony emails that announce the windfall of millions from some third world bank if only you send some money to cover costs or at least provide information such as address, social security number and credit card data continue to survive despite law enforcement efforts to catch the rip off artists.

A newer scam involves messages from someone you may or think you may know who is in some kind of trouble because of a loss of wallet or purse or even hold up.

These emails ask for an emergency and life savings loan.

When I received one of these last week I decided to forward to our Chief, David Snowden. Interesting to learn that he too has been receiving these phony emails. Not the sharpest of rip off artists who target our top cop.

Birthday greetings, this week is the 90th for prolific letters to the editor writer Herb Wallerstein. He has probably sent me as many angry notes as number of candles on his cake. Best wishes and I miss your emails, I think.

Why do the British hate us so much that they send us Ricky Gervais and Piers Morgan?

We love and admire our English cousins. Millions of Americans are just as anxious about the pending wedding in the royal family as the Brits. Had we been able to waive the natural born citizen constitutional requirement, we might well have elected Tony Blair president. All right, so we had one little revolution in our joint history, but is that any excuse for unleashing Gervais and Morgan?

Gervais bombed more than Cornwallis. He brought bad taste and, equally important, a lack of style or class to the Golden Globe's award Sunday.

Entertainment and public figures are fair game, but Sunday's event m.c. was not only ill-mannered, it was totally boring.

The good news, the ratings were way up this year, not because but in spite of Gervais, and millions around the world heard the name Beverly Hills and Beverly Hilton associated with glamour and style. Compare this to some other recent attempts at pushing our "brand."

As for Piers Morgan replacing Larry King on CNN, akin to trading a household feline for a Bengal tiger, and probably just as enjoyable.

If you caught his surly, ill-tempered and pompous act on "The Apprentice" you had some advance warning on what this British talk show host could bring to American television. True, King may not have been the most confrontational interviewer, but he was highly professional, balanced and fair – and that style worked and made an incredible array of world and national guests comfortable. The people King interviewed and not the host were the stars and he may well have been the best ever to play that profession.

Can't simply get the image of Morgan doing his number on the Donald Trump show out of my vision, and anyone who could bring Joan Rivers to tears may not be the best person to follow King.

BHHS Girls' Soccer Team Routs Morningside, Hawthorne

As coach Ryan Franks put it, the Beverly High girls' soccer team "had no problem finding the back of the net despite a bumpy field" in a 6-0 victory at Morningside Friday in an Ocean League game.

Tylor Fields scored three goals, increasing her season total to 15, "but the play of the game was when she was on a breakaway and unselfishly distributed to Nia Freeman," to score one of her two goals of the game, Franks said.

Nicole Star scored Beverly Hills' other goal and also had an assist. Tiffany Moore had two assists and Kaela Reisfelt, Elena Rust and Mahshar Zargar each had one assist for the Normans, who were tied for 10th in the Southern Section Division 4 poll released Tuesday.

Fields also had a second assist.

Kylie Colvin made two saves for her second shutout in two games.

Beverly Hills (10-4-1, 2-0 in league play) led 3-0 at halftime.

The Normans defeated Hawthorne, 6-0, Jan. 12 in an Ocean League game at Hawthorne, as Ashley Aviram, Zhamak Fooladbakhsh, Reisfelt, Emily Rosen, Rust, Zargar each scored and Star had four assists.

Colvin made one save for the shutout.

Moore had two assists and Aviram one.

"We had good combination play in the midfield with Mahshar Zargar and Kaela Reisfelt," said Franks, whose team led 2-0 at halftime. "Ashley Aviram played well, as did our sweeper Elena Rust."

Beverly Hills is scheduled to play host to Inglewood Friday at 6 p.m. Nickoll Field and at Culver City Wednesday at 3 p.m. in Ocean League games and Milken Saturday at 7 p.m. at Nickoll Field in a nonleague game.

Culver City was tied for seventh in the Division 4 poll, while Milken was ranked fifth in the Division 7 poll.

