Bike Rack on Third Street to Remain

The Traffic and Parking Commission discussed a request last Thursday to change parking regulations and denied a request to move the bike share station on the 9200 block of Third Street.

The 10-hour parking signs on the north side of Third Street, adjacent to 331 Maple Drive building, would have been replaced with 1-hour parking. New disabled parking spaces would have been installed on the north and south side of Third Street.

The decision follows a comment resident David Gingold made at the December 7, 2017 Traffic and Parking Commission meeting stating concerns about the lack of disabled street parking near the Maple Drive post office.

Gingold also provided similar concerns at public comment at the December 12, 2017 City Council/Traffic and Parking Commission Liaison Committee meeting and the December 19, 2017 City Council Formal meeting.

Staff previously conducted parking spot counts at Third Street several days in December 2017. On average, 62 percent of the 10-hour parking meter spaces on the north side of Third Street adjacent to the 331 Maple building were occupied. On the north side, there was an average occupancy of 56 percent.

Staff also found that the bike station, which was approved in April 2016, had an average of one person per day picking up a bike from the Third and Maple station. The study took place on November 30 (installation of the 10-hour parking signs) to December 19, 2017. There were a total of three round-trip rentals during that time period.

Staff concluded that utilization of the Third and Maple bike share station does not appear to impact parking activity on Third Street.

During deliberation, the commissioners pointed out that the purview of removing parking structures falls under the Planning Commission.

sion, parking in this particular area is the purview of the Planning Commission,” said Commissioner Jake Manaster. “If the City wants to change that I’d be all in favor of it because I think the Parking Commission has more depth and understanding at times as to the long-term impacts of parking being removed or replaced or changed within the City.”

The commission unanimously agreed that they had “no particular opinion” regarding the duration of the meters located on Third Street, directing staff to determine their time and availability.

Council Adopts Resolution Supporting Protests in Iran

Yar Meshkaty

At the request of Council member John Mirisch, the City Council discussed—and subsequently adopted—a resolution that supports the protests in Iran surrounding the country’s flagging economy.

The demonstrations began on December 28, 2017 in Mashhad following Iran’s high inflation and rising unemployment rates, ranging from 29 to 45 percent. Additionally, demonstrators have recently taken to criticizing widespread government corruption.

As a result, the current protests are the largest in Iran since its disputed 2009 presidential election. As of January 2, 21 deaths have been reported and hundreds of citizens have been arrested.

With other democratic nations like Canada, Germany and Israel expressing support of the protestors, the City felt it necessary to add its voice to the chorus.

“This is echoing the voice of the voiceless,” said realtor and former Commissioner Yar Meshkaty said. “I think Beverly Hills can be really instrumental in this matter of echoing the voices of people who cannot be heard at this time.”

At deliberation the Council discussed referring to the Iranian issue as an Apartheid, but Vice Mayor Julian Gold noted that the phrasing could be “distracting” and that the current wording would suffice.

The Council reached a unanimous consensus to adopt the resolution but not without making several amendments to the draft, one of which included adding a section encouraging other cities to follow in Beverly Hills’ footsteps.

“There have been some times where I have been really proud of us as a Council, but I think this is the proudest I’ve ever been,” said Mayor Lili Bosse of the Council’s unanimous decision.

Traffic & Parking Discusses Santa Monica Parking Strategies

The Traffic and Parking Commission discussed parking strategies on South Santa Monica Boulevard (SSMB), following the beginning of its construction in January 2017.

Some such strategies could include staff’s suggestion of a Hybrid Alternative with EB left turn prohibition at Rodeo as a demonstration project upon completion of NSMB reconstruction project.

As part of the traffic mitigation program, SSMB was reconfigured to add capacity by removing on-street parking to better accommodate projected traffic diversion from NMSB to maintain access to the business triangle.

The City agreed with the reconfiguration for the project duration, and directed staff to “bag” rather than remove the meters entirely.

