“Big Bills” [Issue #697]

I have just about had it with this nonsense that the Beverly Hills Unified School District is propagating. They are wasting millions of our taxpayer dollars in a futile, unfounded, and irrational lawsuit. Expecting that somehow money combined with apprehension will change hard based facts.

We do not pay one of the highest property taxes in the world, so that it could be blown off on a mindless witch-hunt to stop a project that would result in a better and stronger city.

BHUSD’s shifting priorities are not only hurting the city, but our students as well.

All of this money could have been spent on the actual schools, which, if I am not mistaken, a school district should be doing. Instead what do our students get? A dwindling amount of courses, fewer teachers, larger classes, and countless outdated textbooks that have their entire bindings torn off. I previously attended the Beverly Hills High School, and my brother still does.

Beverly Hills Weekly/Chamber of Commerce Forum—BHTV10

The Beverly Hills Weekly/Chamber of Commerce Council Candidates forum, moderated by former Mayor Mark Egerman and Weekly publisher Josh Gross, will next air on Feb. 14 at 7 p.m., Feb. 22 at 1 p.m., and Feb. 25 at 7 p.m.; Feb. 28 at 4 p.m.; Mar. 1 at 8 p.m.

I know what the current situation is like. Countless programs were cut due to budget constraints that could have made all of us better and more prepared for not only college, but also life itself.

In the space of just a few weeks we’ve seen our school board attempt to justify the issuance of toxic Capital Appreciation Bonds without any plans for the funds, then have to be bailed out by the City for next year’s school program, then announce that council members and taxpayers are either too ignorant or can’t be trusted to know the details of how public money is being spent because the district is “not going to disclose to anyone not authorized to know exact amounts.” Umm, OK, apparently the cost of a giant hole on the front lawn of the high school is a state secret. Oh, and our Measure E construction lead “retired,” the cost of which is I’m sure is also secret. There’s dysfunction and then there’s borderline chaos.

Here’s what we do know. Our school board has spent untold and secret sums making mortal enemies of the MTA, numerous powerful LA politicians and the almost certain next US Secretary of Transportation – LA Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa. We also know that the district will face huge financial challenges in the 2014-15 school year without a repeat of the City’s one-time bailout but has just gone out of its way to bite the hand that feeds in the form of our generous council members. Worse, a byproduct of all this secrecy by the school board is that they have now eliminated any possibility of a parcel tax – who’s going to vote for a school district tax when taxpayers can’t be trusted with what should be public information?

Credibility and legitimacy are earned with transparency. Our school board has to stop holding secret meetings and engage with the community in the long term planning that’s absolutely necessary – the City gave us a year and the clock is ticking.

Council candidates debate in final forum

Less than three weeks before the election, five candidates for Beverly Hills City Council participated in the final council forum hosted by Beverly Hills Weekly and the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce on Feb. 12.

The event was moderated by former Mayor Mark Egerman and Beverly Hills Weekly Publisher Josh Gross.

To kick off the event, City Treasurer Eliot Finkel read a letter that was sent to the Courier in response to the Courier's Feb. 8 article, "City of Beverly Hills Short $106 million for pensions, Mayor Willie Brien's 'surplus' fake; debt jumps $23 million since 2009."

Finkel's letter states that both the surplus and the $23 million jump in unfunded pension liabilities since 2009 are real, but warned in the letter that blending the two numbers was misleading. Finkel said future obligations had been reduced by $90 million since 2009 and the $23 million jump was beyond Beverly Hills' control.

The first question asked all five candidates starting with former Mayor Nancy Krasne, and followed by Planning Commission Vice Chair Brian Rosenstein, attorney Katherine Cohan, Vice Mayor John Mirisch and Mayor Willie Brien if they thought the surplus was exaggerated or if they agreed with Finkel's analysis.

"To comment on the Courier's article, all I know is our unfunded liabilities have gone up $23 million. Whether it's right or wrong, I don't know because City Hall hasn't been transparent with where the money is going or how it's going," said Krasne. "We just keep building, doing and seeming to have the money so why are we in an enormous deficit that nobody knew about?"

Krasne said she wanted to see a line item budget.

Rosenstein said the surplus was real, but it was true the City has a pension problem that needed to be addressed.

Mirisch said both numbers were real and continued an analogy used by Finkel in his letter, comparing the City and its pension liabilities to a woman paying a mortgage on her house.

"Ms. Hills should never had negotiated an overly expensive adjustable rate mortgage in the first place, she should never have entered into a mortgage to pay for a house that was way too expensive and costs too much to run," said Mirisch.

Mayor Brien said he was glad the candidates agreed that the surplus existed and called the article an attempt to undermine him and mislead the community. He said it was not Willie Brien's surplus, but the City's.

"Our operating budget is based on the fiscal policies that we all set as councilmembers and I will tell you I have voted for all four of the budgets and fiscal policies that have led to the surplus of $10 million," said Brien. "Yes, we have more work in our unfunded liabilities. This was not created over a year or two, or four years; this was created over decades in the City."

The candidates were also asked whether they would support a settlement with Metro if the alignment went under the football field in the high school and if not, how far they were willing to go.

Brien said that he's been consistent in supporting the Westside Subway extension as well as the Santa Monica alignment, but said he does not refuse to negotiate.

"I believe you need to be engaged sitting at the table because when you walk away, you leave it in the hands of somebody else to make the decision," said Brien.

Brien said leaving the decision up to jurors or judges who do not live in Beverly Hills would be wrong for the community.

Mirisch said nobody had walked from the table in negotiations.

"Also, we should say, it's really not our table to walk away from. In this case, it's the schools'. We should be there to support them. Personally, I'm not willing to sugar coat anything. I'm not willing to engage in happy talk. I think the best way to negotiate is tell it like it is," said Mirisch.

Mirisch said he did not believe the council had been as diligent as it could have been.

Krasne said she would not support under any circumstance a route under instructional buildings and that if a subway were built under Beverly High, it would preclude the district from building new projects. Rosenstein said he adamantly opposed the alignment under the school and would look for all possible alternatives.

When asked what distinguished him from other candidates, Rosenstein said he was the only one who had a plan to keep traffic off residential streets. He also said a large amount of traffic in the triangle is because of people who were circling looking for a parking spot.

"If you look at Westside Pavilion or Century City, they have put in innovative technologies like parking counters, the red and green lights in Century City shopping center that lets you know where spaces are, that's something we need to do here in this City," said Rosenstein.

Krasne, who advocated for two hour free parking while on the council, was asked how she would address the deficit in the parking enterprise fund.

"I don't think the parking enterprise fund needs to be in deficit if we would do our jobs. The fact that we don't let commercial realtors come in and lease the [vacant spaces] -- people who are commercial realtors know what they're doing but if we try to do everything in house by ourselves, that isn't our business and isn't what we do the best," said Krasne.

