Trump Supporters Rally in Beverly Hills, Clash with Counter-Protesters

The Beverly Hills Police Department declared an unlawful assembly Saturday, after a fight broke out at a weekly-scheduled Trump rally between a Trump protester and counter-protester.

Trump supporters have been gathering in Beverly Hills for the past several weekends leading up to Election Day. A counter-protest was held at Roxbury Park that had around 40 people, according to BHPD Public Information Officer Lt. Max Subin.

Subin said the counter-protesters marched to the Trump rally and a counter-protester got into a "violent fight" with a pro-Trump protester.

"It was at the point that an unlawful assembly was declared by the Incident Commander and the counter protesters did leave and march back to Roxbury Park," Subin said.

The last two Trump rallies in the city have been among the largest of the planned protests. It is unclear if the protests will continue now that Election Day has passed.

BHEA and BHUSD Enter Negotiations, Prepare for Physical Phase-In Plan

The Beverly Hills Education Association, which is the union representing BHUSD faculty, met with the BHUSD last Monday to discuss the potential physical return of certain students and teachers to classrooms.

According to a BHEA newsletter, the district provided a 10-day notice of transition to an educational program for PRIME, Special Education Preschool and Special Education Assessments.

The BHEA bargaining team reached a tentative agreement to extend the current Memorandum of Understanding to June 30, 2021, add an addendum on in-person special education student assessments and add an addendum on the return of athletic programs and coaches for Beverly High.

According to a BHEA newsletter, the bargaining team has issued a counter proposal regarding in-person small group special education cohorts.

BHEA President Alana Castanon said negotiations are ongoing between the BHEA and BHUSD.

"There are many details that need to be worked out regarding any eventual return to face to face instruction. However, we are committed to continuing this process," Castanon said. "BHEA's goal is to keep student and staff safety at the forefront of all negotiations."

Castanon added that negotiations on the Collective Bargaining Agreement are slated to begin later this month.

Superintendent Michael Bregy said that as the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health continues to revise and relax restrictions in the Public Health Order, the district will continue meeting with the BHEA until a physical phase-in plan is established.

"Our goals are to work within the parameters of what LA County is allowing while maintaining the safest environment possible for our students and staff and prioritizing the instructional and social-emotional needs of our students," Bregy said.

He added that COVID-19 has pushed the BHUSD community to incongruous places, but they are determined to make this unprecedented time successful.

The next bargaining session is planned for November 5.

Superintendent Gives Update on School Reopening, K-2nd Grade Waiver and Student Cohorts

Superintendent Michael Bregy provided updates on the district's reopening plan last Tuesday, which included the Kindergarten-2nd grade waiver and allowing certain Beverly High athletes to return to campus for conditioning.

The State of California has implemented a color-coded tier system, in which colors indicate the number of COVID-19 cases in a specific county. School districts must refer to the color-coded tier system to determine when they can reopen. According to Bregy, the BHUSD remains in the purple or highest tier and therefore can't reopen as of last Tuesday.

"We are still in an area of concern in the area," Bregy said. "This is an area that we've been looking at – we look at our numbers every single day."

According to Bregy, the county's public health order was updated to allow for small cohorts of certain students to return to campus.

"This is something that we are spending a great deal of time studying, looking at ensuring safety and need, and all the things that we are responsible for students and staff," Bregy said.

The BHEA and the BHUSD reached an agreement to add an addendum to extend the BHEA's current Memorandum of Understanding to 2021 and add a teacher's assistant for Beverly High athletics last month. Read more about the MOU in column one.

"I know that football and water polo are [last] week and slowly each week thereafter, we will have some additional sports coming offline for conditioning as well," Bregy said. "Again, following the public health order with health screening measures in place."

He added that the district has also been discussing eventually allowing Beverly Vista School athletes to return to campus for conditioning.

The BHUSD Board of Education also unanimously expressed support for applying to the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health for a K-2nd grade waiver.

The public health department has started a waiver program that allows lower-grade students from qualified districts to receive in-person instruction if approved. According to the department's website, it is only approving 30 waivers a week and prioritizing schools with a higher percentage of students who qualify for free or reduced-price meal programs.

