Urban Forest Bureau Moves to Public Works Department

Last Thursday the Public Works Commission received an introduction to the Urban Forest Bureau of the Public Works Department.

The City Manager's Office has moved urban forestry has moved to Public Works from the Community Service Department in order to "group like services in a way that would best support the efforts of all."

City Arborist Ken Pfalzgraf presented a report introducing the program and stressing the importance of trees as the "first identity element" of the City.

Canary Island Date Palms

Pfalzgraf pointed out that before the first four streets were completed, virtually no houses existed in Beverly Hills. The streets were not paved but oiled, and trees stood in the grass parkways.

The developer was "brilliant," said Pfalzgraf, because when people would scope out the lot, "there was this subliminal of 'Okay, the sidewalk is here. You've got the streets, the trees are here already—the only thing missing is you.'"

"Mirisch Wants to Landmark Nate 'n Al" [Issue #961]

[I] read the article about the possible closing of "Nate'n Al", the only restaurant in town with soft music, or not so blasting where you can't have a little conversation. A few years ago I gave my headline to Jay Leno in person, in front of "Nate'n Al" before he went in.

So what was the headline? When they honored me in the Jewish Journal next to Einstein—ok it was a paste-up.

Let's hope they could save "Nate'n Al."

"BHUSD Files Another Metro Lawsuit" [Issue #957]

The following is a response to Ira Friedman's open letter to the editor, printed on February 8 [Issue #958]:

Question # 1 from Mr. Friedman: How much has BHUSD budgeted for this latest lawsuit?

Answer: As of December 2017, the District has spent $12.8 million on litigation related to METRO.

Question # 2 from Mr. Friedman: How much of a retainer did BHUSD pay its lawyers?

Answer: Unfortunately, this is privileged information.

Question # 3 from Mr. Friedman: How much per hour is BHUSD being charged by its lawyers?

Answer: Lawyer rates vary by firm and by case. Lawyer rates being paid for by BHUSD are anywhere from $200 to $800+ per hour.

Question #4 from Mr. Friedman: What was the source (fund) the retainer and ongoing funds for this lawsuit will be paid?

Answer: The District has used and continues to use Measure E/bond funds to pay for litigation associated with METRO.

Question #5 from Mr. Friedman: How much per year/per student does BHUSD spend on all of its attorney fees?

Answer: Last year the District spent approximately $3.2 million in legal fees ($2,192,298 from bond + $1,044,689 general fund).

Question # 6 from Mr. Friedman: How does BHUSD payments per student for attorneys fees compare to other school districts in Los Angeles County?

Answer: I don't have this data to compare, but METRO is a unique factor that contributes to litigation costs.

SUMMARY NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on March 6, 2018, the Council of the City of Beverly Hills adopted an ordinance entitled:

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS REVISING REGULATIONS RELATED TO BASEMENTS IN SINGLE FAMILY AREAS OF THE CITY AND GRADING AND RETAINING WALLS IN THE HILLSIDE AREA OF THE CITY AND FINDING THE ORDINANCE EXEMPT FROM THE CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ACT

Vice Mayor Gold, and Councilmembers Mirisch, Wunderlich, and Friedman voted for the adoption of the Ordinance (Ordinance NO. 18-O-2751). Mayor Bosse recused herself from discussion on the Ordinance. A summary of that Ordinance, which has been prepared for publishing in accordance with the requirements of Government Code Section 36933, follows.

Summary of Ordinance

The Ordinance includes the following measures:

- The definition of “floor area” in single-family residential zones would be amended to define a “basement” as an area that is located directly below the portion of a story above which has a finished floor level that is a maximum of three feet (3’) above finished grade at any cross-section cut through the building with certain exceptions for driveways, light courts, pools and water features, and stairs and access ways that might otherwise cause a basement to be exposed by more than 3’ above grade. The amendments would also require a basement that extends beyond a story above to be located entirely below both finished and natural grades. (Amendment to Beverly Hills Municipal Code [BHMC] § 10-3-100.)
- A definition of “light court” would be added to the BHMC. As proposed, a light court would be an excavated area adjacent to a building that extends more than 4’-0” from the building perimeter that is enclosed on four sides, open on the top, and allows light into a below grade level of a building. The BHMC does not currently contain a definition of light court. (Addition to BHMC § 10-3-100.)
- The definitions of “finished grade” and “natural grade” would be added to the BHMC to ensure clarity of the code and consistency in its application. (Additions to BHMC § 10-3-100.)
- The language governing the maximum height of walls, fences, and hedges within the Hillside Area of the City would be amended to limit the total height of any wall fence or hedge to 12’-0” regardless of the side of the wall, fence, or hedge from which a measurement is being taken. An R-1 Permit is also proposed to be added to allow relief from these regulations (Amendment to BHMC § 10-3-2516.)
- The language governing the construction of series of walls in the Hillside Area of the City is would be amended to allow for a maximum cumulative height of 12’-0” for all walls constructed on the same property within any 50’ perpendicular section. A 10’-0” landscaped horizontal distance must also be provided between each wall. An R-1 Permit is also proposed to be added to allow relief from these regulations (Amendment of BHMC § 10-3-2516.)
- The calculation method provided in the BHMC that defines the total cubic yards of landform alteration (cut/fill) allowed on a site in the Hillside Area of the City within a five year period would be amended. (Amendment of BHMC 10-3-2521.)
- The regulations regarding import/export of earth material within the Hillside Area of the City would be amended to clarify that cubic yardage will be based on in-ground earth volumes. The code does not currently stipulate whether the amount of earth material is in ground compacted earth material or excavation un-compacted earth material. (Amendment of BHMC 10-3-2521 and BHMC 10-3-2521.1)
- The definition of “height of building” would be changed to bring the method of measuring the height of buildings in the Hillside Area of the City in line with the method of determining whether or not a portion of a building can be considered a basement. (Amendment of BHMC 10-3-100)
- The findings pertaining to Hillside R-1 Permits would be amended to add a provision that the total number of construction-related vehicle trips associated with a project as a whole may be considered by a reviewing authority when considering a Hillside R-1 Permit for import and export of earth material. (Amendment of BHMC §10-3-2550)
- Language pertaining to the applicability of the proposed ordinance to projects that are currently under review by the City of Beverly Hills (pipeline projects). The ordinance would exempt the following pipeline projects from the new provisions: all pipeline projects in the Central and Trousdale Areas of the City, pipeline projects in the Hillside Area of the City that have previously received an R-1 Permit, pipeline projects in building plan check in the Hillside Area of the City that were submitted prior to January 11, 2018 and do not include a new home or addition of more than 50% floor area on the site, pipeline projects in building plan check in the Hillside Area of the City that do include a new home or addition over 50% floor area that do comply with the new retaining wall regulations, and pipeline projects that have been submitted for entitlement review prior to the effective date of the ordinance. Pipeline projects that are not exempt will be allowed to request an R-1 Permit for review of the project under the existing code provisions by the Planning Commission.
- Language that would waive the entitlement fees for projects in the pipeline that are required to seek an R-1 Permit due to the changes in the BHMC.
- Language that includes provisions to provide an additional 18 months beyond the effective date of the ordinance in which to obtain building permits for pipeline projects, provided that a valid application for a building permit was filed before the effective date of the ordinance.

A certified copy of the entirety of the text of the Ordinance is available in the office of the City Clerk, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 and is available for public inspection at that location. Question #7 from Mr. Friedman: How much in attorneys fees has BHUSD spent on the Christiansen case?

Answer: The District has spent $2.5 million from the general fund to pay for litigation associated with the K. Christiansen case.

Question #8 from Mr. Friedman: Did BHUSD have any opportunity to settle the Christiansen case?

Added Pfalzgraf, "Trees were the original identifying element of this City. If you ever get an airplane and look down, you'll know exactly where my town and my trees are.

Staffed by three International Society of Arboriculture (ISA) Certified Arborists, the Urban Forest Bureau participates in trade associations and contributes to the greater good of arboriculture through presentations at regional conferences and trade journal publications.

The bureau administers and oversees trimming, removing, planting and watering the City's 25,000 street and park trees.

Service lines include general tree maintenance, which covers the trimming, supplementary watering and integrated pest management. Crews typically visit over 10,000 tree sites. The annual funding for tree maintenance is approximately $1,200,000.