The city council election is on March 5.

Board of Education moves forward with replacing district's chief facilities officer

The Board of Education authorized staff to replace the chief facilities officer, responsible for overseeing the Measure E construction and modernization program on a 4-0 vote at the formal meeting on Tuesday night. Board of Education member Brian Goldberg arrived at the meeting after the vote.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the City of Beverly Hills, at its meeting to be held on Tuesday, February 19, 2013, at 7:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, will hold a public hearing to consider:

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING BEVERLY HILLS MUNICIPAL CODE SECTION 10-8-106 REGARDING TROUSDALE VIEW RESTORATION PERMIT PROCEDURES AND CONSIDERATION OF AMENDMENTS TO BEVERLY HILLS MUNICIPAL CODE SECTION 10-3-2616 REGARDING DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS FOR WALLS, FENCES AND HEDGES IN THE TROUSDALE ESTATES AREA OF THE CITY.

The proposed Zoning Code amendment would clarify responsibility for the cost of enforcement of a Trousdale View Restoration Permit and would clarify responsibility for litigation costs resulting from the issuance, defense, implementation, or enforcement of the View Restoration Permit; amendments to the Trousdale Estates wall, fence and hedge standards, particularly the definition of hedge, would also be considered.

Trousdale Estates is defined in the zoning code as all property located north of Doheny Road and east of Schuyler road, except that land zoned R-1.X, and that portion of lot A of the Doheny Ranch Tract northwesterly of Tract Numbers 24485 and 24486, commonly referred to as the Greystone Mansion Property.

The amendments propose limited changes to the previously adopted Trousdale View Restoration Ordinance and the related Trousdale Wall, Fence and Hedge Ordinance for which a Negative Declaration was adopted after the project was assessed in accordance with the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City and no significant environmental impacts were identified.

At the public hearing, the City Council will hear and consider all comments. All interested persons are invited to attend and speak on this matter. Written comments may also be submitted and should be addressed to the City Council, c/o City Clerk, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210. The comments should be received prior to the hearing date.

Please note that if you challenge the Council's action in regards to this matter in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

If there are any questions regarding this notice, please contact Michele McGrath, Principal Planner in the Beverly Hills Community Development Department at 310.285.1135 or by email at mmcgrath@beverlyhills.org. Copies of the staff reports, initial study and Negative Declaration, and associated documents are on file in the Community Development Department and can be reviewed by any interested person at 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90210.

Former Chief Facilities Officer Nelson Cayabyab's retirement was effective on Feb. 1.

The Board implemented a hiring freeze and has directed staff to determine each position's necessity, according to the staff report.

Ninety percent of the funding for the position comes from Measure E and 10 percent out of the general fund.

According to the job description, the chief facilities officer, is a district employee who reports to the superintendent and oversees "development and execution for short and long range planning and facility improvement projects."

The job description includes 52 examples of duties, which include developing and recommending policies and procedures for effective execution of the Measure E Bond Program, serving as the district liaison to the Citizen's Oversight Committee and Facilities Committee, preparing reports related to planning and construction, and providing liaison between the District and engineers, architects, contractors, planning departments, and other agencies.

The Board decided to include within the job description that a B class general contractor's license was "a plus."

During the meeting, Board of Education Vice President Noah Margo proposed an amendment requiring applicants to have a current California general contracting B class license.

"I feel that that should be a requirement

City's pays less than district for CEQA case in final quarter of 2012

The City of Beverly Hills paid $13,526 in the final quarter of 2012 to the two law firms handling the CEQA case against Metro in the final quarter of 2012.

The City is using Gilchrist & Rutter, and Shute, Mihaly & Weinberger in the CEQA case.

"We felt that the teaming of the firms brought the best combination of talent to be successful in the case," said City Attorney Larry Wiener.

The Beverly Hills Unified School district paid Hill, Farrer & Burrill over $439,000 in the final quarter of 2012. According to Board of Education President Jake Manaster, $60,000 of that amount was paid from the general fund to a lobbying firm. Of the remaining $380,000 paid through Hill, Farrer and Burrill, the majority -- about 80 to 85 percent -- was paid to consultants to complete geotechnical studies at the request of the California Geological Survey, costs the City would not have to incur.

Twenty percent of $380,000 is approximately $76,000, over five times more than the City's expenses for the same time period.

City Attorney Larry Wiener said he could not comment on why the cost of services differed without seeing the district's invoices.

to have a California contracting license if you're going to be in charge of building things. It seems to make sense," said Margo.

Margo said his concern was that the applicant would have building experience. Margo said he wanted to encourage the district to hire people with experience in building a structure from the ground up.

"I understand Noah's inclinations but I've met a lot of people with licenses who don't know what they're doing," said Board of Education Lisa Korbatov.

Korbatov said she did not want to do anything that would shut down possibilities and though the license could be something the district strived for, she disagreed with requiring applicants to have one.

Korbatov also said her home was ruined by someone with a class B license and she had a bias against them.

Applicants who do not have a class B contracting license will not be disqualified nor will applicants with licenses have priority over those who do not, but the Board decided to give consideration to the license within the description.

Board of Education President Jake Manaster said the idea was not to qualify or disqualify applicants.

Following the agenda item, the Board also voted unanimously to approve supplemental work authorization to PrimeSource consultants until April 30, 2013 to oversee areas previously handled by the chief facilities officer.

BHUSD consultant Tim Buresh is hired through PrimeSource consultants. The authorization is for an additional three months until April 30 and an increased not to exceed amount of $90,000.

Funds to PrimeSource consultants will come from the Measure E bond program and following a schedule of $295 per hour for three hours or less per day and $250 per hour

Board of Education votes to move forward with public relations program

The Board of Education voted 3-1-1 in favor of releasing a request for proposal and scope of work to entertain possible candidates or a public relations firm to provide services to the district at the formal meeting on Tuesday night.

According to the staff report, district staff anticipates the services could cost as much as $50,000, to be split evenly between the BHEF and BHUSD. The cost to the district would come from the general fund.

Board of Education member Lisa Korbatov opposed the measure. Board of Education member Brian Goldberg abstained.

The timeline presented to the Board would put a public relations representative in place for the district by March 26.

During discussions, Goldberg moved to table the item and was supported by Korbatov.

Goldberg said he was in support of the program, but with the recent appropriations of funds from the City and the upcoming May revise of the state budget, he suggested the board table the item until it was understood where the district stood financially.

“Although this position is desperately needed in this district, I just think the timing is not right. We should pull back and have a better sense of what’s going on with our budget after that May revise,” said Goldberg.

Board of Education President Jake Manaster said he was in favor of the timeline and did not want to hold up the process. He said they can defer hiring or set a hire date for the future.

“I think that there are certain items coming up that are critical that the public does need to know that we do need some sort of PR representation. I have other concerns about it, but I’m not sure if I’m willing to table it until then,” said Board of Education member Lewis Hall.