Bregy said it has mostly been private or charter schools that have applied for the elementary waiver but that has now changed. The Las Virgenes Unified School District was approved for a waiver and will begin in-person instruction for K-2nd grade students November 9.

"Most school districts are going to apply for this waiver just because they're not sure how long it will take to process [it] to have that in case the numbers are in a comfortable place and we want to start matriculating grade levels back in at an early age," Bregy said.

He added that the waiver probably won't be awarded to the BHUSD for a long time, due to the high volume of districts applying and the priority placed on approving low-income schools.

According to Bregy, the superintendent does not necessarily need formal approval to apply for a waiver but he wanted to hear feedback from board members regardless.

Board member Noah Margo said it's important to be prepared and apply for the waiver, though he does not recommend putting kids back in school now due to the spike in COVID-19 cases.

"If at any point not having that waiver trips us up, we're going to regret not applying for it," Margo said.

Board member Tristen Walker-Shuman agreed the district should move forward, but said it should walk carefully. She said she recognizes that LA County's COVID-19 cases were going down but they are now increasing again.

"A number of people have said 'Well, we shouldn't be going by LA County. Beverly Hills is different, we should be looking at our own cases,'" Walker-Shuman said. "As of October 15th, our case rate was 10.2 – so significantly higher even than the average LA County at this point."

Board Vice President Rachele Marcus said there's no question in her mind that it's wise to have the waiver in the district's hands whether it uses it or not.

"The waiver is not going to expire, so we will always have it when and if we want to really talk about using it," Marcus said. "Obviously, we're not going to start talking about it right now – the numbers are going up."

Council Adopts Urgency Ordinance Relating to Permit Requirements for Public Assemblies

The Beverly Hills City Council has unanimously approved an ordinance that updates its current permit requirements regarding large public assemblies and parades that went into effect November 4.

Over the past several months the city waived issuing public assembly and parade permits in order to accommodate various demonstrations; however, due to public safety needs surrounding recent large gatherings that utilized significant police and city resources, the council voted to again enforce its permit mandate.

An exemption, outlined in the new ordinance, includes those who wish to assemble to exercise their First Amendment rights as long as the following conditions are met:

- The assembly must be 500 people or less;
- Must take place in one of the following locations defined in the ordinance: La Cienega Park, Beverly Gardens Park between Crescent Dr. and Rodeo Dr. or the west side of City Hall adjacent to Crescent Dr.

"While we recognize the importance of public gatherings that allow the community to peacefully exercise their freedom of speech and right to assemble, it's imperative that we provide a safe and healthy environment in which they can do so by creating these guidelines," said Beverly Hills Mayor Lester Friedman.

The ordinance also prohibits targeted parades and assemblies which take place at a single residence for more than 15 minutes and prohibits parades and assemblies in residential neighborhoods between the hours of 7 p.m. or 30 minutes after sunset if earlier and 8 a.m. – unless the parade or assembly does not create any significant noise impacts.

The full ordinance will be made available at beverlyhills.org/coronavirus.

Rent Stabilization Commission Will Discuss Potential Amendments to Tenant Relocation Fees

The Rent Stabilization Commission will discuss possible amendments to the Beverly Hills Municipal Code regarding relocation fees for no fault evictions Wednesday night.

According to the commission's agenda report, the Beverly Hills City Council approved in 2017 an urgency ordinance which set relocation fees for certain tenants in no fault evictions. The requirements to qualify for a relocation fee include the following, according to the report.

- Refusal to execute a lease.
- Change in building managers.
- Use by landlords.
- Demolition or condominium conversion.
- Major remodeling.
- Withdrawal of residential rent structure from the rental market.

Since then, the council has discussed and considered several changes with the ordinance. Topics of debate have included increasing relocation fee amounts and escalating relocation fees based on the tenure of tenancy, according to the report.

The commission will make a recommendation to the council on how to potentially amend the ordinance and its related relocation fees this week. According to the commission's agenda, they will discuss questions such as whether it should change the fee amounts and if fees should only be required once tenants have lived in the unit for a year.

The meeting will be available to view on channel 10 and streamed on www.beverlyhills.org.

