In Beverly Hills, which is famous for a lot of things, including well educated children, there is a small store located at 9635 Santa Monica South Blvd, that only sells cupcakes. You and I would go broke selling the same thing. When school is not in session there is always a very long line of young customers patiently waiting outside to purchase a Sprinkle Cup Cake.

Are these typical of the future leaders of our country, that we are spending trillions of dollars to educate? What am I missing?

Anyone can phone ahead and pick up the cupcakes without a wait...but I guess it wouldn't be as much fun that way...and the cupcakes probably wouldn't taste as good.

Driver of fatal car accident in Levian case pleads not guilty

In his first formal court appearance since the fatal car crash last year that killed Beverly resident Daniel Levian and severely injured Korosh Levian, Sam Moghimi pleaded not guilty to three felony counts.

Over 50 people gathered in support of Levian at the Beverly Hills Courthouse last Wednesday at the arraignment hearing. Friends of Levian were dressed in black.

Moghimi pleaded not guilty to gross vehicular manslaughter while intoxicated, D.U.I. causing injury, and driving with a .08% blood alcohol causing injury.

The next hearing is scheduled for May 26. At that time, a probation report will be prepared and a date will be set for a preliminary hearing. The report will include statements from victims, Moghimi's criminal history, and details on blood alcohol level.

Deputy District Attorney Steven Katz declined comment.

According to court documents, Beverly Hills Police Department investigation was completed last month, and the case was officially filed March 16. The original arraignment date was scheduled for March 17, and was continued April 15 at the request of the defense.

Joshua Olander, associate attorney at the Law Offices of James Blatt in Encino who is not affiliated with the case, said the result of a felony case involving vehicular manslaughter can end in different ways depending on various factors such as criminal history and public reputation.

"In all likelihood the defendant will spend a significant amount of time in custody. Depending on the facts of the case and the plea bargaining involved, the defendant will either serve his time in the county jail or state prison," said Olander. "However, I don't know many cases where something like this happens and a defendant escapes a prison sentence.

Appropriate offense and settlement discussion may be included at the May 26 hearing.

"This was a tragic accident. Both families have suffered and are still suffering greatly. The young men involved were dear friends. We hope we can reach a resolution so the families and community can begin the healing process. Somehow we will reach a resolution in this case," said Donald Wager, defense attorney for Moghimi.

Friends of Levian said coincidentally, 26 was a number that Levian used very often in many aspects of his life, including his company called Century 26.

The LEV Foundation is an organization founded by friends and family of Levian that encourages and promotes responsible lifestyles.

The foundation issued a statement that their group "was created out of a great tragedy and its members continue to cope with the loss of Daniel D. Levian. The LEV Foundation was founded in Daniel's honor and will continue to work to keep his name alive."

Road rage shooting in Beverly Hills

Beverly Hills police detectives are conducting an investigation to identify the shooter of a road rage shooting that occurred on April 11 on Wilshire Boulevard, near Gale Drive.

The victim, a 26-year-old Caucasian male whose name is not being released at this time, was a passenger in a vehicle driving into Beverly Hills. Both the victim and suspect's vehicles nearly collided, which resulted in an argument at a red light.

"The victim of this incident is a Los Angeles resident," said Lt. Tony Lee. "Our detectives are aggressively pursuing this case but will not comment on additional information."

At the time the victim exited the vehicle the suspect drew a gun, shot the victim in the torso and fled the scene.

The victim remains at a local hospital in stable but guarded condition. Beverly Hills police arrived on the scene minutes after the shooting and conducted life saving efforts until paramedics arrived.

Remembering Betty Wilson

Betty Wilson, former Board of Education member, passed away Monday night. She served two terms as president during her time on the Beverly Hills Board of Education from 1983-1991. She also served on the Board of Directors for Jewish Vocations Services, a non-profit organization assisting with job placement, training and scholarships.

Wilson was also Public Works Commissioner for two terms, and served as a director of the Maple Center Board of Directors for over ten years.

Wilson was very active in managing and leading political campaigns in Beverly Hills, including former mayor and friend Donna Ellman-Garber and former Board of Education member Dr. Martin Prince.

"She was strong willed, opinionated, a great woman, and my very best friend. She was like a sister to me," said Ellman-Garber.

She was also a strong supporter of the WPC (Women's Political Campaign). Wilson received her BA degree from UCLA. Wilson is survived by two children, Minda and Tim Wilson, four grandchildren, Henry and Michelle Velasquez, Matthew and Sari Wilson, and husband A. Charles Wilson.

Services will be held today at Hillside Memorial Park at 10 AM. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations to the Jewish Vocational Services (323) 761-8888.

Board of Education unanimously approves "Ethics Seminar"

Despite a few concerns in execution, Board of Education members were all in agreement in moving forward with the Ethics Seminar, formally known as the Beverly Seminar.

The curriculum committee, made up of BHHS teachers and Principal J Guidetti, presented the board members with a detailed presentation of the course outline at Tuesday's Board of Education meeting to get approval for the content of the course.

The Beverly Seminar had been approved last year, but the committee said they felt it did not incorporate everything, and the new name was more fit for the program.

The program is a course aimed at incoming freshmen and sophomores, and will be a graduation requirement. The curriculum focuses on life skills, ethical behavior and judgment. Due to scheduling conflicts, the committee recommended that the class be taken as a summer course, or in place of an elective.

Although the board favored the project and curriculum, they expressed concerns with the short amount of time, if the course was taken as a summer class.

Board president Nooshin Meshkaty said changes with the bell schedule, or a decrease in athletics time might make room for the Ethics Seminar.

She also recommended the course for the middle school level. She said that "labeling" can begin as early as middle school, and the district should be aware of the problem.

Board member Myra Demeter strongly supports the program. At Tuesday's meeting she said, "This is the missing link. Our students have all of the other sources to succeed," said Demeter. "The area that we need to work on is that ethical, moral, inner constitution."

Myra Lurie liked the program and said she wasn't sure if the students would be able to handle the course on top of all other requirements and electives.

Health teacher Colleen Lynch and BHEA President Chris Bushee expressed concerns with the program.

Lynch said the topics covered in the program overlap with health requirements by the state in her own class.

"There are repeated themes in the course. As a teacher I have over 200 standards to meet and it's frustrating," said Lynch. "I don't want to teach my students material they just learned the semester before."

Bushee said some teachers are anxious about the effects of the program.

"There are some fears. This program may cut participation in their elective programs," said Bushee.

Despite issues with delivery, Superintendent Jerry Gross said the efforts of the curriculum committee were great and he wants to give the program a chance.

Board member Brian Goldberg agreed with Gross at Tuesday's meeting.

"I'm very impressed. This is Beverly Hills, we are always thinking outside the box," said Goldberg.

