UNITE HERE Local 11 to Circulate Wage Increase Petition

Last Tuesday UNITE HERE Local 11 presented the City of Beverly Hills with a Notice of Intent to circulate a proposed ballot measure requiring a wage increase for hotel workers in the City as contracts covering 15,000 local hotel workers expired.

The nationwide strike had expanded to Beverly Hills last Monday as thousands of hotel workers have been walking off the job in intermittent few-day spurts ever since the Fourth of July.

The Union is demanding a $30 minimum wage, which would be the highest in the nation if granted.

“A room attendant at the Waldorf Astoria must work 60 hours to earn enough to pay for one night at this ritzy hotel,” Co-President of UNITE HERE Local 11 Kurt Petersen said. “Yet the hotel’s last offer did not add one more penny for wages. Hilton could care less about whether their workers are able to afford to live in Los Angeles.”

At least 43 hotels have struck so far. But only the Westin Bonaventure has reached a tentative agreement that includes a wage that the Union believes will enable workers to afford to live in the city where they work.

The hotel industry, led by Hilton, Hyatt and Marriott, presented an economic proposal that “did not have one penny more for wages, pension or healthcare,” according to the Union.

The City Attorney has 15 days from receipt of the Notice to provide an impartial title and summary which will be circulated with the petition.

If the organizers receive the minimum number of signatures for the petition, which is 10% of registered voters in the City, the City Council would then be presented with the option of either adopting the ordinance or placing it on the ballot for a vote by residents.

Per California Elections Code, the petition gatherers have up to 180 days to submit the signatures from the date of receiving the Title and Summary from the City Attorney.

Hotel housekeepers have also asked Taylor Swift in an open letter to postpone her Eras tour stops in Los Angeles in solidarity with their strike.

Traffic and Parking Commission to Discuss Left-Turn Pocket Removal and Crosswalk Analysis on Coldwater

At their Thursday meeting the Traffic and Parking Commission is expected to discuss potential changes to Coldwater Cañon Drive, including the removal of left-turn pockets to add on-street parking, and the installation of new crosswalks at certain locations.

Coldwater has one 17-foot-wide travel lane in each direction, a narrow center section, and left-turn pockets for each intersecting side street. That striping layout did not meet design standards, according to the staff report. Residents have also identified several traffic safety concerns over time associated with the layout, including speeding and illegal passing. Subsequently, the current striping was replaced with a layout that removed the continuous center section, creating 10.5-foot travel lanes and 9.5-foot parking lanes. The left-turn pockets to intersecting side streets were shortened to the minimum safe length to maximize the availability of street parking.

To help determine the new layout, the City mailed surveys in Feb. 2021 to all owners and occupants along and on side streets with their only outlets onto Coldwater. The survey asked whether they preferred to have a center turn lane for left-turns into driveways or on-street parking, because the roadway cannot include both. Most survey respondents said that they would prefer to have on-street parking over a center lane.

The following objectives guided the development of the new striping layout:

- Encourage driving at the legal speed limit.
- Discourage illegal passing.
- Maintain passage for emergency vehicles.
- Provide parking for residents.
- Follow design standards.
- Fit within existing overall street width.

The Fire Department previously expressed concerns about response times without a center lane and that parked cars may obstruct visibility for cars exiting driveways.

Residents have also expressed a desire to see the left-turn pockets removed to provide more on-street parking, according to the staff report. Several residents also expressed concerns about the safety of crossing the street as there are no marked crosswalks between Beverly Drive and Monte Cielo Drive.

City staff is expected to recommend to the Commission to retain the left-turn pockets along Coldwater in the final design at all locations except at Cabrillo Drive as it only serves as access to two properties. This would provide an additional 15 parking spaces between Loma Linda Drive and Lindacrest Drive, for a total of at least 80 parking spaces.

The City has identified three possible locations for crossings: South of Monte Cielo Drive, Lindacrest Drive, and Loma Linda Drive.

According to the staff report, a crosswalk at Lago Vista Drive is not feasible due to reduced sight distance, and a crosswalk at Cabrillo is not recommended due to proximity of other proposed crosswalks.