Traffic and Parking Commission Will Discuss Transportation Planning and Engineering Projects

The Traffic and Planning Commission will discuss Thursday updates on the city's transportation planning and engineering projects, which include Beverly Hills' Complete Streets Plan.

The Complete Streets Plan includes goals guiding transportation policies, network maps identifying which streets to enhance and more. According to the commission's agenda report, it will also include a bicycle, transit, vehicle and pedestrian action plan.

Beverly Hills will begin these plans based on staffing and funding capacity, according to the commission's agenda report.

Projects currently underway include "Connect Beverly Hills," which is an initiative to develop street designs for Wilshire Boulevard and more. City staff are also implementing a bicycle and pedestrian awareness campaign and pedestrian crossing enhancements which are being funded by Metro.

The meeting will be available to view on channel 10 and streamed on www.beverlyhills.org.

BHUSD Board of Education Debates CBOC Member Approval Process

The BHUSD Board of Education debated over the process of approving members of the Citizens Bond Oversight Committee last Tuesday.

The board approved Don Wyse, Bill Bymel, Paris Elias-Benjamin and Nathan Kruger to join the CBOC October 13. Board President Isabel Hacker and Vice President Rachelle Marcus, who are the board's liaison committee to the CBOC, conducted the candidate interviews with Superintendent Michael Bregy and two other CBOC members.

At that meeting, Board member Tristen Walker-Shuman said she would have liked to listen in to the interviews and that she thought all Board members had conducted CBOC candidate interviews in the past.

Hacker responded that there is no process in place and it defaults to Bregy to define that process. She added that she agrees the board should set a protocol to use in the future and added it to the subsequent board meeting agenda to discuss.

Walker-Shuman said last Tuesday that CBOC candidate interviews don't happen often and therefore it wouldn't be difficult for all board members to participate in them.

"I don't feel like it's overly burdensome for the entire board to be a part of the interview process and be able to ask questions, particularly because of the terms of the CBOC," Walker-Shuman said.

Board member Noah Margo said the CBOC is a required committee for districts to have by the state and the board needs to have a little more say in that process. He said he doesn't know if it should be up to the board liaison, considering that the liaison doesn't meet regularly.

"In the future, I would prefer the process to have all the board members be having the chance to vet out the CBOC members together," Margo said.

He later added that since there may be three new board members after the election, the current board should allow the new board to decide on the interview process. Walker-Shuman agreed with his statements.

Board member Mel Spitz said when he first heard about how interviews were deployed, he felt very comfortable about it.

"If you have the applicant reviewed by the board leadership and the CBOC leadership, I think that's very sufficient and it even makes it less likely that any appointments made in the CBOC are political appointments where one board member, for example, owes something to a supporter or whatever," Spitz said.

Marcus said she was not uncomfortable with the process at all, but doesn't feel particular about how it should be conducted either way.

"I was comfortable with the way that it was done, if the board wants to change

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Council of the City of Beverly Hills, at its regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, November 10, 2020 at 7:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, will hold a public hearing to consider:

EXTENSION OF AN INTERIM ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS TO PROHIBIT RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS THAT FAIL TO COMPLY WITH INCLUSIONARY HOUSING REQUIREMENTS AND CERTAIN PUBLIC NOTICING REQUIREMENTS AND DECLARING THE URGENCY THEREOF.

The Council will consider whether or not to extend the interim ordinance for a period of one year, in accordance with the provisions of Government Code Section 65858. The extension of the interim Urgency Ordinance will require a four fifths (4/5) vote by the City Council.

This Interim Ordinance has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA, Public Resources Code Sections 21000 et seq.), the State CEQA Guidelines (California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Sections 15000 et seq.), and the environmental regulations of the City. The adoption and implementation of the Interim Ordinance represents minor alterations in land use limitations and noticing procedures for certain projects and do not result in any changes in land use or density. It can therefore be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the proposed amendments may have a significant effect on the environment. In addition, the Interim Ordinance consists of an action taken by a regulatory agency for the protection of the environment due to the fact that it will apply inclusionary housing regulations to all multi-family housing developments. Accordingly, the City Council will consider the staff recommendation to find the Interim Ordinance exempt from the environmental review requirements of CEQA pursuant to Section 15061(b)(3), 15305, and 15308 of the California Code of Regulations because it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity in question would have a significant effect on the environment.

it then we have to decide,” Marcus said. “The only thing that I’m saying is that if we change it, we have to follow the process and do it that way all the time.”