BHHS Boys' Soccer Team Opens Ocean League Play With Two Victories

The previously injury-plagued Beverly High boys' soccer team fielded its most complete lineup of the season for its Ocean League opener against Hawthorne Jan. 12 at Nickoll Field and defeated the Cougars, 2-0.

Caio Carvalho scored his first goal in the 38th minute. The scoring sequence began with a corner kick. The ball came out Elijah Lichtenberg, who "chipped it over as everybody rushed out and Caio rush in to finish the ball," Norman coach Steve Rappaport said.

"They were trying to trap it and it didn't work," Rappaport said. Lichtenberg scored on a penalty kick in the 79th minute. Beverly Hills was awarded the penalty kick when Mariano Gonzalez was fouled in the penalty area.

Norman goalkeeper Matt Davidov made seven saves for his second shutout of the season.

"They played very well," Rappaport said. "It was a tough game, lot of fouling... by (Hawthorne). It was hard to have a lot of passing connections cause every time we created something, they fouled us." Beverly Hills "pretty much had control," but "could have done better" with "some scoring opportunities," Rappaport said. When asked whose play he would praise, Rappaport first said defender Shaya Noorian.

"They had a very talented forward and he had an amazing game shutting him down," Rappaport said.

Josh Newman, who played his second game at sweeper, also drew praise from Rappaport, as did Davidov and defender Bryan Khalilrad.

The Normans defeated Morningside, 2-1, Friday at Nickoll Field, with Lichtenberg scoring and assisting on Angel Jaramillo's goal, both in the first half of the Ocean League game.

Davidov made six saves and allowed Chigozie Nwobi's second-half goal in 65 minutes of play. Leo Gettleson made two saves in 15 minutes for Beverly Hills (8-6-1, 2-0).

The Normans led in shots, 17-9.

Beverly Hills is scheduled to play at Inglewood Friday and Culver City Wednesday at Nickoll Field in Ocean League games beginning at 6 p.m. and Milken Saturday at 8 p.m. at Nickoll Field in a nonleague game.

BHHS Boys' Basketball Team Loses to Morningside, Hawthorne

The Beverly High boys' basketball team was done in in large measure by a former Norman Friday night.

Gerry Blakes, who played his freshman year at Beverly Hills, scored 28 points, including 12 in the fourth quarter, to lead Morningside to a 58-55 victory in an Ocean League game at the Swim-Gym.

Blakes is a 6 foot 4 inch combo guard who has signed a letter of intent to accept an athletic scholarship from the University of Hawaii. Blakes played on Leuzinger's Southern Section Division 1-A championship team last season.

The Normans (10-8, 0-2) cut the deficit

YOUNG AT HEART

The Weekly's exclusive interview with Active Adult Club President Winifred Hervey

By Jacquelyn Ryan

Tell us about yourself.

I'm 84, although sometimes I say to myself, how could I be 84? Didn't they make a mistake or something? I don't feel 84 and I don't look 84. I love to do things for other people, I've been that way all my life. I was brought up in a town almost similar to Beverly Hills, Evanston, Ill., the home of the famous Northwestern University.

I graduated from high school there. And then I went to a community college in Chicago but I got married quiet young, I got married when I was 18 years old and I became the wife of a service person. Most of my young adulthood was spent in the military. We were stationed at all the stations where there was a lot of snow, Illinois, Massachusetts and Springfield, Ill., so we headed out to California-- to get out oo the snow -- from Massachusetts 35 years ago. Then we were stationed in Lompoc, at the Air Force base so my children were raised there.

During that time, I acquired a family of five children. I had three boys and two girls. My oldest daughter right now is Christie Hervey, she's 62. She works for a conglomerate, a company that has a chain of jewelry stores and she works as the designer of the stores as they open, interior design of the jewelry stores. Ramon is 60 and he's been in the music industry. He has been a public relations person, he's been in management and a producer. And next is Paul, 57. He's been a computer consultant and now works for Comcast in Philadelphia in management. Winifred, whose named after me, who is 53. She is a TV writer and she's a veteran in the TV industry because she is an Emmy winner. She worked with the "Golden Girls." She has her own production company.