City staff is recommending developing detailed designs for enhanced crosswalks at the three locations and the Commission is expected to provide recommendations for the City Council.

City Council Schedules Appeal for 55 North La Cienega

The City Council scheduled an appeal of the Planning Commission's decision approving a Development Plan Review and Density Bonus Permit to allow the construction of a new mixed use development, located at 55 North La Cienega Boulevard, for the City Council meeting scheduled for Sept. 12.

On June 22, the Planning Commission adopted a resolution approving the construction of a six-story mixed use development. The project site is currently developed with a vacant commercial building that was formerly used for the restaurant "The Stinking Rose".

The project includes the demolition of the existing vacant commercial building and the construction of a mixed use project with ground floor retail spaces and 105 units for rental above the ground floor, 11 units of which would be reserved for very low-income households.

The Commission's approval of the Development Plan Review and Density Bonus Permit included incentives/concessions, to accommodate the provision of the 11 proposed affordable units.

The incentives/concessions included the following:

- Building Height: Increased the building height from 45' to 66'-6";
- Number of Stories: Increased the number of stories from three to six; and
- Rear Setbacks: Reduced the rear building setback on the third and fourth floors from 20' to 16'

On July 5, 2023, Lozeau Drury LLP, on behalf of Supporters Alliance for Environmental Responsibility ("SAFER"), filed an appeal, seeking that the Council require additional environmental review for the project. Specifically, that the project may have a "significant impact on air quality as they assert that the project would likely expose future residents living at the project to significant impacts related to indoor air quality, and in particular, emissions of the cancer-causing chemical formaldehyde that may be present in modern building materials."

According to the staff report, the appeal is based on new information that was not considered nor presented to the Commission as part of the original project approval.

The City is limited to five total public hearings on a housing development project after it has been deemed complete. So far, two out of the five allotted meetings afforded by state law have been exhausted.

Wallach to Retire After 42 Years with BHUSD

BHUSD employee Susie Wallach has retired after 42 years with the district.

Wallach started as a classroom aide at El Rodeo in 1981 and later became the longtime office manager. She finished her tenure at Beverly Vista Middle School after El Rodeo closed for construction.

"I have so many incredible memories and my heart will always be with El Rodeo," Wallach said.

Wallach has made many friends over the years. Some of her mentors include former El Rodeo Principals Steve Fisher and Frank Scott.

"Steve Fisher was the best principal. He was family," Wallach said.

Wallach even made a bet with Fisher for when she answered the phones.

"For a long time, I answered the phone, 'El Rodeo School, where children come first.' That was sort of a tagline for me," Wallach said.

Wallach was also close friends with co-office manager Vivian Minor. Tuesday was the first morning Minor and Wallach did not manage the office together in over 30 years.

"Vivian Minor is my sister from another mother. We just finished our 35th or 36th year together. We didn't even

And it was very hard for me, by not going in. It's kind of a bittersweet morning today."

Wallach will still be very much a part of the community.

"I live in the community, and I'm still here. I will still see people around just like I always do," Wallach said

Mirisch Designated as Voting Delegate

At their Tuesday meeting the City Council designated Councilmember John Mirisch as the City's voting delegate, and Councilmember Sharona Nazarian as the primary alternate voting delegate, and Municipal Affairs Program Manager Cynthia Owens as the secondary alternate voting delegate, to represent the City at the League of California Cities Annual Conference.

During the meeting, the Cal Cities membership considers and takes action on several resolutions, which establish Cal Cities' policies for the upcoming year.

Abortion Clinic No Longer Opening In Beverly Hills

DuPont clinic will no longer be opening up in Beverly Hills this fall after the landlord rescinded their lease agreement. According to its website, DuPont Clinic offers elective abortions during the third trimester through 31 weeks and 6 days gestation.

Pro-life activists from the group 'Survivors' previously petitioned the City Council last month in an effort to prevent DuPont Clinic from opening up its doors in the City. Survivors is a "youth based pro-life activism and apologetics ministry that exists to empower and equip the rising generation to end the abortion genocide in America."