Hacker said she had run the interview process by the board’s council, which determined that there was nothing irregular about it.

“I think this process is great, to be honest with you,” Hacker said. “[The CBOC members] know exactly where their deficits are as far as people and what they need when they put these reports together.”

She added that the Beverly Hills City Council has a strong process in place for selecting its commissions and the board’s selection of CBOC members mirrored that.

Hacker, Marcus and Spitz were in favor of conducting the CBOC committee interview process similarly in the future, while Margo and Walker-Shuman were opposed. Hacker said the new board is welcome to change this process once they are installed.

Nadel Receives Kindness and Legacy Award

The City of Beverly Hills awarded resident Adele Nadel, 94, a “Kindness and Legacy Award” for her services to the city earlier this year.

Nadel, who has lived in Beverly Hills her entire life, said she saw the city grow from a small town into a large town. She described how when she was younger, children were able to get a soda after school and were told to come back tomorrow to pay if they didn’t have money.

“That was the thing that appealed to me – it was easy to get involved in the community because you could see what you were getting involved in,” Nadel said. “And the people were so open to it in those days.”

One of Nadel’s first forays into volunteer work was through the Parent Teacher Association. She ended up becoming PTA president six times at Hawthorne School, Beverly High and the PTA Council.

But of her accomplishments, Nadel said she’s most proud of being on the Maple Counseling Center’s founding committee. The committee was formed to address the city’s drug problems, according to Nadel.

“That has turned into such a magnificent undertaking and very well-respected across the country,” she said.

Nadel’s friend of 50 years Rhoda Sharp said Nadel has always been the leader of the pack.

“She was [PTA] president first, I was president after,” Sharp said. “She was my mentor and still is.”

Nadel received her award last Wednesday, despite having officially received the award in March. Due to the pandemic, the City Council was not able to award the certificate in person.

Writers Bloc Presents Live-stream Event with Martin Amis and Steve Martin

Writers Bloc is presenting a live-streamed event with Martin Amis and Steve Martin on November 17 at 5 p.m.

In Amis’ new book “Inside Story,” he returns to his great influences in his life – to his beloved friend Christopher Hitchens, to his mentor and literary idol Saul Bellow, to the great poet Philip Larkin and his father Kingsley Amis. And there are of course the women and sex.

This novel– or autobiography– which toggles between his real life friends and family and the fictionalized characters who move his own story forward, gives readers a personal insight via a novel into who Amis really is.

Martin has been an actor, musician, television series creator, composer and playwright. Now he tackles something new with the book “A Wealth of Pigeons.” The book was created with Harry Bliss, cartoonist for The New Yorker. Martin and Bliss collaborate on one-panel cartoons and comedic captions.

Visit writersblocpresents.com to register to attend the live-streamed event with Amis and Martin.

Wallis Presents Two Virtual Hershey Felder Performances

The Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts announced last Thursday two live-streamed musical events featuring Hershey Felder. The one-time only, live-streamed programs include Felder as Claude Debussy in “A Paris Love Story” November 22 at 5 p.m., and as “Tchaikovsky” on December 20 at 5 p.m. Purchase includes the live-stream and an additional week of “on-demand” viewing access to the recording of the live-stream.

Felder doubles as playwright and performer in both performances. Tickets are now on sale, with a 10% discount for purchasing both programs. Proceeds benefit The Wallis.

Felder takes the audience on his own personal journey as Debussy in “A Paris Love Story” as he explores the life and music of Impressionist composer Debussy, bringing to life a visionary who proclaimed nature his religion and romance his milieu.

Felder as Tchaikovsky is based on the original production of “Our Great Tchaikovsky,” and features an extended focus on “The Nutcracker” ballet as well as Tchaikovsky’s life in Florence, Italy where he spent considerable time. “Tchaikovsky - Live from Florence,” an interesting, surprising and engaging holiday treat, will be filmed live on location in Florence.

