“Condemning Brunei Government”

Our City Council showed an extraordinary lack of intestinal fortitude at last night’s meeting. Does Brunei have to stone a woman to death before the Council will act?

“Beverly Hills Hotel Boycott”

Unfortunately our Beverly Hills City Council decided not join the LGBT, Women’s Rights and Hollywood Communities in calling for a boycott of the Beverly Hills Hotel Tuesday night. Condemning the owner of the hotel for human rights violations and crimes against women and gays but continuing to patronize the hotel is talking the talk but not walking the walk. The Council fell short in their resolution by not calling for a boycott but instead stating that patronizing the hotel is a “personal choice.” I, for one, will not patronize the Beverly Hills Hotel until either these laws are repealed or the hotel changes ownership and unlike our City Council, I encourage all my friends, family and the Beverly Hills Community to join me and do the same.

“Upcoming Retirements”

You have featured [those] who have had distinguished careers in Beverly Hills. Beverly High retiring Assistant Principal Toni Staser, who is the longest serving administrator in the BHUSD, is more than deserving of special recognition.

Starting as an outstanding music teacher at El Rodeo in 1977, [then] later teaching U.S. History and taking students to Washington D.C. during “spring break,” she was admired and respected by students, parents, teachers, and administration.

Toni became assistant principal for many years at El Rodeo, later becoming assistant principal at Beverly High where she has remained, except for two years when she was principal at Hawthorne. In all these positions she maintained an extraordinary relationship with all segments of the school community.

During all these years along with her husband Nick Strimple, who recently retired as music director at the Beverly Hills Presbyterian Church and Southern California Choral Society but still teaches at USC, they raised two children, both graduates of Beverly High.

While at El Rodeo, Toni also accompanied students to Idyllwild and 8th grade students to Yosemite for “outdoor education.” She has remained a familiar figure at Beverly High events, games, and field trips.

Ms. Staser has given so much to Beverly Hills. I feel she deserves special recognition.

Centennial spending exceeds $800k

The City of Beverly Hills has spent over $800,000 on Centennial events and initiatives as of Feb. 18.

Full payments were made on events that have already passed as of Feb. 18, such as the Rose Parade Float. Partial payments were made for events and initiatives that have not passed as of Feb. 18, such as the Centennial Tree and Rose Bush. Payments have been made for the Centennial Tree event, but not for the Rose Bush, since the event has not passed yet.

The Sing-Along had $4,606 in unspent funds. The "100 for 100" campaign reflects a volunteer committee that reached out to the community to get 100 sponsors at $100 each to raise funding for the Concert and Sing-Along program book which was not initially included in the event budget. The campaign was able to raise $2,966 in revenue for the concert.

Total approved budget as of Feb. 18 is $1,022,889, and does not include amounts for the Centennial Postage Stamp, Beverly Hills coffee-table books, "The Next 100 Years," and "Past, Present, and Future."

Savenick maintain rights to Beverly Hills: 100 Years, 100 Stories

The City Council agreed on Tuesday's study session to allow Beverly Hills filmmaker Phil Savenick maintain rights to Beverly Hills: 100 Years, 100 Stories, and directed that a new license agreement be drawn up.

The City Council approved $75,000 in funding in Oct. 2013 for Savenick's production company.

Savenick was able to use the City's studio to produce the film and has interviewed over 200 families to produce approximately 50 videos.

According to Savenick, he would like to show the longest version of the documentary free of charge to the community and to the families who've shared their stories, provide the material to be used for "educational purposes in schools and at public events," distribute the films to national and international markets, and to have an ongoing relationship with the City to fund to the collection, production and distribution of the films.

Initially Savenick and city staff were at a standoff.

"The differences with the City were over liability, exclusivity of ownership, and reuse rights," Savenick said. "They acted like they had all rights and control, [when] actually they had none. [It's] nothing fatal, and we will try to work it out in the future with some licensing agreement."

The City presented a work-for-hire agreement that would give copyright ownership to the City, which allows the City to determine who can use the videos, and the City can pursue legal consequences for copyright infringement.

In the license agreement Savenick proposed, the City can distribute and use the video, but would need permission from Savenick for any uses not specified in the agreement. Through this agreement, Savenick would have the rights to the films, and the City would not be liable for any reuses.

Savenick was ready to reveal the first series of films at the Centennial Block Party. According to City Attorney Larry Wiener, the City would be liable for any copyright violations if they did not own the films. Savenick would have needed to provide full clearances for the footage in order for the City to not be liable.

"My preference at this point is to figure out a way to unwind this deal," Councilmember Willie Brien said. "Whether there's a licensing agreement where [the City] can have access and put it on the website [or] if it means you allow us to put it on a website. You own it, you control it, [and] we unwind the deal."

