“An appeal to keep our outdoor table”

My husband, Jim Keller, and I run our family owned business – Kramer’s Pipe & Tobacco Shop on Little Santa Monica - now in its 66th year at the same location.

Through the years we have periodically had two small café tables in front of the shop.

We are in compliance with the now ‘outdoor smoking regulations’ 5-4-1 and 5-4-2 in the Beverly Hills Municipal Code.

In recent times, the city came out and measured to make sure that those two café tables were the regulation 5 feet from any dining table.

They were. No problem.

Although we liked the balanced look of the two tables out front, we decided, on our own, to remove one table which was the closest to a dining table . . . just to be considerate neighbors. The one table left was 15 feet from any dining table.

That one small café table and two chairs, which have been there for some time now, weren’t used that much (although some of our regulars - and neighbors - really appreciate it being there).

But it adds a charming, old fashioned and neighborhood ambience.

City Council weighs in on outside employment policy

At the City Council Study Session Tuesday, councilmembers discussed the City's policy on outside employment for executive employees.

"We're not creating a law today," said Mayor Julian Gold. "We're really just trying to give some direction for the modification of an existing law and trying to find some parameters where we seem to have some common ground."

California Government Code Section 1126, which addresses outside employment by city employees, states that "a local agency officer or employee shall not engage in any employment, activity, or enterprise for compensation which is inconsistent, incompatible, in conflict with, or inimical to his or her duties as a local agency officer or employee or with the duties, functions, or responsibilities of his or her appointing power or the agency by which he or she is employed."

Breaching the conflict-of-interest law qualifies as a misdemeanor violation.

"I have been reading some of the contracts that we have with employees, and I've been dismayed by things that have occurred," Councilmember Nancy Krasne said. "We have it now where the City Manager can sign off and allow an employee to take a job; I would like it to be the City Manager and a sign-off from every councilmember."

BHPD Police Chief Dave Snowden's consulting agreement with the now-defunct private security firm Evidence Based, Inc (EBI) is a recent example of an executive-level employee engaging in outside employment.

City staff surveyed numerous cities about their outside employment policies and received responses from 15 different municipalities. All of the participating cities with policies reported ones that generally followed the format of the City of Beverly Hills ordinance and Government Code Section 1126.

The policies permitted outside employment by employees, but such employment required prior approval by a supervisor and could not interfere with city employment.

Venoco oil lease, Measure E focus of Southwest Homeowners Association meeting

The Venoco oil lease, Measure E, Metro and mansionization shaped the discussion at the Southwest Homeowners Association meeting last Wednesday.

Mayor Julian Gold, Interim City Manager Mahdi Aluzri, Board of Education President Howard Goldstein and Board member Lisa Korbatov answered residents' questions.

"We are taking a very hard look at [the Measure E bond acceleration], and we will be coming to some determination April 14," Goldstein said.

Board members will vote whether or not to accelerate the bond at their mid-April meeting.

Korbatov—who asserted the Board "has been as transparent as [they] can be"—said the Board has "bonding authority" when asked by a resident why the school committee was dodging a vote by the community before making a decision on the bond acceleration.

Venoco oil drilling operations at Beverly High are slated to end December 2016, meaning the BHUSD will no longer receive $600,000 a year in royalties from the private corporation. The annual payments used to total $1 million.

In 2011, the City Council voted to cease oil drilling in the City no later than the end of the lease.

"The determination was that we did not want oil drilling in the City of Beverly Hills," Gold said, eliciting grumbles from a few residents.

Perhaps to placate residents concerned about losing their royalty dollars, former Beverly Hills Mayor Barry Brucker proposed an alternative to dissolving the lease.

"There are some win-win situations here, for those who are absolutely committed to keeping their royalty dollars," Brucker said. "There is an option that Venoco can sell their subsurface rights to Hillcrest [Petroleum] or Breitburn [Energy Partners], who can drill underground, which they currently do in Beverly Hills, which is legal, and still pay [Beverly High] and the residents their royalty dollars."

The conversation then shifted to the topic of mansionization, an ongoing focus of the City's Planning and Design Review Commissions.

Venoco, Inc oil well site at Beverly High

"I think most of us are under the impression that the City adopted setback rules, height rules, articulation rules," said Southwest Homeowners Association President Ken Goldman. "Yet more and more and more, we see these homes built that seem to impinge on their neighbors."