“The Wallis is delighted to continue its long running and highly successful collaboration with Hershey Felder to present these two compelling digital productions,” said the Wallis’ Artistic Director Paul Crewes. “His ability to pivot from presenting live in-person performances to producing extremely high quality live-streamed programs from Italy during the pandemic reflects his vision and commitment.”

Both productions are produced by Hershey Felder Presents – Live From Florence, directed by Stefano Decarli and Felder and based on the stage plays directed by Trevor Hay. Production design is by Felder. Film production and live editing is by the DeCarli Live film company. Live broadcast and sound design production are by Erik Carstensen. Historical and biographical research is by Meghan Maiya. Costumes and hair are by Isabelle Gerbe. Scenic construction is directed by Pierre Gerbe.

Tickets are $55 per household for viewing on Smart TV, computer, smartphone or tablet; a 10% discount is offered for purchasing both programs. Patrons will receive a link and password three days before the event, which will enable them to view the live stream. Tickets cannot be transferred or shared. Purchase tickets by visiting TheWallis.org

Q&A Danny Licht

Author of “Cooking As Though You Might Cook Again”

What is your new book “Cooking As Though You Might Cook Again” about?

It’s hard to say. It’s a cookbook with very few numbers in it and so it focuses on a description of a way of cooking more than it does on a prescription for any specific end goal.

[I wrote it because] I like cookbooks. I like reading them and I think that there’s too much attention placed on very specific instructions in recipes generally that lead to a certain amount of unhappiness in cooking. So my hope was to help people cook more freely, happily [and] pleasantly.

What did the process of writing your cookbook entail?

For instance, did you test a lot of recipes?

No, not really actually. I cook a lot; I cook for work [as a private chef] and so I did the writing separately from cooking.

“Cooking for the first time in history is optional and it’s sad to me that it’s so often done as a miserable exercise in trying to follow somebody else’s specific instructions rather than a way of looking at what you have, what you want and what you can do”

—Danny Licht

When I set out to write the book, I imagined that I would be practicing quite a few dishes, taking copious notes and transcribing them into the book. But what happened was that I would cook or not cook and then I would write a chapter on beans, pasta, or chicken.

Would you say writing this book was a “quarantine project” or you have had it on your mind for some time?

No, it’s not a quarantine project. I finished it during the pandemic but I’ve been working on it for a couple of years.

Former Chez Pannisse chef and James Beard nominee Cal Pertenell wrote a blurb for your book. How did it feel to learn an accomplished chef enjoyed your work?

It was amazing. It was an amazing compliment to receive. I am a fan of [Pertenell] – his books are wonderful.

How did you gain your passion for cooking?

Well, I guess accidentally. In college, I moved to an apartment out of a dorm and wanted to cook for myself – more or less out of necessity. I got a cookbook [and tried] to learn fundamentals [and] principles of cooking and one thing led to another.

What do you tell people who hate to cook?

Oh, don’t cook. That’s part of the premise of the book, that cooking is now optional because we have liquid meal replacements, supermarket buffets and Taco Bell. Cooking for the first time in history is optional and it’s sad to me that it’s so often done as a miserable exercise in trying to follow somebody else’s specific instructions rather than a way of looking at what you have, what you want and what you can do.

You graduated from Beverly High in 2014 and were a Highlights editor as a student. Did that influence you to pursue writing?

I’m sure it did. I liked working on the paper. My first year on the paper, we had a teacher who was very encouraging to me and that meant a lot to me.

[Also, Dr. Steven Rubenstein] gave me the sense that writing could be powerful, that books could change lives. I don’t know exactly how. He brought an energy to reading and writing that I hadn’t really encountered before. I think he had the sense that close reading could materially improve lives. It was exciting and compelling for someone like me. It made me think that writing was worth pursuing – investing in, if you will.

Tell us about your family.

I have two siblings, a brother [Joey] and a sister [Lucy]. My parents are residents [Lisa Licht and Planning Commissioner Andy Licht]. My sister works for [a COVID-19] testing start-up. My brother is a video game streamer.

What is your favorite recipe from your book and why?