Other services lines are CIP reforestation, and the replacement of declining Canary Island Date Palms on 15 streets and the removal of the final third of the Ficus trees along Olympic Boulevard.

Currently, 1,150 Date Palms are planted around the City, some of which date back to 1907. A vascular disease called Fusarium infiltrated the area some time ago, clogging up the palm's transport tissue.

Fusarium results from either from poor sterilization practices such as chainsaw usage—which Pfalzgraf says the City has not done in years—or from the soil.

The Street Tree Master Plan works to prioritize the replacement of trees by the severity of loss on each street. This means that the trees with the highest loss rate, like the Date Palms, will be planted out first.

Following a decade of poor tree performance, a Street Tree Committee was formed in 1959 to improve public support for City projects that required the removal of old trees. Today, public hearings still exist to enlist public support for tree replacement projects.

"We're trying to build uniformity back in the replacement trees," said Pfalzgraf, adding that the Date Palms will be replaced with Mexican Fan Palms.

Additional projects that require a Street Tree Master Plan include North Elm Drive, El Camino Drive, South Hamel Drive, Cinthia Street, Park Way, North Rexford Drive, South Santa Monica Boulevard and Robertson Boulevard.

Hertz to Head Security; Radonsky Promoted to Beverly Vista Interim Assistant Principal

Former Beverly Vista Assistant Principal Chris Hertz has a new position as the BHUSD District Director of School Safety.

His position will address the ongoing issue of school safety and security at each of the five BHUSD school sites by serving as the law enforcement and fire department liaison with the City, overseeing our school safety plans, staff trainings, and school emergency drills.

He will also directly oversee the physical and procedural safety measures in place at each school to ensure the "highest standards" are being met.

Hertz served a BHUSD administrator for the past six years, most recently as the Director of Student Services and Special Projects while at Beverly Vista.

In his place as the new Beverly Vista Interim Assistant Principal will be longtime physical education teacher Todd Radonsky.

Planning Commission OKs Zoning Code Amendments

The Planning Commission reviewed modifications to the City's Zoning Code that clarify language on existing regulations related to various items.

Included in the modifications are the height of paving buffers in the Central Area of the City, the location of required paving buffers in the single-family areas of the City, decks over driveways in the Central Area of the City.

Paving buffers are walls or hedges no less than two feet or more than three feet that are required to be provided and maintained along the front and sides of any front yard paving.

Regarding the paving buffer height, the height requirements for hedges and walls that are required by the Zoning Code as a bugger between front yard paved and landscaped areas will be modified to make the requirement consistent with the maximum height requirement for walls, fences, and hedges located within three feet of a front property line on a site located within the central area.

For the paving buffer location, staff will add language to clarify that a hedge or wall that serves as a required buffer adjacent to front yard paving is not required to be located on the front of a walk way, where the walkway interests the sidewalk.

Staff will also correct a typo which incorrectly refers to ramps leading to subterranean parking rather than referring to a single driveway.

Other modifications include public noticing requirements and the list of projects for which a Development Plan Review is required. One such amendment specifically identifies that new construction involving 2,500 square feet or more of new/additional floor area requires a Development Plan Review.

Commissioner Peter Ostroff inquired how staff reached the 2,500 figure, who said it seemed like a "fairly high" number. "I know we've had this issue come up in other contexts where numbers are selected and it's a difficult line-drawing process," said Ostroff.

According to City Planner Ryan Gohlich, developers used to be able to build commercial by-right multi-family or commercial buildings as long as they met the code requirements.

The Development Plan Review was subsequently added as an entitlement to require discretionary review for almost all projects. It was found that a subset of minor projects shouldn't be subjected to that additional review procedures.

Although Gohlich didn't know the exact methodology behind selecting 2,500 square feet, the commissioners expressed full support of the changes regardless.

"The changes are pretty de minimis and not material," said Commissioner Alan Block.

The approval follow staff's review and findings of seven areas of the code that require "clean up" language to ensure they are applied and interpreted correctly.

According to the staff report, the language clarification will "contribute to creating orderly change to the community by providing clear rules to regulate land use."