The clinic would have opened up at 8920 Wilshire Blvd.

Survivors' Outreach Director Tim Clement told LifeNews "I think the property management for the building didn't realize what they were signing up for when they agreed to lease to DuPont. Being home to a first-of-its kind abortion business is not what this city wants to be known for and they definitely weren't pleased with the presence of protestors taking to their streets every day."

Traffic and Parking Commission to Discuss Transportation Demand Management Ordinance

The Traffic and Parking Commission is expected to discuss possible revisions to the Transportation Demand Management Ordinance, at their Thursday meeting.

Transportation Demand Management (TDM) refers to public policy strategies to mitigate traffic congestion, decrease use of fossil fuels, and reduce single occupancy vehicle trips. Strategies include improving or incentivizing use of alternative forms of transportation, including transit, biking, and rideshare, and programs to reduce commute trips during peak periods.

In June 1990, California Proposition 111 was passed, which made additional funding available for transportation projects through a nine-cent increase in the state gas tax and mandated that each county with at least 50,000 residents develop a Congestion Management Program.

In 1992, Los Angeles County Metro adopted its first Congestion Management Program that included the requirement that jurisdictions in the county adopt and implement a TDM ordinance. The City adopted its TDM Ordinance in 1993.

City staff has been reviewing research and policy frameworks for a possible update to the ordinance. City staff has also interviewed five peer cities and two regional agencies, including the Cities of Santa Monica, Los Angeles, Culver City, Pasadena, and Burbank, along with the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) and the South Coast Air Quality Management District (SCAQMD).

The City is looking into exploring the following actions to update ordinance:

- Initially pursue an updated non-residential, development-based ordinance before exploring residential developments and/or employer-based policies.
- Ensure future flexibility through policy language.

- Establish clear goals and targets for reduction in trips.
- Provide education and outreach to support developers.
- Develop appropriate capacity to implement the ordinance.
- Monitor and track progress regularly.

The City intends to begin exploring possible revisions to the existing TDM ordinance, which will include determining how potential changes could be coordinated with other policies.

Beverly Hills Receives 'Average Score' for Bicycling City

The non-profit organization PeopleForBikes released its annual City ratings, a program designed to evaluate and compare over 1,000 cities for bicycling, and Beverly Hills was included in the ratings and received a Network Score of 37; the average Network Score for all cities was 27.

The lowest possible score is zero and a score of 50 is the threshold for a city being considered a "great place for bicycling." The highest score possible is 100.

Features that contributed to the City's score include bicycle access to amenities like parks and trails, places that serve basic needs like hospitals and grocery stores, and major shopping centers.

Areas for the City to improve according to PeopleForBikes are increasing access to jobs, schools, and major transit hubs. Santa Monica received a Network Score of 52, Culver City received a 24, West Hollywood received a 23, and Los Angeles received a 19.

The City is also installing bike lanes on Doheny Drive between Burton Way and Whitworth Drive and on San Vicente Boulevard between Clifton Way and Wilshire Boulevard.

Transportation Safety Campaign Promotes "31 Days of Bikeways!"

In part of the 2023 Transportation Safety Educational Campaign, the Traffic and Parking Commission is promoting "31 days of bikeways!" for the month of Aug.

The August campaign theme is the various types of bikeways in the City. The campaign is intended to get residents to learn about the different types all month long at www.beverlyhills.org/bikes.

These include "sharrow" pavement markings in shared travel lanes, bike lanes separated from travel lanes with paint, and "protected" bike lanes separated from travel lanes with a physical barrier.

Providing a mix of bikeway types is an effort by the City intended to accommodate cyclists of all ages and levels of comfort.

The structure of the 2023 Transportation Safety Educational Campaign consists of the following: umbrella slogan for all campaign materials, monthly calls to action for road users, supplemental monthly key messages, communication tactics and rationale, collateral details and placement considerations, and graphic design direction.