Then my youngest is deceased. He was George, Lt. George Hervey. He was a graduate of WestPoint academy. Unfortunately, he was killed in a one car accident in Germany when he was 23. But he had even acquired a success in his short life just being an officer in the Army. My husband, Raymond, and I divorced after 27 years. He was in the military and he recently passed away in the last couple of years. He was a staff sergeant in the Air Force.

I have eight grandchildren - half of them are on the East Coast and half out here.

I want to say something, which I'm proud of. That I'm the first African American president that this club has ever had in its 35 or 40 years existence. This will be the second time I made history in Beverly Hills. In 2004, I was the first African American to ever be chosen Senior of the Year. I'm very proud to be a resident here in Beverly Hills, where these things are possible.

I have eight grandchildren. Their nickname for me is Pooh, like Winnie the Pooh. They decided not to call me Grammy or Grandmother or Nana. I guess it's because I have a young spirit, so they call me Pooh. I love it. I have a good relationship with my grandchildren. So we laugh a lot and that makes it very precious to me.

Why did you move to Beverly Hills?

I got divorced when most of the children were in college and I moved to Los Angeles -- it's kinda hard to live in an military environment when you're a single woman -- my children lived in L.A. and I established myself and got involved with a lot of volunteer work and became involved with Sickle Cell Foundation then I became involved in African American Art Museum and then became involved in retail, which I did off and on and then my daughter said 'Why don't you move to Beverly Hills?' because she lives in Hancock Park.

My daughter, Wini, moved me to Beverly Hills. I love living in Beverly Hills. It reminds me of Evanston. People talk about Beverly Hills and when you speak to people ask you, 'Where do you live?,' I say 'Beverly Hills' and they say 'Oooh you live in Beverly Hills.' Beverly Hills rings a bell and I love living in Beverly Hills because it reminds me, it's really a small community. It really is. You get to know people, you get to know the merchants and that's the way it was where I came up. So this is like home to me.

What is the Adult Active Club?

The club is under the auspices of the city of Beverly Hills to help to make the seniors aware of the community and what they're entitled to. It's really a great program that the city has initiated to also donate us money so that we can provide entertainment every Monday for the seniors and those residents and non-residents.

We also sponsor dances and we also have things like boutiques and we have a day at the park with the seniors and we have different kind of art show at the same time. We try to duplicate the Affaire at the Gardens just for the seniors at Roxbury Park. We also help, because of the cut-backs of last year, we have classes, especially for the physical well being of the seniors. We have helped to sponsor some of those classes, [like our knitting class], as well. They come and play games, which is good mental health.

We also have regular lunches that are provided for those who don't have the facilities to cook. That's also during any kind of holiday. We also have a social worker there every Monday. We also have free legal advice once a month.

One of our greatest joys is we have started a partnership with Cedars-Sinai and so we just finished our fifth health fair and this provides some of the services from Cedars. This allows people who don't have medical insurance, to be referred to free clinic right here on La Cienega. That helps out a lot of seniors. We have free flu shots. This is just to name a few.

It's a very thriving community center.

How did you get involved?

I moved to Beverly Hills about 10 years ago. I'm accustomed to being active so I thought I would check out the community center to check out what they have to offer. I went over there and signed up as a member. Before I could get out of the office the manager, Bill Banks, came and introduced himself. From that day on I have been a volunteer. I've been a volunteer at the park for almost 10 years and enjoyed every moment.

I've been involved not only with the senior center but with the city as well.

At that time, [I joined] Team Beverly Hills. It's a leadership group; it's a wonderful experience and I became a graduate of that class. Then I volunteered for a while. I was chosen in 2004 to be the outstanding Senior for the Year.

The city has a lot of things the seniors can be interested in and being open to being a participant. The city government is very cordial and encouraging for seniors here.