City Could Get Automated Parking Systems

At their meeting on March 8, the Planning Commission reviewed three existing automated parking systems in the neighboring municipalities of Los Angeles, Culver City, and West Hollywood.

Each case study covers a different type of automated parking system technology and basic information on the operational and maintenance characteristics of each system.

The purpose of these case studies is to gather information on the effectiveness of automated parking systems in the event that the City decides to implement its own.

The Planning Commission has been in talks for several years about using automated parking systems for developing policy and legislation, and current planning projects.

In 2013, the Commission developed a subcommittee to discuss a request that Council add the development of an automated parking ordinance. At the time, Council did not identify the topic as a top

Howard Edelman

Retiring Track & Field Coach Howard Edelman on 30 years of Beverly High athletics

You're filling in for [Athletic Director] Kevin Brown. How has that been?

It's been hectic. Absolutely crazy.

Girls' basketball just won CIF for the second time in a row. Tell us about that.

It was very exciting; it was a fun ride. CIF is our version of March Madness. One of the exciting things about March Madness is that it's "one and done"; CIF is like that too. At that point, no matter how good your season was or how high or low you're ranked, once you lose your season is over. So it was really great how they went through all their rounds against other top teams they had in their league and survived and moved on. And then [we went] against Flintridge Prep—which the week before in the semi-finals—set the number one ranked team, which was Oxford Academy. We had a real tough matchup against Flintridge Prep; they were a well-coached team with good players. And our girls obviously had a great team too and came out on top.

Beverly High's football team has been struggling in recent years. Why is that?

I'm not sure. I think we've been through a handful of coaches and I'm not saying anything about the coaches, but I think when there's been a lot of coaching turnover, it's sometimes hard to get things going. What I found out as a track coach here is that it took me about three years until I felt the team was my team. It takes a while. I think that might be part of it. I'm not saying the coaching staff was less than good; I just think it's the amount of turnover. When you get someone [and] the team might not be successful with wins and losses [but] they stick around, sometimes things turn around. There could be other things too that I'm not aware of because I'm not a football guy; my answer is my opinion as someone who has been a track coach and PE coach for a long time.

Do you think the football program could be eliminated in the next couple of years?

I really have no idea. That's beyond my purview.

What skills specifically do incoming 9th graders not have to excel in football?

Like any kid in any sport, football in particular it helps to have size, to work on getting stronger and faster. If you come from somewhere that has a strong Pop Warner program go to the local high school, those kids already have a lot of experience and a "heads up" versus some other place where football isn't part of the culture.

You were first hired at Beverly High in 1985. Tell us what has changed in athletics since then.

One of the changes is that we used to have a diversity program where we used to get kids from different districts, particularly in Los Angeles. [BHUSD] had some sort of program where a certain number of kids could get in. They were interviewed by a committee and a handful of those kids every year grew up

"What I found out as a track coach here is that it took me about three years until I felt the team was my team" with athletics and they were contributors to our sports team. We don't have to have those kids anymore. They were no coaches on the interview committee, so they had to qualify other ways—academics, school involvement, that kind of thing. We did get quite a few athletes from that program.

-Howard Edelman

We've also had many people who taught and coached here for their careers and retired. So it's a bit of a coaching carousel. For example, me—I'm retiring at the end of this semester after 30 years here.

For the majority of your career you coached track and field and cross-country. How did you pick those sports?

That's what I was. I ran track and cross country in high school and college and then I started coaching way back in 1975. I was at two other high schools from 1975 to 1985 so when I got here I had already been coaching for ten years. When I ran track and cross-country, I fell in love with it. It was a passion.

Tell us about some of your mentors at Beverly over your 30-year teaching career.

[Retired coaches] Ron Crawford, Chuck Kloes, Dick Douglas and Carter Paysinger. [They taught me] a sense of integrity, hard work, love for the kids, and setting the bar high in terms of a standard for excellence. And I'm not talking about ability so much as work habits and ethics.

What have some of your goals been as interim athletic director?

I've just tried to do the best I can to keep things going in a positive direction.

Tell us about your family.

I'm married [to my wife Selma] with two kids [Spencer and Jesse]. They're both in college now.

When you retire, what's the future look like for Beverly's track program?

