“Students Scared Straight” [Issue 556]

Thank you for putting such a powerful picture on the front page of your newspaper, and on the second page as well. We can only hope that the pictures and the attention grabbing headline raise the awareness of those who might forget how dangerous drinking and driving can be. As a participant in the “Every 15 Minutes” program, I, too, am hopeful that increased awareness may prevent other tragedies from occurring involving our future leaders.

I am writing to ask you to consider two things:

1. Do you think injuries and deaths caused by alcohol impaired drivers are “accidents” or do you think a better choice of words would be more appropriate?

Corrections, Issue 556

The article “Where Are They Now?” featuring Al Scates should have indicated that Scates is the UCLA men’s volleyball coach. Also, the late former Hawthorne Assistant Principal Dick Ubick’s name was misspelled.

2. Do you think the statistics cited in your article give us any indication of the value of the “Every 15 Minutes” program?

Based on the cost of the program, it seems appropriate for your paper to ask the questions, “Does it work and is it worth it?”. However, just citing some drinking driver arrests without any connection, or lack of connection, to the program tells us nothing of the program’s success or failure or

I thank all of those who gave their time and energy to this program, including you, again, for the pictures and the article. If your pictures and article save one life, I’m sure they were worth it.

We should never attack our own kind – it’s unprofessional for a start! However, desperate times call for desperate measures and I must go against the professional courtesy because, to paraphrase the words of Howard Beale (as played so brilliantly by Peter Finch in Network), “I’m as mad as hell and I’m not going to take this anymore!”

As a veteran national and international journalist I have to say I never seen such a biased story as [the Weekly’s] BHHS E 15 cover in the May 27 (#556) edition – a journalistic travesty if ever I saw one!

The single line sub-head (But does the “Every 15 Minutes” Program work?) is an insult and degradation, condemning volunteer work of the BHPD, BHFD, school officials, students, volunteers, Cedars Sinai hospital, the Beverly Hills Court, Judge Stone and countless other individuals and entities, sadly too numerous to mention here, who have provided services for this program on the two occasions E15 has been held in the city. Additionally, it also condemns every single program conducted throughout the nation since inception and thereby attacks law enforcement agencies, hospitals, private ambulance companies, courts, judges, attorneys, school districts, school boards, school principals, school staff, students, parents and the millions of volunteers and providers nationwide.

While everyone realizes they will be unable to change the thinking and behavior of every student who sees the program, it is known that wherever this program appears it saves lives and changes behavior of students, parents and even of the volunteers behind-the-scenes.

Now tell me.....exactly what doesn’t work???????

There is obviously something more behind the story and as I have nothing to lose will just come out with it and enquire about the behind-the-scenes political persuasion here. Was this a set-up fed by someone in local government who doesn’t want the program at BHHS?

Does anyone know anything about stu-

ACTING OUT MORENO DRIVE

Nearly 30 students participated in Theatre 40’s after-school 11-week workshop “Kids Acting Out,” hosted by Horace Mann, and performed two plays Sunday, May 16. Program Director Melanie McQueen wrote both plays, Goddess of Spring and Pandora’s Bum Rap, which were based on Greek myths. Two Theatre 40 volunteers included Tom Gregory and Lola Fisher.

Community Members Speak Out In Support of Paysinger

The majority of BHUSD teachers, parents and students who spoke or sent letters to be read during last Thursday's Board of Education meeting voiced support for Carter Paysinger as Beverly High principal.

Carter Paysinger

A handful of community members, however, expressed their concern over the lack of a candidate selection process for the position.

The nearly two-hour long discussion came down to a 3-2 vote approving Paysinger as Beverly High's interim principal. Board Vice President Lisa Korbатов and board member Myra Lurie dissented.

"Over the past few months, I have had the chance to see Carter in a nonathletic environment," said Beverly High math teacher Jane Wortman in a letter read by Korbатов. "His strengths translate well in administration. He's a wonderful mediator, an excellent problem solver, a patient listener. He's organized, thorough and objective. He is able to see all sides of an issue."

Lurie said she believes the high school principal should be an instructional leader, pointing out that Paysinger's career has "not been actually teaching in an academic classroom."

"I reject the commonly accepted premise that I've heard over and over again from many people, including people at the high school, that the high school staff won't and cannot work with anybody unless that person has been chosen from their ranks, unless that person has been their friend, unless that person 'bleeds Beverly,' which is a term I detest, frankly," said Lurie.

But Lurie's last tenure as board president coincided with a mass exodus of administrators hired from outside the district during the summer of 2006.

"I think it's insulting to the staff and insulting to the district to think that our staff members are so insular and so inbred and so intolerant that they couldn't accept somebody who came from elsewhere," Lurie said. "We have to be willing to consider the possibility that there are people from outside our four walls who could help us."