Although the plan was intended to be temporary during the construction period, it proved to be very successful in terms of traffic flow, leading many to question the advisability of returning to the pre-construction configuration.

Prior to construction, the lane/parking configurations on SSMB were two through lanes each direction with limited left turn pockets, 39 on-street parking spaces, 2 loading zones, and no left turn lanes at Canon, Beverly, and Camden Drives, requiring turns from a through lane.

Some business owners on SSMB, however, voiced at public comment that they’d like on-street parking to return to the boulevard.

During deliberation, the commissioners noted while it’s clear the current setup cannot remain as it is, they also do not want to return to the prior configuration.

“The current state of affairs is not adequate,” said Commissioner David Seidel. “That’s too impactful for the businesses. Although [as far as] riding down that street—I would not do it the way it was before. I would not ride on South Santa Monica Boulevard the way it was before.”

City Council OKs Funding for Concours d’Elegance

The City Council approved on Tuesday to approve funding for the 25th Annual Concours d’Elegance on June 17.

With an estimated attendance of over 50,000 people, the free annual car show will include a display of over 100 automobiles featuring custom cars, sponsor booths, and food trucks.

It will also include an additional $46,200 in City funding—from $125,000 last year to $171,200 this year. The total cost of the 2018 Concours d’Elegance is $280,000, but the City’s contribution will cover costs associated with the closure of Rodeo Drive, marketing for the event, and programming for the street such as the stage, step and repeat, and food trucks.

Rodeo Drive Committee President Kathy Gohari said that the increase would help with the event’s declining sponsorship.

“There are a lot of car shows in the City, [so there are] many opportunities for sponsorship. We’re finding it challenging to find sponsors who want to specifically sponsor a car show,” said Gohari. “We’re not trying to keep the money; we’re just making sure we don’t come to you two weeks before and say we’re in trouble.”

Rodeo Drive/Special Events Liaison Committee member and Mayor Lili Bosse called the request fair and said it is “one of the best events in the City.”

City Council Grants MAZON Two Free Use Days at the Wallis

At their meeting on January 9, the City Council voted to approve a request by MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger to use two of the City’s free days at the Wallis for a traveling art exhibit titled “This is Hunger”.

The free exhibit is proposed for February 5 and 6 in the motor court area of the Wallis. Because MAZON is a nonprofit organization, the limited funding for the exhibit is not enough to cover the costs of the Wallis’ motor court.

Therefore, the Wallis referred MAZON to the City to see if they were willing to donate two of the City’s free usage days for the travelling exhibit, which showcases the need for all communities to be involved in the campaign against hunger. It consists of a 53-foot trailer that has traveled for 10 months on a tour of 30 cities.

It also includes photos and first-person accounts from affected individuals and groups. Although it’s free, MAZON requires participants to sign up for a one-hour time frame to enter the exhibit since the truck can only accommodate 30 people at a time. About 100 people are expected to attend per day.

Because the two-day use of the motor court is covered under the City’s agreement with the Wallis, there will be no additional funding. MAZON will fund ancillary costs including advertisements, security and all logistical needs.

At the meeting, Mayor Lili Bosse called MAZON a “wonderful program,” encouraging staff to do what they can to get the word out and have the community fill the entire day.

“My feeling is that since we have the Wallis for two days, let’s take advantage of it,” said Bosse. “I think part of it is getting the word out, but with social media these days it’s really easy to do.”

“Last Thoughts: Schubert’s Final Works” to Premiere at the Wallis

Ory Shihor

In the last few months of his short life, prolific Austrian composer Franz Schubert wrote some of the most miraculous music ever created. Now, acclaimed Los Angeles-based pianist Ory Shihor presents the story behind Schubert’s last compositions in the world premiere of Last Thoughts: Schubert’s Final Works at the Wallis on Saturday, January 20, 2018 at 7:30pm. With words by master musical storyteller Hershey Felder, Shihor’s program includes the two of three final piano sonatas created by Schubert, who bridged the worlds of Classical and Romantic music in the early nineteenth century. This performance is made possible in part by the generous support of Camille and Arnon Adar.