The umbrella slogan identified for this campaign is, "We watch out for each other." This slogan is meant to convey the community's sense of pride in their city and support for their neighbors, friends, and businesses. It is also meant to remind residents that their care for one another translates to their personal actions on the roads. The slogan will

Each month, the campaign features a different theme based on traffic safety issues. Each theme will have specific, direct calls to action for road users that are intended to improve traffic safety by watching out for each other.

Some monthly themes for this year include: pedestrian safety, right-of-way at intersections, speeding, and safety around schools, among others.

As part of the campaign, residents may request a free "20 is Plenty, Driving Slower Saves Lives" sign to display in front of their property. The signs are available for pick up at the Public Works building during regular business hours.

Planning Commission to Discuss SB 9 Ordinance

At their Aug. 10 meeting the Planning Commission is expected to discuss an interim ordinance that established objective development standards for projects in single-family residential zones constructed pursuant to Senate Bill (SB) 9.

SB 9 supersedes several City regulations regarding single-family residential subdivision and development standards; however, the bill does preserve some authority so that local jurisdictions can enact regulations through the adoption of new and objective zoning regulations.

At their Dec. 7, 2021 meeting the City Council adopted an interim ordinance that created objective standards for SB 9 residential development projects. The standards apply to the ministerial review and approval of a two-lot subdivision, otherwise known as an "urban lot split" and/or development projects with up to two units per lot in single-family residential zones constructed pursuant to SB 9 regulations.

In order to retain the garden quality of the City, the ordinance creates standards for urban lot splits. These standards would generally create a "front" lot that is adjacent to the street and a "rear" lot that would be the back half of a lot, ad-

RUNNING RODEO

Rodeo Drive Committee President Kay Monica Rose on What's Next for the Golden Triangle

By Danielle Berjikian

What made you decide to serve as President of the Rodeo Drive Committee?

For the last 10 years, I've worked at Auto Vault on Rodeo Drive. That's how I got involved as a member of the Rodeo Drive Committee, then as Vice President, and now as President. There's nothing else like the experience of being on Rodeo Drive. The vision of the individuals committed to its future is pretty impressive. That is what the Rodeo Drive Committee is, they're committed to the legacy of the street. I've [observed] firsthand how [the Committee] [collaborates] with the City of Beverly Hills and [civic] partners to make a difference for the street. I really care about Rodeo Drive. I want to preserve that, and I want to lead it into the future.

You have stated that the Committee's "focus will be to nurture a safe, welcoming and vibrant community and to continue to reinvent the street of dreams." Can you elaborate on that?

Rodeo Drive has grown and evolved with new brands on the street. In the ten years that I've been here, there have been new brands bringing with them new audiences. One of the recent ones is Amiri. They're building leading fashion houses and remodeling spectacular flagship properties, such as Chanel's newly recent store. Dior has plans for their new multilevel store with a restaurant and a terrace [and] Cartier is also investing in the street with their new store. So there's always growth. There's such a convergence between art, fashion, special exhibitions, [and] artist collaborations on the street. Now we have Mr. Brainwash's metal art installations of origami sculptures until the end of September. We have long ties with the entertainment world and the myth and the legend continues to expand as Rodeo Drive continues to be an iconic location, drawing people to experience it and share it with others.

"I really care about Rodeo Drive. I want to preserve that, and I want to lead it into the future"

Explain how the Rodeo Drive Committee is different from the CVB.

The Rodeo Drive Committee is a non-profit organization of members, boutiques, and businesses focused on advancing the street to preserve its legacy [and] record of excellence as a luxury fashion and hospitality destination. It's home to more than 100 of the world's leading brands. The Committee is specifically focused on Rodeo Drive, whereas the CVB, they're more focused broadly on promoting the entire City of Beverly Hills as a destination for visitors from around the world. Rodeo Drive is iconic to the experience for visitors and residents of Beverly Hills. We do work closely with the CVB as we do with Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce and with the City.

Tell us about "Rodeo Drive Celebrates Fashion" and "Rodeo Drive Celebrates Timepieces & Fine Jewelry".