Board members passed the program in a 5-0 vote and agreed to discuss amendments to scheduling conflicts of the program at a later meeting.

West Hollywood City Councilmember Sal Guarriello passes at the age of 90

Sal Guarriello, West Hollywood City Councilmember died last Thursday due to sudden illness.

Guarriello served on the West Hollywood City Council for 19 years after being elected to the West Hollywood City Council in April 1990. He also served three terms as Mayor of West Hollywood.

Guarriello also served as the City's delegate for the Southern California Cities Joint Powers Consortium, was a delegate to the Joint Powers Insurance Authority and served as a Commissioner on the County Public Library Commission, and was one of the oldest elected officials in the United States.

Paul Koretz, former West Hollywood councilmember, recruited Guarriello to run in 1990.

"Sal was a city commissioner at the time and I had been a councilmember for two years. I wanted someone who was ethical and I just felt he was the right guy," said Koretz. "He was 73 at the time, and I thought he'd do one term, but he did an incredible, quite remarkable job for many years."

Koretz said Guarriello was always direct, feisty, ethical, and always stuck up for neighbors and taxpayers in the community.

"He was a regular guy who cared about the city," said Koretz. "He stuck with it and worked really hard, he really surprised me."

According to California government code, West Hollywood councilmembers have 30 days to appoint someone to fill the seat or call for a special election.

The City Council has scheduled a meeting for April 27 at 5 PM at the West Hollywood Park Auditorium to discuss filling Guarriello's seat. Services for Guarriello were Tuesday April 21 at Saint Ambrose Church in West Hollywood.

Hawthorne holds PTA election

Lorraine Eastman and Dana Gilbert were named the new Hawthorne PTA president and vice president Tuesday. Parents, teachers, and staff casted their votes after the monthly PTA meeting.

Contested PTA elections are not common in the district, as presidents are usually appointed by the board.

"I believe we haven't had a PTA election at in at least six years, and this year's election is extremely active. It's definitely big news for us at Hawthorne," said outgoing president Debbie Issacman.

Lorraine Eastman and Dana Gilbert were nominated at last month's meeting by the PTA nominating board, comprised of PTA executives and board members.

Eastman has been actively involved with the Hawthorne PTA for the past three years. She has a kindergartner and 4th grader attending Hawthorne. She believes the biggest and most challenging goal of the PTA is parent involvement.

"A lot of parents don't know that they can be more involved," said Eastman. We can accomplish more with parent involvement in fundraisers, because we need to give the teachers what they need and help provide more resources for our children and the school."

Vice president Gilbert has been a PTA member for four years. Her daughter is a 5th grade student at Hawthorne. Gilbert was also the coordinator for the annual Pajamarama in past years. Gilbert agrees parent involvement is key.

"We need to bridge the gap between the school and the community. We want the community to be more involved with school events," said Gilbert. "We are all here for the same purpose and we want parents to feel ownership and part of the process."

Gilbert also said she wants to add more after school programs such as movie nights for students.

Exhibition signs not approved by City

For almost two weeks, enormous signs barricaded the 9900 Wilshire building adjacent to the Beverly Hilton Hotel promoting the Michael Jackson exhibition.

The event was originally an auction, but was changed to an exhibition after Michael Jackson's Production Company MJJ announced Michael Jackson wanted to retain ownership of the collection.

The exhibit features property from Michael Jackson's career and the Neverland Ranch, coordinated by Julien's Auctions.

The exhibition is considered a special event by the city, which means permits and guidelines are different.

Darren Julien, founder of Julien's auctions, said everything was approved by City of Beverly Hills Special Events Coordinator Benita Miller.

"As far as I know, our entire event has been approved by the city including the fire department regulations. We received a special permit on private property," said Julien.

According to George Chavez, Assistant Director of Community Development and City Building Official, the permit process begins after a submission of materials including all aspects of the event including signs that will be used. The City then reviews the materials, and decides whether to approve or not.

"Permits required under the City's municipal code governing special events were obtained, but the initial application did not specifically address event signage," said Chavez. "The City's goal in all such cases is to seek voluntary compliance, in this case, having the signs taken down. The City is currently pursuing this course of action and hopes to have the matter resolved quickly."

"It's important for the kids to feel really connected with their school. Also, those types of events are so fun for the kids and it's a more relaxed, casual environment," said Gilbert.

Denise Brente and Claudette Robinson also ran for the position of president and vice president. Brente and Robinson nominated themselves for election at last month's meeting.

Brente has a daughter in the 6th grade, and has been involved with the PTA for eight years. Robinson has a granddaughter in the 6th grade as well.

The Hawthorne Science Olympiad was recognized at Tuesday's Board of Education meeting. The team competed in the Los Angeles County Science Olympiad Competition on February 28 at Cal State LA.

Students were coached by science teacher Lori Schwartz and competed in robotics, mapping, anatomy, trajectory, and meteorology. Hawthorne received one first place medal, two second place medals, and three third place medals on the individual events. As a team, they competed in all 24 events and placed in the top half of all teams in our age group.

In addition to creating a positive environment for students and teachers, Brente said she and Robinson also felt the PTA could be more welcoming to parents.

"I think we would like a friendlier PTA. We want to greet them, be welcoming, and make them comfortable when they come," said Brente.

Robinson said building relationships with other PTA members is important.

"We should have a personal greeter that can make people feel welcome, if they feel like they belong, they'll be more likely to come back," said Robinson.

Brente and Robinson agreed attendance at PTA meetings needs to increase.

Eastman and Gilbert said a main goal as president and vice president is to maintain a strong relationship with the city.

"The city does a lot with the school. It's a great relationship. We want to continue and maintain our relationship and collaborate great ideas for our children," said Eastman.

Architectural Commission brings international architects and designers to Beverly Hills

International names in the architectural industry will be guest speaking in Beverly Hills in the next few months according to newly appointed commission chair Hamid Gabbay.

"We're inviting architects to talk to us about their work in architecture and design," said Gabbay. "It's a new program that is a great way for us to learn from another professional and get new ideas."

The commission has scheduled Michael Paladino, international architect to speak on June 4.

According to Gabbay, the architectural commission will also have new responsibilities as of May 1.

"Because the planning commission has so much work to do with the General Plan, some of their duties will come to us, and we will help the best that we can," said Gabbay.

Two females robbed at gunpoint in Beverly Hills

Two suspects were taken in custody early Sunday morning after allegedly robbing two women in a parked car on the 100 block of South Palm Drive.

The two females were approached by one of the suspects, who was armed with a handgun. One suspect took jewelry, cash, and other property from the vehicle, while the other suspect waited in a getaway vehicle.