Director of Community Development Susan Healy Keene stressed that the focus should be on building two-story homes that are "more sensitive to the neighborhood."

Jeff Kolin, City Manager at the time, had approved Snowden's contract with EBI.

The Beverly Hills Municipal Code does not make a distinction between executive employees and non-executive employees.

Levine to serve out Grushcow's term

Jeff Levine will serve out the term of the late Traffic and Parking Commissioner Alan Grushcow until December 31, 2015.

"It would be an honor and a privilege to be of further service to the City of Beverly Hills by serving out the term of my late friend and colleague, Commissioner Alan Grushcow," Levine wrote in a February letter to the City.

Jeff Levine

As permitted by the recently adopted Commission structure ordinance, Mayor Julian Gold and Councilmember Nancy Krasne recommended reappointing Levine, a former Traffic and Parking Commissioner, to the committee.

Traffic & Parking Commission approves permit zone for North Elm

At their meeting last week, the Traffic & Parking Commission unanimously approved a resident-initiated request to create a preferential parking permit zone on the 300 block of North Elm Drive, which contains 16 single-family homes and 31 on-street parking spaces.

A parking regulation on the block currently allows two hours of non-permit parking from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., except Sundays.

Under the amended code, two hours of non-permit parking are allowed from 8

Also, because the table has been there through the years, it lets people know, at a glance, that we are open.

Then this January we received notice from Beverly Hills Code Enforcement, that we cannot have that table anymore. It's an encroachment issue.

We were told by an enforcement officer that there was an anonymous complaint . . . and we were in violation of BHMC 10-3-3007 A 1.

Which I understand to say "no structure shall be altered unless reviewed and approved by the architectural commission or by the council on appeal . . ."

When we inquired, we were told that we cannot even apply for any permit, since these permits are only for dining! There seemed to be no option and very unfair.

So I am appealing to you, the City Council.

And not only our shop – but two other businesses - only on our block – were also sited:

The jeweler next door was told he couldn't just periodically take out his lone (very nifty chrome and black) stool and - once in a while - enjoy sitting outside.

Also Jim Wayne, who has 6 lovely wooden folding chairs in front of his salon (almost entirely on an indent of his property), was told they weren't safe.

His chairs, and our small table hardly stick out.

I know things change, and life moves on.

Yet LA County has grandfathered in our scale (for blending pipe tobacco) . . . since it works great, and has been here since my dad opened in 1949 . . . and so we haven't had to buy a new digital scale (which they tell me aren't as accurate).

We thought since we have been here so long our little tables would have been grandfathered in as well.

At the very least we thought we would have the opportunity to obtain permission to keep our table or to find what would be involved in obtaining a permit.

So I am appealing to you, the city council.

Beverly Hills has a great history, and I know you agree with me that we should be concerned and honor that history . . . and hopefully be proud and supportive of long time small businesses in the midst of all the glitz and glamour.

a.m. to 6 p.m. daily; from 6 p.m. to 2:30 a.m., only Permit "G" holders can park on the block.

"It's difficult to have these hearings over and over again for simple and logical changes that otherwise would be taken care of by addressing large groups of streets at once that now pretty much have the same parking restrictions for preferential," said Vice Chair Jake Manaster.

A petition signed by 69% of the households on the 300 block of North Elm Drive was submitted in February requesting an evening parking regulation to address long-term commuter parking on the block. Permit Zone "G" began expanding in 2003, causing parking occupancy to shift east towards the residential streets.

"The problem is [commuters] come, they drink [and] they trash the street," said lead petitioner Ojan Ghalchi. "When I come home from work around 7:00, 7:30 pm, there is no parking on the street."

Preferential Permit Parking Zone "G" was first developed in the 1970s on the 100 blocks of North Maple and Palm Drives to address parking intrusion from the adjacent Wilshire Boulevard business corridor.

On average, 11 of the 31 on-street parking spaces were occupied during a 15-hour parking occupancy survey conducted by staff last month. A total of 34 vehicles were recorded during the survey period, with 17 commuter vehicles parking between six to nine hours.

Chair Lester Friedman pointed out that the new parking regulation might create congestion issues for Burton Way.

"There are some establishments on Burton Way [that] are asking for some modifications in order to get more space or use more of their space," Friedman said. "I'm just wondering if there shouldn't be a tie-in to granting those by providing parking for their employees. If they're going to create additional usage of their space perhaps as part of the conditional use permit that they're going to get, there should be some sort of requirement that they provide parking for their employees."