Rodeo Drive Celebrates Fashion is from August 7-13. [Rodeo Drive Committee] member brands [will celebrate] their pre-fall collections [with] previews, trunk shows, personalized styling [sessions], exclusive product offerings, and special boutique invitations. It's a special way to discover the craftsmanship, creativity, and innovation of the world's fashion-leading luxury street Rodeo Drive. Each store is doing something different. You can contact your local boutique or hotel to discover what they're doing for Rodeo Drive Celebrates. October 1-7, is Rodeo Drive Celebrates Timepieces & Fine Jewelry.

You are the Managing Director of Auto Vault Beverly Hills. Tell us about that.

Auto Vault [has operated for over four decades] as a premier luxury automotive management company. We provide full service and exceptional customer service to our local and international clients. I've been here for over ten years. In the time I've been associated with Auto Vault, we have grown tremendously. Auto Vault has become one of the sponsors of the Concours d'Elegance. We are of course a member of the Rodeo Drive Committee [and] the Beverly Hills Chamber. We've gotten more involved in this great community and Rodeo Drive since I've been here. So it was clearly a great, successful company, and I've expanded it as its best in class.

You were born and raised in New Orleans, Louisiana. How did you get to LA?

I am very proud to be from New Orleans. I have two older sisters and I come from a very big family back [home]. I was looking for my own independence and identity. My older sister moved to Los Angeles, and I moved here shortly after.

Tell us about your family.

I was raised in a very large family in New Orleans. My mom is number 11 of 13 and I have two older sisters. I grew up with lots of cousins. My mom worked for NASA and was a rocket scientist, which helped me at a very young age to be very independent. My sisters and I were very independent. I have three children of my own. I have two daughters and a son. Both daughters are married. One lives here in Los Angeles, the other daughter lives in New York City, and my son lives here in Beverly Hills. My oldest daughter has two kids.

What advice has outgoing President Kathy Gohari given you?

She has given me lots of advice. She's imparted excellent institutional history with the two terms that she [served] as the Rodeo Drive President prior to me becoming president. She has guided me on the collaborative work that we need to do with the City, our [civic] partners, and with the members. It's been vital to maintaining the vibrant, close community on Rodeo Drive and in the City of Beverly Hills. There [are] two important [pieces of] advice Kathy [gave me]. She said, 'Pick your battles and work on things that matter most to you.'

What are some goals you envision for the Committee?

To lead with empathy and kindness, and to work very closely with the executive committee. Their experience and understanding of the street are very key to nurturing the community of members and partners and fostering the collaboration that is vital to advance the collective vision of members, brands, and businesses as the street expands. I aim to ensure that [Rodeo Drive] remains a compelling and exclusive experience for visitors and residents of all ages so their programs that activate the street and highlight the craftsmanship, creativity, and exceptional service on the street, are important as the continuation of world-class events; like Rodeo Drive Celebrates, the 'Concours d'Elegance', and the Rodeo Drive Holiday Lighting Ceremony, which are annual on our three blocks of our palm-dotted Rodeo Drive.

There are provisions in SB 9 that do not allow urban lot splits in very high fire hazard severity zones (VHFHSZ). Properties north of Sunset Boulevard are included in a VHFHSZ, and the urban lot split provisions would not apply in these zones.

The interim ordinance will expire on Dec. 6. City staff will present a draft ordinance for the Planning Commission to review. Once the Planning Commission has completed their review, the draft ordinance will be presented to the City Council at future public hearings for adoption.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder’s office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 for information regarding the trustee’s sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-23-954748-AB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an “eligible tenant buyer,” you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an “eligible bidder,” you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 800-280-2832, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-23-954748-AB to find the date on which the trustee’s sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee’s sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee’s sale. If you think you may qualify as an “eligible tenant buyer” or “eligible bidder,” you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee’s sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee’s sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee’s sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser’s sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary’s Agent, or the Beneficiary’s Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders right’s against the real property only. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than One mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown in this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 866-266-7512 or visit this Internet Web site www.elitepostandpub.com, using the file number assigned to this case 2023-05546-LOG. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.
