Judge rules Measure 2P invalid, off March 8 ballot

Measure 2P, the two-hour free parking initiative, was ruled invalid by Judge Ann Jones Tuesday January 4. Because in the writ of mandate Jones claimed the initiative was “impermissibly vague”, the measure will not appear on the March 8 ballot. The lawsuit, claiming Measure 2P was invalid, was filed November 24 against Elections Official Byron Pope.

The City alleged the two-hour free parking initiative was invalid on three grounds. One, the initiative was not legislative in character; two, changing parking rates is administrative in nature not legislative; and three, the initiative’s fiscal impact was going to impair essential governmental functions, said City Attorney Larry Wiener. Jones ruled the initiative was not legislative in character and did not make any rulings on the other two grounds.

“[Jones] ruled it was not legislative in character because it didn’t actually contain language mandating two-hour free parking but instead simple was a statement of intent,” Wiener said. “The people have the right to enact laws through the initiative process and this measure did not actually enact a law. It was drafted in a way that it didn’t necessarily do any-

Although now Measure 2P is off the ballot, Measure 3P is still on. Measure 3P would offer three hours of free parking a day to residents and give them a discount on flat rate parking. Councilmember John Mirisch said he feels 3P will allow the City Council more of an opportunity to deal with the deficit in the parking enterprise fund.

“[Measure 3P is] on the ballot and it [will] provide residents with three hours of free parking but would do so in a way that is more fiscally responsible than the developer funded initiative,” Mirisch said. “We’d still have to figure out ways to make up the parking enterprise fund deficit, which we’ve been working on, but it wouldn’t handcuff us in the same. It doesn’t mandate, it’s not an unfunded mandate in a sense that it mandates two hours of free parking across the board for everybody for all eternity.”

The City is pleased with Jones’ decision, Wiener said.

“The City believes Measure 2p was invalid for several reasons and the judge agreed with the City on one of those reasons,” Weiner said. “Because she agreed on the first basis of our challenge she did not reach the other two.”

G&L spokesperson Harvey Englander said they believe the judge erred in her decision.

“Unfortunately, due to the inflexibility of the election calendar, we are unable to appeal this decision,” Englander said in a e-mailed statement. “We are considering our options, however, we want the 4,000 Beverly Hills citizens who signed the petition to know that we will continue to fight to preserve two hours free parking for everyone who wants to shop, dine and do business in Beverly Hills.”

A lawsuit against the five signatories of the against argument for Measure 2P was supposed to be heard on January 10 and a lawsuit against Pope for extending the date for ballot submissions was supposed to be heard Tuesday January 4. After the ruling that Measure 2P was going to be taken off the ballot, both lawsuits were considered moot said opponent for Measure 2P attorney Fred Woocher.

Christiansen pleads not guilty, faces financial problems

At their January 3 arraignment, former Facilities Manager and Strategic Concepts CEO Karen Christiansen and former BHUSD Superintendent Jeff Hubbard pled not guilty at the Los Angeles Airport Court in front of Judge Keith Schwartz.

Judge Elden Fox in the Beverly Hills courthouse, who was originally supposed to hear the case Monday morning, recused himself from hearing the trial. According to Hubbard’s attorney Salvatore Ciulla, Fox recused himself after the realization that he knew Hubbard personally through Rotary Club meetings and decided it was a conflict of interest.

What's Your New Year's Resolution?

"We've had a 39 percent decrease in violent crimes since 2005, including a 100 percent homicide clearance rate since 2000. We'd like to continue this trend. Maintaining well under a three minute response time is something we intend to continue. I'd also like to encourage the residents to participate in the new Neighborhood Watch Program that will be launched early this year by our Crime Prevention team. The program will be filled with the latest crime prevention tips; what's happening in your neighborhood; and how you can be involved with public safety." Dave Snowden, Police Chief.

"My New Year's Resolution is to be more patient with my children, with my family and with school district goings on and to sleep more, I don't sleep enough, I need to sleep more and exercise more, continue to eat healthy and stress out less." Lisa Korbатов, Board of Education President when we should really make our day-dreams turn into reality, by getting off the couch and on the street. I want everyone to be happy and healthy and have a great year." Les Bronte, Former Mayor

"My New Year's resolution is to find people willing to put petty politics and personal animosity aside and work with me to move our district forward and ensure our resources are used for the benefit of our students." Brian Goldberg, Board of Education Vice President

"My New Year's Resolutions are to work hard to serve our community as the newest member of the Planning Commission and always push for projects to be the least impactful on the residents and economically beneficial for the City. Also to do everything I can to help the residents defeat the special interest ballot Measure 2P in March. And finally to get a gym membership for myself and actually use it." Brian Rosenstein, Planning Commissioner

"Try to exercise more. That's certainly one of them." John Mirisch, Councilmember

"My New Year's Resolution is to go back to school and even see if I can get in after leaving it for the next twenty something years. I want to get my masters [in marriage and family therapy]. I haven't done anything in like 20 years as far as school. That's my New Year's resolution, I want to apply to school and see if I can get in. I don't know about starting it yet but I want to see if I can get in. And of course the usual try to get back into exercise which I try to set up for myself every year but we'll see about this year." Azy Farahmand, El Rodeo PTA President

"I actually haven't thought about them. Probably, spend more time with family. Finish out my presidency and find some really good presidents to take over for next fall. That would be my main goal at this point. [I'd like to] start getting involved in other groups and help with fundraising, explore different areas of helping. Community service has always been my passion so probably just to look outside the school and within the city to find other avenues." Dana Gilbert, Hawthorne PTA President prison jumpsuit, with her four children in the audience. She has been in custody at the Century Regional Detention Facility in Lynwood since December 27, with a bail set at $2 million by Judge Cynthia Rayvis. A request for bail reduction was denied by Schwartz.