I was first vice president and then at another time treasurer, so I was on the Board for four years. Each office is for two years so I really served on the board for four years in different ways. I've always been there to assist them.

What sort of activism are you involved with?

For one thing, the community center that we now have is quite old. As I did some research, I found out that there has been a band-aid put on it for all the things that needed to be done. It's been a long record of just fixing here and fixing there. For instance, our bathrooms are just not adequate for the seniors. Especially the ones that are in wheelchairs and walkers. And so that was one of the things that it thought was disgraceful that it hadn't been done before.

Our auditorium is all beat up as far as our stage and curtains and facilities.

The condition of our community center is not up to par being in such a prestigious city as Beverly Hills. I felt it wasn't being noticed as it should be. And we've had several times when things were flooding. It's old and we don't need to fix anything. We need a new community center for the welfare of not only our seniors but our youth. It is a community center, we're just a part of that. We have to take into consideration the youth that come there for different functions. For sports, we have a daycare center. It encompasses more than just the seniors because it has to do with our community. I think with Beverly Hills being known all over the world we should at least have a decent livable community center. So that's what I go and talk about.

What will you do as president?

I was inaugurated on Monday, Jan. 10, and that's when the Vice Mayor Barry Brucker started the ceremony. The mayor was late -- he had, had an operation -- but he came and we were honored and there were other council members and commissioners from Recreation and Parks.

That makes us feel very glad that the city recognizes the seniors as an acting important group because we are. And I hope to do a lot more things while I'm president.

I want to bring more seniors that aren't members into the park and hope to activate some kind of activity to bring the Baby Boomers because they are the ones who are going to inherit all this and to create new activity.

I want new and creative things at the park. We are going to have a new facility. It's a very old facility that's standing now so now we are in the throngs of getting the council to start to build.

Change is growth. I've been attending sessions at city hall and hoping for at least the quickest they can start.

What I plan to do is bring to our board a sense of dignity and pride and not be looked off. There's an image people have of senior citizens and sometimes it's like the seniors are treated as children. We have some very interesting seniors on our board and I want to bring more prestige and dignity not only as seniors but as active people. And I also want to bring into play some events that will be outstanding and pertinent to our board. The city has cut back. They used to have a volunteer luncheon to thank the volunteers and that of course is for the whole city. I would like to have a senior recognition day every year. I'm thinking I want to do some special things that honor the seniors and their efforts. The city has to thank a lot of seniors for their volunteer work.

We are planning a big Valentines dance with 14-piece band, so we want to have more dancing.

The seniors love the dances, I want to create more dances. It's not only good for them mentally but it helps them physically.

We have a concert series that has become very successful. We have celebrities come and entertain and the proceeds come to our adult club and with that we can do many things to help in the community. We have had Debbie Allen. We've just started our second series. We can thank Ellyn Snowden; she's the one who has initiated and made this a very successful event. We had Jack Carter and now we're planning the series for the Spring and so that has been something new and something very successful. We look forward to that and encourage the community to support that.

Sometimes it's very humbling to be in a position like this and a creative and active person so I'd rather concentrate on the things that can happen here. I like team effort and I think we can accomplish a whole lot more instead of always concentrating on titles.

[Joining her on the Board is first vice president Adele Swartz, second vice president Ellyn Snowden, third vice president Gloria Gordon, Treasurer Irene Schwartz and Secretary Gloria Jennings.]

Do you have any advice for the kids of today?

I think one of the things they have to do is save some of themselves for themselves and not get caught up in this technical rat race we seem to be caught up in. I try to tell people to take time out for themselves, every day do something nice for somebody else. And when you do that, you'll be doing something for yourself.

to 54-52 with two minutes, three seconds left when Austin Mills made a free throw after missing his first. Blakes' basket with 1:31 to play put the Monarchs up, 56-52.

Beverly Hills pulled within one, 56-55, on Julian Dakdouk's 3-point basket with 1:15 remaining. The Normans had a chance to take the lead with 15 seconds left, but Brodrick Smith missed both free throws.