Hall suggested that the person contracted be familiar with the issues unique to the district.

“The public relations person ultimately when they address the press, the press will still want to talk to Superintendent Woods, or Dr. Goldberg, or President Manaster, or Vice President Margo, so I’m not sure what this is going to achieve in those goals,” said Korbatov.

Korbatov said she thought the district needed someone who could run a campaign and PR would be a component of that.

“I think that’s part of the magic of being on the Board is to have access to people and people have access to you and that it’s government with the little g and it’s about people. And I don’t think we want to lose that proximity to the public and to the families and to the district,” said Korbatov.

She said they needed someone who could help them be more effective in their communication.

“Our first PR blunder might be hiring this position when we just received additional help from City of Beverly Hills and when we don’t know what the May revise is going to look like,” said Goldberg.

Margo said he agreed with Goldberg about the timing, but wanted to move the process forward, so that by the time the May revise is done, the district may have candidates if the budget allows the hiring of the position.

Manaster said the Board is not always clear or responsive, as they all have other commitments.

“That’s what was brought to our attention: the confusion and the misunderstanding that was out there in the public when it comes to certain items that we act upon. People misinterpret things. We have the media that frankly does not always report all of the detail that I personally believe they should and sometimes they report details that are frankly not salient to the issue or they’re just accidental displaced mistakes that occur in reporting,” said Manaster. “We don’t have anybody that is responsive of that.”

Manaster said he’d like to the process move forward. Manaster said this expenditure would be paid back in “droves” because there would be less confusion.

Beverly High Culinary Arts Program advances to state competition

Six students from Beverly High’s Culinary Arts Program competed in SkillsUSA regional competition on Jan. 26 and Feb. 2, all advancing to the state competition.

The top students in each category advanced to the state competition in San Diego in April. The Beverly High competitors competed in a culinary arts skills competition, job skill demonstration and a job interview competition.

Shivani Patel, Bianca Fonseca, and Amanda Massaband, who won gold, silver, and bronze, respectively, will all advance to the state competition in the culinary arts competition. All six participants placed in the top 10. Roy Petito placed fourth, Maxwell Iskiev placed seventh, and Julian Gomez placed eighth.

Amanda Massaband won silver in the Job Interview competition and will advance to state in this category.

All six participants will advance to the state competition in the job skills demonstration category. Amanda Massaband, Shivani Patel, and Roy Petito won gold, silver, bronze, respectfully. Bianca Fonseca, Maxwell Iskiev, and Julian Gomez placed fifth, sixth, and seventh.

REMEMBERING RUDY COLE

Rudy's passing is a tremendous loss to the Beverly Hills community and a great loss to me personally. We didn't necessarily agree on every issue, particularly on the contentious matter of the subway route, but Rudy was always unfailingly honest, fair-minded and conscientious in his journalism. He was a great friend to my office, and he'll be deeply missed by all of us.

-- County Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky

Editor's note: Yaroslavsky adjourned the Board of Supervisor's meeting on Feb. 12 in Rudy Cole's memory.

I had the pleasure of knowing Rudy Cole for many years. He was a remarkable man. Active in Beverly Hills government and politics for decades, Rudy cared deeply about the community. He believed in this city and strove to make it a better place to live. Rudy always looked for ways to find solutions to the problems facing us, and did not simply point out the difficulties ahead. His columns in Beverly Hills Weekly enlightened us, informed us, and provided unique and insightful perspectives on a wide array of topics. His passing is a terrible loss for the entire community. His voice and presence will be sorely missed.

-- Congressman Henry Waxman (D-Los Angeles)

I've known Rudy Cole since the 1960s even before he was a columnist. He was a political activist in those days and then became a writer and was a very astute analyst. While we didn't see each other as much as in the old days, we kept up a relationship and I always enjoyed reading what he wrote in his observations. He was a special person. He will be missed. He was like an encyclopedia of political knowledge.

I was in the middle of very bitter congressional race, and even though Beverly Hills was not in the district, he made some -- I'm very grateful -- very fine comments about my years in public service and that just sort of reminded me of how far back we went. He was a tough minded guy; he was a realist in the context of politics. He knew it was the art of the possible and [was] very devoted to the community.

-- Former Congressman Howard Berman (D-Van Nuys)

I will miss Rudy Cole's warmth, intelligence and concern for the well-being of Beverly Hills -- the community in which he and his family made their home. The salient feature of both his column in Beverly Hills Weekly and his interviews was his fairness and willingness to learn about different perspectives before coming to a reasoned opinion. Whether you agreed with him or not, no one doubted that he had thoughtfully considered each issue. His legacy is one his family and all of us should be proud of.

-- Former Assemblymember Mike Feuer (D-Los Angeles)

Rudy will truly be missed by this community; he was a passionate man who cared deeply about Beverly Hills. He loved politics and I think he would call himself a true political junkie. His history and knowledge of this community cannot be replaced. He recognized the good in the residents and the businesses and the community as a whole. And I would say on a personal note, he was a kind man and a good friend who I will miss deeply. And I know he will be missed by his constituents who are the thousands of people who look forward to his weekly column in Beverly Hills Weekly. And I would add, that in my conversations with him, he had a great admiration for [Publisher] Josh [Gross] and a great respect for people. He was a great guy and I'm really sad that he's not with us. Around election time in particular, his goal was to increase voter turnout in all elections. He wanted to see people vote and that was like his TV show. That's why he did his City TV show. That's why he looked forward to the TV show on election night. You know, he liked people. He was respectful to people and their diverse opinions. He was okay with that. It's just going to be an empty chair that's not going to be able to be replaced.

-- Mayor Willie Brien

My most memorable experience with Rudy was actually the first time that I sat with him as a candidate for school board. He loved going over to the Hilton for breakfast, so he invited me over. He always told me that the reason he liked going to the Hilton was that they allowed him to smoke and everybody knows Rudy smoked a pipe. I'm sitting listening to a person, who obviously has an incredible amount of historical information about our little village, and as I'm looking into his eyes, I see that there's smoke coming from his chest and I glance down and I notice that an ash or two had fallen on his shirt and is starting to smolder. I pause for a second thinking, what do I say? You're on fire? I mustered enough courage not wanting to say the wrong thing, I said, "Hey, I think you're on fire." And he said, "Oh thank you for the compliment."

He obviously knew right away what I meant because I think this happened to him a lot.

His smoothness through which he handled things like that and his sense of humor is what's most memorable, for me, beyond his dedication and love for this community. It's the end of a chapter in this community and I hope he'll be remembered appropriately.

-- Board of Education President Jake Manaster

Editor's note: The Board of Education held a moment of silence for Rudy Cole at the formal meeting on Feb. 12.