According to the Orange County Register, Christiansen filed for bankruptcy in 2005, lost her Sacramento-area home to foreclosure and owed $300,000 to creditors.

In 1999, Christiansen formed a school construction consultation business called K2K Inc. Vern Weber, an associate in the Santa Barbara Unified School District, told the Orange County Register that Christiansen defaulted on her part of the project after he paid her $78,000. He sued her for breach of contract.

Christiansen and Hubbard are being charged with two counts of misappropriation of funds and Christiansen was charged with five counts of conflict of interest, Thursday December 9 said Deputy District Attorney of the Public Integrity Division Juliet Schmidt.

Hubbard, who has served as Newport-Mesa Unified School District since 2006, was released of his own recognizance and is scheduled to be booked by the District Attorney's Office by January 14.

According to the felony complaint filed by the Los Angeles County District Attorney, Hubbard allegedly gave Christiansen a $20,000 stipend and increased her auto allowance from $100 to $500 in 2006. Christiansen, while director of Planning and Facilities for the BHUSD, allegedly committed six acts of conflict of interest between April of 2006 and August of 2008.

Ciulla said he feels Hubbard was carrying out the orders of the Board of Education and therefore did nothing wrong.

"He only did what the board approved and required him to do and requested him to do," Ciulla said. "It's our understanding that the county doesn't write a check without all steps having gone through and board approval is one of those steps. We've spoken to people in the process, who say nothing can be approved without paperwork in place. The checks won't get written. All of those things were done."

Schmidt said the DA disagrees with Ciulla.

"Even if the board approved it, it would still be crime because you can't change a public employees contract during the contract unless its renegotiated," Schmidt said. "So it doesn't matter if the board knew or not. We don't think the board knew about it, but if they did know about it, it's still a crime. There is a constitutional provision that says you cannot increase compensation while a contract is in effect and that's what Jeffrey Hubbard did. He gave her a stipend and increased her auto allowance while her contract was in effect. He appropriated the additional compensation without authority of law."

Christiansen served as the BHUSD's facilities manager from 2004 until 2006, at an annual salary of $113,000. In 2006, Christiansen formed a private consulting company, Strategic Concepts, which the district hired to oversee the $92 million Measure K bond and then the $334 million Measure E bond, from which she were ultimately fired due to contractual irregularities. Christiansen was paid $5.2 million by the school district between 2006 and 2009, officials said.

The preliminary hearing is set for January 18 at 8:30 a.m. at the Airport Courthouse.

Christiansen's lawyers Philip Kaufler, Hillel Chodos and Michael Goldfeder did not return the Weekly's calls for comment.

Korbatov discusses priorities for 2011

As the new Board president in a new year, Lisa Korbatov has big plans for the BHUSD Board of Education. Although as Korbatov said she is only one board member, Korbatov has six major priorities for the Board to accomplish in 2011.

Korbatov said her first priority is to prevent MTA from tunneling under Beverly High and the district office building.

Second is to hire a long-term superintendent. Since superintendent searches have not worked in the past for the BHUSD, Korbatov said the board should be open to any and all ways to find a good person, any way that is "legal and ethical" is an option.

Third is to beef up security around the four K-8's and the high school.

Fourth is to restore the "relevance and vibrancy" of the K-8 libraries by employing library media teachers, reading specialists and English - language support teachers.

Fifth is to reinstate the Gifted And Talented Education (GATE) program throughout the BHUSD.

Sixth is to "get a grip" on food services, making sure to at minimum break even and serve food desirable to students.

Korbatov said in order to get any of these things accomplished, the Board is going to have to seriously evaluate the budget and prioritize.

"I don't expect to get everything in any given period of time but we have to identify our greatest need and our resources to fulfill that need," Korbatov said. "It's really a balancing act and I'm confident that this board and our administration can do it."

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING THE BEVERLY HILLS MUNICIPAL CODE TO LIMIT NEW OR EXPANDED MEDICAL USES IN COMMERCIAL ZONES AND ADOPTING A MEDICAL USE OVERLAY ZONE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on January 11, 2011, at 7:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, the Council of the City of Beverly Hills will consider adopting an ordinance entitled "Ordinance of the City of Beverly Hills amending the Beverly Hills Municipal Code to limit new or expanded medical uses in commercial overlay zones and adopting a medical use overlay zone." A summary of that Ordinance follows:

Summary of Ordinance

An Ordinance of the City of Beverly Hills amending the Beverly Hills Municipal Code to limit new or expanded medical uses in commercial zones and adopting a medical use overlay zone.