Beverly Hills police officers responded after the suspects fled the scene and took both suspects into custody on Robertson Boulevard.

Taken into custody were Duanny Montes de Oca, 32, and Algenis Favia, 27, of Los Angeles.

City Manager Resigns

Rod Wood leaves in August

By Rudy Cole

By the time you read this, it will be official: City Manager Rod Wood has resigned.

Although Wood has said he will remain on the job through the lengthy budget process and be available during the replacement search, his not surprising departure comes at a time when the city faces enormous challenges, including a long delayed adoption of a new General Plan.

Why did he leave? In his letter to the council, dated April 24, 2009, but probably informally disclosed earlier, Wood cites the usual reasons of wanting to move on, experience new challenges outside city management positions, travel and more time with family.

All probably true, but it is not exactly a state secret that Wood had serious differences with some councilmembers, and not just on questions of public policy, but on the respective roles of a city manager and an elected official.

Unfortunately for our city, some outside and often bizarre pressures made Wood's job less than pleasant. For reasons it would take a small army of psychiatrists to properly analyze, his independence and strong ethical standards ruffled some would be king makers.

Was Wood a fair, good or great city manager? I think he was probably one of the best we ever had, and did his magic at a most critical time in our city's move toward change.

Probably, he should have tooted his own accomplishments more loudly, or at least occasionally. But there are many in and out of city government who do know how much of a difference Rod has made.

His consolidation of city departments and agencies, cutting costs without diminishing city services, creating an aura of confidence among staff that they are appreciated, being heard and making a difference is not something that is easy to measure, but ask any person who draws a city salary what Rod has done for morale and you will hear almost total appreciation, how many businesses or organizations can make that claim?

This is not to imply that some, if not all, our past city managers were not as good. I think of two that made major contributions to improving city government: Mark Scott and Ed Kreins. However, their talents served very different needs and their styles of management quite different.

Kreins, who had been chief of police, became city manager following a debacle. The city had hired the city manager John Matzer Jr. of Skokie, Illinois, whose real claim to fame was that his city stood up to some marching Nazis. There being few Nazis likely to come to Beverly Hills, that experience, although we may have a few fascists, didn't help. Seriously, he began major shifts in organization that did not consider what had worked or what needed fixing.

Morale was at a city low, but Kreins turned it around. But he too had some distracters on the council: it may come with the job, and decided to retire.

Kreins was followed by Scott, who had worked closely with Kreins in several city departments, and who left for a higher management job elsewhere, but was enticed to return.

Scott had a major operational asset: He knew how to work the city council, and that takes a very special talent. Brilliant, creative, a workaholic, Scott nevertheless managed to avoid almost all controversy and kept his lines of communication open with some of the harshest council critics.

He may have been exactly what the city needed, at that time

Kreins and Scott were both strong managers. Both improved city government enormously, but it was time to meet the challenges technology made possible and to rethink practices and policies that had not really been changed for years.

Enter Wood. Of course, he had a far different council than he has today. It had many years of experience, wanted to encourage change and were almost to a member, able to support his leadership style.

This council, whether for good or bad, is totally different. There is no lawyer on the council. I know, one less lobbyist later is what some of you immediately think, but some of our most creative city leaders were lawyers and that profession's special training helped make government run more smoothly. Of the five, two are new, one has served for only two years, and two others more than four. Usually, new members join a team with more years of service.

Past councils were simply more understanding and appreciative of Wood's work. It was strange that no councilmember even mentioned Wood at last month's induction ceremonies, although other staff members were recognized

Was Wood pushed or shoved out of his job, or was he unable to handle the personal vendettas of a very few, or say one in particular? Wood is not easy to intimidate or pressure. Also, as he explained many times, his job is to reflect and implement decisions made by the elected officials, and he did that very well on general policy issues. He did not and would not cave on matters that fell within his statutory responsibilities, and those include management of every city department aside from city clerk and city attorney.

Part of the problem in any form of government is defining the different roles of elected as opposed to appointed officials. The city manager form of city government was part of the reform movements after World War II. To end corruption, to curtail mayors and city councilmembers from interfering with staff duties, city managers were given almost every management responsibility.

Understandably, this often irks those elected to public office. After all, they, the politicians, have to face the voters, not some bureaucrat. But the reforms worked and even larger cities have more toward professional civil servants having direct authority over operations.

Sometimes, new councilmembers here and in other cities, need to truly understand the city manager form of municipal governing. Of course, some understand all too well, it just doesn't thrill them.

Probably not likely to happen, but our city would be well served if the council asked Wood to stay at least until next March. We need to really have the time to find a replacement, and that is going to be an enormous challenge. I'm sorry Wood is resigning, I understand his reasons and we will survive, but his very special talents and personal strengths will be missed. One thing we need to be sure of is that whoever is the new city manager does not feel he or she has to become an errand person for the council or to be fearful of any would be power brokers.

Best possible scenario: Pick a successor from one of the many able staff members at city hall. Mahdi Aluzri, who recently returned to Rexford Drive after a brief stint elsewhere, has considerable experience in leading both planning and building safety, and later both, when they were combined into one division. Katie Lichtig has clearly shown her leadership talents and budget skills. Strong and independent, she, along with Aluzri are assistant city managers. But there are others too. Police Chief David Snowden and Fire Chief Tim Scranton know how city government works and are highly regarded in the community. There are department and division leaders who all could qualify too. This could also be exactly the right time to find a qualified woman who would be our first female city manager

Not only must our new city manager have municipal government skills, he or she needs to have insights into our very special village and its enormous diversities. There simply is no comparable model.

This needs far more than my deadline permits. I will have comments from past councilmembers, community leaders and past and present staff members next week. Also, my apologies for not having space for some great events, including a city library literacy support team luncheon.

Try us again next Thursday.

Very Sad Note: Betty Wilson (Mrs. Chuck, she would say,) (see page 3) died this week.

She had devoted a good part of her life to public service and almost always with husband Charles sharing the work.

Former school board president and member, active board members of many top civic and charitable organizations, the Wilsons did give back.

But Betty did not suffer fools softly. It didn't take too much probing to understand her views on everything from national to local politics.

Although we had been friends for years, and it was Betty who first brought me to the board of Jewish Vocational Services, one of her major interests, I knew that her phone call meant something in my column hadn't won her love. She was gentle, and most often right, but very direct. Beverly Hills has lost a gem of a person who lived the life of her principles. Our condolences to Chuck and the whole Wilson family. Services are today at Hillside.

Rudy Cole served for eight years as a member and chair of the city's Recreation & Parks Commission. He was also President of the Greystone Foundation and served on three other city committees. Rudy can be reached at: Rudy@bhweekly.com.

BHHS Boys' Swimmers Edged By El Segundo

Norman boys' golf team remains undefeated.