Yes, Rudy Cole was an institution. His perspective on issues was colored by years of individual almost institutional memory about the politics of Beverly Hills and beyond, in which in many cases he played an active role. I didn't always agree with Rudy's positions on local politics. In fact, while we both shared a love for our amazing City, we frequently disagreed with each other about Beverly Hills matters.

But Rudy Cole was more than just an institution.

When I started Blog Beverly Hills several years ago shortly after returning to town after years abroad, Rudy would often take aim at my musings, invariably describing the blog as "acerbic." And still, we would occasionally get together for coffee klatches -- most recently a few weeks ago -- punctuated by the pungent smell of Rudy's pipe, and discuss various issues. But mostly I would ask Rudy to share his wealth of knowledge about our City's history with me, and he would always oblige.

"You know, John," Rudy once told me. "I've never liked somebody so much with whom I disagree so much." I felt the same way.

Yes, I'll miss Rudy Cole.

-- Vice Mayor John Mirisch

Rudy was an institution. No one knew more political history of our city than he did. He was Google before its time. He knew all the players and back stories to everything and was a fantastic story teller himself. Tall in stature, great sense of humor, loyal in friendship -- his column was read word by word weekly. He was a presence. I will miss him, we all will.

-- Councilmember Lili Bosse

I remember all the wonderful lunches I had with Rudy at Caffé Roma, where he would regale me with stories about the history of Beverly Hills and the politics which changed over the many years he was part of the City while he packed his pipe and enjoyed his cocktail. He told me stories about Chief Clinton Anderson and we laughed at how my profession had changed over the years since Clinton ran the department. We eventually moved our lunches to the Hilton after the smoking ban. It was about the only place he could smoke his beloved pipe while we ate and visited.

He was the consummate gentleman and always asked about my wife Ellyn. Although very active in the political environment in Beverly Hills, and full of balanced and objective opinions, I never heard him say a personal bad word about anyone. He loved Beverly Hills. Rudy and I shared a September 28th birthday. I will miss celebrating with him. I shall miss him greatly.

-- BHPD Police Chief David Snowden

Rudy Cole was a cherished friend and mentor on so many fronts. His wisdom, kindness, honesty and true grit will be sorely missed.

-- Councilmember Barry Brucker

I still see Rudy sitting at his table at Caffé Roma, smoking his pipe and drinking his martini.

Rudy's passing is an irreplaceable loss to our community. He wrote passionately about both the past and present of our City. No one had a better grasp of the history of this City, which allowed him to put current events in proper perspective. He will be missed by all of us.

-- Former Mayor Stephen P. Webb

Rudy set the bar very high in his profession. He certainly has no equal in regional local news. No shortage of opinions, no fear of retaliation, just from the heart. In his memory let's fight for truth and honest reporting in our local newspapers. We have suffered long enough under the power of a pen that drips venom and deceit. RIP my friend!

-- Former Mayor Linda Briskman

Rudy and I had a very unique relationship. I think it was a love-antagonist-love relationship. And he represented a different point of view from mine politically, in large measure, but at the end, we certainly came together and he was an incredibly witty clever person who was really, I would think, a historian in many respects of the City being able to reach back and cite prior episodes of growth of good spirit, good cheer and of conflict that existed.

And he was very concerned about certain moral issues that I was as well and that was probably exemplified in its largest sense with the opportunity permit issue in the [BHUSD]. Rudy got me involved in that. We formed a citizen's group to save the children and I think that personified our relationship. Although we may have been antagonistic with each other in our differences, with respect to some issues, there was a fundamental bond which was morally and spiritually based and we had a very close relationship for the past several years.

He will be missed and I will miss him.

He had an important voice that had to be heard at the table in the marketplace of raising issues and having intelligent responses to them from both the left and the right. He had an important voice, notwithstanding any criticisms of me when I was in public office, that was important to be heard and I respected him for it. And as I said, I will miss him. We became very friendly over the past several years. I am very saddened at his passing.

-- Former Mayor Robert K. Tanenbaum

Saturday night was a sad day for our city. Rudy Cole who has been a long time historian of our City passed away. He will be missed.

I met Rudy about 12 years ago when I was thinking of running for Beverly Hills City Council. He set up a meeting with Former Mayor Maxwell Salter. Our lunch lasted a long time and I gained a lot of knowledge about our city. Rudy grilled me about why I wanted to run and I guess I passed since he shared his experiences of running political campaigns. He was helpful and gave me pointers on the City.

After that meeting, and for a whole year I visited every city commission and council meeting, so I could be ready to serve on the Council when I won.

We met many times, and seeing his love for the City warmed my heart. There were times we did not agree with each other, but we were respectful to each other. He loved my wife Lonnie and told me many times that I won because of her.

Rudy called me again and suggested that maybe I should run again this year, I thanked him, but I felt it was time to pass the baton to others.

Rudy, you will be missed, visiting Caffé Roma without you will never be the same.

Our love to his wife, Josette.

--Former Mayor Jimmy Delshad

Rudy used the power of the pen to chronicle the news and events of Beverly Hills. If one wanted some insight into the issues and people in this great community Rudy's column was must reading. I will always remember and be grateful for his support and belief in the Beverly Hills Unified School District. My heartfelt prayers and thoughts are with Rudy's family.

I knew Rudy Cole from when I first ran for city council. He ran my campaign and he taught me everything I know about the City. This was in 1975 and he's been my friend ever since. My memory of him is he was always warm, sympathetic. He was like the memory of the City. He had the traditions of Beverly Hills more than anybody else that I can think of and my memory of him is of course with his ever present pipe. Before he entered the room, you knew he was coming. I have very fond memories of him.

-- Former Mayor Joe Tilem

Secret side of Rudy...

Most of us know that Rudy loved cats and usually had two in his home...but how many knew that he was a gourmet cook?

I was invited for dinner several times and he always offered the same wonderful tasty main dish but he would never give me the recipe. I was somewhat confused however that his cats would jump into my lap during dinner and try to nibble the special sauce that covered the handmade pasta...

It did taste great but I could never understand why I kept looking for the litter box after the meal... hmmm.

-- Former Mayor Les Bronte

Rudy Cole was one of the first people to welcome me to the City of Beverly Hills as the new City Manager. He was quick to remind me that I had some very large shoes to fill, left for me by the highly regarded former City Managers Rod Wood and Mark Scott. Rudy displayed a real interest in learning who I was and what thoughts I had about the future of the City. He had a deep respect for the community, our residents, our business community and our form of government that had been developed from years and interaction and leadership in the community.

Rudy will be missed for his sense of humor, his uncanny insights into the happenings in the community and of course his ever present pipe. It was always a pleasure to interact with a journalism professional who devoted his life to reporting the way it was in Beverly Hills.