Because of concern that a large percentage of the City's limited commercial office space is being occupied by medical use with resulting traffic and parking impacts as well as impacts on the City's retail/pedestrian environment, fiscal health and image, the City Council, in July, 2009, directed staff to develop an ordinance regulating medical use in the City with consideration of an exception for existing buildings with Code-compliant parking for medical use. The Ordinance would allow existing legal medical uses to continue with no additional regulation; however, all existing, legal medical uses would become legal nonconforming uses. Notwithstanding Beverly Hills Municipal Code Section 10-3-4101 regarding nonconforming uses, the Ordinance would allow legal nonconforming medical uses to relocate within a building provided that the total amount of floor area occupied by medical uses does not increase beyond the amount of floor area occupied by lawfully permitted medical uses on the effective date of the Ordinance.

Under the Ordinance, property owners wishing to add or expand medical use would be required to seek application of a medical use overlay zone and a planned development. Application of the medical use overlay zone to a specific property would be reviewed by the Planning Commission and approved by the City Council with findings that the medical use would not have negative impacts and would provide a public benefit. The proposed benefit would be evaluated on a case by case basis by the Planning Commission and City Council to determine if the benefits are sufficient to offset the long-term impacts of additional medical use.

An exception for existing buildings with legal medical use to convert up to 6,000 square feet of general commercial office use to medical use is included in the Ordinance. The additional space shall not be occupied by a surgical center and the building owner must provide documentation satisfactory to the City verifying existing medical use in the building to take advantage of the exception. Both the medical use overlay zone and the exception include parking requirements, restrictions on ground floor medical use inside and outside of the City's pedestrian-oriented area, and both require adherence to current development standards for the zone or underlying zone, including height and density limits.

The Ordinance adds "optometrist" to the definition of retail business, with conditions, and includes language allowing legal nonconforming medical uses located in a building that has been damaged by a disaster to the extent of more than fifty percent (50%) of its replacement value, to be re-established without application of the medical use overlay zone.

Finally, the Ordinance includes a clarification that buildings that took advantage of the City's Code provision, deleted in 2005, that allowed restriping of parking areas for tandem and compact spaces to permit conversion of floor area to medical use, are required to maintain free, validated valet parking for medical office patrons, and related signage.

A certified copy of the entirety of the text of Ordinance, is available in the office of the City Clerk, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 and is available for public inspection at that location.

Beverly Hills, past and present

And save the harpist
By Rudy Cole

If you were one of the many fortunate people who knew Maxwell Hillary (Sonny) Salter, there is one description that always seemed to fit: he was really bigger than life.

Max lived life so fully, with such gusto, optimism and generosity, and made such an enormous impact on his community and family, that it is really difficult to accept the reality that he is gone.

But there are a few stories I did not include following his death late last year that I thought might be of some interest.

At the Temple Beth Am services, to a really overflow group of friends and relatives, and beautifully officiated by life-time friends Monty Hall and Rabbi Jacob Pressman, Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky cited Salter's desire to bring a more collegial climate to city government when he was first elected to the city council.

Yes, that was indeed Salter's hope in an election campaign that had become very contentious, and which reflected sharp differences in the community and on the council. In other words, another day in the life of Beverly Hills, but nothing that would long be remembered or make any permanent impact.

However, on the day of his induction, his first council meeting, Mayor Charlotte Spadaro was trying to rush through approval of funding for the Cannes Sister City program. Unfortunately for Charlotte, earlier that day France refused to give permission for American bomber planes to fly over its territory on a bombing raid aimed at Libya.

Salter did not take kindly to the Spadaro proposal. The French were not supporting America? No Sister City program on his watch and not on his first day in office either.

Sitting in front of me in the council chamber was long time realtor and civic leader Karl Schurz Jr., who turned to me with the somewhat sardonic comment: "I'm glad to know we will all get along better now."

Although no action on the Sister City funding was taken that night, later Salter did give his approval and, typical of Max, when the Mayor of Cannes visited Beverly Hills, it was Janet and Max who threw the welcoming party.

Salter's most complicated relationship during his eight years on the council, twice as mayor, was with Councilmember, and also twice mayor, Robert K. Tanenbaum. Politically far apart, yet somehow friends, well mostly.

Even their successful election campaigns were a lesson in political inconsistency. Although far apart on two major development issues, including the Four Seasons bid (Tanenbaum opposed, Max supported) they both won easily in 1986, defeating incumbent Mayor Annabelle Heiferman, who was managed by Judie Fenton and her group.

Later, they split even more over Tanenbaum's differences with the Beverly Hills Police Department. Here was Tanenbaum, a former New York prosecutor, strong pro-law enforcement figure, in a public dispute with our cops, and Salter, a life time member of the American Civil Liberties Union, defending our finest. Only in Beverly Hills.

Despite these and other public disputes, they talked frequently and had a kind of mutual respect. In their second campaign, they even had a tacit understanding to avoid airing of too many differences. Their only opponent was anti-smoking, anti-liquor zealot, Dr. Trisha Roth. Both won comfortably.