By Steven Herbert

Beverly High was tied with El Segundo entering the final event of its Pioneer League boys' swimming meet last Thursday at the Swim-Gym, but the Normans were denied their first victory of the season as they failed to win the 400-yard freestyle relay in an 88-82 loss.

Beverly Hills (0-4-1, 0-3-1 in league competition) pulled into a 78-78 tie as Willie Zhang won the next-to-last event, the 100 breaststroke, and teammate Justin Brezhnev finished second, giving Beverly Hills 10 points.

The Normans received two more points from Kevin Cruz's fourth-place finish, outscoring the Eagles, 12-4, in the race.

Kevin Suarez was Beverly Hills' other individual event winner, winning the 200 individual medley and 100 backstroke.

Suarez also swam the first leg on the Normans' victorious 200 medley relay team. Zhang, Christian Apt and Kevin Youssefzadeh swam the remaining legs.

Individual events are scored on a 6-4-3-2-1 basis and relays 8-4-2.

Girls' Swimming

Torrance 117, Beverly Hills 53

Young In Lee won the 100-yard breaststroke and swam a leg on the Normans' victorious 200 freestyle relay team in Pioneer League meet March 26 at the Victor E. Benstead Plunge in Torrance.

Alli Friedman, Michelle Margolin and Mallory Smith swam the other legs of the relay for the Normans.

El Segundo 99, Beverly Hills 68

The Normans (0-5, 0-4) failed to win an event in a Pioneer League meet last Thursday at the Swim-Gym.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to compete against Culver City today in a Pioneer League meet at the Culver City Municipal Plunge beginning at 3 p.m.

Boys' Golf

Beverly Hills 182, North Torrance 204

Josh Newman shot a one-under-par 34 and Colt Knedler an even-par 35 last Thursday in an Ocean League match at Rancho Park Golf Course as the Normans (11-0, 8-0) remained undefeated.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play host to Torrance today at Rancho Park Golf Course in an Ocean League match beginning at 1:36 p.m.

Golf

Beverly High senior Mario Clemens finished second in the Terra Cotta Invitational, finishing two shots behind champion Matt Ceravolo.

Clemens, who has signed with UCLA, shot a three-round total of two-under-par 214, including a final-round three-under-69, for the three-round tournament at the Naples National Golf Club in Naples, Fla. that concluded Sunday.

Softball

Beverly Hills 15-4, Lawndale Leuzinger 5-1

The Normans made the most of their two hits in the nightcap to complete the sweep of a nonleague doubleheader at Beverly Hills March 27.

Morgan Harding singled in Emily Rosen, who walked, with one out in the first inning. Lexi Silbiger had Beverly Hills' other hit, a third-inning triple which drove in Harding, who walked.

Beverly Hills scored two more runs in the first as Rebecca Gold, who walked, and Harding, scored when Tamar Rotstein was safe on an error by the Olympians shortstop.

Leuzinger scored its run in the fourth.

Rosen (5-5) who also started and won the opener, pitched a complete game, allowing three hits and one earned run in seven innings, striking out four and not walking a batter.

In the opener, Silbiger drove in six runs with a fourth-inning grand slam, a first-inning triple and a ground out in the second in a game shortened to 4 1/2 innings because of the 10-run rule.

Gold went three-for-three with a single and two doubles. Harding also had two hits as the Normans out-hit the Olympians, 12-2.

Beverly Hills combined doubles by Gold and Lisa Kliman, Silbiger's triple and walks to Annie Math and Harding for five runs in the first inning.

The Normans increased their lead to 8-0 in the second as Harding had an RBI double and scored on Silbiger's ground out. Lauren Siegel, a courtesy runner for Gold, who singled, scored when Kliman reached base on an error by Leuzinger's shortstop.

Beverly Hills scored seven runs in the fourth, sending 11 batters to the plate. The Normans' first three batters, Gold, Harding and Kliman all walked and scored on Silbiger's grand slam.

Beverly Hills combined an error by the Olympians' shortstop and singles by Math, Rosen, Gold and Harding for three more runs in the inning.

Leuzinger scored once in the fourth and four times in the fifth.

Rosen pitched a complete game, allowing five runs (three earned) and two hits in five innings, striking out four and walking four.

Los Angeles Marymount 10, Beverly Hills 0

Gold doubled in the first and Math singled in the third for the Normans' only hits in a nonleague game at Beverly Hills March 24.

The Sailors scored once in the second, twice in the third, three times in the fourth, once in the fifth and three times in the seventh.

Rosen (3-5), the Beverly Hills starter, allowed six runs (two earned) and nine hits in four innings, striking out one batter and walking two.

The Normans were out-hit 13-2.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play host to Culver City today and at Hawthorne Tuesday in Ocean League games beginning at 3:15 p.m.

Baseball

Beverly Hills 3, Santa Monica Crossroads 2

Erik Munzer's one-out single in the bottom of the ninth inning drove in Joey Livingston, who tripled, in a nonleague game at La Cienega Park March 19, giving the Normans their first victory after they opened the season with six consecutive losses.

Beverly Hills allowed runs in the second and third, then tied the score with two runs in the fifth. With two outs, Michael Kerman was hit by a pitch, then scored on Kyle Kay's double. Ben Jones followed with a double, driving in Kay.

Kerman (1-0) pitched three innings of shutout relief for the victory, allowing three hits, striking out one and walking two.

Kerman allowed a two-out single to Jake Berg-Rosenblatt in the seventh and walked Caleb Hodge with two outs in the eighth, but retired the next batter in both innings.

Kerman faced a bigger jam in the ninth. After getting Garrett Baer and Max Robinson to both ground out, Jaysen Chariamonte singled, then moved to third on Berg-Rosenblatt's single. Kerman struck out Jason Schnieder to end the Roadrunners' threat.

Munzer was the Normans' starting pitcher, allowing two runs (both earned) and four hits in six innings, striking out six, walking two and hitting a batter.

Ben Sitman-Sommers tripled for Beverly Hills with two outs in the second, but was stranded when Charlie Bennett grounded out to end the inning.

Bennett singled with two outs in the fourth and advanced to second on Shane Shapiro's walk, but Livingston struck out to end the inning.

Munzer singled with one out in the second, but was among three runners left on base when Kay grounded out to end the inning.

Both teams had seven hits.

Wallingford (Conn.) Choate Rosemary Hall 7, Beverly Hills 5

Livingston drove in two runs, scored a third and hit a triple for the Normans in an inter-sectional game at La Cienega Park March 18.

Munzer went two-for-four and drove in a run for Beverly Hills. Shapiro tripled in his only at bat for Beverly Hills, drove in a run and scored. Jones and Sitman-Sommers both singled and scored for the Normans. Bennett scored Beverly Hills' other run, while Kerman had its other single.