As a next step, the item will be placed on the City Council consent calendar and approved at a future meeting.

Beverly Hills Post Office to remain in building at current location

The Beverly Hills Post Office will remain in its current building on North Maple Drive during the development of a new Post Office retail lobby.

Post Office hours, postal services and access to Post Offices boxes will remain uninterrupted during the construction process, which is slated for completion by the end of this year.

Located within the same building, the newly remodeled facility will shift the Post Office entrance further west along Third Street.

In 2012, the U.S. Postal Service approved a plan to relocate the Beverly Hills Post Office and sell the building, which was larger than necessary. During the sale of the property, USPS negotiated a long-term agreement to lease a portion of the building for public retail operations, Post Office Box service and Business Mail entry. Post Office box numbers will remain the same.

BHHS alumnus signs with Dolphins Norman boys' tennis team defeats Santa Barbara, Peninsula

By Steven Herbert

Linebacker Spencer Paysinger, a 2006 Beverly High graduate, signed with the Miami Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent last Thursday after spending the first four seasons of his NFL career with the New York Giants.

"I did my homework on (the Dolphins) before the trip and I saw that they had a few linebackers that aren't with the team anymore and it just looked like an opportunity," Paysinger told South Florida reporters on a conference call last week. "For me, it's all about having an opportunity.

"For the most part, they know my special teams capabilities are going to be here. They know where they can put me on defense. Whether that be at Will (linebacker) or Sam (linebacker), it's still up in the air. I'm just here to contribute."

Paysinger played in 15 of the Giants' 16 games last season, starting one, making 15 tackles for the season. He has started 14 games in the NFL, 10 in 2013.

"Every linebacker that plays in the NFL wants to be a starter, but I'm not here trying to undercut anybody or try to throw anybody under the bus," said Paysinger, a son of Donald Paysinger, a former Beverly High football coach, and a nephew of Carter Paysinger, the school's principal, and Vonzie Paysinger, its baseball coach.

"I want to come here and play the opportunity that's been provided to me."

Paysinger was a rookie on the Giants team that won Super Bowl XLVI. The Giants have not reached the playoffs since then. The Dolphins have not made the playoffs since 2008.

"I had a great run my first year getting to the Super Bowl," Paysinger said. "But for the past few years, we kind of struggled a little bit.

"Now that I'm with the Miami Dolphins, it's about bringing that experience here. I know it's a relatively young team, so it's just about bridging that trust between players."

Done Deal? Sam Yebri on the Iran Peace Agreement

Americans should view the recently announced nuclear understanding between Iran and the P5+1 with skepticism, concern, and disappointment. This is especially true for us Americans who are both Iranian and Jewish.

First, we are skeptical because there is no “deal.” Nothing was signed in Lausanne, Switzerland last Thursday. There are only two statements: one from the U.S. State Department entitled “Parameters for a Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action” (<http://www.state.gov/r/pa/prs/ps/2015/04/240170.htm>), and another from the Islamic Republic entitled “Iranian Fact Sheet on the Nuclear Negotiations” (<http://iranmatters.belfercenter.org/blog/translation-iranian-factsheet-nuclear-negotiations>). The former is in English, the latter is in Farsi, and they do not mirror each other in substance at all. In fact, there are serious and fundamental gaps between the two statements, which is problematic to say the least. Significant details remain unaddressed, including the pace of sanctions relief, the “process” for surprise inspections, and Iran’s advanced nuclear research capabilities. Iranian-American Jews are skeptical because we know the duplicitous and pernicious nature of the Islamic regime firsthand. Look no further than the fact that the Islamic Regime lied about every aspect of its nuclear weapons program, built secret fortified underground facilities, violated the Non-Proliferation Treaty, and hid its nuclear weapons program for more than two decades.

Second, we are concerned because of the terms of the purported “deal.” The “deal” is a boon for the Islamic Republic. It cannot be disputed that the Islamic Republic agreed to negotiate with the West because years of crippling economic sanctions forced them to. Without any credible threat of military force, crippling economic sanctions were the West’s primary leverage, but an incredibly powerful one. However, according to the Iranian Fact Sheet (as translated by Harvard’s Belfer Center): “all of the sanctions will be immediately removed after reaching a comprehensive agreement.” Having unfrozen billions of dollars already and now agreeing to lifting all U.N. and U.S. sanctions (immediately, according to the Iranians, or in phases, according to the U.S.), the West has lost its leverage, permanently. Those of us who have been active in advocating banking, oil, and shipping sanctions understand that they cannot simply be “snapped back” as the President insists. Business groups and foreign governments are already negotiating MOUs with the Islamic Republic. As a result, the Islamic Republic stands to gain upwards of $250 billion (by some estimates) in sanctions relief during the life of this “deal.”

