“Beverly High’s journalism program”

We are incoming seniors in Beverly’s much-respected journalism program. However we wish to protest the Board of Education’s short-sighted proposal to split the journalism courses amongst existing English faculty at the high school.

For almost the whole history of the school, there has been a full-time journalism teacher on the faculty. Since the legendary journalism teacher Gil Chesterton retired in 2002, there have been six teachers in the position.

Such chronic turnover has been destructive to the program. We urge the Board of Education to reconsider this ill-fated proposal and hire a full-time journalism teacher by the fall.

“Board of Education Has Busy Agenda Despite Summer Break” [Issue 564]

Issue 564 of the Weekly, distributed July 22, has a major Page 3 article headlined “Board of Education Has Busy Agenda Despite Summer Break” with a sub-headline “New policies on signage, cheating, and dress code implemented.”

The story was quite lengthy (perhaps two-thirds of the page) and referenced the Board Meeting of July 20. The Board discussed the Hawthorne Mural, signage at the schools, cheating, dress code, and a new position in the administration. It even mentioned “permits”, a dirty word in our District.

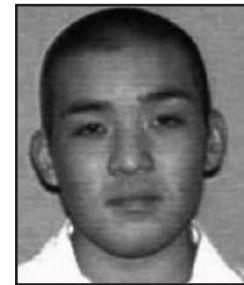

Apparently, what was never mentioned in the meeting or the article was curriculum, education, dismal student scores, a permanent superintendent – an educator not somebody’s pal – or the BHUSD’s continual descent from one of the top school districts in the country to one of the most ordinary. How terribly sad for the students.

Barker pleads not guilty in Trousdale Estates stabbing

Scott Barker entered a plea of not guilty on Monday in Los Angeles Superior Court. The 23-year-old faces up to life in prison if convicted.

Katsutoshi Takazato

Barker and his girlfriend, 20-year-old Chie Johnson, were both charged in the murder of 21-year-old Katsutoshi Takazato last Tuesday. Johnson pleaded not guilty five days earlier than Barker.

Police say the two allegedly murdered the son of Fuminori Hayashida, a Hollywood producer at the Trousdale Estates home. Hayashida currently lives in Japan and has produced several movies in the 1990s, including “No Strings Attached” and “Red Meat.”

A statement from the district attorney’s office says Johnson had dated Takazato but recently began dating Barker, who reportedly became enraged because he heard that Takazato may have abused the woman.

The two remain jailed on $3 million bail each.

City Council restores holiday weekend hours for public library, but library still closes earlier than before

The Beverly Hills City Council has restored funds to keep the library open on some holiday weekends this fiscal year, however they have not restored it to pre-2009 hours.

Previously the Council, as part of the budget cutting process, had voted to close the library for all weekends associated with a national holiday and spring break weekend.

"The public library is one of our City's greatest assets, providing residents and others with information, entertainment, enrichment – and in these troubled economic times – a source for job and financial research. Despite the economic challenges, the Council was able restore the funding necessary to keep the library doors open," said Mayor Jimmy Delshad.

Even though six weekend hours were restored, the closing hours will remain Monday-Wednesday 8:00 pm, Thursday-Saturday 6:00 pm, and Sunday at 5:00 pm.

Currently the library closes one hour earlier from Monday -Wednesday, and three hours earlier on Thursday than it did before the 2009 budget cuts.

Pre-2009 closing hours were Monday-Thursday 9:00 pm, Saturday 6:00 pm, and Sunday 5:00 pm.

The library will still remain closed on Labor Day, Christmas and New Year's Day weekends.

The additional six holidays weekends were added back onto the schedule, but the library will still be closed on the actual national holidays:

- Veterans Day weekend (Nov 12-14)
- Thanksgiving weekend (Nov 27-28)
- Martin Luther King Jr. weekend (Jan 15-16, 2011)
- Presidents day weekend (Feb 19-20, 2011)
- Spring break weekend (Apr 23, 2011)
- Memorial Day weekend (May 28-29, 2011)

City Council weighs in on Iranian stoning

The City Council is trying to set a precedent for more countries to help save an Iranian woman who could be executed by stoning, as well as firmly opposing the act of stoning in Iran.