We're going to have to hire a new head track coach. Right now our current head track coach [also has] an interim label. Just like we're doing with football, we need to find a new head track coach and cross country coach. We're dealing with football first and then track will be next. And who knows? Maybe we'll find a football coach who can also coach track.

The idea was also discussed again in 2014 and 2015, which resulted in little progress.

But in 2016, the Municipal Code was finally changed to conditionally allow alternative parking facilities to provide required parking in commercial zones. It also established a pilot program to permit up to two applications for alternative parking facilities—which permits semi-automated facilities that require staff and/or operators.

The commission unanimously agreed on March 8 that they would like to pursue the idea of fully automated parking systems after studying the nearby cities.

"This was something that we talked about before and I'm interested in it. I want to pursue it," said Commissioner Alan Block. "I view this as something that could really provide needed parking in the southeast area of the City, particularly on Robertson which would really [help] to revitalize the area."

Theatre 40 to Present "Engaging Shaw"

Theatre 40 will present the Los Angeles premiere engagement of romantic comedy "Engaging Shaw" from March 15 through

Warren Davis, Susan Priver, and Grinnell Morris

April 15 in the Cordova Theatre.

"Engaging Shaw" was written by John Morogioello and directed by Melanie Mac-

Queen, and produced by David Hunt Stafford.

The show takes place in England, 1897. Charlotte Payne-Townshend, wealthy Irish heiress, meets George Bernard Shaw, the financially challenged but famous Irish playwright and political activist.

Shaw is a notorious flirt and heartbreaker. He enjoys romancing women, though not particularly interested in sex. The thrill of the hunt is the main attraction for Shaw: the pursuit of women, not the keeping of them. In present-day parlance, he'd be considered a sexist.

But Charlotte is not quite like any other woman that Shaw has met before. She is a woman that he must consider to be his intellectual peer.

"No man can resist a woman once she has set her sights on him, unless thwarted by another woman," declares Charlotte. But Beatrice Webb, co-founder of the London School of Economics, who introduced the pair, also has strong feelings for Shaw.

The cast for "Engaging Shaw" includes (in alphabetical order) Jennifer Lynn Davis, Warren Davis, Grinnell Morris and Susan Priver.

"Engaging Shaw" begins at 8:00 p.m. Thursday through Friday and 2:00 p.m. on Sunday. The performance on Friday, March 16 begins at 7:00 p.m. Parking is available beneath the theatre.

Admission is $30. For tickets and reservations, visit www.theatre40.org or call (310) 364-0535.

TRUMP DEMONSTRATION COMES TO BEVERLY HILLS

Protestors gather in opposition to the president's LA visit

By Olivia Anderson

Hundreds of activists flooded Beverly Canons Parks on Tuesday afternoon to demonstrate against President Donald Trump's most recent visit to California.

Some represented the LGBTQ community, others represented immigrant right groups, but all showed up with posters, signs, and the goal of affecting change.

For Los Angeles resident Kathia Garcia, her reason behind attending is a personal one.

"Everything Trump has said against DREAMers, him removing DACA, trying to pass a proposal that will go against our parents—that's really inhumane and that's really cruel," said Garcia. A DREAMer herself, Garcia said she feels scared about her future under the Trump administration.

The term "DREAMers" (Development, Relief and Education for Alien Minors) refers to certain undocumented immigrants who were illegally brought to the United States as children. They have typically grown up in America and know little to nothing about their native countries.

In order to protect this group, the Obama administration established in 2012 a policy called DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals). It allowed for a renewable two-year period of deferred action from deportation and work permit eligibility.

Over 800,000 people were enrolled in the program as of last year.

But President Trump has been outspoken about his disapproval of the program, ultimately ending it in September, 2017. Many have argued that this decision reflects Trump's intolerance for immigrants.

"I'm here to protest that and to let him know that we're not willing to accept hate here," said Garcia.

The group met at around 4:00 p.m. to "unwelcome" Trump by "sending a clear message that he is persona-non-grata, and that in California he will find an organized resistance that stands united against his fascist administration," according to a press release.

Union del Barrio, the non-profit spearheading Tuesday's protest, is a political organization dedicated to representing "la raza"—the Latin community living in the United States.