There’s a chapter on salt I like a lot. It’s short, it’s concise, it gets to the point – I just said short in three different ways. I think salt is so important in cooking and so often ignored or taken as an afterthought. But salt is what makes things taste good.

What’s your favorite meal to cook?

It’s hard to say. I like cooking generally and I don’t like thinking about cooking too much, which might surprise you. I like cooking pasta, risotto, tacos, I love braising meat – that’s probably my favorite.

What did you hope to accomplish by writing a cookbook?

I think we live in a world where so many aspects of our lives are becoming quantified and the kitchen can be a place where we don’t need to quantify everything. [It can be] where we don’t need an upper limit on what’s possible or good. So my hope is to help people relax a little bit more while they’re cooking.

Lastly, what’s one piece of advice you have for people who are interested in starting to cook?

Read my book.

Licht’s book is available for pre-order at 3holepress.org/cooking. It will be published in January 2021 and sold in local bookstores.

BHUSD BOARD OF EDUCATION RACE REACHES THE FINISH LINE

Margo, Wells and Stern Take the Lead

By Ani Gasparyan

Noah Margo

Mary Wells

The BHUSD Board of Education election concluded Tuesday with incumbent Noah Margo, Mary Wells and Amanda “Mandy” Stern in the lead.

Margo had 5,057 votes, Wells had 5,009 votes and Stern had 4,537 votes as of press time. Donna Tryfman came in fourth place with 4,343 votes. A recent change in state law allows for ballots postmarked by November 3 to be counted up to 17 days after the election, though the overall results are not expected to change.

Margo said he is delighted at the election results so far.

“The race was hard fought and I appreciate all of the candidates who took the time and energy to run,” Margo said. “I look forward to continuing to serve our community and especially our students.”

Wells said she looks forward to serving the community as a member of the board once the election results are finalized. She said it will be her first priority to ensure that children receive the highest quality education available.

“I want to thank this community for your tremendous support throughout my campaign. As a first time candidate for public office, I’m touched by the love our residents have for our city and school district,” Wells said. “A sincere ‘thank you’ to my supporters for working hard to help shape a successful campaign and build a brighter future for our Beverly Hills schools.”

Stern said she is humbled and grateful for the opportunity to serve on the board of education.

“It is time to push up our sleeves and to effectively collaborate over a myriad of issues facing our kids and the larger community,” Stern said.

“Thank you to all the individuals, families, students, board members and educators for their unwavering support during my campaign.”

Tryfman said she eagerly awaits the final results and is proud of the dignified campaign she ran. She is humbled and grateful for all the support from the community, she said.

“Thank you to all who voted, supported and embraced my message of the kids coming first,” Tryfman said.

The other three candidates were Benjamin Liker, Frank Chechel and Robin Rowe. Liker had 2,523 votes, Chechel had 2,442 votes and Rowe had 1,903 votes as of press time. But residents had more on the ballot than just choosing board members.

Measure RP was a proposition that would prevent the loss of local tax revenue if the County of Los Angeles or another local entity raised Beverly Hills’ sales tax rate. If approved, it would ensure that any increase in sales tax by the county or another entity went to the city.

Voters approved Measure RP with 9,180 votes as of press time.

In other election news, West Hollywood City Council incumbents John Duran and John Heilman were defeated. Heilman was first elected to the council in 1984, when West Hollywood first became a city. Former BHUSD construction consultant Tim Buresh lost a race for the Rolling Hills Estates City Council.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

WHEREAS, the City of Beverly Hills recognizes the importance of public gatherings that allow the community to collectively express its concerns about public issues, and supports the rights of all people to peacefully exercise their First Amendment rights to free speech and assembly; and

WHEREAS, beginning on May 30, 2020, the City was subjected to widespread acts of violence and property damage, including looting and rioting, by people who were taking advantage of the protests concerning the tragic death of George Floyd, but now desires to terminate that emergency; and

WHEREAS, on June 5, June 12, and June 27 of 2020, a group called "OCCUPY" conducted large nighttime protests in the residential area of the City which began at approximately 10:00 PM and continued until approximately 1:00 AM, and which included the use of bullhorns, amplified music, fireworks, and other items used to disrupt the tranquility of the residential neighborhood during hours when many people ordinarily would be sleeping; and