-- City Manager Jeff Kolin

"Rudy PaDudy" as I called him was one-of-a-kind like no one else. One day we were having a meeting regarding some political issue and arguing as usual. Rudy was trying to make a point with his lit pipe in tow and hot ashes were flying all over the place. He wouldn't stop talking and I sat there not responding and totally amused that he was lighting his jacket on fire. I finally had to say, you've made your point and your jacket is smoldering. We left our meeting with holes in his jacket, but he was proud that he made his point.

-- FTA President Judie Fenton

I have very fond memories of Rudy. He was a fount of personal knowledge and experience with some of the icons of California and Beverly Hills politics. He enjoyed telling me stories of the late Richard Richards, a founder of my law firm and the State Senator from Los Angeles County who presented the welcoming address at the 1960 Democratic National Convention held in Los Angeles. Rudy was also someone who believed that civic minded people in the proper leadership positions could affect people's lives for the better. He worked hard to better inform the residents of Beverly Hills about the issues of the day and how their government operated. I enjoyed reading his perspective in the Weekly and I will miss both him and his weekly column.

-- City Attorney Larry Wiener

After advocating for and succeeding in making Beverly Hills' public parks and outdoor eating areas a smoke-free reality, I feel very sad now that I will no longer have Rudy Cole to constantly harangue me, almost every time our paths would cross. He would often introduce me as "Jeff the anti-smoking Traffic & Parking Commissioner." Of course, this was because he was an avid pipe-smoker, who frequented many of the same Beverly Hills restaurants as me, and because he knew that dishing it out wouldn't really bother me (much). In fact, I sort of chuckled to myself initially each time we'd see each other, thinking, "...will Rudy ever accept this new reality?" Of course he did. Begrudgingly at first, but ultimately with the utmost respect and understanding for our community.

I will very much miss his weekly column in Beverly Hills Weekly. He was a clear-thinker, courteous to his audience, yet not afraid to call it as he saw it, every time!

Rudy will be sorely missed in our City.

-- Traffic and Parking Commissioner Jeff Levine

Rudy was a tireless Beverly Hills advocate and promoter. He cared not only about the glitz, but also the part of Beverly Hills that is a less publicized, caring community of loyal residents. Especially in the last 15 years or so, I felt Rudy really found his niche in speaking to that part of our collective conscience. He wrote about and celebrated our history, but he also tried very hard to find the greatness that Beverly Hills achieves in collaboration. How many times, for instance, did he point out how effectively Max Salter and Bob Tanenbaum communicated to the public when they were able to put politics aside -- which they often did.

The first time I met Rudy was in 1984 on the evening of a Council election. I was a 34-year old assistant to then City Manager Ed Kreins. Ed sent me down to the Council Chamber to find Fred Cunningham to get an election update. There was a crowd at the access-restricted door to the Chamber. I'd gotten to the front of the line when suddenly, two arms reached around me, and Rudy lifted my 6'2" body out of his way. Rudy was fighting for a candidate and was not going to be denied.

I got to know him through the years as a fighter for whatever cause he had -- Greystone Mansion (which we both loved), the new Recreation & Parks Commission, equity in BHUSD policy for student transfers -- or just simply for the truth. I thought that in Rudy's later years he was really devoted to getting truth recorded as it related to the events of the past or the issues of the present. There were many times that people disagreed with Rudy, but instead of vilifying his detractors, he seemed to always want to give equal space to their viewpoints. And Rudy always had praise for the lesser publicized community contributors.

Rudy was a unique Beverly Hills asset. I want to send my love to Josette and all of his Beverly Hills Weekly family, as well. I nominate Rudy for the "local hero" status that he has bestowed on so many others.

-- Fresno City Manager Mark Scott

Beverly Hills City Manager 1990-2003

Meeting Rudy was one of the most memorable events of my time at Beverly Hills Weekly, and not just because he was such a fascinating guy. During my first week at the paper, he offered to show me around Beverly Hills. But before I sat down in the passenger seat, he insisted I commit to sticking with the job for at least several months. He wanted to make sure I was serious. I'll admit I hesitated before getting in the car—the first few days had been overwhelming—but I'm so glad I did.

Rudy welcomed my boyfriend [Eric Marshall] and me into his circle, regularly inviting us to poolside brunches at his table at the Beverly Hilton and afternoon cocktails at the Montage. We almost always met somebody new and interesting that would join us; he seemed to know everyone anywhere we would go. We were delighted by his stories and sharp wit. Rudy was a huge supporter while I worked at the paper and beyond, but he wasn't shy about pointing out weak leads or headlines I had written. I learned a great deal from him, from editing tips to politics to Beverly Hills history. To me, Rudy personified Beverly Hills.

-- Former Weekly reporter Melanie Anderson

If I had a question about a historic event in our City, I would ask Rudy. He always had the answer and most likely was involved in the event on some level. You could not be sure that his answer was 100% correct but it did not matter as the way he told the story was what counted.

I found Rudy to be so helpful on understanding our local history. Rudy was a very interesting man and cared deeply about Beverly Hills. He will be missed by many of us, but not forgotten.

-- Cultural Heritage Commission Chair Noah Furie

It's difficult to imagine a world without Rudy Cole and his pipe. He was always busy reporting brilliant historical and other matters of interest to us all. Rudy and Josette have been family friends for eons and we always enjoyed sharing the holidays with them. In 1986, Rudy was Sonny's campaign manager and did an excellent job, and he did as well with the second campaign. Personally I enjoyed the many years serving on the board of the Beverly Hills Greystone Blue Ribbon Committee when Rudy was the founding president. Behind his gruff voice, he was a man who cared about his community. Rudy will be greatly missed! Our deepest sympathy and our hearts are with Josette during this time of great loss. To you, dear Josette. We send our lasting love.

-- Janet Salter, Pepper & Joseph Edmiston, Michael & Toby Salter, 12 grand and 7 great grandchildren.

Like many, I too was saddened to hear of the passing of Rudy Cole. I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Rudy for 20 years from the time he became the first Chairperson of the Recreation and Parks Commission in 1990 and also working with Rudy while he served on the Greystone Foundation. I never met anyone who loved Beverly Hills more than Rudy. Rudy was a huge supporter of the Community Services Department programs and services provided to the residents of Beverly Hills. While on the Recreation and Parks Commission Rudy pushed for the creation of a community theatre program and helped to broker solutions to many community issues.

I had great pleasure lunching with Rudy from time to time over the years, discussing community issues, watching holes slowly burn into his neck ties from his pipe tobacco that he enjoyed, and receiving Beverly Hills history lessons. While we did not see eye to eye on all issues, I valued his opinion on many issues over the years.

I will miss Rudy and reading his column in Beverly Hills Weekly.

-- Former Community Services Director Steve Miller

Rudy -- We will miss your keen intellect, incredible memory, and love for our city. You were the institutional memory of Beverly Hills and the voice of reason that we depended on. How much we will miss our wonderful lunches, dinners, arguments and laughter. And, of course, the Captain Black pipe tobacco ashes burning holes in your shirt. Love you always, Rudy.