Lurie said it was "misguided" to select a new principal for the high school without the guidance of a permanent superintendent. However, when Lurie was board president in 2006, the board hired J Guidetti as principal despite the fact that they didn't have a permanent superintendent at that time. In fact, the interim superintendent, John Fitzpatrick, had been Guidetti's mentor at his previous district in Calabasas, and left the district shortly after.

Board member Brian Goldberg agreed with Korbатов, who said her vote was "against a lack of process" and not against Paysinger, though he said the process for hiring Paysinger was the same process used to hire incoming Horace Mann and El Rodeo Principals Steve Kessler and David Hoffman — both of whom were unanimously approved by the board.

"If you thought the process was so flawed and it was only because of a relationship with [Board President] Steven Fenton, I ask you, why did you vote with me and my other colleagues 5-0 on appointing Steve Kessler as principal of Horace Mann?" Goldberg said. "To denigrate that process now and to diminish this man in his new role before he's even started, I think, is unconscionable."

Goldberg said he acknowledges there are "serious flaws" in the process that the board needs to address collectively.

"That's why Carter was recommended for the interim position and not the permanent position," he said.

However, Goldberg said he strongly disagreed with any notion that Paysinger lacked instructional skills in an academic setting to successfully carry out the responsibilities of the high school principal.

"What message are we sending to physical education instructors and coaches in this

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

DATE: June 10, 2010
TIME: 1:00 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard
LOCATION: Council Meeting Room 280A
Beverly Hills City Hall
455 North Rexford Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

The Planning Commission of the City of Beverly Hills, at its REGULAR meeting on Thursday, June 10, 2010, will hold a public hearing beginning at 1:00 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard to consider the following entitlements that are being requested for the property located at 9360 Wilshire Boulevard, more commonly known as the Thompson Hotel:

A request for a Zone Text Amendment to Section 10-3-2868 C.3 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code regarding restaurant capacities in hotels located outside the Business Triangle. Current code provisions limit the aggregate maximum capacity of all restaurants within hotels outside the Business Triangle to a capacity not exceeding the number of guestrooms within the hotel. The applicant seeks to amend this provision to allow the aggregate maximum capacity of all restaurants to not exceed one and one-half times the number of guestrooms;

A request to renew the existing Conditional Use Permit for rooftop uses and a request to modify the existing Conditional Use Permit to allow increased restaurant/lounge space at the first floor and mezzanine, a new entrance on Wilshire Boulevard to provide direct access to the restaurant space, increased occupancy on the rooftop pool-deck and bar area, and modifications to the rooftop food preparation room to allow the installation of a stove;

A request to renew a Development Plan Review permit granted by the Planning Commission in 2006 to allow outdoor dining areas along Wilshire Boulevard and at the rooftop bar/lounge area, and to allow approval of a rooftop gymnasium for hotel guests and employees;

A request for an Extended Hours Permit for the rooftop pool-deck and bar area to allow increased hours of operation. Existing entitlements allow the rooftop area to operate until 1:00 AM, and the applicant requests that the Extended Hours Permit be modified to allow patrons within the rooftop pool-deck and bar area until 2:00 AM, which would be a one hour increase in operating hours; and

A request to modify a Variance granted by the City Council in 1961 for construction of the hotel. The Variance allowed for increased height and floor area beyond what was permitted by-right at the time the project was constructed. One of the conditions of approval within the Variance states that "the total floor area devoted to dining and bar use shall not exceed 1,500 square feet." The applicant seeks to strike this condition from the original Variance, while maintaining all other conditions of approval, in order to facilitate the proposed restaurant/lounge expansion.

This project has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The project qualifies for a Class 5 Categorical Exemption for minor alterations in land use limitations and a Class 1(a) Categorical Exemption for minor interior alterations and operational changes, and the project has been determined not to have a significant environmental impact and is exempt from the provisions of CEQA.

Any interested person may attend the meeting and be heard or present written comments to the Commission.

According to Government Code Section 65009, if you challenge the Commission's action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

If there are any questions regarding this notice, please contact Ryan Gohlich, Associate Planner in the Planning Division at 310.285.1194, or by email at rgohlich@beverlyhills.org. Copies of the applications, plans, and Categorical Exemption are on file in the Community Development Department, and can be reviewed by any interested person at 455 North Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

district when we say that they don't count?" Goldberg said. "To denigrate an entire field in the education world as not being up to par is also unconscionable."

Beverly Vista Principal Search to Come to an End

The application period for the Beverly Vista principal search recently closed, and the BHUSD is inching its way toward the selection of a new K-8 leader.

"I'm very excited about diving back into the principal search for Beverly Vista," said Board of Education President Steven Fenton. "We want to make sure we get this right. That's why this process is taking a little bit longer than usual. We're looking for the right fit, and sometimes you don't get the right fit in the first go around. Sometimes there needs to be an extension into the process and this happens to be one of those times. I ask that all of the employees and parents at Beverly Vista take a deep breath and know that being methodical is paramount and that we will find the right principal that will fit the needs of Beverly Vista."

The application screening process is currently under way for the 70 candidates who applied for the position.

