“Fine Art, Recreation and Parks Commissions protect local art piece” [Issue #795]

The simplest, safest and most cost-effective way to protect this “piece of art” is to remove it and give it back to Mr. Kusama. Plastic or ceramic or whatever material these cartoon flowers are made of have no place amongst the living, beautiful plants and flowers and trees that Mother Nature has sculpted. The Commissions involved might consider hiring this artist and the other “artists” who have decimated the parkway with their hangers and aluminum foil and cartoon characters to remove their work, dress up as flowers and create performance art moments in their stead. PROBLEM SOLVED AND WE WILL BE SUPPORTING WORKING ARTISTS.

ROSES FOR DONORS PASADENA

The Maple Counseling Center's Vice President of Clinical Programs and Services Mason Sommers, Michele Gold and Vice Mayor Julian Gold visited the Donate Life float in Pasadena on December 29. 8,000 of the nearly 11,000 flowers estimated to appear on the float are personally dedicated roses contributed by someone touched by a donation or transplant. Sommers, profiled in issue #669, received a life-saving heart transplant four years ago. Gold received a bone marrow transplant in 2007 through Be The Match.

Guilford Glazer, philanthropist and real estate developer, passes at age 93

Guilford Glazer

Guilford Glazer, a real estate developer and dedicated philanthropist committed to supporting Israeli universities, died in his Beverly Hills home on December 23. He was 93.

“Guilford was my mentor,” said Councilmember Nancy Krasne, a friend of Glazer’s for more than four decades. “He made me a better person because he made me think of all the intended and unintended consequences of any action that I took.”

Born in 1921 in Knoxville, Tennessee, Glazer served in World War II before taking over his father’s welding business and eventually renaming it Glazer Steel Crop. He later moved to Los Angeles, where he developed shopping centers, including Torrance’s palatial Del Amo Fashion center in 1971.

A devoted philanthropist, Glazer established the Glazer Institute of Jewish studies in Nanjing, China and was the chief supporter of the business school at Ben-Gurion University.

Glazer is survived by his wife Diane, two children Emerson and Erika, and five grandchildren.

His memorial service was held at Wilshire Boulevard Temple on December 26.

Omrani project approved by Design Review Commission

Developer Hamid Omrani’s proposed design for a new two-story single-family residence located on 508 North Roxbury Drive received approval by the Design Review Commission during a meeting on December 4. The project was previously reviewed during meetings on September 4 and October 2. Omrani made substantial revisions to the initial model following the Commission’s request for a redesign.

Omrani redesigned the roof, reduced the railing height and decreased the height of the formerly 5-foot ground floor door and windows to 4 feet.

“I am very impressed with the work that you’ve done,” said Design Review Commissioner Susan Strauss. “I think that because it’s such a beautiful house, if you were to get rid of the fences in the front that would make it a lot better.”

Though Vice Chair Arline Pepp agreed the project would be an enhancement to the neighborhood, she also expressed disapproval of the front fence.

“I’m having a terrible time with the front fence,” Pepp said. “And I think when you look at the elevation drawing of this front fence it is very tight, very conspicuous and I feel it doesn’t look anything like what the rendering fence looks like with big spacing.”

Chair John Wyka commended Omrani for producing a design vastly superior to what was previously presented to the Commission, but also disapproved the fence. Homeowners Farshid and Nahal Moossazadeh, parents of three young children, feel a fence creates a safe barrier between the front yard and the street.

The Commission unanimously approved the project on conditions that every one-gallon plant be increased to at least five gallons and the height of the front fence be reduced to 36 inches. A planting bed will also have to be integrated into the fence.

Relieved to have reached the end of a lengthy process, Farshid Moossazadeh thanked the Commission for their involvement and recommendations.

Architectural Commission conditionally approves EH National Bank signage

Raffi Varozian of Ampersand Contract Signing Group requested the approval of a sign accommodation for multiple building identification signs for the EH National Bank located on 8484 Wilshire Boulevard during an Architectural Commission meeting on December 17. The Commission decided during an October 15th meeting that the project required further refinement.

The project would result in the addition of two 39 SF, internally illuminated signs. One sign would be mounted on the building façade located on Wilshire Boulevard and the second sign would be mounted on the building façade located on La Cienega Boulevard. Both signs would read “EH National Bank.” The previous proposal included one building identification sign located on the building facade nearest the Wilshire and La Cienega intersection. Commissioners believed this created a cluttered aesthetic.

“I am not happy with the energy between the E and the H pushing the back panel, creating no negative space,” said Commissioner James Blakeley, III. “That’s my biggest problem.”

As stated in the Beverly Hills Municipal Code (BHMC), the Architectural Commission may approve a sign accommodation to permit multiple building identification signs as long as the total signage area does not surpass 2% of the vertical surface area of that elevation, excluding penthouse walls.