-- Former Board of Education member Myra Lurie and David Goldman

We will always treasure the memories of our Saturday night dinners at the Peninsula with Rudy and Josette. A wonderful, caring and loyal friend, he was one-of-a-kind and we will miss him dearly.

-- Sam and Sooky Goldman

For as long as I can remember (and I've lived in Beverly Hills over 50 years), Rudy Cole has been an integral part of the fabric of Beverly Hills political life. He remembered everything, forgot nothing; he was a living encyclopedia of facts and remembrances of our city. What a loss the City has suffered. Rudy's wit, smarts, and urbane, sometimes sarcastic, sense of humor cannot be replaced.

-- Former Mayor Richard A. Stone

Rudy was a friend and mentor. We met in 1995, several years after I moved to Beverly Hills. I was President of the Beverly Hills Historical Society at the time. Rudy was instrumental in my appointment to the Recreation and Parks Commission and also the original Greystone Foundation. Later, we created the Friends of Greystone. I followed in his footsteps as Chair of the Recreation and Parks Commission and also as President of the Greystone Foundation. I will miss being able to call and get advice or information when needed. He was a smart man with a great sense of humor and an endless stream of interesting stories and adventures. He will be missed by all who knew him. Beverly Hills is a better place because of Rudy Cole.

-- President of BH/Greater Los Angeles Association of REALTORS Marty Geimer

I have read Rudy's column from the day it first appeared in the Weekly. In later years, I'd be sending [Publisher] Josh [Gross] frantic emails at about 8 p.m. Wednesday if the online edition wasn't uploaded. If I agreed with Rudy's column, it made my week. If not, well let's just say my thoughts were less civil and leave it at that. But I can't think of anyone else who would, week after week write a take on the issues and happenings in Beverly Hills that had the depth of knowledge of this City's history and how we got to where we are today. Rudy, even though you've never finished a contest I can remember, you were a true treasure and you will be sorely missed.

-- Human Relations Commissioner Tom Pease

We all are very sad to learn that Rudy Cole passed away. Rudy was a leading chronicler of history and events in Beverly Hills and an important voice in our community for over 50 years. There is no one who can replace him. He will be missed.

Rudy Cole was unique in this community. He was a veritable treasure chest of information of the history and contemporary happenings in Beverly Hills. He was the champion of the restoration of Greystone. His ability to analyze municipal problems and see possible solutions was unparalleled. He knew everyone, was seen everywhere and admired by most. His death is a shock to his admirers and a tremendous loss to all of us interested in REALLY what goes on in the city. My deepest sympathy to his lovely wife, Josette, and condolences to all of us who shall miss his presence.

-- Former Mayor Donna Ellman Garber

It is impossible to eulogize Rudy Cole's accomplishments and the immense impact he had on every life he touched in a book or a feature article, much less a letter to the editor. Our condolences go out to Josette, the love of his life and the only star in his sky, and also to all of those who lost a friend, a mentor, a worthy adversary, and a writer who managed to educate, as well as entertain, thousands of his readers. You shall live on in our memory until our life too, comes to an end.

Way back in 1980 (yes, 33 years ago) I was newly arrived in Beverly Hills. Then-City Attorney Ray Ott introduced me to Rudy. They then decided they needed to take care of the new kid and invited me to the Beverly Hills Democratic Club. Seeing that this was a foreign concept to me, Rudy quickly added that it did not matter what my "politics" were----"That is where all the cute chicks hang out".

I think there are a couple other stories I could add, but I am pretty sure they are unprintable. Rudy was a great guy.

-- Retired City of Beverly Hills Chief Financial Officer Don Oblander

I just wanted to express my deepest sympathies to you and all of the staff as we just received word of Rudy's passing. He was a real Beverly Hills character and I mean that in the fondest way. We will truly miss him, his column and his television program. City staff particularly appreciated Rudy's honesty and support through the years. Many of us chose a career in public service because we believe it to be an honorable pursuit. I feel the same way about the vitally important fourth estate which is crucial to good government and Rudy was an exemplar of this. The word irreplaceable is often used to describe people but in this case it is absolutely true with regard to Rudy, someone who has represented Beverly Hills for me during my almost 22 years working here. Good bye Rudy, and thank you.

-- City Principal Planner Michele McGrath

Rudy, you called Beverly Hills, "The Village," and I loved that. Being a "Village" meant that we, the residents were "The Villagers" and somehow, that focused on our heart and soul.

I have known of you since the early seventies and seldom did we agree on the issues or the candidates, but over these many years we became FRIENDS.

I really cannot tell you how many times I went to the computer to write you and set you "straight" on many an issue... I may have written them but I do not think I sent them.

I likened you to the town "crier"...you used the pen instead of a bell. Reading your weekly columns became weekly ritual, though some people would never admit that they were captivated by your prose... the usual Friday conversation for many became "did you read Rudy's column yet?"

Rudy, for some reason you enjoyed interviewing me on your television programs...perhaps you liked my style... straightforward answers to your questions and perhaps because I was around during those early years of Beverly Hills League of Women Voters days...those were interesting times. I especially enjoyed our last interview session at the news city TV station. I shall treasure the disk... got good reviews. Thank you.

Rudy, you left us rather suddenly...almost in the middle of a sentence...what will Roxbury Park look like? Who won the City Council election? Most importantly, will the subway tunnel under Beverly High? You left the "Villagers" without your final "take" on these subjects. Thursdays will not be the same without Rudy Cole.

-- Gloria Seiff

I first met Rudy 12 years ago when I was starting my career at a company in Beverly Hills. I am very blessed to have a man like him come into my life at such a young age. He was a great mentor who always treated everyone with kindness and respect. From valet attendants to public figures, Rudy always had a way of making people feel good. Even on your worst day, all you had to do was grab lunch or cocktails with Rudy and you were guaranteed laughter and great stories. He was incredibly caring and compassionate and was always there if you need him.

My favorite story of Rudy was six years ago at a business meeting. We were sitting in an office having a conversation when Rudy took out his pipe and started lighting it. As the rest of us stared at him thinking it's a joke, Rudy continued his conversation and took a couple of puffs before quickly realizing he's indoors and putting it back into his coat pocket. After a minute or two, I noticed smoke coming out of his coat pocket, I said "Rudy I think there's smoke coming out of your jacket." He jumped out of his seat and started undoing his belt to take off his pants. I quickly jumped up next to him and said "Rudy the smoke is coming out of your jacket not your pants". He quickly pulled the pipe out, looked up at us and said "I knew that, I just wanted to give you all a show you can't forget" no matter the situation, he could always make people laugh..."

He had his ups and downs in life, just like we all have, but Rudy was by definition a great man...I will forever miss him.

-- Global Holdings, Inc. CEO Sam Solakyan

I would like to convey my condolences regarding Rudy's passing to Josette and the entire Beverly Hills family. Rudy will be sorely missed.