"Red curb" service available

Residents can request to have the curbs on the sides of their driveway painted red to prevent vehicles from blocking their driveway.

"We do it usually if somebody is parking adjacent to their driveway regularly," Transportation Deputy Director Aaron Kunz said.

Residents can contact the Transportation Department to receive a request form. A traffic engineer will evaluate the site and determine the appropriate length of red paint, which at minimum would be three feet. There is a charge of $110. Requests will be processed within four to six weeks.

Alexander traveled to Europe and throughout California, and took extension courses at UCLA in the late 1990s to perfect his craft. He initially made wine with his father, Barry Alexander, for their own enjoyment and started off with cab-ernets. He produced his first wine in 2005 and sources from exclusive vineyards throughout California.

Alexander and his father received such positive feedback that they decided to make their wine commercially available. Having his own wine label was an incentive to open a wine bar and focus on retail business, and he "jumped on" purchasing 90210 Wine and Spirits in late 2013 when it became available.

Currently, the storefront is 90210 Wine and Spirits but will be renamed to Compliment of Beverly Hills to reflect Alexander's wine label. The store is located at 350 North Canon Drive. Compliment will have a tasting bar and sell high-end wine and spirits by the bottle and boutique wine by the glass.

"We're looking forward to having the community stop in and enjoy and learn about wine and spirits," Alexander said.

City Council waives parking fees for Horace Mann construction project sidewalk closure

The City Council unanimously approved on Tuesday to waive parking fees along the east side of Robertson Boulevard during the first phase of Horace Mann's construction project to break ground this summer.

The first phase of Horace Mann's construction includes excavation for an underground parking structure, and constructing two new classroom buildings and a community center.

A full sidewalk closure is needed to have a slope coming from the bottom of the excavation site towards the sidewalk.

Shoring, which involves using a supporting structure to prevent a collapse of the walls, is an alternative option from using a slope but is more expensive, according to BHUSD Project Consultant Tim Buresh.

The proposed sidewalk to be closed is adjacent to the construction site on the east side of Robertson Boulevard between Charleville Boulevard and the northern boundary line of the school site. Eleven parking meters along the street will not be in use.

Estimated fiscal loss due to closure of the parking meters is estimated using 2013 revenues at $34,257, according to Civil Engineer Samer Elayyan. At a rate of $2 per hour for the 11 meters, revenue is projected at $108,680 during the proposed construction time. BHUSD was requested to pay from their general fund at a rate of $323 a month for the 19 months of construction, amounting to $6,137 to compensate for the lost parking revenue.

"I certainly don't feel that taking money away from the school district subsidizing the parking meters is an appropriate thing to because why would we give you money just to take it away?" Councilmember Nancy Krasne said.

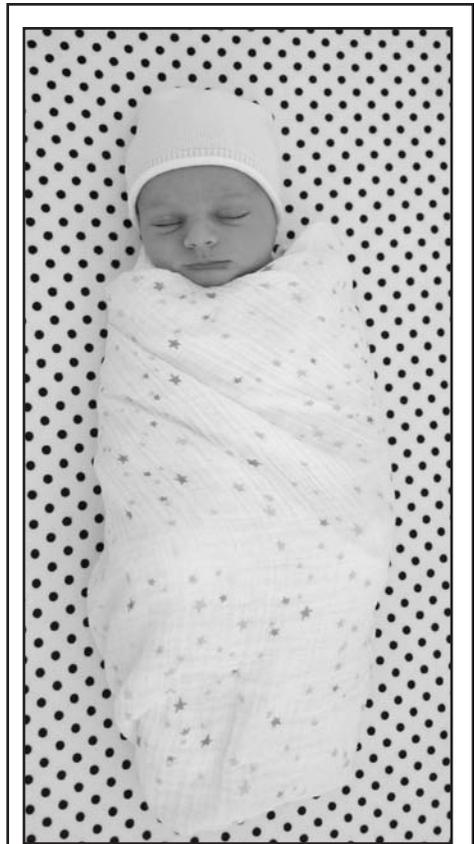

Excavation is scheduled to begin in June and end in August, with construction of the subterranean parking lot to be completed in Jan. 2015. Construction for the three new structures is scheduled to begin in June and to be completed in Jan. 2016.

Construction will take place between Monday and Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., with construction vehicles passing through Arnaz Drive from and to Wilshire. Proper signage will detour pedestrians while the sidewalk is closed.

Once excavation and construction of the subterranean parking lot is complete, the sidewalks will be replaced and will resume use.