In an earlier column, I wrote that as his manager, I was concerned about his generosity in matching campaign donations and donating the money to our schools – leading to the naming of the new structure, The Salter Family Theatre, and not using the money for his own campaign. Tanenbaum waged a more vigorous, more heavily funded effort and so ran slightly ahead of Max. Of course, Salter's generous act was right – there was no danger in his or Bob's losing and how they won would only be remembered by political junkies like me.

MORE SALTER/TANENBAUM NOTES:

Sunday, Janet Salter will carry on the family tradition of promoting the best in city leadership by hosting the campaign kick-off of council candidate Lili Bosse and if it is a Janet party, expect careful attention to detail and guest comfort.

Last Saturday, the Tanenbaum's had their annual New Year's day informal party which is also Patti's birthday. Guests included Elizabeth Chait, Porta Via's Ted Baker, the Helen and Phil Kantor family, Dr. Ed Cantor, Harriet Hochman, Annie Banks, Terri Wolf, Mike Meurer and family, the Courier's Marcia Hobbs, Ron Demeter, Marty Trugman and many others. Tanenbaum's latest book is titled "Betrayed." Tempting, but no comment.

ONE MORE SALTER LINK

One of Max's favorite charities was the Jewish Vocational Service (JVS), that great eighty year old agency that has a commendable history of social service assistance in work place needs.

Now under the direction of its charismatic and highly professional CEO Vivian Seigel, JVS will celebrate its birthday with a gala tribute dinner "The Legacy Continues" at the Beverly Wilshire on January 29.

Honored will be inventor and businessman Stanley A. Dashew and former JVS presidents. Honorary chair is popular philanthropist Brindell Gottlieb with event co-chairs and JVS board members Elizabeth Gans, Nan Kalish Goodman and Pearle Ray Levey.

There will be others recognized for support of various projects, including Stanley A. Dashew, a long-time advocate for the disabled. Among the many past presidents to be recognized will be A. Charles Wilson who brought me on the JVS board – they will honor him anyway.

SAVE THE HARPIST

Frequent patrons of one of our most popular afternoon venues, the tea room at the Montage, are pleading with hotel execs not to change the format from harp music to piano – and they are right.

What makes the room so special and comfortable is the unobtrusive chords of the incumbent harpist, string along with me and I'll remember her name next week.

Her harpist chords simply fit the room – the music is almost always familiar, she remembers favorites and has a strong following.

ATTENTION ALL RECIPIENTS OF DE PUY DEFECTIVE HIP IMPLANTS

Don't rely on the company who gave you a potentially defective hip implant to advise you on your legal rights!

DePuy Orthopaedics, a division of Johnson & Johnson, has issued a worldwide recall of its ASR™ Acetabular System for Total Hip Replacement, after determining that these hip implants may fail at an alarming rate. The "metal-on-metal" composition of these implants can release particles into the patient, potentially causing serious and painful reactions — sometimes requiring complete revision surgery.

Reportedly, Johnson & Johnson has been seeking medical releases from recipients so that their claims adjustors can speak with you directly and possibly take down statements without your having counsel present – an unwise action for any recipient to do.

Having a defective hip implant in your body clearly demands having your own lawyer. You must be very cautious with dealing with the manufacturer or its representative without proper legal representation.

If you have a DePuy ASR™ product, please call us immediately, as there are time limits for filing a claim. You might already have problems with the implant about which you are unaware, so please contact us — and certainly do not forfeit your legal rights without talking to us.

 it be when the barricades are up and the demolition has begun for the final days of our historic Friar's club building at 9900 Santa Monica Boulevard, and what is there about that number that spells trouble? (Think 9900 Wilshire and the not so sweet Candy and Candy condo project )

Next week, some word on what may be planned by the new owners, but the demolition of the building which used to house the world famous Friar's is really the end of an era.

It has been many years since the building was actually used as an entertainment industry started club – in more recent times it was a privately owned venue for events with no connection to the surviving Friar's in New York, but what memories it held.

The scene of great roasts and legends: George Jessel, George Burns, Jules Covey and John (Jake the Barber) Factor had regular tables. More recent Friar leader was Larry King.

Although the end came years later, the start of the demise of the club began in the late 1960s following a raid on a gambling scam.

Big, really big, dollars were involved in a continuing gin rummy game. Phil Silvers and shoe store magnet Harry Karl were two of the "marks," losing thousands of dollars to some pros.

Unknown to Silvers, Karl and others was that card opponents were attached to a crude wire, connected to a confederate one floor up. With holes in the floor, the peeping partner could send signals that would give direction on when to knock. When the feds discovered the rip off and raided the club, arresting many members for complicity in the scheme, the Friar's nearly collapsed even though it was never shown that club officials were involved.

The first Friar's Club was on North Rodeo Drive and it too had a gambling history. Chico Marx and cronies had a big bucks poker game in the basement.

As for gin rummy losses by Karl, ask his then wife, Debbie Reynolds who made the ordeal part of her one-person performance recently at the Roxbury Park auditorium.

Check "briefs" for time and place (see below), but aside from Lili Bosse, candidates Dr. Julian Gold and Nancy Krasne are also kicking off their campaigns for city council. Attending is not only a good civic responsibility, but these election regulars, unique to Beverly Hills, are informative and enjoyable methods of being involved and understanding issues and qualifications.