According to their website, Union del Barrio works to mitigate the immigrant struggles of exploitation and discrimination through resistance.

"We have set for ourselves the goal of building a peoples organization capable of promoting and defending the human rights and class interests of la raza," reads their mission statement. "The only possibility we have for securing a better future is to win our self-determination as a people."

Their demonstration follows Trump's visit to San Diego on March 12 where he discussed the border wall. On Tuesday he attended a fundraiser in Los Angeles.

Organizers Ron Gochez and Martin Terrones did not return a call for comment.

BHPD spokesperson Lieutenant Elisabeth Albanese said there were no significant incidents or arrests at the rally.

participation.

The SERP, also known as the "golden handshake," is a retirement incentive that may encourage senior employees over the age of 55 to retire early.

It will provide participating eligible employees with a monthly benefit of 75 percent of their final year salary. The program requires all employees to resign by June 30.

Declining enrollment warrants the district to be able to absorb positions instead of layoff.

At a future date, Keenan Financial will hold orientation meetings at district locations to answer questions and provide information regarding the program to eligible employees.

The district will fund the SERP through a fixed annuity from a Keenan Financial insurance company, which guarantees the cost of the program and, according to the staff report, is "easier to budget."

Board Approves Temporary Fence

At their meeting on Tuesday, the Board of Education approved a ratification of an agreement with Quality Fence, Inc. to install fencing around Beverly High, including the front lawn.

Authorized by Superintendent Michael Bregy on March 2, the fence will include gates for cars and pedestrians.

It will also include 1,100 feet of 8' temporary fencing—two 20'x8' gates and 11 4'x8' gates.

The agreement was approved for a not to exceed amount of $45,000. The base bid is $44,200.

Although the approval follows a May, 2016 adoption of a resolution for a fence, the item gained significantly more traction last month following a high school shooting in Parkland, Florida.

Both the City and Board subsequently engaged in discussions about how best to bolster school security—one of which centered on community concerns regarding Beverly High's historically "open" campus.

The Board unanimously agreed that the fence would serve as a viable solution to closing the campus and should be implemented as soon as possible.

DUI Saturation Patrol Nets 3 Arrests

The Beverly Hills Police Department's Traffic Bureau conducted special enforcement on Saturday, March 10 with a focus on catching drivers who were under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs.

The enforcement took place between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 4:00 a.m. and netted three arrests for DUI, 42 traffic stops and the issuance of two citations for moving violations.

In recent years, California has seen a disturbing increase in drug-impaired driving crashes. An effort from the Office of Traffic Safety aims to educate all drivers that "DUI doesn't just mean booze." Prescription drugs and marijuana may also cause impairments that result in a DUI arrest.

Studies of California drivers have shown that 30 percent of drivers in fatal crashes had one or more drugs in their systems. A study of active drivers showed more tested positive for drugs that may impair driving than did for alcohol.

Drivers can download the Designated Driver VIP free mobile app to help find nearby bars and restaurants that offer incentives for designated sober drivers such as non-alcoholic drinks and appetizers.

DUI arrests include jail time, fines, fees, and other expenses that can exceed $10,000.

The DUI Saturation Patrol was funded by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: SOONJA JI RYU

CASE NO. 17STPB09325

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of SOONJA JI RYU.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by MI RYU AHN in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that MI RYU AHN be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 03/22/18 at 8:30AM in Dept. 79 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If two or more business entities submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, or expect to submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, each entity within the Joint Venture must be separately qualified to bid. The last date to submit a fully completed questionnaire is 2:00 PM Tuesday, March 27, 2018. Contractors are encouraged to submit prequalification packages as soon as possible, so that they may be notified of omissions of information to be remedied or of their prequalification status in advance of the prequalification deadline for this Project.

Answers to questions contained in the attached questionnaire (posted on the City's Website [Beverlyhills.org -> Business -> Bid Listings -> Prequalification Package for Greystone Mansion Restoration Projects]) are required. The CITY will use these documents as the basis of rating Contractors with respect to whether each Contractor is qualified to bid on the Project, and reserves the right to check other sources available. The CITY's decision will be based on objective evaluation criteria.