Vice Mayor Julian Gold and Councilmember Willie Brien suggested for BHUSD to notify businesses and residents in the construction area and to provide an update to the City Council on the construction timeline.

“It’s going to be important that the community that surrounds the school is aware of what’s going on,” Gold said. “That whole area really needs to know that this is going to start and start pretty quickly.”

Meet Beverly High PTSA Co-Presidents Azy Farahmand and Jodi Galen

Azy Farahmand

Azy Farahmand immediately became involved in El Rodeo’s PTA when her son, Julien, entered kindergarten in 2005.

“I really wanted to give back to the school,” Farahmand said. “El Rodeo teachers, administration, and academics were giving our family such a positive amazing experience. That is when I started to get involved and help out on the PTA.”

A few years after Farahmand joined the PTA, she became president. She took a few years off PTA to support her children in their academics.

Farahmand has three children; Julien, entering as a Beverly High freshman in the fall; Jonah, entering as a sixth grader at El Rodeo; and Madison, entering as a second grader at El Rodeo.

“[As PTSA co-president, my] priority would be the kids; doing all that we can for them, [and providing] all that they need,” Farahmand said. “[Also] working closely with the parents, teachers, [and] administration. It’s an amazing chemistry there, [Jodi Galen and I are] just building up on that.”

Jodi Galen

Galen first started at El Rodeo’s PTA in 1999 when her twins, Joshua and Samantha, first enrolled in kindergarten. When her twins moved on to Beverly High, Galen became involved in the PTSA executive board as Vice President for three years, chaired various committees, and served on the “Every 15 Minutes” executive board.

“I’m really looking forward to being back at the high school, as it’s been two years since my older children graduated,” Galen said. “I’m excited to once again work with the incredible teachers and administration at Beverly High.”

Her twins graduated from Beverly High in 2012. Galen’s son Joshua is a sophomore at USC and her daughter Samantha is a sophomore at the University of Texas, Austin.

Her husband, Douglas Galen graduated from Beverly High in 1982.

Galen’s youngest daughter, Rachel will be entering Beverly High as a freshman this coming fall. Galen served as El Rodeo’s PTA co-president for the past two years.

“PTSA at the high school is such a great way to get involved in our kids’ education and make a difference,” Galen said. “[Beverly High] is such a great place and we’re really lucky to have this gem in our city.”

Palm Drive curved condo project requests sixth floor

A curved condominium project proposed for North Palm Drive will be requesting a sixth floor, an additional floor above city development standards, according to a project preview presented to the Planning Commission on April 24.

Chair Brian Rosenstein and Vice Chair Howard Fischer both own property near the project and recused themselves from the discussion.

The condos will be located on the corner of Beverly Boulevard and North Palm Drive. Currently, a four-story multi-family building is located on the site's northern side, and two, two-story multi-family buildings occupy the site's southern side.

Architect James Mary O'Connor designed a multi-family unit that he said, breaks down the idea of a "five-story box."

"When a building is curved like that, you can never tell how big it is because it's always moving," O'Connor said. "It's something people are going to look at and think, 'I remember that corner, it's in Beverly Hills.'"

The project qualifies for a density bonus permit by providing two very low-income housing units. The permit would allow the condominiums to have up to 34 units, eight units more than a complex that doesn't provide low-income housing units. The project is requesting 28 units total with one parking space per unit.

Through a density bonus, the project is allowed one incentive, which is a deviation from the city's development standards. In this case, the applicant is requesting a sixth floor. In order to reduce the perception of bulk and mass in Beverly Hills, the maximum height allowed is five stories or 55 feet, according to city code.

The sixth floor is planned to have a bathroom, a gym, a clubroom, a jacuzzi, and a pool. A railing around the pool will extend 42 inches upward. A trellis, which can be panels or interwoven pieces of wood, bamboo or metal that act as a roof, will cover the rooms and screen the elevator shaft and stairway.

Without the single incentive request for a sixth floor, the project would have three separate requests for 1000 additional square feet for the gym and clubhouse, the railing height, and the trellis which may extend over the building's edge.

"We, generally as a city, have frowned on [six story structures] because it increases the perceived bulk and mass of the structures," Commissioner Craig Corman said. "[The amenities being] pushed back away from the perimeter of the building in almost every regard is a real plus."

A condominium project offering low income housing units that will be located next to L'Ermitage Hotel included a sixth story in its original design. The Planning Commission approved the project when it was redesigned to five stories.

The Palm Drive building's upper floor is projected to not be seen from the public right of way and will be tucked back away from the rooftop edges.

Corman suggested that the trellis design be changed in order for it to not be "so apparent from down below so that it doesn't read as a six-story building."

The project will come back to the Planning Commission with finalized renderings for a formal vote.