Councilmember John Mirisch brought the issue before the council, saying even though it may be a small statement, it is an important one.

"I asked that we pass a resolution condemning stoning because this practice is so barbaric it's simply unbelievable. While the government of Iran may not listen to the Beverly Hills City Council, there are a large number of Iranians here in Beverly Hills and it is important for us to add our voice to the world wide chorus against this unacceptable behavior," said Mirisch.

Sakineh Mohammadi-Ashtiani, 43, was convicted in 2006 of having an "illicit relationship" with two men and received 99 lashes, before being convicted of adultery and sentenced to death, according to Amnesty International.

Mayor Jimmy Delshad called the act "barbaric" and "disgusting".

"She has supposedly already received 99 lashes, and is currently on death row. Her sons have thought of writing campaign to let the world know what is going on. This shows the power of one person. They [Iranian government] have denied the stoning, but the power is in the court system and the court system is silent," said Delshad at the July 22 council meeting.

While Vice Mayor Barry Brucker agreed that this specific case is barbaric, he reminded the council during the meeting how important it is to help the voices that can't be heard as well.

"Let us not forget the fact that yes, there has been a lot of PR news about Ms Sakineh Mohammadi-Ashtiani, but there are other people on that death row, and they may not have the voice that her family has. I think our statement should include that we as a council will be the voice of anyone who might be stoned," said Brucker.

The council took a firm stance against Mohammadi-Ashtiani's execution by any means, as well as the act of stoning in general.

"Hopefully, worldwide outrage can shame Iran into stopping the practice of stoning and whipping women accused of adultery, in addition to ending other unjust, cruel and inhumane policies that terrorize their residents," said Mirisch.

Beverly Hills bans marijuana dispensaries

An interim ordinance of the city of Beverly Hills is prohibiting the establishment of marijuana dispensaries, stores, co-ops, or marijuana cultivation operations in any zoning district or overlay zoning district within the city, and declaring the urgency thereof.

Director of Community Development Susan Healy Keene is concerned previously shut down dispensaries from Los Angeles will relocate to Beverly Hills.

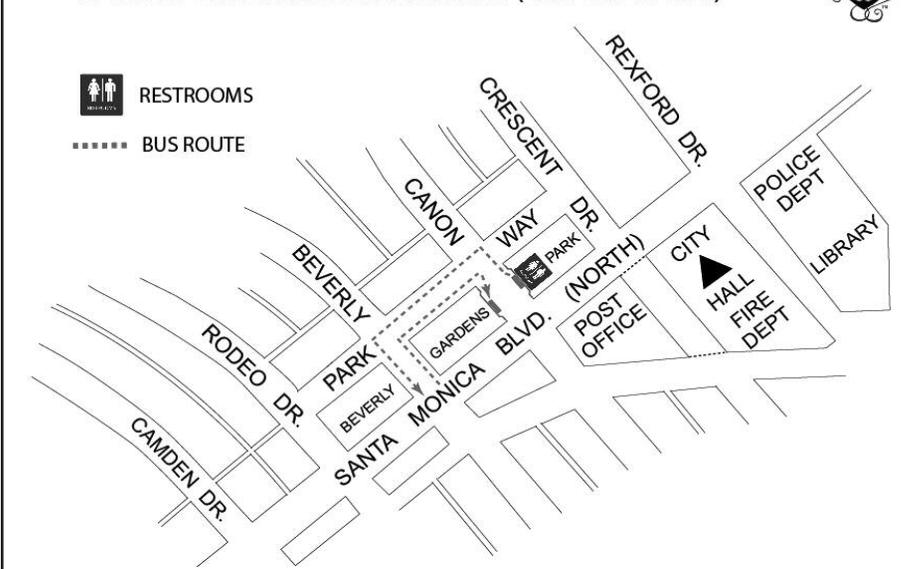

"In June, the city of Los Angeles shut down many medical marijuana dispensaries, it is not out of the question they would want to move here" said Keene.