Despite advice from City Attorney Larry Wiener that the Two Hour Free initiative would probably not survive a court test, the city council decided to put a rival matter, three hour free, on the March election ballot.

Amazing how many lawyers it takes to come up with differing opinions. The proponents too had competent legal advisors who apparently assured G & L that the courts would probably not reject the petition drive initiative. (Tuesday it did.)

In fact, the G in G & L, Dan Gottlieb, has an impressive legal resume. Gottlieb, before he became a highly successful medical office building developer, was chief of the Beverly Hills court branch for the Los Angeles District Attorney – our top prosecutor.

Just think, instead of Lindsay Lohan, he gets to fight city hall.

CHECKING IN FROM THE CAPITAL

The Weekly's exclusive interview with State Senator Fran Pavley

By Marla Schevker

Why did you help to incorporate Agoura Hills?

I was involved in the incorporation efforts back in the early 80's. Most of us who lived out here then wanted to exercise more local control instead of relying on the Board of Supervisors to determine land use decisions and prioritizing how to expend our tax dollars. We felt like they were being perhaps spent downtown. So I ended up being the first mayor of Agoura Hills, 33 years old at the time it was back in 1982, quite a shock to myself and my family. When you start a new city, you don't have a city manager, you don't have a budget, you don't have a city hall, you don't even have a city telephone. My kitchen literally became the starting point of the city that's now 28 years old with a fabulous city hall and library. So times have changed and incorporation has definitely accomplished its original goal.

Why did you decide to go into local government?

I was involved in quite a few local issues, homeowners association decisions, so [I was] traveling downtown a lot for hearings and things. I was involved in the park and recreation advisory committee and my husband taught locally. We've been engaged in local issues for several years. It turned out to be a perfect fit. The surprise was I was the youngest person running by far but I got the most votes on election night and became the first mayor. Juggling a young family and teaching middle school and starting a new city was quite a challenge and my husband was a wonderful supporter of all of those efforts, thank goodness.

How is Agoura Hills like Beverly Hills?

There's more similarities than one might think. First of all, we share the same law firm, Richards Watson & Gershon. People in Beverly Hills and Agoura Hills want and insist on a high quality of life. They are concerned about many of the same issues such as good schools. We have the Las Virgenes Unified School District out here so we're also independent of LAUSD. Traffic is always an issue. We share as a backdrop the Santa Monica mountains, so we highly value open space and scenic vistas. Even though we may be far apart as far as geography, when it comes down to issues that homeowners care about and businesses care about, we share a lot in common. Traffic and compatible development. Making sure you have a vibrant and adequate sales tax base to provide for city services. I've been to your wonderful library in town, obviously bigger than ours but both are highly valued and treasured by the residents who live in our cities.

To get involved in the Neighborhood Watch program, Chase said all residents need to do is attend these block party meetings, meeting their neighbors and creating a roster of the block.

"So if there is an event, some kind of natural disaster that the neighborhood can be self sustaining until the police and fire departments can come down and assist them," Chase said. "The roster includes who has medical needs, who can't go without electricity, who might need special assistance during the first few hours of an emergency."

Chase said Neighborhood Watch is important because residents need to learn when to call the police and when something is suspicious.

"It's important because the police don't see everything and we need people to be our watch dogs for us and call us when we do see something," Chase said. "In the past, we've had people have a funny feeling that maybe there is something wrong and they don't call. After the fact they realize a crime did occur and they should have called."

Neighborhood Watch is a priority for the Health and Safety Commission this year.

"Neighborhood Watch is one of our work plan items of the year," Health and Safety Commission Chair Peter Landau said. "We've observed it for the last several years and noted that the attendance wasn't as broad as we were hoping to see. And so we're spending some time on it this year in the hopes that it will end up being the mainstay involving our citizens in emergency preparedness."

BHHS Girls' Basketball Team Trying to Adapt Without Leading Scorer

With leading scorer Morgan Mason sidelined by an injury to her right knee, the Beverly High girls' basketball team lost three its final four games in the West Coast Holiday Festival last week.

"I thought we improved as we went," coach John Braddell said.

The Normans lost to Carlsbad La Costa Canyon, 74-37, in a first-round game of the winners bracket Dec. 28, in their first game without Mason, defeated St. Monica, 43-35, in a first-round game of the ninth-place bracket Dec. 29, and lost to Studio City Harvard-Westlake, 63-34, in a ninth-place semifinal Dec. 30.

Beverly Hills lost to Oxnard Pacifica, 49-38, in the 11th-place game Dec. 31, despite playing "much better in the second half" and "had a chance to win," Braddell said.

The Normans were outscored by Pacifica 16-4 in the first quarter and 14-9 in the second to trail 30-13 at halftime.

Beverly Hills outscored the Tritons, 13-3 in the third quarter, with Natalie Moy making a 3-point basket and both her free throws and Chelsea Austin and Dorsa Mehrannia both scoring four points to cut the deficit to 33-26 entering the fourth quarter.