Based on the EH National Bank building dimensions, the maximum building identification sign area is 1,720 SF. The two existing signs located at the top of the building are each 168 SF in area, totaling 336 SF. The proposed signage would increase the overall area to 414SF.

“I really don’t think the sign will work particularly well sitting at the CORT elevation only because it’s probably going to be somewhat obstructed,” said Commissioner Gidas Peteris, AIA. “And from a human-scale perspective, as you start walking up,

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

DATE: January 8, 2015
TIME: 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard
LOCATION: Commission Meeting Room 280A
Beverly Hills City Hall
455 North Rexford Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

The Planning Commission of the City of Beverly Hills, at its REGULAR meeting on Thursday, January 8, 2015, will hold a public hearing beginning at 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard to consider a request to allow the construction of a new 20-unit multi-family residential building located at 425-429 North Palm Drive. Construction of the proposed project requires the following entitlements:

Development Plan Review. A Development Plan Review is required for all new multi-family residential projects. The subject project is located at 425-429 North Palm Drive, at the intersection of North Palm Drive and Beverly Boulevard. The proposed 5-story multi-family residential building would have a maximum height of 55’ measured to the roof deck, with a 10’ tall canopy covering the central area of the roof deck. The building would have a footprint of approximately 10,350 square feet with a total floor area of approximately 55,090 square feet. The building would have a setback of 25’ from North Palm Drive, 13’ from Beverly Boulevard, and 10’ setbacks from the adjacent building to the north and from the alley to the rear.

Zone Text Amendment. The project includes a request to amend portions of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code. The proposed Zone Text Amendment would amend BHMC §10-3-2806E.3.b. and §10-3-2850 to allow deviations, through an R-4 Permit application, from code provisions that require a specific percentage of the front façade of the first two stories of large-scale multi-family residential projects to be built to the front setback line.

R-4 Permit. The proposed project includes a request for an R-4 permit to allow for the construction of two rooftop bathrooms associated with a rooftop swimming pool/spa. The R-4 Permit would allow the bathrooms to have a maximum height of 10’ when measured from the adjacent roof deck. Additionally, the R-4 Permit would allow for additional paving within the front setback equivalent to one, five-foot walkway in per fifty feet of frontage along the front lot line. Finally, an R-4 Permit is being requested pursuant to the abovementioned Zone Text Amendment to allow less than 60% of the front façade of the first two stories to be built to the front setback line. This provision is contingent upon the approval and implementation of the proposed Zone Text Amendment.

This project has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The project qualifies for Class 32 and Class 5 Categorical Exemptions. The exemptions are applicable to projects characterized as in-fill development, as well as minor changes in land use limitations such as the amendment to the zoning code to allow an R-4 Permit to alter the front façade requirements, and the project has been determined not to have a significant environmental impact and is exempt from the provisions of CEQA.

Any interested person may attend the meeting and be heard or present written comments to the Commission.

According to Government Code Section 65009, if you challenge the Commission’s action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

If there are any questions regarding this notice, please contact Andre Sahakian, Associate Planner in the Planning Division at (310) 285-1127, or by email at asahakian@beverlyhills.org. Copies of the project plans and associated application materials are on file in the Community Development Department, and can be reviewed by any interested person at 455 North Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

Sincerely:
Andre Sahakian, Associate Planner

you're going to see a lot of white light in your face pretty quickly."

The Commission unanimously approved the project on conditions that the two signs be relocated to the first horizontal window transom and the sign band be reduced in width to eliminate the excess banding on the sign ends and be increased in height to provide appropriate spacing between the edge of the building sign and the edge of the sign band.

The Interview screens without incident

When The Interview screened at the Arlington Theatre in Santa Barbara on December 25, it became one of approximately 300 theaters in the U.S. to play the controversial Sony Pictures' movie.

David Corwin

"The Santa Barbara community is very passionate about film and also has very strong feelings about the freedom of expression—that's what it became about," said David Corwin, President of Metropolitan Theatres Corporation. The Arlington is one of the family-owned theatre circuit's 18 locations.

Corwin said that choosing to play The Interview was not an economic decision but a symbolic gesture. Sony pulled the film from more than 3,000 theaters after a series of email hacks by a group called Guardians of Peace culminated in a threat of violence against moviegoers if the film made it to theaters.

"We certainly felt comfortable talking to the police and we hired our own security to be there for the screening," Corwin said, when asked if any safety measures were taken leading up to the film's release at the Arlington.

Corwin is a 1987 Beverly High graduate.

Burglary suspect flees the scene

According to Beverly Hills Police Department Sergeant Max Subin, patrol units were dispatched to the 400 block of South Swall Drive at approximately 10:54 pm on December 23 due to a burglary suspect that had just left the location.