The City Council unanimously voted the interim ordinance go into effect immediately.

The closest medical marijuana dispensaries are adjacent to Beverly Hills in Traffic and Parking Commission has roundtable with tour companies

The Traffic and Parking Commission recently created an ad hoc team to research operators of major tour bus companies and voiced concerns on the impact the industry is having on Beverly Hills, in a round table discussion July 21.

The three commissioner ad hoc team consists of Commissioners Joyce Braun, Julie Steinberg, and Brian Rosenstein.

In a roundtable discussion held last week, the three devised a plan to address complaints from residents and local businesses.

Commissioner Brian Rosenstein said local residents are not happy with the amount of noise the sound systems on the vans play. He also said the tour vans raise traffic concerns.

"The tour vans and tour buses are a problem that has proliferated in our City in recent years. Many Beverly Hills residents and businesses are being impacted by the noise, traffic behavior and other activities associated with these tours. The purpose of the round table meeting with the tour company operators was to inform them of the complaints and concerns of our residents and businesses and the steps the City is taking to address these issues which includes code and law enforcement," Rosenstein said.

So far "Starline Tours" seems to be the only company heeding the commission's advice by installing headsets in all of the vans.

The Amplified Sound Ordinance bans loud noises from the city. Currently, businesses must obtain a permit from the city to be able to play loud noises.

Deputy director for the city's Transportation Department Aaron Kunz said the tour companies need to start alternate loading stations.

"The tour buses generate a lot of noise, as well as trash. There were about seven tour companies at the roundtable meeting. There are a couple loading locations in "business triangle". We're trying to find new locations, so local businesses don't complain. One recommendation we suggested was that the vans or buses turn their engines off when parked," Kunz said.

The commission plans on starting a task force within BHPD to start enforcing the code, and will meet next Thursday to discuss loading and drop off station locations.

West Hollywood.

Councilmember John Mirisch pointed out that mortuaries and car washes are legal nationwide, however Beverly Hills zoning does not allow some of the latter within city limits.

"There are businesses, such as certain kinds of car washes, sheet metal shops and mortuaries, which are legal but which aren't allowed in our City because of zoning ordinances. Even if a more widespread use of marijuana is legalized by the November ballot measure, we still can and should use zoning to restrict businesses which could have an overall negative impact on our community," said Mirisch.

Mirisch does understand the need for the dispensaries. However, he said the negative impacts the dispensaries could have on the city could outweigh everything else.

"Very clearly, there are people who benefit from the use of medical marijuana, such as cancer victims. But I think it is perfectly legitimate to limit or even ban certain kinds of commercial office space uses because of the negative impacts on the residents and community; I think we made the right decision," said Mirisch.

Come November, if the Control and Tax Cannabis 2010 passes, the council may have to look into re-zoning rules to keep dispensaries out of Beverly Hills.

City Council discusses disabled placard abuse, Deputy Treasurer to receive Class 1 Permit

During last Thursday's City Council meeting, Councilmember John Mirisch requested to discuss Disabled Person Placard Abuse. Also in discussion at the meeting was adding Deputy Treasurers Abner Goldstine and Dan Yukelson to the list of positions available to receive a Class 1 Parking Permit.

Currently, there are six people holding placards for every one parking meter in service in Beverly Hills.

"There needs to be a lot more enforcement, in addition to increasing the penalties. There is widespread abuse of the placards which hurts the people who actually need them, as well as hurting the city financially. The abuse means fewer spaces for the disabled people who really do need to make use of the placard," said Mirisch.

Traffic and Parking Commissioner Brian Rosenstein voiced his concern about the abuse of these placards and what effect they have on the city.

"The abuse of the placards take away space from those who need them. By not feeding meter, they not paying their share to city. It takes away from those who want to shop and economically benefit city," said Rosenstein at the July 22 meeting.