The CITY reserves the right to adjust, increase, limit, suspend or rescind the prequalification rating based on subsequently learned information. Contractors whose rating changes sufficiently to disqualify them will be notified, and given an opportunity for a hearing consistent with the hearing procedures described below for appealing a prequalification rating.

While it is the intent of the prequalification questionnaire and documents required therewith to assist the CITY in determining bidder responsibility prior to bid and to aid the CITY in selecting the lowest responsible bidder, neither the fact of prequalification, nor any prequalification rating, will preclude the CITY from a post-bid consideration and determination of whether a bidder has the quality, fitness, capacity and experience to satisfactorily perform the proposed work, and has demonstrated the requisite trustworthiness.

The prequalification packages should be submitted under seal to the Office of the City Clerk, City of Beverly Hills, 455 North Rexford Drive, Room 290, Beverly Hills, CA 90210. The following should be clearly marked on the outside of the package "CONFIDENTIAL PREQUALIFICATION STATEMENT FOR THE GREYSTONE MANSION RESTORATION PROJECTS"

For any Questions regarding the questionnaire and the qualification package contact, Mandana Motahari (email: mmotahari@beverlyhills.org).

The prequalification packages submitted by Contractors are not public records and are not open to public inspection. All information provided will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law. However, the contents may be disclosed to third parties for purpose of verification, or investigation of substantial allegations, or in an appeal hearing. State law requires that the names of contractors applying for prequalification status shall be public records subject to disclosure, and the first page of the questionnaire will be used for that purpose.

Each questionnaire must be signed under penalty of perjury in the manner designated at the end of the form, by an individual who has the legal authority to bind the Contractor on whose behalf that person is signing. If any information provided by a Contractor becomes inaccurate, the Contractor must immediately notify the CITY and provide updated accurate information in writing, under penalty of perjury.

The CITY reserves the right to waive minor irregularities and omissions in the information contained in the prequalification application submitted, and to make all final determinations. The CITY may also determine at any time that the prequalification process will be suspended for the Project and the Project will be bid without prequalification.

Contractors may submit prequalification packages during regular working hours on any day that the offices of the CITY are open. Contractors who submit a complete prequalification package will be notified of their qualification status no later than ten business days after submission of the information. The CITY may refuse to grant prequalification where the requested information and materials are not provided by the due date indicated above. There is no appeal from a refusal for an incomplete or late application, but re-application for a later project is permitted. Neither the closing time for submitting prequalification packages for this Project will be changed in order to accommodate supplementation of incomplete submissions, or late submissions, unless requested by the CITY in its sole discretion.

In addition to a contractor's failure to be pre-qualified pursuant to the scoring system set forth in the prequalification package, a contractor may be found not prequalified for either omission of or falsification of, any requested information.

Where a timely and completed application results in a rating below that necessary to pre-qualify, an appeal can be made by the unsuccessful Contractor. An appeal is begun by the Contractor delivering notice to the CITY of its appeal of the decision with respect to its pre-qualification rating, no later than two business days following notification that it is not pre-qualified. The notice of appeal shall include an address where the Contractor wishes to receive notice of the appeal hearing. Without a timely appeal, the Contractor waives any and all rights to challenge the decision of the CITY, whether by administrative process, judicial process or any other legal process or proceeding.

If the Contractor gives the required notice of appeal, a hearing shall be conducted no earlier than five business days after the CITY's receipt of the notice of appeal and not later than five business days prior to the date of the Notice Inviting Bids for this Project. Prior to the hearing, the Contractor shall, in writing, be advised of the basis for the City's pre-qualification determination.

The hearing shall be conducted by a panel consisting of three members of the Public Works Department senior management staff (the "Appeals Panel"). The Appeals Panel shall consider any evidence presented by the Contractor, whether or not the evidence is presented in compliance with formal rules of evidence. The Contractor will be given the opportunity to present evidence, information and arguments as to why the Contractor believes it should be pre-qualified. Within one day after the conclusion of the hearing, the Appeals Panel will render a written determination as to whether the Contractor is pre-qualified. It is the intention of the CITY that the date for the submission and opening of bids will not be delayed or postponed to allow for completion of an appeal process.