The Normans were outscored 16-12 in the fourth quarter, despite Austin scoring six points and Moy four, including making another 3-point basket.

Moy led Beverly Hills (7-8) with 14 points. Austin added 10, Serena Shlomof six and Tiffany Haney and Mehrannia four points each.

Austin scored 17 points against La Costa Canyon, Mehrannia seven, Shlomof six, Moy five and Debbie Reyhan two. Austin, Mehrannia and Shlomof all made 3-point baskets.

The Normans trailed 18-10 at the end of the first quarter, 36-21 at halftime and 55-27 entering the fourth quarter.

Austin scored nine of her 17 points against St. Monica in the first quarter as Beverly Hills outscored the Mariners, 14-4, with Austin and Moy both making 3-point baskets.

The Normans led 23-13 at halftime as both teams scored nine points in the second quarter.

What made you want to run for the Assembly?

I serve four terms on the Agoura Hills city council and frankly timing is everything in politics. I'd been involved and was also a member of the California Coastal Commission and the Santa Monica Mountains conservancy, so I've been involved in regional and state wide land use issues. But frankly it was the timing. [Former State Assemblymember] Tom Hayden (1982-1992), who had been looking at running for the seat decided not to and there was all of a sudden an opening without an incumbent and my friends suggested I should go ahead and run. It would take a lot of effort. Agoura Hills is a small city, 20,000 people in the midst of a district that is 425,000 people. I'd lived my entire life in this assembly district and now my state senate district. I ended up winning. I believe it's because I've always championed those quality of life issues that people care about.

My husband and I were both middle school teachers for many years, myself for 28 years and he retired after 31 years. I served on the education committee for years in the state assembly and that's so important to this district and so important to the economy as a state to have an educated work force.

Tell us about your green house gas emissions and global warming bills.

The one that I'm certainly most proud of is a bill that I authored that was signed into law several years ago when I was in the Assembly to reduce the amount of global warming pollutants that come from the tail pipes of automobiles. California's clean car law will now become the national standard. Motorists everywhere should benefit wider choices of types of cars they might want to purchase but all cars will be required to operate more efficiently. That means operate at a higher miles per gallon standard and that should save motorists money at the pump, reduce dependence on foreign oil and help clean up our air.

First of all, I've spent my whole life growing up in the Los Angeles area. We're well aware of air pollution and smog, but we're also aware if you live in Los Angeles about the literally millions of automobiles on our roads on any given day. In California we have 25 million automobiles that are being driven on our roads. It's our primary source of air pollution and global warming pollution

The exciting thing about all of this, for me, is I hadn't really appreciated the role California plays in the country and in the world, frankly, in creating policies that have state wide or national or international implications. We are 38 million people and we have so much market power that if a rule passes in California, it almost becomes automatically a national standard. For California, a member of the state senate has about 300,000 more people in their district than a member of the us congress. So [Congressman] Henry Waxman represents about 650,000 people and I have about 300,000 more. That's because of the size of California. That's what else Beverly Hills has in common, [Supervisor] Zev Yaroslavsky and [Congressman] Henry Waxman, they represent both of our communities.

How is the state senate different from the assembly?

One primary difference is there are only 40 state senators and 80 assembly members. So a smaller number offers greater ability to communicate and get to know each other which is critically important especially in the era of term limits. Imagine your city council with five people in Beverly Hills, just like Agoura Hills, took 40 people discussing any issue to get things passed it becomes a lot more complicated. But the senate having half the number of the assembly is a perhaps better complex working environment.

What do you hope to accomplish before you reach your term limit in the senate?

I've been one to try to stay focused on several issues, maintain those as priorities, someone convinced me and in fact it was former State Senator Sheila Kuehl (2000-2008) who said California's a big state and I should focus on two or three issues that I know the best and bring the most expertise into, stick with them and make a difference. That's what I did. My passions involve the environmental, education and energy issues and I'm continuing to make those my highest priority in the state senate but for the last several years and especially this year, the fiscal health of the state, the budget, will dominate all other issues.

Tell us about your experience at the 9.02.10, Taste of Beverly Hills event.

It was an amazing evening, I sat at a table with [Councilmember] Nancy Krasne and her husband and other elected officials. I had a nice conversation with [Former Board of Education member] Lillian Raffel. I spent a little time with Mayor [Jimmy] Delshad. The wide variety of food and beverages from Beverly Hills restaurants really made it an enjoyable event. Good entertainment and a wonderful turnout. And so clever to tie in the zip code with the date. Your youngest councilmember, John Mirisch, was also there and I spoke to him quite a bit.

I do see off and on in a variety of settings Councilmember Willie Brien. Either from his role as a doctor at Cedars-Sinai, which is in the district, and he is also very active in Democratic Club politics and the West Hollywood/Beverly Hills Democratic club is something I engage with.

Tell us about your experience at the 9/11 Day of Remembrance & Memorial Groundbreaking Ceremony.