Board member Brian Goldberg said he was invited to join the selection panel, and will be recommending 13 candidates of the 70 who warrant a further review.

Goldberg added that he hopes the first round of interviews will begin next week.

"The goal is to have somebody in place by July 1," he said.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

DATE: Thursday, June 10, 2010
TIME: 1:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard
LOCATION: Commission Meeting Room 280 A
Beverly Hills City Hall
455 North Rexford Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

The Planning Commission of the City of Beverly Hills, at its regular meeting on Thursday, June 10, 2010, will hold a public hearing beginning at 1:00 p.m. or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, to consider:

An ordinance of the City of Beverly Hills amending various sections of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code to limit new or expanded medical uses in the city and to consider adoption of a conditional use permit process to review proposed new or expanded medical offices.

Any Planning Commission recommendation regarding a draft ordinance would be forwarded to the City Council for its consideration at a public hearing with a new public notice.

Staff finds that it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the adoption and implementation of this Ordinance would have a significant effect on the environment. This Ordinance does not authorize construction and, in fact, imposes greater restrictions on certain development in order to protect the public health, safety and general welfare. This Ordinance is therefore exempt from the environmental review requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to Section 15061(b)(3) of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations.

Any interested person may attend the meeting and be heard or present written comments to the Commission. Comments may be submitted in writing to the Planning Division of the Community Development Department and written or oral comments will be accepted at the Planning Commission meeting at the date and time noted above.

If you challenge the Commission's action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

A copy of the application is on file in the Planning Division and a copy of the staff report will be available on June 4, 2010 and can be reviewed by any interested person at 455 N. Rexford Drive, Suite 100, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 or in the Beverly Hills Public Library Reference section. ## Four Honored As BHHS Athletes of the Year

Norman boys' basketball coach resigns to accept community college position.

By Steven Herbert

Running back and sprinter Kenny Bassett, 800 meter runner Raquel Hefflin, tennis player Daniel Ho and Mallory Smith were named Tuesday as Beverly High's male and female athletes of the year for the 2009-2010 school year.

Smith, an All-Southern Section volleyball player who also played water polo and swam, was also named as the recipient of the Don Reynolds Memorial Scholarship Award, named for a late alumnus, which honors being a good teammate.

In other awards presented to seniors at The Quest Awards at the school's K.L. Peters Auditorium, basketball player Alon Kashanian and volleyball player Martin Shapiro were named as the scholar athletes of the year.

Kashanian had a 4.7 grade point average and Shapiro a 4.67 average, based on a 4.0 scale with an extra point given for honors and advanced placement courses. Shapiro was also among the Senior Varsity Club honorees.

Gitla Shooster, who ran cross country and track, received the Sue Jones Sportsmanship Award, named for a late coach. She was also among the Senior Varsity Club honorees.

Solange Levy, an All-Southern Section soccer player who also played softball, received the Nicole Lewis Memorial Award for leadership and sportsmanship. The award is named for a Beverly High soccer player and track team member who died shortly after graduating.

Levy was also among the 20 athletes named to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jon Davidi received the Lessie Paysinger Award given to the athlete with the best school spirit and passion for Norman athletics. The award is named in honor of the mother of Carter Paysinger, the school's football coach from 1990 to 2008 and soon to be its interim principal, and Norman baseball coach Vonzie Paysinger.

Davidi, who played football and volleyball, was also among the Senior Varsity Club honorees.

Fellow seniors joining Bassett, Hefflin, Ho, Levy and Smith in the school's Athletic Hall of Fame were Miranda Abdulsamir, Tracy Ainslie, Jonas Brock, Justin Brezhnev, Justin Ezor, Alli Friedman, Sylina Kim, Young In Lee, Camyar Meshkaty, Kemi Olonade, Briana Prince, Romeo Sofiani, Julian Sarokin, Kevin Youssefzadeh and Trevor Walters.

The senior Varsity Club honorees in addition to Davidi, Shapiro and Shooster were Breanna Bonner, Daniel Bradbury, Dillon

Curtis, Donovan Dickens, Matt Flagel, Zach Gallagher, Ali Hatcher, Joseph Hakim, Andre Herd, Ben Jones, Hannah Merenstein, Tamara Shootsky, Marcus Silbiger, Melody Termechi, Spencer Weissberg and Willy Woods.

Athletes of the year were also named for the school's junior, sophomore and freshman classes.

The junior class athletes of the year were Chelsea Austin, Armand Farrohk, Sydney Gray, Josh Newman, Emily Rosen, Patty Salgado and Kevin Suarez.

The sophomore class athletes of the year were Cameron Countryman, Sho Emerson, Willie Green, Brianna Morgan and Brianna Simmons.

The freshman class athletes of the year were Drew Freeman, Jared Foreman, Allison Isaacman, Sydney Segal, Lily Ting and Steven Turnbull.

The awards were determined by voting by the school's coaches.