"What we can do as a city is limited, but we should work with the League of Cities and our contacts at the State level to try to deal with the problem. I don't know if it's a sign of our "it's-all-about-me" times but the widespread abuse is actually quite sad," said Mirisch.

Placard time use is under state law, so locally the council has no control over limiting hours of usage.

The council was leaning towards adding the Deputy Treasurers to the list of being eligible for a Class 1 Permit, however they will officially vote on the issue during the next meeting.

The Class 1 Parking Permit would allow the Deputy Treasurers to park in any metered space without depositing any money.

Currently city officials as well as commission chairs hold Class 1 Parking Permits.

Planning Commission concerned over medical land use

On July 22, the Planning Commission voiced their concern with the amount of medical offices that comprise the city's commercial space. The discussion included information about regulation of medical land use in Beverly Hills' commercial buildings.

Senior Planner Michele McGrath presented several regulatory options, including:

1. A floating medical overlay zone with specific zoning restrictions and a conditional use permit (CUP), the limitations of which have yet to be decided
2. A cap on total medical floor area.

The commission agreed to form a subcommittee, consisting of Chair Lili Bosse and Vice Chair Dan Yukelson, to study the implications further.

The medical office use will be continued to the meeting on September 23.

PTSA talk MTA's Subway Westside Extension Plans

Metro is holding a public hearing in Beverly Hills on August 11th to gather input on the proposed changes that would extend the subway plans to tunnel under Beverly High. The meeting will be held at 5 pm at the La Cienega Tennis Center (325 S. La Cienega Boulevard).

The Beverly Hills PTSA has been in contact with the Board of Education.

They will be discussing the issue as it impacts Beverly High at one of their Special Board Meetings or at their next regularly scheduled meeting on August 23 meeting. PTSA has requested that the Board provide communication to the BHHS community on this matter.

In an online survey 65.1% of the votes (so far over 3,000 votes) want to place the subway extension at Constellation Blvd & Ave of the Stars.

The survey is located at the following web address: <http://thesource.metro.net/2010/07/19/westside-subway-extension-poll-where-to-put-the-century-city-station/>.

Board of Education Preparing for Upcoming School Year

With a new interim superintendent in place, the Board of Education is gearing up for the 2010-2011 school year by avoiding obstacles set from previous years. The Board is trying to minimize the impact from past decisions, relocating many teachers within the district, and saving money by not filling other positions. The Board has also officially begun their search for someone to fill the Superintendent position permanently.

"Now that we have our team in place, things are starting to fall into place. We're starting to put the various classes together. That's causing a lot of work for staff, so were monitoring that closely. We want to continue to provide the smallest class sizes possible. There's always a delicate balance between that and budget constraints," said Board member Brian Goldberg.

Goldberg said the Board is trying to minimize the impact of past misappropriated funds.

"The $1.5 million so far that was misappropriated and misused in our budget over the past several years is where we may have a problem. The impact is going to be from the mismanagement of those funds. We're working diligently to make sure previous boards and staff members mistakes don't impact the classroom," said Goldberg.

Recently, a large number of teachers have been transferred within the district in order to avoid layoffs.

"We're not cutting [jobs]. We're reallocating, were not filling positions that have been closed due to retirement or going on leave. I'm very pleased and proud of this district in going forward. For the first time in many years, we're not wholesale laying people off and replacing people 'willy-nilly.' We're working closely with our union to ensure transfers are being done appropriately and within the contract language."

Notes on people and events

By Rudy Cole

According to our sources, there are two candidates still in the running to fill an upcoming vacancy on the Beverly Hills Planning Commission: Brian Rosenstein and Marilyn Weiss.

Recommendations from a selection committee of two councilmembers and two planning commissioners may be known as early as Friday. Although the council has generally accepted committee recommendations, it still requires a majority council vote to make the appointment.

Weiss is a former member of the Architectural Commission and a current member of the Design Review Commission, and Rosenstein is a member of the Parking and Traffic Commission.