I worked with Rudy for several years on a development project, which was ultimately defeated. What impressed me the most about Rudy was that he never once said anything negative about our opponents, in public or private. He kept a cool head and an aromatic pipe. He was a wellspring of knowledge for Beverly Hills history. As many of your readers would agree, Rudy approached issues with much common sense and wit. And of course, he very much loved and respected Josette.

-- Kamyar Mahboubi

Kindness. Generosity. Empathy. Those are but a few words that describe Rudy Cole. I had the privilege of making two new friends (Rudy and his lovely wife Josette) after I moved to California from Colorado in 2012. Shortly after I arrived, Rudy "adopted" me and spent time educating me on the history of Beverly Hills, the city he loved so much.

While others can speak to his worldly accomplishments (and there were many), I remember Rudy most for his compassion and his dedication to making the world a better place. He met a complete stranger, and welcomed her with open arms. He never asked how I could help him but always offered, and did so very much to help me.

His quick wit and seemingly infinite repertoire of jokes always caused a smile. He took his convictions seriously and always advocated fiercely for his beliefs. He never wavered in his focus to improve life for all residents of the city he loved. But always with a smile of his own.

It was an honor to be your friend. I will miss you, Rudy.

-- UCLA Director of Gift Planning Tara Sakraida

Stewart Horowitz. "Certainly someone who is willing to put the City's priorities in a way that aligns so closely with BHUSD and the interest of teachers and classified employees certainly deserves our support."

Horowitz said he believed appropriating money to the schools was Mirisch's idea.

"He was the one who approached the school board back in December and said look, 'We are fortunate the City's done very well, this is an unexpected surplus. We are prepared to direct a large percentage of it to the school district,'" said Horowitz.

Horowitz said though Rosenstein did not have a record he was running on, he was selected based on his interview with the BHEA.

"Clearly the interview committee felt it was easy to make these selections," said Horowitz.

The BHEA's political action committee met with the three candidates and asked them questions on topics including the Metropolitan Transit Authority, the school bond, and relations between the City and Board of Education. Horowitz said he did not attend the meeting, but the committee presented to the representative council, who voted on Feb. 7.

BHHS Boys' Soccer Team Defeats Hawthorne, Morningside, Santa Monica Norman girls' soccer team shuts out Hawthorne, Morningside

By Steven Herbert

Senior midfielder Kooshawn Gordnia scored the tie-breaking goal in the 61st minute off Harry Green's assist and Gefen Laredo scored twice for Beverly High in a 3-1 victory over Hawthorne in an Ocean League boys' soccer game at Nickoll Field Jan. 25.

Laredo opened the scoring in the 23rd minute off Elijah Lichtenberg's assist. The Cougars tied the score in the 38th minute on a penalty kick after the referee ruled a Norman player had fouled a Hawthorne player in the penalty area.

Laredo added an insurance goal off Lichtenberg's assist in the 73rd minute of the 80-minute game.

Beverly Hills goalkeeper Milton Joyner made three saves.

The Normans led in shots 9-4.

Gordnia's goal was his first of the season.

"We outplayed them totally," Beverly Hills coach Steve Rappaport said. "I thought our defense overall was exceptional."

Sophomore midfielder Cole Offer, senior midfielder Josh Horowitz, Lichtenberg and junior sweeper Roman Zaragoza all drew praise from Rappaport.

Beverly Hills 3, Morningside 0

Laredo scored his 10th goal of the season in the sixth minute, Horowitz and Max Parnia scored in the second half and Joyner made six saves for his fourth shutout of the season in an Ocean League game at Morningside Jan. 30.

Horowitz scored his third goal of the season in the 52nd minute off what Rappaport called a fantastic pass by Lichtenberg.

Parnia scored his third goal in the 70th minute when a goal kick by the Monarchs' goalkeeper hit the back of a Morningside defender "and Max was just standing there and passed the ball into the goal," Rappaport said.

The Normans led in shots, 10-6.

"We were just strong all over," Rappaport said.

Lichtenberg "dominated the midfield along with Horowitz," Laredo "had a very, very strong game" said Rappaport, who also praised the play of senior defender Golan Khorshidi.

Beverly Hills 2, Santa Monica 1

Lichtenberg scored his second goal of the game in the second minute of the first overtime segment off Phin Bauer's assist to give the Normans the victory in what Rappaport described as a "very physical" Ocean League game at Nickoll Field Feb. 1.

Lichtenberg opened the scoring in the 38th minute with his 10th goal of the season. The Vikings tied the score in the 65th minute.

Beverly Hills (12-6-2, 7-1 in league play) led 14-9 in shots. Joyner made eight saves.

Rappaport credited the team's fifth consecutive victory following a 2-1 loss to Santa Monica Jan. 16 to "strong play overall."

Daniel Kahn played a "tremendous game at stopper, marking out their top player," said Rappaport, who also praised the play of Green, Horowitz, Lichtenberg, Offer and Zaragoza.

Girls' Soccer

Beverly Hills 4, Hawthorne 0

Kaela Reisfelt had two goals and Ashley Aviram scored and assisted on the Normans' three other goals in an Ocean League game at Nickoll Field Jan. 25.

Shannon Haggins also scored for Beverly Hills.

Norman goalkeeper Amanda Manaster made four saves for the shutout.

Beverly Hills led in shots, 23-4.

The Normans led 1-0 at halftime.

Beverly Hills 9, Morningside 0

Reisfelt scored three goals and Talula Holt had two goals and two assists in an Ocean League game at Nickoll Field Jan. 30.

Aviram had a goal and two assists and Elena Rust had a goal and one assist. Ellie Dubin and Lauren Kurtz also scored.

Kylie Colvin made three saves and Manaster two for the shutout.

The Normans led 4-0 at halftime.

Santa Monica 3, Beverly Hills 1

Rust scored in the second half of an Ocean League game at Santa Monica Feb. 1.

The Normans (10-8-2, 6-2) trailed 2-0 at halftime.

Colvin made 10 saves.

Girls' Basketball

Beverly Hills 43, Inglewood 39

Norman junior guard Jazz Anderson scored 15 of her 20 points in the first half in an Ocean League game at the Swim-Gym Feb. 5.

Anderson scored seven points in the first quarter as Beverly Hills outscored the Sentinels, 13-8. Anderson scored eight points in the second quarter as the Normans outscored Inglewood, 12-2, to increase their lead to 25-10 at halftime.

Both teams scored 11 points in the third quarter. Beverly Hills was outscored 18-7 in the fourth quarter.

Jessica Melamed added 12, Natasha Allen seven, five in the third quarter, and Natasha Kashani and Arianna Mazzarini two each for the Normans.

"For about 3 1/2 quarters, we played extremely well, not giving up second shots and taking care of the ball," said Beverly Hills coach John Braddell, whose team had lost to the Sentinels, 60-51, Jan. 18.