Offers quickly arrived on the scene and learned that a male African American in his 20's had been confronted by the resident inside their home. The suspect fled the location.

A containment was established in the area and a K-9 search followed with assistance from LAPD Air Support. The suspect was not located.

Angelina Mattos

Giving Thanks update: Angelina Mattos remains hopeful

Angelina Mattos' ongoing and inspirational recovery from a 15-hour surgery that resulted in the removal of her tongue was profiled in the Weekly's Thanksgiving installment, issue #791. Prior to the October operation, Mattos had been diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma, an oral cancer. Her sister Darlene Rodrigo updated the Weekly on Mattos' condition Tuesday, two months after the surgery.

"Right now Angelina is undergoing her fourth week of treatment and the symptoms from all the radiation treatments that she's been receiving daily as well as the chemotherapy treatments that she's been receiving biweekly are really taking a toll on her," Rodrigo said. "She's lost nearly 50 pounds in the past two months and she's very weak and extremely irritable, especially when it comes to anything involving her mouth, inside and outside. She's experiencing an extremely dry mouth with very thick saliva that is causing her to choke and her skin on the outside is extremely dry and irritated."

In her November interview with the Weekly, Rodrigo mentioned that Mattos' insurance company was not covering the costs of her feeding formula. Mattos had to privately pay around $500 a month for the nutrient-providing formula. According to Rodrigo, recent donations have covered the costs for approximately six months.

"Angelina is going through the worst type of symptoms and signs," Rodrigo said. "Everything has hit her and it will continue to get worse for the next three weeks but she has her mind set on finishing this treatment and continuing with her life. Right now she is pretty much just suffering but she remains hopeful and is trying to stay as positive as she can be."

two-story single-family residence located on 208 South Stanley Drive during a meeting on December 4. The project had been previously reviewed at a November 6th meeting, during which the Commission advised applicant Farzin Maly of Maly Architects to restudy the project because it necessitated further refinement.

The applicant responded to the Commission's comments and made a number of changes. The width of the entry columns was reduced, the lower façade window was raised to 18" above the slab and the entry door was revised to a wrought iron door with a simpler design.

"We would like to thank you for your suggestions," said homeowner Matthew Bahrami. "We feel like the changes made our overall design better. This house looks better than what we had originally."

Though both Vice Chair Arline Pepp and Commissioner Ilene Nathan appreciated that the project had been simplified, they called for a more definitive landscape plan.

"I appreciate you responding to all of our comments at the last meeting, especially regarding the iron work in the front of the house," said Nathan. "I still feel that the landscaping needs to be addressed—needs to be a little bit more in front of the house. To me it just looks a little bare."

Commissioner Susan Strauss commended the applicant for not erecting a fence around the house. None of the other homes in the neighborhood have fences.

The project was unanimously approved by the Commission based on conditions that a rectangular inset panel is inserted above the entry door and the landscape plan is revised and clarified.

Hunter and Hounds to become Veterans' War Memorial

The Fine Art Commission discussed an initiative presented by the Veterans' Memorial Committee to transform Hunter and Hounds at Beverly Gardens Park into a formal Veterans' War Memorial during a meeting on December 18. The Committee has been working with the Friends of Beverly Gardens Park, a group dedicated to restoring the century-old public park that runs along Santa Monica Boulevard.

The proposed changes include the removal of shrubbery surrounding Hunter and Hounds and the addition of an enclosure built around the sculpture. Four benches would be placed near the statue and a planter would be added to the centerpiece. The finished work would also feature the seals of the five different military branches. Residents have proposed slightly raising Hunter and Hounds so that it can become more visible from Santa Monica Blvd.

"Has anyone considered the safety of raising this piece?" Chair Sandy Pressman asked. "Do we need somebody to take a look to see if ultimately—if they want to raise it 18"—that it can be done safely?"

Assistant Director of Community Services Nancy Hunt-Coffey recommended waiting to address the potential problems associated with raising the piece once the decision has been finalized.

The proposed improvements will be funded by an anonymous donor's verbal pledge for approximately $400,000. The assumption is that the donated amount will cover the renovation costs.

Hunter and Hounds was unveiled at the Longyear estate on Beverly Drive on November 11, 1925 and was later donated to the City. For many years, memorial services were held there each armistice day. The bronze sculpture was produced by French artist Henri Alfred Marie Jacquemart.

Commissioners expressed general support for the projected modifications, with Commissioner Alan Kaye calling it "exciting" and Pressman saying it's a "lovely idea."

The proposed reconfiguration has already been endorsed by the Recreation and Parks Commission and the City Council liaisons. It is now scheduled to go before the entire City Council during a Study Session meeting on January 13.