“Ory came to us with the great idea of mixing music with text to present the last works of Schubert,” said Paul Crewes, The Wallis’ Artistic Director. “Working with Hershey Felder on text, Ory presents an evening that will be a rare opportunity for our audience to not only experience the beauty of Schubert’s music, but also the drama of an artist racing time in order to complete his final work.”

“Franz Schubert was always the composer I felt closest to since the first time I heard his music when I was 10,” said Shihor. “I was immediately drawn in by the music. It felt like ‘home’ to me. The music was so descriptive – it immediately told me a story that was oddly familiar yet strangely comforting to me. After sharing this thought with Hershey, our conversation ‘zeroed in’ on an all Schubert program combined with spoken words written by Hershey. I feel that the juxtaposition of music and text will enhance the entire performing experience for me and the audience, making the concert seem more ‘complete’ and natural.”

Ory Shihor is an award-winning pianist, educator, arts administrator and entrepreneur. He is currently a piano professor at both the Colburn Music Academy and the Colburn Conservatory. His teaching strategies have transformed the playing of hundreds of students over the course of his 20-year career, making him one of the most sought-after and well-respected piano teachers and mentors in the world.

Community Is Invited to a Free Concert at the Wallis

The City of Beverly Hills, the North Homeowners Association and the Beverly Hills Municipal League are sponsoring a free gospel concert to mark the 25th anniversary of a similar concert that was held 25 years ago following the 1992 Los Angeles riots.

The performance, by the Faithful Central Bible Church of Inglewood, will be held January 21 at 6:00 p.m. at the Wallis.

In 1992, the City coproduced a concert featuring performers from the same church, at that time called Faithful Central Missionary Baptist Church. The purpose of the original concert, held at the Beverly Hills High School Auditorium, was to promote unity and tolerance in the Los Angeles region following the riots. The video that was made of the concert won the Cable ACE Award for Best Documenttary in the Cultural Affairs category.

The 2018 concert will feature the renowned singers and dancers from the Faithful Central Bible Church and a brief video excerpt from the original concert.

While the event is free of charge, reservations are required and seating is limited. To reserve tickets, visit tickets.TheWallis.org. Free parking will be available in the parking structure at 450 North Crescent Drive.

Leon Haytayan Creator, Beverly Hills Jewelry Line

How did you get the idea to sell Beverly Hills branded jewelry?

The idea has been that there are so many hotels in our City and there are millions of tourists that come to our City for the fame and the glory and the beauty of it, and they all wish to take something back with them as a souvenir. We are majorly lacking Beverly Hills souvenirs to go, besides what the hotels give them. I thought [we could] come up with a Beverly Hills collection of fine, affordable jewelry for the tourists to take back with them and have them displayed in one of the boutiques in the Beverly Hills hotels. [It would] start with hotels and selective retail stores to carry the brand with their own display, with their own boxes that says "Beverly Hills" on it. It's the shield, the logo 90210. All of that would be a great presentation for them to take back home from Beverly Hills whether to use it or to gift it. It's great for advertising for the City of Beverly Hills. It could be worldwide eventually because we don't know where [the tourists'] destination or where their home base is. I came up with about a dozen designs, and it's an expandable line. We can expand it tremendously but we don't want [there] to be too many designs; we want to have nice designs, wearable designs, affordable designs—that's the whole goal I have: to make it affordable for the public to buy it and gift it and take it with them.

How did you first approach the City about it?

Through the company [CMG, which] has the permit to franchise the line or has the legitimacy to use the logo and shield of Beverly Hills. They're located in Las Vegas. I was originally approached by them.

Why do you think there's a market for the jewelry here?

The tourism is a huge market, but so is the City of Beverly Hills. They can gift them to their own employees; they have a lot of employees. You have the City of Beverly Hills Police Department, you have the Fire Department. I have men's' products, I have ladies', I can create something for them to wear and feel proud of.