"It's something that's different that we'd like to see in Beverly Hills" Commissioner Joe Shooshani said.

BRUNEI CONTROVERSY CONTINUES

City Council condemns new laws but stops short of a boycott

By Nancy Yeang

Hassanal Bolkiah

The City Council unanimously approved a resolution on Tuesday night condemning harsh penalty laws set by Brunei Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, and urged the government to divest itself from ownership of the Beverly Hills Hotel and any other property it may own in Beverly Hills if the laws are not reversed.

But some felt the Council's resolution didn't go far enough.

Bolkiah passed Sharia laws on April 30 that will be implemented in phases, which will enforce severe penalties for crimes. Offenses such as adultery and consensual homosexual acts are punishable by death by stoning, while theft and other offenses are penalized by flogging and severing limbs.

"These laws are shocking, inhumane and must be met with a strong statement of support for human rights of the people of Brunei," Mayor Lili Bosse said.

The Dorchester Collection is owned by the Brunei Investment Agency. Through the Dorchester Collection, Brunei owns ten properties worldwide, including Beverly Hills Hotel and Hotel Bel Air.

Since the Sharia laws were passed, a string of human rights, LGBT, and non-profit organizations have boycotted Beverly Hills Hotel.

The Beverly Hills Bar Association is moving its California Supreme Court luncheon scheduled for June 3rd to another location. The Rotary Club, who meets every Monday at the hotel, will discuss the issue at today's board meeting.

"The resolution that is before us does not specifically call for a boycott of the hotel," Bosse said. "It is specifically dealing with the issues of the government and the law."

The City Council left the decision for boycotting the hotel as a "personal decision" rather than a citywide initiative.

Former mayors Robert K. Tanenbaum and Jimmy Delshad also advocated a boycott at the meeting.

"It's not a boycott of the greatness of the hotel," Tanenbaum said. "It's a boycott of the essence of the asset and what that means to further these kinds of inhumane policies."

According to Beverly Hills Hotel Director of Guest Relations Steven Boggs, profits for the Beverly Hills Hotel and Bel Air Hotel never make it into the hands of Brunei's Sultan. Boggs points out the Beverly Hills Hotel employees wearing their white uniforms taking up several rows in the audience.

"Every dollar goes back into the hotel," Boggs said. "It goes back to [the employees], it goes back into their families, [and] it goes back into the community."

Beverly Hills Hotel contributes approximately $11 million in transient occupancy taxes, according to Dorchester CEO Christopher Cowdray.

"The actions that you take have to be seriously considered because they will affect the livelihoods of these people," Cowdray said.

Cowdray said that he would protect the employees' jobs "no matter what."

"The irony is that in the name of preserving human dignity, we're having a conversation about potentially removing human dignity from people who have to go to work every day, support their families, and take care of their children," Vice Mayor Julian Gold said. "I must reiterate the horror of having to make this decision tonight."

"It's not a boycott of the greatness of the hotel, it's a boycott of the essence of the asset and what that means to further these kinds of inhumane policies."

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF HADASSAH SILVERMAN
Case No. BP151770

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of HADASSAH SILVERMAN

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Bennett Silverman in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Bennett Silverman be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on June 5, 2014 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 9 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Don't sell your life insurance policy until you know the rules!

Most people over the age of 70, who want to sell their old insurance policies for more than their cash surrender value, are not getting the most money from their assets.

AVOID RISKS OF INSURANCE FINANCING STRATEGIES

Others, who expect to create "something from nothing", participate in insurance financing plans without having full knowledge of the chances they are taking. You can avoid these risks by becoming informed of established procedures and you won't make costly mistakes.

Alan Kaye Insurance Agency is a leader in the field of insurance and estate planning with over 40 years of experience. We work with most of the major life insurance companies and have access to their resources to be able to provide the latest in planning strategies.

THREE ESSENTIAL RULES THAT CAN PREVENT YOU FROM MAKING COSTLY DECISIONS

- Provide full and accurate descriptions of all offers relating to the sale of your policy.
- Acquire at least five offers from unrelated insurance purchasing companies.
- Complete background checks on potential purchasers to make sure they are financially and commercially acceptable firms to do business with.

ARE YOU COMPLETING A LIFE INSURANCE SETTLEMENT OR JUST SETTLING?

What kind of insurance professional is helping you sell your old life insurance policy? Are you dealing with a life settlement specialist? Are you represented by a licensed professional with E&O Insurance that covers life settlements? Has your agent explained the risks involved in financing your life insurance?

Call us today to find out what your insurance is really worth and we will help you decide whether to sell, surrender, keep or replace your old insurance policy.