Boys' Basketball

Derek Boldon resigned after two seasons as Beverly Hills High School boys' basketball coach to become an assistant men's coach at El Camino College.

The opening has been posted on the website edjoin.org, with a listed salary of $11.04 per hour. Boys' athletic director Jason Newman said he would like to have the new coach selected by mid-June.

"If we don't have anybody in place for the summer leagues, it makes it more problematic," Newman said.

Newman said he is hopeful of having a teaching position to offer the new coach, but no positions are open.

Newman, a former Norman boys' basketball coach, said he is looking for "a leader" and "a knowledgeable person in basketball" as the new coach.

When asked if he would again want to coach the team, Newman chuckled.

"I don't think I could even demonstrate a free throw anymore," Newman said. "It's better left to a younger individual."

Southern Section Division III Finals

Beverly Hills finished fifth May 15 at Belmont Plaza Olympic Pool in Long Beach, thanks in large measure to a second-place finish in the 200-yard medley relay and a third-place finish in the 200 freestyle relay.

The Norman 200 medley relay quartet of Kevin Suarez, Justin Brezhnev, Steven Turnbull and Kevin Youssefzadeh was timed in 1:39:07, .86 behind Mark Keppel.

Beverly Hills were fourth after Suarez's 25.12 backstroke leg, then moved into first after Brezhnev's 28.36 breaststroke leg. The Aztecs took a lead of .02 after Justin Chan swam a 24.21 butterfly leg, while Steven Turnbull swam his leg in 24.96.

Mark Keppel wrapped up the victory when Brendon Chiu swam the anchor freestyle leg in 21.32, while Youssefzadeh swam his leg in 22.18.

In the 200 freestyle relay, the Norman team of Zak Zukoski, Justin Ezor, Tracy Ainslie and Sho Emerson was third in 1:30.63 in a race won by El Segundo in 1:26.93. Torrance was second in 1:27.83.

Suarez had Beverly Hills' best individual event finish, finishing fourth in the 100 backstroke in 53.52. He was also sixth in the 200 individual medley in 1:59.26.

The Normans' other individual event participants were Brezhnev, fifth in the 100 breaststroke in 1:01.28; Youssefzadeh eighth in the 50 freestyle in 22.37 and 12th in the 100 freestyle in 49.33; Turnbull 10th in the 500 freestyle in 5:04.63 and 16th in the 100 butterfly in 56.35; Ainslie 12th in the 200 freestyle in 1:51.16 and 16th in the 100 freestyle in 50.43; and Emerson 13th in the 50 freestyle in 22.55 and 15th in the 100 breaststroke in 1:03.82.

Beverly Hills finished with 169.5 points, four points behind fourth-place Whittier La Serna. El Segundo and Torrance, like the Normans members of the Pioneer League, tied for first with 232.

Girls' Swimming

Southern Section Division III Finals

Patty Salgado, the lone Beverly Hills competitor, finished 10th in the 200 freestyle in 2:01.94 and 15th in the 100 freestyle in 57.20 May 15 at Belmont Plaza Olympic Pool.

Track and Field

Southern Section Division II Finals

Raquel Hefflin was second in the girls' 800 meters in 2:12:06, in a race won by Chloe Curtis of Redondo in 2:11.20. Kemi Olonade leaped 37 feet, five and a half inches to finish second in the girls' triple jump. Olympia Jewett of Culver City won with a jump of 38 feet, eight inches.

Julian Sarokin was second in the boys' 100 in 10.69, .24 behind Jamison Jordan of Oxnard Rio Mesa. The Norman 400 relay team of Sarokin, Cameron Countryman, Trevor Walters and Kenny Bassett was third in 42.26, .07 behind La Verne Damien. Rio Mesa won in 41.18.

Election Fun Thoughts

And Chief Justice praises Feur

By Rudy Cole

Will Rogers once said of his political affiliations: "I don't belong to any organized political party. I'm a Democrat." This year, that appellation could best apply to the Republicans of California.

In the most costly primary campaign in our state's history, two candidates for the Republican nomination for governor have fought so hard to capture the extreme right wing votes of their party that they have almost reached a point of self-destruction.

Whether Meg Whitman or Steve Poizner emerge as the winner, the damage they have done to each other, and themselves, for the final against Atty.Gen. Jerry Brown may be irreparable.

The polling results alone are a fascinating indicator of the impact of their slugfest. Each had a small lead over Brown earlier this year. Then, with all their name exposure and Brown not having spent any money on his own campaign, the assumption was that both would come out of the primary with good numbers. Just the opposite happened. Both Poizner and Whitman dropped almost double digits behind Brown.

The two Republicans made a choice. They believed that their best chance of success was to capture the more conservative primary voters. To do that, the main theme of both of their campaigns was that their opponent was a closet liberal. Their ads were not substantive and seldom discussed their own ideas on how to fix the budget, repair our broken education system and stimulate our economy. Instead, you would have thought they were running for the job of border patrol officers.