In light of the duplicitous nature of the Islamic Republic, the P5+1 negotiators appear to be operating under a “Trust, then Verify” creed, given that the “deal” does not permanently end or dismantle Iran’s nuclear weapons program. According to the Iranian Fact Sheet, “none of the nuclear facilities or related activities will be stopped, shut down, or suspended, and Iran’s nuclear activities in all of its facilities including Natanz, Fordow, Isfahan, and Arak will continue.”

Not a single centrifuge will be destroyed. Not a single nuclear facility will be shut down, even the Islamic Republic’s fortified underground facility that it built covertly and illegally at Fordow.

Even the loudest cheerleaders for this “deal” concede that, at best, it mothballs the program for 10 years. That assumes the Iranians agree to the terms announced in English by the State Department (big assumption) and it assumes that the Iranians do not violate the “deal” (dangerous assumption). At worst, the “deal” provides the Islamic Republic with billions upon billions to build nuclear weapons, either immediately in violation of the “deal” (by simply kicking out the inspectors, which they claim have no right to “surprise” inspections) or at liberty under no constraints and without consequence in 10 years. In fact, the most deafening aspect of the Iranian Fact Sheet is in its silence. It makes no reference to the IAEA’s concerns regarding the Possible Military Dimensions (PMD) of Iran’s nuclear program. There appear to be no Iranian concessions on the most troubling weaponization aspects of the program.

Finally, we are disappointed that Iran’s dangerous regime is here to stay. That may be disappointing for us Iranian-Americans, but it is tragic for the Iranian people and perilous for Iran’s neighbors. Such a “deal” guarantees a nuclear arms race in the world’s most volatile region as the Saudis, Turks, and Egyptians will soon race to match the Iranians with a nuclear weapons program. The influx of cash, international business, and diplomatic legitimacy collectively mean the death knell of any future dissident or Green Revolution. Rather than bankrupt the regime and force it to change its behavior through further economic and diplomatic tools (in the apartheid South Africa model), the West has handed the regime a carte blanche and endless funds to continue to suppress dissent domestically, to butcher women, gays, and religious minorities, and to sponsor terrorism against the West. The West will have effectively handcuffed itself from challenging the Islamic Republic on these serious issues, risking threats from Iran that the West has violated the deal. The regime’s violent suppression of its people and the takeover of four Arab capitals – in Baghdad, Beirut, Damascus, and Sanaa – are taking place with an Iran nearly bankrupt economically and without nuclear weapons. The Islamic Republic’s ambitions – when armed with endless resources and nuclear weapons – is a scary thought, especially for their archenemies and America’s historic allies, Israel and Saudi Arabia. Even if the “deal” slows – or G-d willing stops – Iran’s march towards nuclear weapons, history will not judge the negotiations a success when they do not nothing to stop the Islamic Republic’s human rights violations, its state sponsorship of terrorism, and nuclear proliferation in the Middle East.

“The ‘deal’ is a boon for the Islamic Republic. It cannot be disputed that the Islamic Republic agreed to negotiate with the West because years of crippling economic sanctions forced them to.”

Contrary to assertions from the White House, the alternative to these “Parameters of a Joint Plan” was not “war.” The alternative was – and remains – a better deal that forces the permanent dismantling of Iran’s nuclear weapons program and a change in the behavior of the Islamic Republic before the further lifting of any sanctions or transfer of any assets. It is not too late. Fortunately, we are Americans, and in the finest traditions of American democracy, it is time for a debate.

A FIGHT AGAINST FIGUS

Neighbors call for the removal of Park Way ficus trees

By Mina Riazi

Park Way resident Abraham Assil attended the Recreation and Parks Commission meeting last month to propose the removal of the ficus trees on the north side of Park Way, adjacent to residential properties.

In a December 2014 petition addressed to Parks and Urban Forest Manager Ken Pfalzgraf, Assil, who collected signatures from eight of the nine homeowners on his block, requested that, “the trees fronting [their] homes be removed and replaced with more appropriate, non-fruiting, non-intrusive and flowering trees.” The ninth resident was out of the country when signatures were being collected.