That was just a special occasion. It was on 9/11 and wonderful youth choral group, Fire Chief Tim Scranton and members of the Beverly Hills fire department, of course with their trucks on display. Mayor Delshad of course was the emcee of the experience and several Councilmembers were there as well. I was asked to be one of the keynote speakers, talking about, we were all paying tribute to first responders who died in the aftermath of 9/11 terrorist attacks but also to celebrate the memorial and sculpture that is being built adjacent to the fire station in Beverly Hills. I spoke to several people that day including [Former Mayors] Allan Alexander and Les Bronte, it was sort of a who's who of some of the old guards. I believe Stephen Webb was there as well.

What are some of your favorite memories of working or playing in Beverly Hills?

The 9.02.10 was wonderful. I actually initiated a spend a day [Beverly Hills Day 2010 on June 25] where I met with some of the city staff and councilmember's and went on a tour of Beverly Hills, looked at the construction of the new cultural center near city hall. The City Manager [Jeff Kolin] wasn't there but the Assistant City Manager Mahdi Aluzri was and we talked about some of the issues that relate between local governments and the state in a variety of policy areas including budget and finance issues, water availability and supply. I've known Jeff for years, he and I serve on the Santa Monica Mountains advisory committee together, I think he was representing the City of Santa Clarita and I was representing the City of Agoura Hills. It was nice to renew a longtime friendship.

Tell us about working with Jeff.

We were both members of the Santa Monica advisory and that would have been easily 20 years ago. We were both on the advisory committee together. He's a people person, he represented his community very well and also recognized and appreciated the importance in the mission of the Santa Monica conservancy for resource protection, to provide recreational amenities such as trails to those of us who are lucky enough to live close enough to the Santa Monica mountains.

Who else have you worked with?

Georgia Mercer, she's on the LA community college board and a Beverly Hills resident. I have known her for many years, over 20 years as well and worked with her on community college district issues. Usually we end up talking about funding but right now I may be carrying a bill for the LA community colleges that relates to more energy efficient designs and new construction of classrooms in the LA Community College district.

[Former Mayor] Linda Briskman. I see her often because she is one of the members of the California State Parks Board. I chaired the water and natural resources committee. Chairing the natural resources committee puts the policy oversight of state parks in my committee. She and I are both very concerned about the budget implications and the possibility of having to close our state parks because we can't afford to keep them open. She's a longtime Beverly Hills resident. I have always worked well with her, she was involved in the council of governments that Beverly Hills is involved with and used to be very substantive on transportation issues and wouldn't hesitate to pick up the phone or meet with me to talk about transportation issues affecting Beverly Hills.

Tell us about your family.

I was born and raised in Sherman Oaks and I now live in Agoura Hills. My husband is a retired middle school teacher in the Las Virgenes Unified School District. His name is Andy and we've been married for 37 years. We have two adult children in their early 30's, David and Jenny. They came through the school district there. We have a golden retriever, Camay, who I enjoy walking when it's not raining. We over the years have raised four guide dogs and as you can imagine just as my background on local politics, we've been very engaged in our community not just in Agoura Hills but in the Santa Monica mountains.

For both Andy and I, our whole life has been in public service. We both taught middle school. What was nice about that, if you know anything about teaching 12 or 13 years olds, is we could come home from work and not have to talk about how the day was. We just instinctively knew. We could just go on a walk and relax. So education has always been and continues to be one of my highest priorities, not only in the K-12 but UCLA is a part of my state senate director as well as three community colleges so in Sacramento I pay close attention to the budget impacts in schools as well as our colleges and universities. I'm very concerned about them. He taught for 31, I joke with people a lot, if you want to be prepared for the state legislature, teach at a middle school first.

Where do you want to be in 10 years?

Hopefully traveling and on a wonderful beach. My political goals in life are: I served on the city council, I had the honor of serving on the assembly for six years, I've been elected to my second and final term in the state senate. That will probably be the end of my political career, which will have expanded over several decades but I look forward to being engaged with nonprofits or in policy areas either in the state or locally that aren't in an elected capacity.

the third quarter when it was outscored 12-9 as its lead was cut to seven, 32-25, entering the fourth quarter. Moy and Shlomof both made 3-point baskets in the third quarter.

The Normans ended St. Monica's comeback hopes by outscoring the Mariners, 11-10, in the fourth quarter with Moy scoring five points and Austin four.

Moy scored 12 points, Shlomof six, and Haney and Mehrannia four each.

Harvard-Westlake outscored Beverly Hills, 21-14 in the first quarter, 16-9 in the second, 13-4 in the third and 13-7 in the fourth.

Austin scored 15 points, Haney and Shlomof six each, Moy four, and Mehrannia three. Austin had 14 rebounds.

The Normans played all their tournament games at the Swim-Gym.

Mason, a 5-foot-10-inch senior guard, suffered the injury in the fourth quarter of a 65-45 victory over Brentwood in a first-round game Dec. 27.

The injury was to the same knee she underwent surgery on in August 2009 to repair a torn anterior cruciate ligament. Mason missed all but two games last season.

Mason was scheduled to undergo a MRI examination Wednesday, according to Braddell.

Mason is averaging 20.6 points per game.

Her absence has hurt Beverly Hills not only on offense, where it is "having a tough time scoring," but also on defense, where it is trapping less "and it's not as successful as it has been," Braddell said.

Mason leads the team with 5.1 steals per game.