The Normans scored three runs in the third inning, taking a 3-2 lead. The Wild Boars scored four times in the third to move ahead 6-3. Beverly Hills scored twice in the sixth, Choate Rosemary Hall once in the seventh.

The Wild Boars had taken a 2-0 lead with runs in the first and second. The Normans were out-hit, 9-7.

Kay (0-2) started on the mound, allowing six runs (two earned) and seven hits in six innings, striking out three and walking a batter.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play at Inglewood Morningside today and play host to Hawthorne Tuesday at La Cienega Park in Ocean League games beginning at 3:15 p.m. and play at Alhambra Saturday in a nonleague doubleheader beginning at 11 a.m.

Girls' Track and Field

Beverly Hills 106, Inglewood Morningside 6

Kemi Olbnade won the long jump and high jump for the Normans in an Ocean League meet at Morningside March 26.

Beverly Hills also got victories from Ashley Austin (300 meter low hurdles), Kiarra Brown (200) Sydney Gray (800), Raquel Hefflin (400) and Erika Hill (100).

Boys' Track and Field

Beverly Hills 98, Inglewood Morningside 12

Zach Gallagher (long jump), Trey Haughton (400), Caylin Hauptmann (shot put), Julian Sarokin (100) and Trevor Walters (200) were among the winners for the Normans in an Ocean League meet at Morningside March 26.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to compete against Culver City today in an Ocean League meet beginning at 2:45 p.m. at Culver City.

Boys' Tennis

Santa Barbara 11, Beverly Hills 7

No. 1 singles player Gary Parizher and the James Ephrati-Andre Herd and Jonathan Jason and Donovan Suh doubles teams all won two of three sets for the Normans in a nonleague match at Beverly Hills April 14.

Beverly Hills' other victory came from its No. 3 doubles team, Ben Haber and David Roth, which won its second-round set, 7-6 (5).

The Normans trailed 4-2 at the end of the first round and 7-5 at the end of the second.

The Dons were ranked third in the Southern Section Division I poll released Monday, while Beverly Hills was ranked first in Division III.

AN APPLE FOR THE TEACHER

A look at this year's BHEF Apple Award recipients

By Diana Vu

This year's Apple Ball will be held May 5th at the Beverly Hilton. Various teachers and staff from each school site will be honored. Here are their stories.

William Aardappel
El Rodeo: K-6th General Music/Vocal
Teacher and Musical Theatre Program
Grades 7th-8th
2003-Present

William Aardappel credits his career in Beverly Hills to close friend and El Rodeo 3rd grade teacher Jean Nelson.

"She has been my friend for about 25 years. The position opened up about seven years ago, and she told me I'd be perfect for it," said Aardappel. "I came for the interview and got the job."

Aardappel was hired by [former principal] Steve Fisher, who retired shortly after Aardappel began teaching at El Rodeo.

"My first year was his last year. He is highly regarded both as an educator and administrator," said Aardappel. "I had the honor of planning music for his retirement and wrote a song for him."

Before becoming a part of the El Rodeo family, Aardappel taught music for over 15 years at private schools St. Bede in La Canada and San Gabriel Mission in San Gabriel. Aardappel said the transition from private to public school was a challenge at first, but worth it.

"The way in which the school system works is completely different. Even for simple things like ordering supplies. It's different, so I had to adjust my first year," said Aardappel. "Overall it's been great, for example, there is a large population of Persians here and I've learned so much about their culture, which I didn't know anything about before."

Aardappel also said public schools pleasantly surprised him.

"Most people assume that public school students are different from private school students in that private school students tend to be more connected and responsive," said Aardappel. "But that is not the case in Beverly Hills. The students here are every bit as caring and willing to learn as much as any other students."

After attending Cal State Los Angeles, Aardappel originally envisioned himself as a college level educator.

"My greatest apprehension was middle school," said Aardappel. "Once in a while it can be the hardest thing teaching this level, but it is far more rewarding than I could have ever expected."

Aardappel said the Apple Award is a confirmation of his passion and love of his job and students.

"It's a great honor but the Apple Ball is so much bigger than each individual," said Aardappel. "It's the community coming together to support education."

Bob Bailey
Hawthorne: 8th grade English
1976-Present

"Middle school kids are the most complex. It's the most awkward and exciting age all at the same time," said Bob Bailey of teaching 8th grade at Hawthorne for 33 years.

Bailey said middle school students can be difficult to understand, and through the years he has learned to adjust to the unique needs of teenagers.

"Almost weekly there is a student in tears for whatever reason, to the point where they can't control it in class," said Bailey. "I've stopped asking them what's wrong and now I just ignore them, because whoever caused the tears, is their best friend the next day. The social mood swings the students have is like a circus sometimes. I love the kids and they love me back, we just get used to it."

Bailey, a popular and long time teacher at Hawthorne has also had the opportunity to teach children of former students.

"This year, I have two to three kids of former students. For example, Ethan Shiri's mother is Sandy [Mathalon] Shiri who was a former student of mine. I remember her very well. Overall it's a lot of fun, and the parents get to experience 8th grade all over again," said Bailey.

Bailey said he turns to fellow teachers for support.

"Janet Lambert, my colleague for many years, has been a continuing model of strength, a noun and concept which we teachers need to grasp on a regular basis," said Bailey.

Bailey also said he learned a lot from retired social studies teacher George Fourgis.

"I am so thankful for George and I learned so much from him over the years," said Bailey. "He always said, 'Trust that the best way to teach is do what you do best.'"

Dr. Milt Rowen, former Hawthorne principal [1965-1983] who hired Bailey 33 years ago passed away earlier this year.

"He was strong, wise, and crazy all lumped together in one," said Bailey. "He was a great principal to have as my first."

Bailey said Rowen, who as a principal would crawl through ducts and fix electrical wiring taught him a valuable lesson in his first years teaching.

"He taught me if you need to have something done, do it yourself," said Bailey.

Times have also changed in regards to the school system.

"When I started in 1976, things were a little different. Money is a problem now. This district was state of the art, and we were one of the highest paid schools. Other schools would try to even be close to what we were," said Bailey. "It is still true today, but to a lesser extent. We are still an elite school, but there are some financial issues."

Nevertheless, Bailey continues to find happiness year after year with his students.

"Every year I get to experience graduation. That nostalgia, where everyone's glowing. I see the students and their parents' faces, and no matter what happens throughout the year, at that moment, everyone's on the same page.

Caleb Humphreys
Beverly Vista: 7th grade Social Studies, 8th grade Drama, & Student Council Advisor
2004-Present

"I always wanted to teach in Beverly Hills," said Caleb Humphreys. "There is such a high standard that is just unmatched."