An unusually large field of candidates was considered by the ad-hoc committee including current and former members of other city commissions and many without any prior commission experience. Planning is considered the most important and most time consuming city commission.

Current member and former chair of the Planning Commission, Noah Furie, will leave at the end of his term later this year. Furie is a likely candidate for city council in the March, 2011 election as is fellow commissioner and current chair, Lili Bosse.

For many years, commission appointments were made in a far different manner. Each member of the council was entitled to name members when vacancies occurred and when it was their turn. That is the process still used in many cities. In West Hollywood, most commissioners serve as long as the councilmember who appointed them. New councilmembers then fill the vacancy. This process does assure broader representation and inhibits a council majority from dominating commission membership.

In more recent years, our city council adopted a more open application process including interviews with candidates by two councilmembers and two commissioners; and, the council has seldom reversed the nominating committee's recommendations.

When Mayor Jimmy Delshad is on the case, expect governmental wheels to turn and ideas turned into reality.

Whatever reservations were initially expressed on holding the "Taste of Beverly Hills", which seems to have morphed into a "Taste of Los Angeles" with many leading Los Angeles eateries also participating, during the Labor Day weekend, has become a Delshad spectacular.

The Mayor envisioned an unusual opportunity. September 2, 2010 is a conjunction of our most famous zip code, 90210, so that became the opening day of the four day event.

On 9.02.10 there will be a very impressive staging led by the Mayor and CNN talk show host Larry King. The mayor will also deliver his annual state of the city report then.

Also directly involved is the highly regarded and very experienced event coordinator Jeffrey Best. His company has a good track record of event organization. A resident of Beverly Hills, Best brought the broader program plan to the council and suggested the Beverly Hills Education Foundation as a recipient charity.

However, it has been with the help of Mayor Delshad that so many businesses, sponsors and entertainers have signed on to participate.

The "extravaganza" will be held at 9900 Wilshire, the former Robinson's-May property; and the Beverly Hilton is providing a special rate for participants and visitors.

A word about the 90210 zip. It is our only zip code that includes hundreds of residents who live north of our borders. Our other primary zips, 90212 and 90211 are entirely within the city. Most of our business district is in 90210 with some very strange exception. For some reason, two blocks on the north side of Wilshire are 90212, surrounded by 90210. As you go west from Linden, the zip again becomes 90210 and that includes the Beverly Hilton.

Although the most famous, or infamous use of 90210, was by the high school themed television show, our own and only high school is in 90212. The first filming of the vacuous series was actually shot at a high school in Torrance, our own probably looking too much like a small university.

The total number of addresses in 90210 is inflated not only because it extends beyond city limits, but because of the business triangle. As for most homes in a zip, that would be 90212. Shall we have a 9.02.12 day then?

Adopted to make mail delivery more efficient, Zip codes were first introduced on July 1, 1963. What does "zip" actually mean? "Zoning Improvement Plan."

So, let's attend, participate and appreciate all the efforts as we celebrate "Zoning Improvement Plan 9.02.10." No, this has nothing to do with our General Plan. (More on the event to follow soon and for more information, visit the city's web site.)

More on events, and two outstanding community service organizations: Friends of Greystone sponsored a highly successful concert at Greystone by the Los Angeles Lawyers Philharmonic last Saturday, under the direction of founder-conductor Gary S. Greene. It was Green's grandfather, Ernest Katz who organized and led the great Junior Philharmonic and their highly popular "Battle of the Batons." (Gary's sister, a community activist and musician, also participated.)

But a note of appreciation to Friends President Susan Rosen and board members who helped assure a successful and well attended concert: Gay Parkis, Elaine Glass, Marty Geimer, Angnes-Nicole Winter, Luren Cohen, Vicky, Swartz, David Walker, Anita Naiman, Arline Pepp, Joe Schneider, Kathy Meamed, Paula Jones, Helene Harris, Allison Balson and Natalie Gordon (BH Teen Advisory Committee representative), and, of course, the great support from the Department of Recreation and Parks staff.