Mason's injury has led to additional playing time for some players, who are gaining experience "which will help us down the line," Braddell said.

The Normans are scheduled to face Los Angeles Marymount Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Public vs. Private Extravaganza at St. Bernard High School in Playa Del Rey and play host to Hawthorne Tuesday at 6 p.m. in the Swim-Gym in the Ocean League opener for both teams.

Adult Active Club installs new president

Winifred Hervey was installed as the incoming President of the Adult Active Club on Monday. The club, which meets at Roxbury Park, is a part of the City of Beverly Hills that helps seniors get involved in their community by taking classes, seeing entertainment and getting lunches when they cannot cook for themselves.

"What I plan to do is bring to our board a sense of dignity and pride and not be looked off," Hervey said. "There's an image people have of senior citizens and sometimes it's like the seniors are treated as children. We have some very interesting seniors on our board and I want to bring more prestige and dignity not only as seniors but as active people."

City Council hereby adds a new paragraph c. to subsection A. 6. of Section 10-3-409 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code, with all other provisions of Section 10-3-409 remaining in effect without amendment, regarding maximum height of second units to read as follows:

" c. Central R-1 Permits: Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, for those lots located south of Olympic Boulevard and west of Roxbury Drive, the Planning Commission may, through the issuance of a Central R-1 Permit pursuant to article 24.5 of this chapter, modify the height limitations set forth in subsection A. 6. of this section, to allow a detached second unit to be located above the ground floor, provided the rear lot line of the subject lot abuts an alley and provided further that the elevation of the subject lot slopes downhill from the front (street) lot line of the property to the rear (alley) lot line with a minimum difference in elevation of at least twenty feet (20') between the street and the alley. In addition to the findings required by section 10-3-2453 of this chapter, the Planning Commission may issue a Central R-1 permit to allow a second unit to exceed fourteen feet (14') in height if the Planning Commission finds that the proposed second unit will not have a substantial adverse impact on adjacent properties or the public welfare. In making this determination, the Planning Commission may look at such factors as the impact of the second unit on the scale and massing as viewed from adjacent properties, the impact of the second unit on available light in neighboring yards, and the cumulative impact to adjacent properties with the proposed second unit in combination with existing accessory structures and second units in the vicinity. Under no circumstances shall the height of structure second unit be permitted to exceed the following:

1. Twelve feet (12') as measured from the lowest finished elevation along the perimeter of the primary structure; and
2. Twenty five feet (25') for structures with a flat roof and thirty feet (30') for structures with a sloped roof, with a maximum plate height of twenty two feet (22') as measured from the lowest existing grade."

Section 4. If any section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion of this Ordinance or the application thereof to any person or place, is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by the final decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Ordinance shall be remain in full force and effect.

Section 5. The City Council hereby approves this Ordinance and authorizes the Mayor to execute the Ordinance on behalf of the City.

Section 6. Publication. The City Clerk shall cause this Ordinance to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the City within fifteen (15) days after its passage in accordance with Section 36933 of the Government Code, shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause this Ordinance and his certification, together with proof of publication, to be entered in the Book of Ordinances of the Council of this City.

Section 7. This Ordinance shall go into effect and be in full force and effect at 12:01 a.m. on the thirty-first (31st) day after its passage.

CAN YOU TURN YOUR $1 MILLION IRA INTO $10 MILLION?

If you are over 70 and have accumulated more money in your IRAs and Pensions than you need to live on, Alan Kaye can show you how to create more money for your heirs and favorite charities than you ever anticipated!

At age 70½, people who have IRAs, Pensions and 401k plans are required to take minimum annual distributions that are subject to ordinary income tax. If you don't spend or give that money away, it could be subject to estate taxes as well. After income and estate taxes, those in the highest brackets could be leaving their families less than 1/3 of what they anticipated.

Why bother to make "wise" investments when it is likely that more than half of your accumulated wealth will go to the government instead of your family?

Simple Solutions!

If you have a large amount of money in your IRA, you can gift your annual distribution to your family, using that money to buy a life insurance policy that would create tax-free money for your heirs. In many cases, using the money to buy life insurance could give your heirs more than they would receive after-tax, by continuing to accumulate the funds in their retirement plans.

Assuming that your retirement plan earns a return of 5% annually, you could withdraw that amount without diminishing the principal. One client with a $1million IRA used his annual distribution to buy $3 million of life insurance to benefit his family. If he doesn't spend the principal, his plan is to leave the balance of his IRA to his own charitable foundation.

Under current law, without life insurance, his $1 million IRA would have to grow to more than $10 million, so that after income and estate taxes, his family could get the same $3 million that life insurance would pay tax-free. What's more, he can now leave more money to charity than he ever expected to.

Why wait for your $1 million retirement plan to grow to $10 million? As president of the Alan Kaye Insurance Agency and vice president of Barry Kaye Associates, Alan Kaye has helped thousands of people meet their goals by creating insurance plans that best satisfy their needs.

If you are over 70 years old and not maximizing the use of your assets, find out how life insurance can provide you with the opportunity to leave more tax-free money for both your heirs and charities. Call for a complimentary consultation and be sure to ask when Alan Kaye's next seminar will be held in your area.