Actually, neither were all that reactionary before this campaign. Poizner, as state insurance commissioner, made some commendable moves for consumer protection on automobile insurance. Whitman was not rabidly partisan, even providing aid and comfort to some Democrats.

Certainly, name recognition was a dominating factor when Arnold won the right to replace Gov. Gray Davis in the recall election eight years ago, but there was a right-wing choice then too and the Republicans rejected Tom McClintock for the more electable actor.

Historically, the Republicans of California have opted for moderates and even liberals avoiding far-right ideologues. Hiram Johnson was a fiery reformer, Earl Warren, Goodwin Knight, Pete Wilson (except on immigration), George Deukmejian and even Ronald Reagan had very moderate records as governors. Remember, it was Reagan who signed the first really enlightened state law on abortion rights.

Clearly, there is a national shift to the right, and voters are turning against incumbents. But has that gone as far from the center as the two Republican contenders perceive? The Tea Party movement, as one example, does not seem to have taken off as strongly in our state as elsewhere.

Whoever survives Tuesday, Brown might just find his best strategy is to replay the losers attack television spots. What will be fun to watch is the unity appeals next Wednesday. I only wished I had a "sincerity meter" to hold against the tube.

However, expect such a movement to the center by the winner that a whole fleet of Bekins trucks will need to be employed.

Not so smart was a last minute Brown decision to run his own spots attacking Whitman in the last hours of the primary. Why not let the Republicans continue to self-destruct?

The campaign for United States Senate has been almost as divisive, for Republicans. The more conservative, at least before the primary, was Chuck Devore, but Carly Fiorina outspent and out right-winged him, wisely focusing her attacks on incumbent Barbara Boxer. But the baggage of her more extreme conservative views will also come back to bite her in the final.

The final will depend on voter turnout. If light or moderate, Republicans could sweep and such highly emotional issues as illegal immigration only help them. But if it is heavy, the voters are likely to reject extremism as they have in the past, and we will remain a "blue" state.

Interesting race for the Democratic nomination for Lt. Governor. Former San Francisco Mayor Gavin Newsom and Los Angeles City Councilwoman Janice Hahn are the main contenders. Newsom is the more substantive, clearly. This is not a trophy job. The Lt. Gov. sits on many key state agencies, including membership on the University of California Board of Regents.

I have one problem with Newsom. He has admitted having an affair with the wife of his campaign manager. Now, as a sometime political operative I don't want that idea to permeate among candidates I may represent. Fortunately, I totally trusted Max Salter, and Janet was always there. Still, I kept an eye on Josette.

Reminder on the ballot measures: As I mentioned last week, one of the great rip-off attempts by referendum is the power companies drive to prevent cities from improving or taking over electric services. Billed as a "taxpayers right to decide" issue, the flagrant misrepresentation has not been effectively answered. This voter "right" hidden joker is that it would require a two-thirds vote by the "people" to act against utility monopolies. Vote No, with emphasis.

In the contest for attorney general, Los Angeles District Attorney Steve Cooley should easily win his primary. He has been an effective and fair prosecutor and will add strength to the GOP ticket in November.

On most of the other races, the finals are soon enough to make choices, except one contest.

Campaigning for Superior Court Judge is a formidable task. There are 2,256,107 eligible voters in this non-partisan contest and very limited opportunities to win voter attention.

But in one race, we have an opportunity to help elect a really qualified candidate, Mark Ameli for office number 28. He has an impressive list of endorsers from the judicial and governmental sector, including law enforcement. Our Congressman, Henry Waxman and Assemblyman Mike Feuer plus many Beverly Hills City officials are working for his election including Mayor Jimmy Delshad and Vice Mayor Barry Brucker.

You can help. Make some calls to friends and urge them to vote for Mark. In this often neglected kind of an election, a few calls could make the difference.

I strongly urge his election. He will be a fair, honest and, equally important, qualified jurist. There is no incumbent in this election.

Speaking of our Assemblyman Mike Feuer, out state's chief justice, Ronald M. George, singled Mike out for his "extraordinary" efforts in preventing a financial disaster for the state's judicial system.

Speaking at the annual Beverly Hills Bar Association's Supreme Court luncheon Tuesday, Chief Justice George said it was Feuer's negotiating and legislative skills that helped save the court from draconian cut backs and court closings. The coalition and fiscal remedies Feuer put together helped convince the governor to restore earlier cuts. We knew Mike was special; nice to have the Chief Justice cast an affirming vote.

A Beverly Hills icon, Frederick M. Nicholas, as he has for many years, was given the honor of introducing the Chief Justice.

Earlier this month, a Nicholas appearance at a Beverly Hills event had some irony involved. The city was hosting an exhibition of outstanding modern art works from the Weisman collection.

What few in attendance did remember was that Nicholas led the effort to create the Weisman Museum at Greystone when he was the first president of the Greystone Foundation.

That would have been an incredible cultural addition to our city. What really happened, and why it never came about, is another column. But it was good to catch up with Freddie who brought his granddaughter to the luncheon.