Blakes made two free throws with 14 seconds left. Smith's potentially tying-3-point shot just before time expired hit the rim.

Beverly Hills coach Jarvis Turner said the loss was the result of a "lackluster effort" in the first half.

"I don't think guys were being aggressive," said Turner, whose team trailed 35-21 at halftime. "I think we were kind of sitting back and letting them come to us as opposed to us dictating what we wanted to do to them."

The Normans outscored Morningside, 21-8, in the third quarter, with Mike Lanier scoring 10 of his 14 points, to trail 43-42 entering the fourth quarter.

Dakdouk led Beverly Hills with 16 points and made four 3-point baskets. Mills added 15, making two 3-point baskets, Smith six and Malik Blades four.

The Normans lost to Hawthorne, 58-50, Jan. 12 at the Swim-Gym in their Ocean League opener, in a game they led 29-18 at halftime, but were outscored 18-8 in the third quarter and 22-13 in the fourth.

"We played horrible," Turner said. "We didn't fight. We didn't compete. We had a decent first half and we let them take the game in the second half."

Mills scored 13, including a fourth-quarter 3-point basket. Lanier added 11, Frank Brown nine, Dakdouk six, Blades and Joshua Johnson four each, and Smith one.

Beverly Hills is scheduled to play at Inglewood Friday and play host to Culver City Wednesday in Ocean League games beginning at 7:30 p.m.

BHHS Girls' Basketball Team Edges Morningside

The Beverly High girls' basketball team defeated Morningside, 45-41, Friday night in an Ocean League game at the Swim-Gym, with Chelsea Austin scoring 24 points and pulling down 22 rebounds, both game highs for the Normans.

Beverly Hills (10-9, 2-0) led 15-13 at the end of the first quarter, 24-17 at halftime and 37-25 entering the fourth quarter, where it was outscored 16-8.

Austin scored 12 points in each half and made a 3-point basket in the third quarter.

Natalie Moy had 10 points, including a first-quarter 3-point basket, and six assists, Tiffany Haney scored six points, Megan Yee two and Dorsa Mehrannia one.

"We packed it in in a 3-2 zone and didn't let them attack the basket," Beverly Hills coach John Braddell said. "We made them a jump shooting team and that was the

The Normans defeated Hawthorne, 47-39, Jan. 12 in an Ocean League game at the Swim-Gym, as Haney, a junior center, scored 16 points, the first time in her 32-game high school career she scored in double figures.

Haney had 15 rebounds, including nine offensive rebounds, both team highs.

Austin added 14 points, Debbie Reyhan seven, and Moy and Serena Shlomof five each.

Moy and Shlomof both made 3-point baskets.

Austin had 11 rebounds and seven steals. Moy made nine steals.

Beverly Hills led 14-7 at the end of the first quarter, 23-17 at halftime and 33-29 entering the fourth quarter.

ORDINANCE NO. 11-O-2601

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS REPEALING ARTICLE 46 OF CHAPTER 3 OF TITLE 10 OF THE BEVERLY HILLS MUNICIPAL CODE REGARDING GREEN BUILDING STANDARDS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. On June 3, 2008, the City Council of the City of Beverly Hills adopted Ordinance Number 08-O-2555 which amended Title 10 ("Planning and Zoning"), Chapter 3 ("Zoning") of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code by creating a new article 46 entitled "Green Building Standards."

Section 2. In 2010, the State of California updated the California State Uniform Building Codes, which includes for the first time green building codes, referred to as "CalGreen." Based on the City's adoption of the Building Codes, including CalGreen, the City's Green Building Standards are no longer necessary for any project subject to the new building standards.