"They made a run starting in the middle of the third quarter. They started to trap us and we didn't take care of the basketball in the third quarter. They started to get the swing of momentum and all of sudden, we're not blocking out and giving up second shots.

"We had to hold on to win. We kind of got a little rattled, especially in the last three-to-four minutes of the fourth quarter."

Culver City 66, Beverly Hills 30

The Normans were outscored 17-2 in the second quarter and trailed 35-12 at halftime of an Ocean League game at Culver City last Thursday.

Beverly Hills (16-11, 6-4) was outscored 21-7 in the third quarter and entered the fourth quarter trailing 56-19.

The Normans were outscored 18-10 in the first quarter in the final regular season game for both teams.

Anderson scored eight points, Megan Yee six, Allen and Mazzarini four each and Emebet Aklilu, Kashani, Dorsa Mehrannia and Melamed two each.

corded on 4/16/2012 as instrument number 12-0562417 in the office of the County Recorder of Los Angeles County, California, and further pursuant to the Notice of Default and Election to Sell thereunder recorded on 9/26/2012 as instrument number 20121446501 in said county and further pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1367.1 and those certain Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions recorded on 8/14/21974 as instrument number 3530, WILL SELL on 2/21/2013, 9:00 A.M. behind the fountain located in Civic Center Plaza, 400 Civic Center Plaza, Pomona, CA. a public auction to the highest bidder for lawful money of the United States payable at the time of sale, all right, title and interest in the property situated in said county as more fully described in the above referenced Lien. The purported owner(s) of said property is (are): Sally Drennon, a married woman as her sole and separate. The property address and other common designation, if any, of the real property is purported to be: 1033 N. Carol Drive, #T-1 West Hollywood CA 90069, APN 4340-028-037. The undersigned trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of this Notice of Sale is: $37,221.02. The opening bid at the foreclosure sale may be more or less than this estimate. In addition to cash, the trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn on a state or federal credit union or a check drawn on state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the California Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale until funds become available to the payee or the endorsee as a matter of right. Said sale shall be made, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the indebtedness secured by said Lien, advances thereunder, with interest as provided in Declaration plus the fees, charges and expenses of the trustee. THIS PROPERTY IS BEING SOLD IN AN "AS-IS" CONDITION. Witkin & Neal, Inc. is attempting to collect a debt. Any information obtained will be used for that purpose. If you have previously received a discharge in bankruptcy, you may have been released from personal liability for this debt in which case this notice is intended to exercise the secured party's rights against the real property only. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER AND ALL OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 714-573-1965 or visit this Internet Web site: www.priorityposting.com using the file number assigned to this case: J12-08024. Information about postponement that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. IMPORTANT NOTICE: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the sale shall be subject to the following as provided in California Civil Code Section 1367.4(c)4: "a non judicial foreclosure sale by an association to collect upon a debt for delinquent assessments shall be subject to a right of redemption. The redemption period within which the separate interest may be redeemed from a foreclosure sale under this paragraph ends 90 days after the sale." The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site www.auction.com for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case 20120028701207. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: VICTOR GOODHILL CASE NO. BP139004

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of VICTOR GOODHILL. A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by BARBARA GOODHILL in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that BARBARA GOODHILL be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 03/07/13 at 8:30AM in Dept. 5 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner LLOYD S. MANN, ESQ. NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE TS No. 12-0068921 Title Order No. 10-6-212085 APN No. 4350-019-030 YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST, DATED 10/01/2004. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. Notice is hereby given that RECONTRUST COMPANY, N.A., as duly appointed trustee pursuant to the Deed of Trust executed by ROYA HAKIM SAZEGAR, AND JAMSHID SAZEGAR, WIFE AND HUSBAND AS JOINT TENANTS, dated 10/01/2004 and recorded 10/12/2004, as Instrument No. 04 2612831, in Book , Page , of Official Records in the office of the County Recorder of Los Angeles County, State of California, will sell on 03/07/2013 at 1:00PM, At the Pomona Valley Masonic Temple Building, located at 395 South Thomas Street, Pomona, California at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash or check as described below, payable in full at time of sale, all right, title, and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust, in the property situated in said County and State and as more fully described in the above referenced Deed of Trust. The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 1221 COLDWATER CANYON DRIVE, BEVERLY HILLS, CA, 902102404. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. The total amount of the unpaid balance with interest thereon of the obligation secured by the property to be sold plus reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is $519,535.36. It is possible that at the time of sale the opening bid may be less than the total indebtedness due. In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept cashier's checks drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state. Said sale will be made, in an "AS IS" condition, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the indebtedness secured by said Deed of Trust, advances thereunder, with interest as provided, and the unpaid principal of the Note secured by said Deed of Trust with interest thereon as provided in said Note, plus fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, advances thereunder, with interest as provided, and the unpaid principal of the Note secured by said Deed of Trust with interest thereon as provided in said Note, plus fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. If required by the provisions of section 2923.5 of the California Civil Code, the declaration from the mortgagee, beneficiary or authorized agent is attached to the Notice of Trustee's Sale duly recorded with the appropriate County Recorder's Office. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on a property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 1-800-281-8219 or visit this Internet Web site www.recontrustco.com, using the file number assigned to this case 11-0094998. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Mayor Willie Brien has made public safety a top priority

"Mayor Brien has worked tirelessly to ensure that we have the resources we need to keep Beverly Hills safe. We stand by him and are proud to support his re-election bid."

—The Beverly Hills Firefighters Association

"Willie Brien has made public safety and service to residents his top priority. We hope you support Public Safety's choice and re-elect Mayor Willie Brien."

—Beverly Hills Police Officers Association

Mayor Brien's leadership in balancing the budget and generating a $10 million surplus has helped to keep Beverly Hills safe and our schools more secure

Mayor Brien led the effort to purchase a third ambulance to make sure our first responders will be there if you have an emergency

"Our Beverly Hills Paramedics saved my life. When Michelle called, they were at our home in less than 3-minutes. Their speed and expertise kept me alive and we are forever grateful. It is critical they have the resources they need to continue to save others."
—Michelle & Alan Kaye

Mayor Brien has worked closely with Police Chief Dave Snowden to increase school security

"I look forward to continuing a collaborative working relationship with Willie. His attention paid to our students and our community has always been exemplary."
—Hon. Jake Manaster, President, Beverly Hills Board of Education

Mayor Brien increased Closed Circuit Television surveillance throughout the City to keep our streets safe

"Willie has been there for the seniors, always working to protect our services and keep our City safe. He has earned my trust and I hope he has your vote."
—Winifred Hervey, Immediate Past-President, Beverly Hills Active Seniors

"I am proud that Beverly Hills has maintained its reputation as one of the safest cities in America. Our Police and Fire are second to none and I want to make sure they stay that way."
—Willie Brien