WHEREAS, since May 30 the City has been host to a number of protests from across the political spectrum including protests organized by "Mr. Checkpoint," Freedom Rallies, and protests regarding the conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan; and

WHEREAS, the City desires to adopt regulations that will promote the free exercise of First Amendment rights through parades and assemblies, and simultaneously serve the significant interests of protecting the public health and safety of our community, including those involved in or observing parades and assemblies; and

WHEREAS, the City particularly desires to protect its residents' rights to enjoy the tranquility of their homes during nighttime hours when people ordinarily would be sleeping; and

WHEREAS, in the interest of public peace, health and safety, it is necessary for the City Council to exercise its authority to adopt this urgency ordinance to adequately respond to the continuing threat of nighttime protests in the residential area and the use of fireworks in connection with parades and assemblies which would be unregulated upon the termination of the state of emergency declared on May 30th.

a project under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) as State CEQA Guidelines Section 15378(b)(5) provides that a project does not include organizational or administrative activities of governments that will not result in direct or indirect physical changes in the environment. This ordinance merely amends the City's regulations governing parades and assemblies, and does not allow any new uses land within the City that would result in direct or indirect physical changes to the environment. In addition, this ordinance is also exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) as there is no possibility the proposed ordinance would have a significant impact on the environment pursuant to State CEQA Guidelines Section 15061(b)(3). A Notice of Exemption has been prepared and will be filed in accordance with CEQA and the State CEQA Guidelines.

Section 3. Termination of Emergency. The City Council hereby terminates the emergency called by the Director of Emergency Services on May 30th and ratified by the City Council on June 5th.

Section 4. Severability. If any provision of this Ordinance is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be considered a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 5. Publication. CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT
345 FOOTHILL ROAD
BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA 90210

REQUEST FOR PREQUALIFICATION OF BIDDERS AND PREQUALIFICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR:
ELEVATOR MODERNIZATION AT THE 221 N. CRESCENT PARKING STRUCTURE AND WHEELCHAIR LIFT REPLACEMENT AT THE SANTA MONICA 5 PARKING STRUCTURES

Notice is hereby given that the City of Beverly Hills ("CITY") has determined that all bidders for the Elevator Modernization at the 221 N. Crescent Parking Structure and Wheelchair Lift Replacement at the Santa

5 Parking Structures ("Project") must be pre-qualified prior to submitting a bid on that Project. It is mandatory that all Contractors who intend to submit a bid, fully complete the prequalification questionnaire, provide all materials requested herein, and be approved by the CITY to be on the final qualified Bidders list.

No bid will be accepted from a Contractor that has failed to comply with these requirements. If two or more business entities submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, or expect to submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, each entity within the Joint Venture must be separately qualified to bid. The last date to submit a fully completed questionnaire is 5:00 PM Wednesday, November 25, 2020.

Contractors must register as a vendor at the following website in order to download the prequalification package, and to receive clarifications and notifications when issued.

The Prequalification package may be viewed on, and downloaded from the City's PlanetBids portal:
<https://www.planetbids.com/portal/portal.cfm?-CompanyID=39493>

The item is listed as: Prequalification Package for the Elevator Modernization at the 221 N. Crescent Parking Structure and Wheelchair Lift Replacement at the Santa Monica 5 Parking Structures

Answers to questions contained in the questionnaire are required. The CITY will use these documents as the basis of rating Contractors with respect to whether each Contractor is qualified to bid on the Project, and reserves the right to check other sources available. The CITY's decision will be based on objective evaluation criteria.

The CITY reserves the right to adjust, increase, limit, suspend or rescind the prequalification rating based on subsequently learned information. Contractors whose rating changes sufficiently to disqualify them will be notified, and given an opportunity for a hearing consistent with the hearing procedures described below for appealing a prequalification rating.

While it is the intent of the prequalification questionnaire and documents required therewith to assist the CITY in determining bidder responsibility prior to bid and to aid the CITY in selecting the lowest responsible bidder, neither the fact of prequalification, nor any prequalification rating, will preclude the CITY from a post-bid consideration and determination of whether a bidder has the quality, fitness, capacity and experience to satisfactorily perform the proposed work, and has demonstrated the requisite trustworthiness.