Section 3. Pursuant to the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the City evaluated the action of removing the existing article from the City's Municipal Code. Upon the effective date of the new CalGreen requirements, as amended by the City, all construction in the City will be required to comply with those CalGreen requirements. The requirements will apply more broadly than the City's current Green Building Standards, which will no longer be necessary to further the City's green building policy objectives as to any project subject to CalGreen standards. As such, repealing the City's Green Building Standards will not result in any significant adverse impact on the environment. Repealing the City's Green Building Standards is covered by the general rule that the California Environmental Quality Act does not apply where it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment. For the foregoing reasons, repealing the City's Green Building Standards is not subject to CEQA, pursuant to 14 Cal. Code Regs §15061(b)(3).

Section 4. The City Council of the City of Beverly Hills hereby repeals Article 46 (Green Building Standards) of Chapter 3 (Zoning) of Title 10 (Planning and Zoning) of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code in its entirety, except that Article 46 shall continue to apply to any Covered Project, as that term is defined therein, that has received a building permit prior to January 1, 2011.

ORDINANCE NO. 11-O-2600

ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS EXTENDING THE TERM OF PLANNING COMMISSIONER NOAH FURIE FOR

THE LIMITED PURPOSE OF PARTICIPATING IN REVIEW OF A PROPOSED PROJECT

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The City Council finds:

1.1 In accordance with the provisions of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code, the City Council duly appointed Noah Furie to the City of Beverly Hills Planning Commission ("Planning Commission") on December 18, 2004 to serve an initial term of two (2) years.

1.2 In accordance with the provisions of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code, the City Council re-appointed Commissioner Furie to a second term on December 18, 2006 to serve for an additional four (4) years. Commissioner Furie's term is set to expire on December 17, 2010.

1.3 Pursuant to Section 2-2.105(B), Planning Commissioners who serve two (2) successive terms are not eligible for reappointment to the Planning Commission. Accordingly, Commissioner Furie may not be reappointed to serve on the Planning Commission.

1.4 The Commissioner appointed to replace Commissioner Furie, expressed his intent to recuse himself from the Commission's review of the pending Lexus Project at 9230 Wilshire Boulevard ("Lexus Project") because a family member recently acquired real property in the vicinity of the Lexus Project site. The City Council desires a full Planning Commission of five members to consider this important project. In addition, the City Council believes the City would benefit from having continuity among the Commissioners in considering this complicated project. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision in the Municipal Code to the contrary, the City Council hereby extends Commissioner Furie's term as a Planning Commissioner for the sole and limited purpose of reviewing the Lexus Project. Commissioner Furie's extended term as described herein shall expire immediately after the Planning Commission takes final action on the pending Lexus Project.

Section 2. The City Council duly considered this matter at a public meeting and concludes that it would be in the best interest of the City to extend the term of Commissioner Furie on the Planning Commission as set forth in Section 1.4 above.

Section 3. To the extent necessary, this Ordinance amends the provisions of Beverly Hills Municipal Code, Title 2, Chapter 2, Article 1 to allow the City Council to grant an extension of the terms of Planning Commissioners under the circumstances described in this Ordinance.

Section 4. The City Clerk shall cause this Ordinance to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the City within fifteen (15) days after its passage, in accordance with Section 36933 of the Government Code; shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause this Ordinance and his certification, together with proof of publication, to be entered in the Book of Ordinances of the Council of this City.

Section 5. This Ordinance shall go into effect and be in full force and effect at 12:01 a.m. on the thirty-first (31st) day after its passage.

What is Measure 2P on your March Election ballot?

Measure 2P is a simple idea: Keep 2-hour free public parking for everyone visiting or living in Beverly Hills.

If that sounds familiar, you're right. It is exactly the same policy we have had for decades.

2P was placed on the ballot by thousands of Beverly Hills residents because City Hall keeps making arbitrary changes in parking rates: 2 hours to 1 hour, back to 2 hours for only some lots; meter rates have zoomed higher and the Parking and Traffic Commission voted to eliminate free parking altogether at one garage! City leaders have shown no vision nor provided a long-range plan to manage our public parking lots.

2-hour free public parking helped build Beverly Hills into a unique and dynamic community. It works; let's preserve it.

Vote YES on 2P to continue what we already have: 2-hour free public parking for everyone –no more and no less.