Humphreys juggles social studies and drama, two subjects that seem opposite, but in Humphrey's opinion, are more alike than one may think.

"At the end of the day it's storytelling," said Humphreys. "In drama you're telling a story for entertainment, and in social studies, you're telling a story of the past to educate students.

Both subjects are interconnected by the common thread of telling stories."

Humphreys worked as a performer, administrator, and educator at theatres across Kentucky, Texas, and California before he taught at Vista Del Mar Child and Family Services' for three years.

Humphreys earned a Master's degree and teaching credential from Pepperdine University and taught at Mira Costa High School in Manhattan Beach before coming to Beverly Vista in 2004.

Humphreys has created a number of unique learning programs for students including the "Change for Change" program which encourages students to nominate and vote on worthwhile philanthropic destinations for their collected loose change.

Caleb also oversees BV's student council. Since his involvement, the student council has donated close to $9000 to a variety of charitable causes. Recipients of the council's charitable efforts include Camp Heartland, Susan G. Komen Foundation, Michael J. Fox Foundation, and the Institute for Myeloma and Bone Cancer Research.

"Anything is possible if you approach it with a can-do attitude," said Humphreys.

Humphreys also provides tutoring for at-risk students. In addition to his class responsibilities, Caleb contributes to BV with his consistent participation on the 7th grade field trip to Catalina Island, and serving on BV's Instructional Leadership Team.

Diane Mead
District Office: Coordinator of Special Projects & Professional Development
1975-Present

Diane Mead started her BHUSD journey as a kindergarten teacher at Beverly Vista in 1975. Mead continued her career at BV teaching 1st grade, 5th grade, and as an English Learning specialist.

"My first year we celebrated the Bicentennial, and we used it as our theme to teach reading and writing and created a program called Holiday USA. In fact, Jennifer Gordon, now a parent in our school district, was in that first class and was a star in that program," said Mead. "I taught fifth grade with a wonderful team of teachers, including Norm Kades, Karen Knowles, and Elaine Palazzo who is still a fifth grade teacher at BV. Todd Okum, who is now a parent in our district, was in one of my first fifth grade classes."

In her 34th year with the district, Mead is the Coordinator of Special Projects & Professional Development. She is currently the director of the BTSA Beginning Teacher Program.

Although Mead is no longer teaching children directly, Mead is still teaching. Her current position with the BTSA program involves instructing new teachers. Caleb Humphreys, one of this year's Apple Ball honorees, was one of her students in her teaching instruction class from a few years ago.

The program will graduate 20 teachers and recommend them for their Clear Credential this year. This is the largest group of new teachers to graduate in the history of the BHUSD BTSA program.

"I do miss the kids sometimes. It was a difficult transition at first, but I'm so fortunate to have the career that I've had," said Mead.

Mead said she was inspired and still keeps in touch with one her students from BV, a Japanese student whom she taught English who now resides in Japan.

"Mami Kuzuya was a 7th grade student at Beverly Vista and didn't know any English. By the time she left, she was in the honors English program. She was so dedicated and did an incredible job," said Mead. "I worked with a lot of students, and she really proved that if you provide the opportunity, any student can excel."

Rachel Pearce
Horace Mann: 3rd Grade
1996-Present

Rachel Pearce brings her fun and energetic attitude to her 3rd grade class every morning to keep her students on their toes.

"I'm enthusiastic about everything, and my students see that. I try to bring personality and a younger, fun feel to the classroom," said Pearce. "I'm not a yeller, and I try to instill in my students that we are all here to learn and have fun. It makes the students comfortable with me."

Pearce, who is in her 13th year at Horace Mann, said her style works, and parents say their children are really happy to come to her class.

"There is a fine line between being a teacher and a friend, and I walk it, and the kids know that they can come to me," said Pearce. "I try to be real and treat them with respect."

Pearce was welcomed to Horace Mann 13 years ago by retired teachers Lynn Koff and Roz Fleishman, who she said were her role models and mentors.

"They made me feel really comfortable and at ease. They taught me everything I know, and they always told me to have high expectations," said Pearce. "That alone has really made me a better teacher."

Pearce was hired by former principal [1976-2001] Arthur Fields.

"Art was definitely a principal that will live on at Horace Mann forever. People still talk about him today. He created such a strong support system for teachers," said Pearce. "He helped build Horace Mann to what it is. He was more managerial than principals are today. Styles are a little different now, where the principals are more active and involved with the students."

Pearce said she enjoys teaching 3rd grade because she prepares the students before they move on to "big kid school."

"It's a critical year. As I teacher I am trying to get them to be independent. It's the last stop before they are on their own," said Pearce. "It's a year where you see tremendous growth, where the kids are really starting to apply their knowledge."

Pearce said even simple things change throughout the course of the year.

"In the beginning of the year the kids are struggling to manage their supplies, and by the end of the year they have their binders all organized. It's true, and I really love seeing it every year. It's a mixture of their fun personalities and growth and it really keeps me going."

Pete Van Rossum
Beverly Hills High School: AP European History, AP Comparative Politics, & World History
1994-Present

Pete Van Rossum began his career at Beverly as a student teacher in 1994. Fast forward to the future: Van Rossum is in his 15th year as a social studies teacher and loving every minute of it.

"I was studying at UCLA in the education program, and they put me at Beverly High. I never thought I would be back in Beverly Hills, but luckily for me, a position opened and here I am," said Van Rossum.

Van Rossum credits his success to great mentors. Retired Beverly teachers Chuck Kloes and Scott Harvey made an impact on Van Rossum's style and career.

"I feel really lucky to have had such great mentors and follow their example," said Van Rossum.

As a result of teaching such vigorous AP courses, one would assume that Van Rossum is quite strict when it comes to his teaching style, but Van Rossum said he likes to mix things up in his classroom.

"Strict is pretty accurate. I hold my students true to the level of AP classes. They're hard, but I like to make it fun," said Van Rossum. "If I don't get them to laugh sometimes, I haven't done my job."

Van Rossum, who is married to Beverly English teacher Celeste McDonald, also coordinates an annual trip overseas with Beverly students. This year Van Rossum led students in his 10th tour to Europe, taking students through Spain including the cities of Granada, Ronda, Seville, Cordoba, and Madrid. A photo from a recent page appears on page two.

Melody Voyles
District Office: Sr. Payroll/Benefits Specialist
1994-Present

Melody Voyles left the corporate world to work with BHUSD in 1994.

"I had been with a corporate office in downtown for a long time, and I really wanted things to slow down a little bit," said Voyles. "I needed a change of pace and Beverly Vista was the perfect place for me."

Voyles started her BHUSD journey as an office assistant for BV right after the 1994 earthquake.