What kinds of jewelry will there be?

I'm making male rings, ladies' rings, ladies' pendants, ladies' earrings, belt buckles for men and ladies with the shield and the 90210. Those are the prototypes I just presented this month to the Mayor and the Vice Mayor. They love it. So now I'm working on the details of customizing boxes [that will] say "Beverly Hills Collection by Leon's." I'm planning to do special boxes and bags to take as souvenirs. Even the display should be all Beverly Hills quality that does justice to the name of the City. The presentation is a beautiful platform. I'm using the same color as the shield, chocolate color with yellow most likely. We'll do 12 pieces or 24 pieces. Each design I'm making I can make in silver, stainless steel, gold or platinum or whatever the customer wants. Each one will come in four colors: white, yellow, rose gold and black.

What's next?

I'm finalizing making the metal molds first to [achieve] precision with the shape, weight, and making the letters much more readable. The project [will be completed] next year.

WHAT'S IT LIKE TO CLOSE A SCHOOL?

As the BHUSD considers school reconfiguration, Olivia Anderson takes a look at what happened in Palos Verdes

By Olivia Anderson

Brenton Goodrich

In the late 1980's, the Palos Verdes Peninsula Unified School District (PVPUSD) experienced severe decline—due in part to the defense industry cutbacks of that time. In 1991, four schools were closed, three of which were high schools merged into one to form Palos Verdes Peninsula High School.

Although the decision was met with intense criticism from surrounding neighbors and community members, former PVPUSD Board of Education member Brenton Goodrich said that the district's critical financial constraints made it compulsory.

"We just could not maintain a top quality program at all three schools given the fact that they were geographically dispersed and the census at each school was below optimum level," said Goodrich.

Ultimately, Miraleste High and Palos Verdes High were merged and the Rolling Hills High campus was renamed to Palos Verdes Peninsula High. Goodrich attributes this choice to the fact that the Rolling Hills High campus was centrally located, whereas the others are located on the periphery of the district.

Located on the east side, Miraleste High was separated by a small, gated community, making it impossible to drive to the other side of the peninsula. Thus, the area suffered from isolation and as a result, declining enrollment.

"And so, we—very reluctantly—made the decision to consolidate into one school," said Goodrich.

But why the reluctance?

For one, a torrent of angry parents came down hard on the Board, criticizing the process and contending that they didn't thoroughly conduct an Environmental Impact Report (EIR).

One especially incensed resident went so far as to fire several rounds of BB guns into the windows of former Board of Education member Jeffrey Younggren's family home. Others dumped piles of garbage onto his front lawn.

"They were understandably upset [and] I understood why it was going on, [but] there were just not any good answers [that] were educationally effective," said Younggren.

Former Board of Education member Joan Davidson, who was elected as an opposition candidate in 1991, contended that at five miles away the high school was just too far for students and parents to have to drive to.

"It was ridiculous," said Davidson. "The Palos Verdes is very big geographically. It sounds like a straight shot, but it's not. It's very winding roads that take half an hour in each direction. They're dangerous roads. You really don't want to make someone drive that distance every day."

Parents in opposition to the merger

Board had not completed a proper EIR.

The Board prevailed, with the court denying "EPEC" an injunction to bar them from closing the schools.

"The problem was [that] anyone who looked at the finances could quickly see that we were on a financially unsustainable path," said Goodrich. "[But EPEC] refused to accept the reality of the situation."

The schools were closed in June 1991, with Peninsula reopening that September with approximately 3,000 students.

By the time the November 1991 Board election took place, incumbents Jack Bagdasar and Joseph Sanford, who supported the consolidation, lost to opposition candidates Davidson, and Barry Hildebrand.

"I wasn't happy about it, but the people had spoken. It's really easy to sit on the sidelines of a football game, much harder to be the quarterback," said Younggren, noting that although Hildebrand won that year, he was unseated when he ran for re-election in 1995.