For many years, the community enjoyed the Fourth of July concerts by the Los Angeles Doctors Symphony, first staged through the efforts of Dr. Simon Gamer, dentist to the stars, who donates much of his time to special needs children around the world. Someday, maybe we could combine the docs and the lawyers and see if they sue each other.

The second group that deserves high praise for their historic efforts to support our Beverly Hills Public Library is the "Friends of the Library."

Good news, many of the lost days of library operations, but not all, have been restored by the city council, in no small measure because of the support of the Library Friends.

First organized by long time community activists including Betty Harris and Fran and Ernie Ach, the Friends of the Library under the leadership of President Barbara Linder, has a solid record of service to our library including the highly successful and popular book store inside the library. This is our only real book store and it operates entirely on volunteer power, with proceeds going to the library. They have an incredible inventory and it is well worth visiting. The Friends also saved the Senior Library at Roxbury by providing funds for deliver of materials and a small collection of books, and they are the sole supporters of the excellent fine arts collection of books, which has been recognized regionally as "outstanding."

Linder, a life long resident and one-time attorney, also serves as a member of the Human Relations Commission.

Other officers of the Friends include: Charlotte Skura, first vp, Kathi Rothner, second vp, Lorraine Feldman and Jeannette Mandelbaum, third vps, Jean Rosenblatt, treasurer, Joan Klein, corresponding secretary and Michelle Gabbai, recording secretary. Thanks to Linder and her team for all they have accomplished for our community and, of course, with the support of one of the best librarians in the country, Nancy Hunt-Coffey.

The passing of former Mayor Maxwell H. Salter has left a big void in our city – he just seemed larger than life to me and I will do some more stories of his service to the community and the nation.

The Salter family has asked me to express their deep appreciation for all the cards, letters and donations to selected charities from so many people in the community. This display of affection and admiration was very meaningful to Janet and the whole Salter family.

Success note, maybe: A quick check of milk cartons at Pavillions, Whole Foods and Beverly Hills Market found no more leaky cartons, none. Although the company denied there was any damage to the containers, they did send out inspectors following our discovery that many stores in and out of Beverly Hills had problems with their smaller plastic cartons. The company representative told us this was probably a problem created during delivery. In any case, it seems fixed. If not, let me know.

Congratulations to the reporting team at the Los Angeles Times for their excellent exposure of the outrageous sums being paid administrators and city council in Bell. Mayors and most councilmembers were receiving over $100,000 for attending city meetings. Our council takes home under $500,000 annually. Not sure what columnists for Bell newspapers receive, but I am open to negotiations. As for the city manager's pay of $800,000, would someone please lock Jeff Kolin's door.

"Our resident enrollment is up for the second year in a row. As we prepare for that shift from permit students to welcoming back our resident students, it's a delicate balance. I'm very pleased with the progress we've made. We still have a lot of work to do. We're taking steps in the right direction."

DESIGNING WOMAN

The Weekly's Interview with Design Review Chair Susan Strauss

By Jessica Miller

Tell us about the Design Review Commission.

The purpose of the commission is to review single family homes and to maintain the garden like beauty of Beverly Hills, and to create harmony between the old and the new.

The city the style book which gives guidance to applicants. We have five criteria that we use that people are supposed to adhere to. The design of a house has to exhibit an externally compatible design scheme, the design minimizes the appearance of scale and mass and enhances the garden like quality of the city, the home enhances the appearance of the neighborhood, the house balances the expectations of the owner with the reasonable expectations of the privacy of the neighbors, and that the home ensures harmony between old and new homes.

These five criteria along with the 'Style Guide' are the basis [on which we come] to our conclusions.

People come to us with their projects. Residents will bring their architects or designers. We get the plans ahead of time, we receive a packet and study them. They present their project, and we critique them.

How did you get involved with the Design Review Commission?

When I was chair of the Architectural Commission there was a lot of concern within the community about the "Mansionization" of Beverly Hills.