"I spent a lot of time in the portables. Most of the damage was internal, but it was a drastic change," said Voyles. "Now, seeing the auditoriums and seeing the school come to life again is really amazing."

Voyles said she stayed in Beverly Hills because of the community.

"I remember one year when I was Christmas shopping and ran in to one of my students. He told his mom, 'Mommy look! It's the office!' It's a really great community that is so unique. I really loved working at the school and being close to the kids," said Voyles.

Today, Voyles handles payroll and benefits at the district office and said she is still connected with people within the district everyday.

"There are people in the past few years that have come to me in benefits as new teachers like David Foldvary [Horace Mann] and Michelle Kaye [Hawthorne] and I can remember giving them band-aids for their boo-boos," said Voyles.

As a benefits specialist, Voyles also gets to see the other side of the spectrum.

"I also get to work with retirees. I still talk to [former superintendent] Ken Peters and other really great people who were here even before my time," said Voyles. "They still comment and are curious with what's going on in the school system, so that makes my job really nice. I get to see both ends of the scale."

Marla Weiss
Beverly Hills High School: Math/Science teacher and volleyball coach
1987-Present

Beverly Vista and Beverly High alum ['81] Marla Weiss always knew she wanted to be in Beverly Hills.

After completing her studies at Northwestern University, Weiss began teaching at Beverly in 1987.

"My dad was a teacher, and I loved my high school experience, so naturally, I ended up at Beverly," said Weiss. "I worked for [former principals] Sol Levine for a while then with Ben Bushman, who is amazing. He was 1000 percent supportive and you really don't get much better than him."

Weiss currently teaches math and science, and has also taught computers and health in the past.

"I love teaching, it's challenging and every day is something new. I enjoy teaching different subjects because I hate being bored. If I'm bored, then the students will be bored," said Weiss.

Weiss said she continues her career at Beverly because of the dynamic high school students.

"I love the school. It's my alma mater and I want to see it continue to excel," said Weiss. "I look back and every year I have a different experience. Each student reacts and approaches things differently and I learn from them every day. There's not a boring day in high school."

Weiss, who is currently a volleyball coach, said her former volleyball coach at Beverly is her biggest role model.

"Sue Woodyard was the most influential person growing up. She was motivating and compassionate, and really made me a strong person," said Weiss.

Weiss said although times have changed, the students have not.

"To me, high school kids are high school kids. My students still go through similar challenges and stresses from 20 years ago. Whatever environment you create, kids will respond. That's the important part, and that hasn't changed," said Weiss.

Lillian and Stuart Raffel

Bosse Spirit of Philanthropy Award

Lillian and Stuart Raffel have been married for 25 years. Both Lillian and Stuart said the Beverly Hills community is one of the best, and it was the public schools that lured them in over 20 years ago.

"I'm a great believer in public school. We moved to Beverly Hills specifically for our daughter [Stephanie Middler] to attend the schools here," said Stuart.

Lillian, who grew up in Downey, said being involved with schools was always a part of her life.

"My daughter was a big motivator as far as being involved with schools," said Lillian. "I was also a teacher at LA community college and Mount St Mary's University, so it was always a part of me."

Their daughter attended El Rodeo, where Lillian was a PTA president, and graduated from Beverly in 1996.

"One of my best moments was my daughter's graduation," said Lillian, who was a school board member at the time. "It was really amazing to be the person to hand her the diploma."

Lillian served on the Beverly Hills Board of Education from 1991-97, and as the Board of Education member of the California State Teachers' Retirement System Board (CalSTRS). She still keeps up with school news on a regular basis.

"[Board of Education member] Steven Fenton is doing a terrific job in my opinion," said Lillian. "He is part of a really great legacy."

Lillian said there are ups and downs, but she thoroughly enjoyed her time on the Board of Education, especially the personal connections she made over the years.

"The hardest part of the job was the expulsion hearings and having to expel a child from school, but I really treasured the calls, letters and in person "thank you" that I got from parents and students for helping them," said Lillian.

Lillian also said former superintendent [1998-98] Sol Levine is one of her inspirations.

"He was a great man, and we could use his wisdom," said Lillian. "He is thoroughly missed."

Stuart currently serves on the Board of Governors at the Maple Counseling Center and is chairman of the American Jewish University.

Lillian, who has been actively involved with the annual Black and White Ball, also contributes to the Women's Political Committee (WPC) where she serves as Federal PAC co-chair.

Lillian and Stuart continue to play an important role in BHUSD, contributing to charity and actively participating in Beverly Hills events. She is honored to be receiving this award.

"Everyone is affected by schools. To me it means getting community support behind schools," said Lillian. "We need to support them financially."

Stuart said the award is significant, and is happy the teachers are being honored.

"It's really a chance to recognize the most excellent teachers and how important they are," said Stuart.

ORDINANCE NO. 09-O-2564

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING THE CITY TREASURER'S COMPENSATION AND AMENDING THE BEVERLY HILLS MUNICIPAL CODE

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 2-3-1203 of Article 12 of Chapter 3 of Title 2 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

"2-3-1203: Compensation

The city treasurer shall receive a monthly salary of two hundred dollars ($200.00)."

Section 2. Severability. If any section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion of this Ordinance or the application thereof to any person or place, is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by the decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have adopted this Ordinance, and each and every section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, subdivisions, sentences, clauses, phrases, or portions thereof be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 3. Publication. The City Clerk shall cause this Ordinance to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the City within fifteen (15) days after its passage, in accordance with Section 36933 of the Government Code; shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause this Ordinance and his certification, together with proof of publication, to be entered in the Book of Ordinances of the Council of this City.

Section 4. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall go into effect and be in full force and effect at 12:01 a.m. on the thirty-first (31st) day after its passage.

Adopted: April 7, 2009

Effective: May 8, 2009

ORDINANCE NO. 09-O-2565

ORDNANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS REGARDING THE APPLICABILITY OF PARKING AND LOADING STANDARDS TO CERTAIN NONCONFORMING COMMERCIAL STRUCTURES IN THE C-3T-2 ZONE ON OLYMPIC BOULEVARD BETWEEN REXFORD DRIVE AND ROBERTSON BOULEVARD

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS
HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. It has come to the attention of the City that existing deficiencies in parking and the loading facilities can be exacerbated as a result of changes in, or introduction of, new businesses in existing nonconforming buildings within the Commercial Transition Zone (C 3T 2) along Olympic Boulevard between Rexford Drive and Robertson Boulevard. These deficiencies in parking, loading, or both, cause the intrusion of parking and other activity associated with commercial uses into nearby residential areas. Such intrusion negatively impacts the character and enjoyment of these residential areas.