Events worth noting: "The Songs of our Lives III" concert to benefit the Fulfillment Fund Students will be held Monday, June 14 at the Wadsworth Theatre.

Top multi-award winning artists line up includes Stephen Bishop, L. Russell Brown, Mac Davis, Charles Fox, Dean Pitchford and Neil Sedaka with a special appearance from guest star, Tony Orlando. Paul Reiser will both host and perform with British singer/song writer Julia Fordham.

The Fund has been providing first generation, low income students with financial support they must have to graduate from high school and enter college. It is really an excellent cause, a fun event and well worth attending.

I take it all back department: As loyal readers know, I have had my problems with Rite Aid — but no longer. They have a checker who is alert, perceptive and a marvelous judge of people.

Recently, when I was going through the line with my favorite brand of pipe tobacco in hand, that insightful checker asked me to scan my driver's license.

"Why," I asked, hopefully. "We are required to check the age of all people purchasing tobacco products," my hero responded. Obviously, Rite Aid is a great observer of aging.

For the record, I understand my good buddy, the publisher of another paper, refers to me as "that chain smoker." I tried, but to no avail. I could not light the chain.

Absolutely final political thoughts: Maybe I'm the only one who actually reads the opinions in that other newspaper, but their editorial labeling of our long-term Cong. Henry Waxman as a "radical" is beyond bizarre.

Aside from his traditional role as a major force on environmental and health issues, Waxman has become one of the most respected members of congress, by colleagues from both sides of the aisle. The fact that he cannot be bought, controlled or pressured by special interests, should single him out as a role model for good government. Now, suddenly, the right wingers equate liberal and Democratic with "Radical." Joe McCarthy would be delighted.

His seniority does benefit his district, but also a nod to his Los Angeles office staff. They do the grunt work of dealing with citizen — government personal problems, and they do it with a high degree of professionalism.

Not fair to single out any one staffer, but Caseworker Cristina Romero will impress you if ever your social security check is late or you have a friend with an immigration problem.

We must have a great number of radicals in our congressional district because Cong. Waxman manages to win election after election and always by wide margins.

 dents??? Show them Red Asphalt or other driving/safety films and they just treat them as another movie. "It happens to someone else and not to me or my friends!"

Show them a friend "seriously injured," "maimed" or even "killed" in a graphic staged crash and the message hits home – "it could happen to me!" Even parents begin to think about the consequences and consider, "what if it was my child?" Of course the program works!

In the technological world we currently live in one has to cut through the pretend movie and TV landscape in order to get an important message across.

Whatever the cost is, you cannot put a price tag on a single life, so don't even bother to mention any dollar amount (wrong anyway) on this program!

[The Weekly] trotted out figures on crashes in Beverly Hills in recent years, which came out too pat. They were obviously prepared well beforehand and the story was written to fit the figures and the perceived overly graphic images, not as a compliment to all those who worked tirelessly and selflessly behind the scenes for nearly a year, or to the incredible students who participated over the two days.

When stating facts and figures one has to research exactly what those numbers mean. For instance, I could say I have conducted extensive research indicating that America is 100 percent African American or 100 percent Asian. What I won't tell you is that I conducted the survey in Watts or Korea Town respectively and didn't take into account the bias factor.

What [the Weekly] has done here is state figures and not take factors into account or research the appropriate data, something any self-respecting, intelligent and unbiased journalist would do. In this instance [the Weekly] does not follow-up on those figures to explain whether every incident actually involved drivers who lived in Beverly Hills ([do they] think only Beverly Hills residents drive in Beverly Hills – that it is a closed society?), whether they had been through the E15 program, or if any consideration had been taken regarding other contributing factors, including the fact that in the past few years there has been a global economic crisis, which has a severe effect on the mental and physical state of everyone and can lead to lapses in concentration in whatever one is doing, including driving!!!

Maybe, in the near future, [the Weekly], or someone else at the paper could author a truly journalistic (i.e. un-biased) piece about the benefits of this program, which I am proud to say I have been associated with on more than 600 occasions throughout southern California, including the two in Beverly Hills.

Would anyone be involved for that long and with approximately 1,000,000 students if it didn't work and wasn't of value? Would our incredible Police and Fire departments, a busy facility like Cedar's, or even Judge Stone volunteer (yes, I did say volunteer!) their time and expertise?

As another FYI, when I started with this program, the death rate was indeed one every 15 minutes from a drunk-driving crash (please note there are no drunk-driving accidents!). Thankfully the figure, though not perfect, is now down to one every 42 minutes. Other factors have contributed to this decline but the program itself has been a very important contributor to the change. Of course the program works!

Lest it might have escaped [the Weekly's] ken, it is not just the dangers of drinking and driving, or even texting while driving that students are exposed to during this program, it is the plain and simple fact that anyone's life can change in a split second because of an error in judgment regarding anything they do.