Commonly known as the Rusty Leaf Fig, the trees produce pod-like fruit which Assil compared to “popsicles” for their sticky, gel-like consistency. Assil has fallen twice from slipping on the berries, which coat the sidewalks for up to 60 days a year during the annual berry drop period.

“We have to clean the sidewalk two to three times a week to make sure that we don’t fall down or [that] pedestrians don’t fall down,” Assil said.

Assil’s neighbor Michael Rublevich also finds issue with the trees’ berries, which he said form a slippery film on the sidewalks, especially when the sprinklers are turned on.

“The [problems] might be minor things, but if you’re looking at this on a daily basis, it causes a lot of problems,” Rublevich said.

Resident complaints date back several years, as evidenced by a report presented to the Recreation and Parks Commission in 2006. The report mentions that, “one resident has suggested that the [ficus tree] litter problem is significant enough to warrant removal and replacement of the Rusty Leaf Fig trees.”

“Just about every tree has something about it that could be perceived as a problem,” Pfalzgraf said. “When it comes to considering the actual removal and replacement of large heritage trees, the difficult decision that the [Recreation and Parks Commission] and the [City]

Park Way ficus trees

Council must ultimately make is whether the trees are being removed because of a disease or structural problem or that they’re interfering with another city resource such as sidewalks and curbs or whether the problem is that we’re targeting the tree because of something that the tree produces as part of its natural growth process.”

The Rusty Leaf Fig is an evergreen tree that matures to a height of 50 feet; its leaves are two to four inches long and similar to those of the Southern Magnolia.

Black Acacia trees originally lined Park Way, but were replaced with ficus trees in 1962, making the current planting more than 50 years old.

Alan Berro, who lives at Beverly Drive and Park Way, also attended the commission meeting.

we can,” Berro said. “I’m just hoping that we can find some way of dealing with these trees without cutting them down, because just environmentally, I think it’s a nightmare to take these mature trees out and they do provide a good buffer [for the noise].”

Commissioner Frances Bilak pointed out that removing the dense and mature trees could increase the sound of traffic coming from Santa Monica Blvd.

In the coming months, the commission will need to consider the removal and the replacement of the ficus trees. The agenda item was tabled to a later hearing because Pfalzgraf was absent from the meeting. Recreation and Parks Chair Simone Friedman and Commissioner Susan Gersh were also absent.

“It’s a choice between our well-being and the tree,” Assil said.

“The difficult decision that the [Recreation and Parks Commission] and the [City] Council must ultimately make is whether the trees are being removed because of a disease or structural problem or that they’re interfering with another city resource such as sidewalks and curbs or whether the problem is that we’re targeting the tree because of something that the tree produces as part of its natural growth process.”
-- Parks and Urban Forest Manager Ken Pfalzgraf

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF PAULA KENT MEEHAN

Case No. BP161064

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of PAULA KENT MEEHAN

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Wendy Karzin and Marcia Hobbs in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Wendy Karzin, Marcia Hobbs and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on April 20, 2015 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 9 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH. CASHIER'S CHECK DRAWN ON A STATE OR NATIONAL BANK, A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, OR A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, A SAVINGS ASSOCIATION OR SAVINGS BANK SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5102 OF THE FINANCIAL CODE AND AUTHORIZED TO DO BUSINESS IN THIS STATE:

All right, title, and interest conveyed to and now held by the trustee in the hereinafter described property under and pursuant to a Deed of Trust described as:

Street Address or other common designation of real property: 935 Westbourne Drive., Unit 305, West Hollywood, CA 90069
A.P.N.: 4339-007-053

The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address or other common designation, if any, shown above.

The sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by the Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $765,944.83.

If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse.

The beneficiary of the Deed of Trust has executed and delivered to the undersigned a written request to commence foreclosure, and the undersigned caused a Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on this property.

Note: Because the Beneficiary reserves the right to bid less than the total debt owed, it is possible that at the time of the sale the opening bid may be less than the total debt

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (866)-960-8299 or visit this Internet Web site <http://www.altisource.com/MortgageServices/DefaultManagement/TrusteeServices.aspx> using the file number assigned to this case 2014-02152-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF ANTHONY J. GOLDSCHMIDT

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of ANTHONY J. GOLDSCHMIDT

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by James R. Schoenfield in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that James R. Schoenfield be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on April 27, 2015 at 8:30AM in Dept. No. 11 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