But looking back over 25 years later on the Board's decision to address the PVPUSD's financial tribulations, both Goodrich and Younggren said they have "no doubt" they made the right move.

Younggren said that the closures helped Peninsula High School blossom into a "rich education opportunity." He also pointed out that the middle schools are the top in the nation.

"Change isn't easy, but it isn't necessarily wrong. Schools take on the appearance of a living entity, but they are businesses and you don't want to cash in on quality education for convenience or local issues," said Younggren. "What you want is to produce the absolute best education you can given the limited dollars [you have]."

As for those angry parents?

"I think some of [them] finally came around and recognized the reality of the situation once they cooled off, and were more objective about it," said Goodrich. "When you've got a population such as Palos Verdes where people expect a first-rate curriculum, [it's clear that without the reconfiguration] we just wouldn't have been able to maintain it."

"I think some of [them] finally came around and recognized the reality of the situation once they cooled off, and were more objective about it" —

BHHS boys' basketball team loses to Dominguez Team to face El Segundo Friday at Swim-Gym

By Steven Herbert

Coach Jarvis Turner said he was disappointed in the Beverly High boys' basketball team's play in a 60-57 loss to Compton Dominguez Saturday in the Take Flight Challenge at Cerritos College.

"We didn't play well, didn't have great energy, didn't have great enthusiasm about the game, didn't have great focus," Turner said. "Our energy and effort weren't up to par."

When asked for the reasons for his team's shortcomings in Saturday's 12:30 p.m. game, Turner responded, "One of our biggest challenges is our maturity and guys making sure they get enough rest and doing what they need to do the night before the game and that might have been a factor in how we played."

The Normans led 25-19 at halftime, but were outscored 23-17 in the third quarter, tying the score, 42-42, entering the fourth quarter.

Senior guard Daniel Zahabian led Beverly Hills (11-5) with 29 points, making six of 13 2-point shots and 17 of 20 free throws. He missed his only 3-point shot.

Norman forward Chandler Sooferan added 11 points and team-high 12 rebounds. Marcel Stevens added nine, Ben Ramirez six on two 3-point baskets and Nick Andrews five, including a 3-point basket.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play host to El Segundo Friday and Santa Monica Wednesday in Ocean League games at the Swim-Gym beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The Normans regained the lead with about 20 seconds to play and the Pioneers missed the potential game-winning layup as time expired in a nonleague game Dec. 12 at Providence.

Beverly Hills sophomore guard Arbri Gillis scored 13 of her 19 points in the fourth quarter.

Gillis scored six points and Krystal Brown made a 3-point basket as the Normans outscored Providence, 10-5, in the second quarter, turning a 13-12 halftime lead into a 23-17 advantage at halftime.

Michelle Duchemin scored six points of her 12 points and Megan Saghian made two 3-point baskets in the third quarter as Beverly Hills outscored the Pioneers, 12-11.

Saghian added eight, Brown four, Isabel Rund three and Natasha Melamed one for the Normans.

Gillis and Duchemin each made one 3-point basket.

Ventura Foothill Tech 61, Beverly Hills 32

Playing without two starters for the second consecutive game, the Normans trailed 18-10 at the end of the first quarter and 39-19 at halftime in a matchup of top-ranked teams in a nonleague game at the Swim-Gym Dec. 14.

Gillis scored 13, Chantal Moawad nine, Brown and Saghian three each, Rund two and Melamed and Genevieve Zar one each for Beverly Hills.

The Dragons were ranked first in the Southern Section Division 4A poll released Monday. The Normans were ranked first in the Division 3A poll.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play host to El Segundo Friday and Santa Monica Wednesday in Ocean League games at the Swim-Gym beginning at 6 p.m.

Santa Monica is ranked 16th in Division 3A.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF MERRILL HEATTER Case No. 17STPB11484

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of MERRILL HEATTER

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Wells Fargo, N.A. in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Wells Fargo, N.A. be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on January 26, 2018 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 57 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