Houses were becoming too large and over embellished. They were overwhelming the homes next door to them.

Along with the City Council, I believed that like many other cities we were in dire need of review of single family homes.

I was involved in the interview process in forming the Design Review Commission and actually helped appoint three of our present commissioners.

How does your family about your position?

My husband works in the entertainment industry. He is incredibly supportive of my dedication to the Design Review Commission.

We travel a lot for his business but I always make sure to be back in time for the commission meetings.

How does it differ from the Architectural Commission?

The Architectural Commission deals only with commercial projects such as stores and condominiums, whereas the Design Review Commission deals solely with single-family houses.

We have a 'style book', and the five criteria we just talked about, which we expect applicants to follow. That is the basis on which we reach our decisions.

Last year, the committee saw a lot of contemporary style housing, what is the trend now?

We had three contemporary houses this year so far that we reviewed that I can remember off hand. The rest were more traditional.

Is the commission working with any famous architects?

Ricardo Legoretta. He is doing a fabulous contemporary home for a couple that I believe are art collectors. Legoretta has designed several other amazing homes in the Los Angeles area.

Mayor Jimmy Delshad and Susan Strauss

Legoretta uses elements of architecture in his work including bright colors, play of light and shadow, and solid platonic geometric shapes.

He now also has a strong presence outside of Mexico, particularly in the southwest of the United States.

What is commission working on now?

We're making specific recommendations for the future to city council regarding our code to make it more environmentally friendly.

We're anxiously looking forward to having a liaison meeting with the city council in the near future.

The changes would deal with light and shadow and improve our code to make it more environmentally efficient.

What challenges do you face?

One of my challenges right now is filling the position of the outgoing commissioners Marilyn Weiss, Gary Gilbar, and Hamid Gabbay because their terms are expiring. They have set a very high standard of professional commitment.

We have three new commissioners that have to be appointed. There are going to be a lot of transitions this year so that will be a challenge.

What is your professional background?

I was actually involved in fashion when I moved to Los Angeles. As a retailer I oversaw the construction of "Jess", a chain of five boutiques.

I also have been involved in building a home and remodeling two of them (all of which are in Beverly Hills).

What are your plans after your work on the commission is finished?

Most importantly I'd like to continue my involvement in the city of Beverly Hills as a long-standing member of the Executive Board of the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts.

As a collector I enjoy my position as Vice Chair of the Contemporary Art Council of LACMA, and as a lover of architecture I am proud to serve on the Board of the Los Angeles Conservancy.

These are all long-term commitments that I will continue in the future.

What goals do you have for the commission this year?

I recently appointed a subcommittee which came up with recommendations to the Design Review Commission regarding our code that are energy saving and environmentally conscious.

We are anxiously awaiting a liaison meeting with the City Council to implement these changes.

As always, I try to create a congenial atmosphere for the applicant. We want them to feel pleased with their improved project when they are finished with the process.

Did former chair Hamid Gabbay give you any advice?

I did learn a lot from the way he conducted the meetings and from his architectural expertise.

We will continue the guest speaker series with landscape architects. We have an architect, Mark Rios, scheduled to come and speak soon.

What are you most proud of as chair of the commission?

Beverly Hills has the Design Awards for best newly built homes and redesigned homes.

I'm looking forward to being a part of that process at the end of the year.

What do you like about working with the commission?

I want to try and create a positive atmosphere for everyone. I want them to leave with a better project. I want to be supportive.

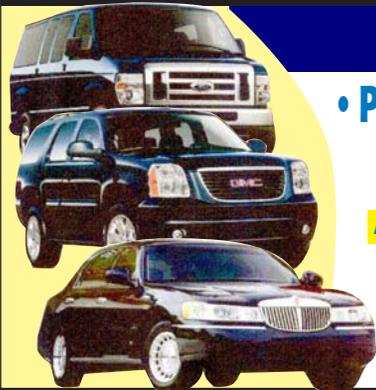

I also like helping people create the most beautiful houses they could possibly have. It helps the city.