All qualification submittals are required to be submitted electronically via Planet Bids. The electronic submittal system will close exactly at the date and time set forth in this request for qualifications.

Any questions regarding the questionnaire and qualification package should be submitted via PlanetBids by 2:00PM, November 16, 2020. Questions sent via email or over the phone; with the exception of those related to accessing or using PlanetBids, will not be answered.

Contractors are responsible for submitting and having their documents accepted before the closing time set forth in the request for qualifications. NOTE: Pushing the submit button on the electronic submittal system may not be instantaneous; it may take time for the Contractor's documents to upload and transmit before the documents are accepted. It is the Contractor's sole responsibility to ensure their documents are uploaded, transmitted, and arrive in time electronically. The City of Beverly Hills will have no responsibility for documents that do not arrive in a timely manner, no matter what the reason.

The prequalification packages shall be labeled "CONFIDENTIAL PREQUALIFICATION STATEMENT FOR THE ELEVATOR MODERNIZATION AT THE 221 N. CRESCENT PARKING STRUCTURE AND WHEELCHAIR LIFT REPLACEMENT AT THE SANTA MONICA 5 PARKING STRUCTURES"

The prequalification packages submitted by Contractors are not public records and are not open to public inspection. All information provided will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law. However, the contents may be disclosed to third parties for purpose of verification, or investigation of substantial allegations, or in an appeal hearing. State law requires that the names of contractors applying for prequalification status shall be public records subject to disclosure, and the first page of the questionnaire will be used for that purpose.

Each questionnaire must be signed under penalty of perjury in the manner designated at the end of the form, by an individual who has the legal authority to bind the Contractor on whose behalf that person is signing. If any information provided by a Contractor becomes inaccurate, the Contractor must immediately notify the CITY and provide updated accurate information in writing, under penalty of perjury.

The CITY reserves the right to waive minor irregularities and omissions in the information contained in the prequalification application submitted, and to make all final determinations. The CITY may also determine at any time that the prequalification process will be suspended for the Project and the Project will be bid without prequalification.

Contractors who submit a complete prequalification package will be notified of their qualification status no later than ten business days after submission of the information.

The CITY may refuse to grant prequalification where the requested information and materials are not provided by the due date indicated above. There is no appeal from a refusal for an incomplete or late application, but re-application for a later project is permitted. Neither the closing time for submitting prequalification packages for this Project will be changed in order to accommodate supplementation of incomplete submissions, or late submissions, unless requested by the CITY in its sole discretion.

In addition to a contractor's failure to be pre-qualified pursuant to the scoring system set forth in the prequalification package, a contractor may be found not prequalified for either omission of or falsification of, any requested information.

Where a timely and completed application results in a rating below that necessary to pre-qualify, an appeal can be made by the unsuccessful Contractor. An appeal is begun by the Contractor delivering notice to the CITY of its appeal of the decision with respect to its prequalification rating, no later than two business days following notification that it is not pre-qualified. The notice of appeal shall include an address where the Contractor wishes to receive notice of the appeal hearing. Without a timely appeal, the Contractor waives any and all rights to challenge the decision of the CITY, whether by administrative process, judicial process or any other legal process or proceeding.

If the Contractor gives the required notice of appeal, a hearing shall be conducted no earlier than five business days after the CITY's receipt of the notice of appeal and not later than five business days prior to the date of the Notice Inviting Bids for this Project. Prior to the hearing, the Contractor shall, in writing, be advised of the basis for the City's pre-qualification determination.

The hearing shall be conducted by a panel consisting of three members of the Public Works Department senior management staff (the "Appeals Panel"). The Appeals Panel shall consider any evidence presented by the Contractor, whether or not the evidence is presented in compliance with formal rules of evidence. The Contractor will be given the opportunity to present evidence, information and arguments as to why the Contractor believes it should be pre-qualified. Within one day after the conclusion of the hearing, the Appeals Panel will render a written determination as to whether the Contractor is pre-qualified. It is the intention of the CITY that the date for the submission and opening of bids will not be delayed or postponed to allow for completion of an appeal process.