Section 2. The Planning Commission considered the zone text amendment set forth in this Ordinance at a duly-noticed public hearing on January 29, 2009. Evidence, both written and oral was presented during the hearing. After considering the evidence, discussing the ordinance, and providing direction to staff regarding revisions to same, the Planning Commission recommended that the City Council adopt an Ordinance substantially similar to this Ordinance.

Section 3. The City Council considered this Ordinance at a duly noticed public hearing on February 17, 2009. Evidence, both written and oral, was presented during the hearing.

Section 4. The City Council hereby finds that it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the adoption and implementation of this Ordinance may have a significant effect on the environment. The proposed ordinance does not authorize construction and, in fact, imposes greater restrictions on certain development in order to protect the public health, safety and general welfare. The proposed ordinance is therefore exempt from the environmental review requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to Section 15061(b)(3) of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations. Further, the proposed ordinance is exempt from CEQA on the separate and independent ground that it is an action of a regulatory agency (the City) for protection of the environment because it will protect residential neighborhoods from impacts associated with intensification of commercial uses, and thus qualifies as a Class 8 exemption pursuant to Section 15308 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations.

Section 5. City Council hereby adds Section 10-3-1633 to Article 16.3 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code regarding the C-3T-2 Commercial Transition Zone to read as follows:

"Section 10-3-1633: Intensification of Existing Nonconforming Uses.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 41 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code, if intensification of a major commercial space located in the Olympic Commercial Residential Transition Area, as defined in Section 10-3-1633 A., is proposed, such proposal shall comply with current parking and loading standards set forth in Sections 10-3-2729, 10-3-2730, 10-3-2741, 10-3-2742, and 10-3-2743, unless, pursuant to the provisions of Section 10-3-1633 C., the Planning Commission approves and establishes parking standards, loading standards, or both, that differ from the otherwise applicable standards.

A. Definitions. For the purposes of this Section, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning set forth below:

1. 'Olympic Commercial-Residential Transition Area' shall mean the portion of the C-3T-2 Zone located between Rexford Drive and the alley immediately west of Robertson Boulevard.

2. 'Intensification of Use' shall mean a change in use where the new use is listed in a higher tier on the list set forth in Section 10-3-1633B than the previous use. Tier 2, for example, is higher than Tier 1.

3. 'Major Commercial Space' shall mean buildings and tenant spaces that meet any of the following:

(a) Existing commercial buildings with 12,000 square feet or more of floor area as defined by Section 10-3-100, which is proposed to be occupied by a single tenant or business, even if a reduction in the floor area below 12,000 square feet is proposed, or

(b) Existing multiple-tenant commercial buildings that include one or more spaces with 12,000 square feet or more of floor area as defined by Section 10-3-100 which is proposed to be intensified, even if a reduction in the floor area of one or more of the spaces with 12,000 square feet or more is proposed, or

(c) Existing multiple-tenant commercial buildings that are proposed to be reconfigured to create one or more new tenant spaces with 12,000 square feet or more of floor area as defined by Section 10-3-100.

4. 'Regular Operation' shall mean a permitted or existing nonconforming use that is open for business to the general public during a use's customary business hours.

B. Intensity of Use. To determine whether a change of use is an intensification of use, uses have been classified into the following three tiers of land use intensity. Tier 1 represents the lowest intensity of use, Tier 2 represents a higher intensity of use than Tier 1, and Tier 3 represents the highest intensity of use.

Tier 1 shall include: warehousing or storage, mini-warehouses, antique stores, furniture stores, car sales, or service, surface parking, and other similar uses as determined by the Director of Community Development.

Tier 2 shall include: apparel stores, hardware stores, toy stores, general retail stores, general offices, health/fitness clubs, and other similar uses as determined by the Director of Community Development.

Tier 3 shall include: restaurants, supermarkets, drugstores,, convenience markets, video rental stores, educational institutions, religious institutions, medical offices, beauty shops, and other similar uses as determined by the Director of Community Development.

In determining the tier in which a specific use belongs, the Director of Community Development may consider all relevant factors including, without limitation, parking demand and traffic generation as indicated in ITE Parking Generation, 3rd Edition; ULI Shared Parking, 2nd Edition; ITE Trip Generation, 7th Edition, or any combination thereof; vehicle trips generated by the use; the judgment of the Director of Public Works and Transportation; and any data or evidence and supporting analysis provided by a registered engineer.

C. Planning Commission Authority. A project applicant may apply to the Planning Commission for a change to the parking standards, loading standards, or both, required by this Section. The application shall be submitted and processed pursuant to the procedures established for the City's Development Plan Review process as set forth in Article 31 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code. The Planning Commission may establish parking requirements that differ from those requirements set forth in Section 10-3-2729 or Section 10-3-2730 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code if, in addition to the Development Plan Review findings of Section 10-3-3 104, the Planning Commission determines that the use will generate a need for parking different than the amount or layout of parking required under Section 10-3-, 2730 or the Commission determines that the parking demand will be met by means other than those means specified in Section 10-3-2730; provided further, that the Planning Commission may not reduce the required parking to less than the amount of parking that can currently be accommodated on the subject site.

The Planning Commission may also establish loading requirements that are different than those requirements established in Sections 10-3-2740 through 10-3-2742 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code if, in addition to the Development Plan Review findings of Section 10-3-3104, the Planning Commission determines that the use's loading needs can be accommodated with a number of spaces, layout, or both, that differs from the requirements of Sections 10-3-2740 through 10-3-2742, or if the Commission determines that the use's loading requirements will be met by means other than those specified in Sections 10-3-2740 through 10-3-2742."

Section 6. Based on the evidence presented in the record on this matter including the staff report and oral and written testimony, the City Council hereby finds that by protecting neighborhoods, the proposed ordinance will help to maintain the community's housing stock and preserve the viability and stability of residential neighborhoods (Goal No. 1 in the Housing Element; Objective 1.1 in the Land Use Element). The proposed ordinance proposes no changes in density and presents no conflicts with the policies in the General Plan; therefore, because the Ordinance also advances policies of the General Plan, it is consistent with the General Plan.

Section 7. Interim Ordinance No. 08-0-2556, as extended by Ordinance No. 08-0-2559, is hereby repealed when this ordinance takes effect.

Section 8. Severability. If any section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion of this Ordinance or the application thereof to any person or place, is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by the final decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Ordinance shall be remain in full force and effect.

Section 9. Publication. The City Clerk shall cause this Ordinance to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the City within fifteen (15) days after its passage in accordance with Section 36933 of the Government Code, shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause this Ordinance and his certification, together with proof of publication, to be entered in the Book of Ordinances of the Council of this City.

Section 10. This Ordinance shall go into effect and be in full force and effect at 12:01 a.m. on the thirty-first (31st) day after its passage.