Most powerful of all is the fact that post program research (yes [Beverly Hills Weekly], we do our research!), indicates parents and children have become much closer, no matter how close they were before. These effects have regularly brought about changes in adult behavior and even prompted student education levels to rise.

What more could you ask from a two-day "lesson" during your schooling?

The next BHHS program is scheduled for 2012. Should those behind the scenes in this city cause its cancellation it will mean they do not care for the life of a single child in Beverly Hills – not something to be very proud of from a city the world looks to as a leader in so many things! It will certainly be a huge embarrassment as well. At least one sister city, in another part of the world felt this program was important enough to warrant sending a team to view the latest program.

So impressed were these foreign observers that a decision has been made to copy the program in order to combat the drinking-driving problem they have back home. Are they and thousands of other schools nationwide wasting everyone's time? I think not! Of course the program works!

It is obvious that the Weekly [has] their feet firmly planted in two camps – one in the gutter of sensational journalism, which hopes it shouts loud enough that no one will take notice of the quieter reality, the other in bed with certain political factions bent on preventing invaluable life-saving education. This is check-book journalism in reverse. Instead of the publication paying for information from a source, the source is paying (in some form or other) to have information (mis-guided information at that) dispensed to the public.

So, in conclusion, to [the Weekly] and whoever was pulling the strings from behind-the-scenes, next time you try and do a hatchet job on something, maybe you should get the full picture and not go with the biased one???

So much for freedom of the press – at least at the Weekly (or maybe that should be Weekly?!)

I read [Rudy Cole's] column last week with interest when [he] made sure to mention, in regard to the Arizona immigration law, that to respond to illegal immigration with a comparison to Hitler is profoundly exaggerated. Yet, four columns later [he] write[s] that early anti Jewish acts in Germany were targeted at Jews who were declared non residents. Those Germans were all legal citizens and woke up one day to hear they were all of a sudden declared non citizens. This is a not an apt comparison since no one in America is about to tell any legal citizens that they are now non citizens....not even a chance in contemporary and democratic America. Furthermore, to use the Nazi metaphor is horrific because it denigrates what European Jews and all those deemed undesirables in Europe went through as the world stood still over 60 years ago. I, along with many other Angelinos, am still waiting for [L.A. Councilmember] Paul Koretz to apologize for his offensive and inappropriate comparison of the Arizona law to the Nazi tactics of World War II. Our elected officials can have their opinion as long as they don't try to rewrite history and then make a fool of themselves. I'm still waiting for Koretz to apologize.

CHECKING IN WITH THE CHAMBER

The Weekly's interview with incoming Board Chair
Todd Johnson

By Kimberly Cheng

The Chamber of Commerce will install the 2010/2011 Board Chair Todd Johnson during this year's Business Excellence & Installation Gala June 10 at the Beverly Hilton. Johnson is the general manager at Lawry's The Prime Rib in Beverly Hills.

What are your goals as board chair?

The first goal would be to continue to work on the things my predecessor is working on and I have been working on because I've been on the board for four years: develop new businesses working with the city. The second one is to expand our partnership with other businesses and grow new membership. The goal is somewhere around 50 to 100 new additions to our membership.

What challenges do you anticipate?

We're still in this recession, and we could be in for a double dip. It depends on who you talk to. Some people say we're out of it; some people say we're not. I think we'll all figure out which it is when it happens. I would personally like to think we've seen our bottom, and we're going to start creeping every so slightly toward more positive results in all kinds of businesses. I know my restaurant is starting to see that, so I'm optimistic that other businesses will as well.

How are you different from your predecessor?

I've known [Brooks Brothers General Manager] Jim [Jahant] for six or seven years, and I don't know how much different I am. I think we're probably more similar and likely why I was elected to the position. I think we're both friendly, business friendly. We both believe in working as a community and in working with the businesses. We also believe in trying to keep that fine balance with the residents and making sure that the residents are getting out of the city and memberships what they're hopeful for.

How did you get into the restaurant business?

I always wanted to be a chef when I was younger and almost went to school to do that, but I decided to get a double degree in finance and management and business, and then I got into the restaurant business 24 years ago. I went to Slippery Rock University in Pennsylvania. I'm from the east coast, and I came out here in 1986. I've been out here half my life now, and I've lived in the Los Angeles area for the most part.

How has the restaurant business prepared you for this role?

I have 135 people who work for me [at Lawry's] and every single one of them are motivated differently. And my restaurant serves somewhere between 4,000 and 5,000 people a week, and every single guest walking through the door has a little different anticipation or a little different expectation. That's how it has prepared me: by learning how to deal with those personalities and figuring out what motivates people and then tapping into that.

Tell us about some of the charity programs Lawry's is involved with.

I am fortunate to work for a family, the Frank family, who believe in our code of ethics, and I think it's to give back and to treat people with respect. We are fully involved with the city and have been for many years. This year will be the 55th year of the Beef Bowl. So we've hosted the football teams, whichever two teams go to the Rose Bowl this year.

[Tuesday], I had three schools — Carver Elementary, Foster Elementary and Rosecrans Elementary, which are all down in the Compton [Unified] School District — all 90 kids plus about a dozen faculty and teachers come to the restaurant. We taught them etiquette, and we showed these kids the proper way of pulling a chair out for a lady when they sit and how you use all the different utensils. I had Paul Dreher, who is just incredible, come from the Beverly Hilton, and he actually went over that training with the kids. It's our fourth year that we've done this.

We go to UCLA to the pediatric hospital, and we feed those kids twice a year. That's something I'm passionate about because my wife is a pediatric minister, a chaplain at UCLA.

We help with the Beverly Hills reading literacy program. Bryan Monfort, who is the VP of Operations [at Lawry's], but he was the GM at that time, helped start that program with the Beverly Hills Rotary Club. We've been doing it now, I think, for 16 years. We host two breakfasts and a luncheon every year for the literacy program, and we give all the funds back to the literacy program.

Tell us about your family.

My wife is Aiko Johnson, and she is a chaplain at UCLA in the pediatric ward, and has been there for eight years. She's just a wonderful person. My mom and dad have been married 52 years. [Three] days ago was their anniversary. So I am blessed.

Who are some people you work with regularly?

All the staff at the chamber. The Executive Board of Directors, who I've had the pleasure of working with the last four years, are pretty sharp people. Allan Alexander, John Bendheim, Corinne Verdery at the Hilton, Mark Eggerman, Jim Jahant. The school district is part of the chamber, and [Board of Education member] Myra Lurie is a designee of that for education. Vicky Mense, Jay Newman, Sean O'Donnell from UBS, Bruce Schulman over at Mercedes, Roy Fisher, Bobbe Joy Dawson. Those are very intelligent people. I learn every day I get together with these folks, so I'm truly fortunate to have them around the table when we're talking.

Now that the CVB has separated from the Chamber, do you think the Chamber is still relevant?

I don't know if I have an opinion on the separation of it. I look forward to working with Kathy [Smits] and the CVB and the city because when the CVB was part of the chamber it was a pretty good working organization. I think now that the CVB and the chamber are separate organizations, we're still going to have a great working relationship and a crossover in a lot of programs. We're still going to help each other.

What are some of the issues the business community has with the city?

I think it's always a challenge of communication and understanding of what's going on. It's helping people understand all the issues and getting that word out to the people. Parking seems to always be an issue. Someone always has an opinion on that, and I know it is a big challenge..

What do you think about the Taste of Beverly Hills program?

Being a restaurateur, I'm excited. I think the chamber did a Taste of Beverly Hills two years ago in the Hilton that was really successful. I know I was with the Mayor [Jimmy Delshad] the other night at a dinner, and the Taste [of Beverly Hills] was talked about. I certainly was there to support him and to support the program. Whether Lawry's is going to be involved with it, I'm hopeful that we are. I think it's going to be great, and it'll coincide with the year September 2, 90210, and I think the chamber is looking forward to trying to work with the mayor.

As a board, what will you be happy to have accomplished one year from now?

We're in a middle of a real estate deal with the city, selling our building, and then the city is going to be developing this new building for the CVB and for the chamber. We're excited about that. I'm not on that subcommittee, but I think we're pretty close to closing that deal. I had met with the chamber folks a week or two ago, and I talked about what our goals were, and I said 12 months is going to be gone in a blink. I think we need to think about 12-24 months from now, where do we want to be. [Mercedes-Benz's] Bruce Schulman is going to be the chair after me. My goal is to set Bruce up for as much success, so his year he can walk into it and take it to the next level. That's what I'm looking at, and I'm being very optimistic. I really don't have an agenda. I'm a restaurant guy. I serve people. Without that, I don't have a job.

Turn your old life policies into assets for your heirs and favorite charities.

If you are over age 70 and own an old life insurance policy, you may be able to make large gifts to charity and increase the legacy you leave for your heirs. Without ever writing another check!

You may believe your old policy is worthless or has very little cash value left. You may think your policy is too old, or that it can't be improved upon because your health has changed too much. You may be wrong!

Estate tax laws have changed significantly in your favor and today's insurance plans offer many new innovations. Now you may be able to considerably improve your dated policies.

One of our clients owned $900,000 of life insurance with an equity (cash value) of over $530,000. We showed him how he could gift his policy to charity and use his tax savings to buy a new one that would provide an even greater legacy for his heirs.

An 80-year-old client did not think she could improve upon her ten-year-old preferred issue policy, because she had developed significant health challenges. With our help she sold her policy for triple its cash value! We then showed her how she could use the proceeds from the sale to buy a new policy that provided more guarantees and cost 20% less. She used her savings to make donations to her favorite charities.

Ask for a complimentary report and let us help you decide whether to keep your old insurance policies or sell, surrender, or replace them, enabling you to leave more for your heirs and favorite charities.

For a complimentary consultation and policy appraisal, by phone or in person