Beverly High graduate launches fitness app

When Tiffany Hakimianpour graduated from USC in 2013, the Beverly High graduate realized that her busy work schedule left little room for exercise. Hakimianpour hired a personal trainer, but found the whole process—which involved post-workout showering, changing and refueling—just as time-consuming.

"As a 23 year-old I had to still allow time for keeping up with my family and friends and relaxation and I couldn't figure out how I was going to live my life," Hakimianpour said.

Hakimianpour's predicament paved the way for Handstand, a fitness app that launched two

Residents discuss La Cienega Park renovation plans

Residents and patrons attended the first-ever community meeting for La Cienega Park & Community Center on December 10. Mayor Lili Bosse, Recreation and Parks Commission Chair Howard Rosoff and Assistant City Manager Mahdi Aluzri joined more than 50 others to address the renovation plans for the public park located at 8400 Gregory Way.

Meeting attendees discussed the playground, tennis center, picnic area and landscaping, among other topics. The most popular topic of discussion during the community meeting was "other amenities," which encompasses outdoor event space, increased parking, security and cameras, bike paths and improved drinking fountains.

Though not in attendance at the December 10th gathering, Councilmember John Mirisch believes the park facilities are in need of upgrades.

"I think we want to look at a whole master plan; not only the park itself but the tennis courts as well," Mirisch said. "We need to take a good long look at what we can do to improve it long-term."

AJ Willmer, a member of the Southeast Task Force, also believes in expanding development plans to include the tennis center, which currently features 16 lighted courts, showers, locker rooms and a pro-shop providing tennis instruction.

"I'm concerned that we are going to look at the development of La Cienega Park in isolation and not really plan it into a general plan for the southeast of Beverly Hills," Willmer said. "I think we need to look at the tennis center—the west side of La Cienega along with the park on the eastside as one project. I think that requires us to decide whether we can afford to and whether it's appropriate to put a bridge across La Cienega—it's already been talked about several times."

Willmer would also like to see more attention given to adult recreation at La Cienega Park, noting that the matter was poorly addressed at Roxbury Park. According to Willmer, adults need indoor and outdoor court space. The issue of a large-enough gymnasium did not carry forward at Roxbury, which has four tennis courts, one full basketball court and one half-court; the half-court shares court space with the tennis hitting wall.

The impact of the anticipated Wilshire/La Cienega subway station on La Cienega Park will also require deliberation, Willmer mentioned.

La Cienega Park opened in 1928, followed by the Community Center's establishment in 1981. The City Council expressed interest in renovating the park and community center earlier this year. For the next few months, the City will be soliciting feedback from residents in order to best determine the community's vision for the park and community center.

Visit www.BeverlyHills.org/LaCienega for information on upcoming meetings.

weeks ago and already boasts hundreds of users. The app, which Hakimianpour created in collaboration with a startup accelerator and its developers, connects individuals with personal trainers for intensive workout sessions held at users' homes. According to Hakimianpour, the app has a 90% repeat usage.

"Handstand symbolizes the goals we can reach with the right trainer or instructor helping us," Hakimianpour said.

Currently, the app's services are offered to individuals in Beverly Hills, Santa Monica, Westwood, Brentwood, Downtown LA, Venice, Malibu and West Hollywood. The 2009 Beverly High graduate would like Handstand to eventually become international.

"I definitely want to expand it all over the world," Hakimianpour said. "That's really where I see it going—to India and beyond."

WHAT'S YOUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION?

By Mina Riazi

JAKE MANASTER
Traffic & Parking
Commissioner

"My resolution for this year is to be patient with people, to be more patient with people and to exercise."

ROSE KAISERMAN
BHEF Board
Member

"My resolution for this year will be to spend more quality time with family and friends. I'd also like to give more to charity organizations like the Police Unity Tour, BHEF and our local Beverly Hills schools and donate more time in volunteering to help others."

JULIAN GOLD
Vice Mayor

"With the beginning of the New Year and my recent reappointment to the City Council, my resolution is to refocus on the opportunities and needs of the City. As the city moves beyond its Centennial year, the sense of partnership and well-being fostered during that time must continue to evolve. The city will remain vibrant as we foster a healthy city of thriving businesses and a residential quality of life focused on safety, health, and community. I am confident that we will be successful in this effort. And my personal resolution is to meet a few more of you along the way!"

SANDY PRESSMAN
Fine Art
Commission Chair

"I resolve to keep an open mind, to be a better listener and to bring more beauty through art to our community."

NOAH FURIE
Cultural Heritage
Commissioner

"This year I resolve to keep all the resolutions I broke last year... Or at least some of them...well...maybe, one or two...But seriously,

I resolve to work on the most important things in my life: family, work and my commitments to the volunteer work I do, especially for the City of Beverly Hills."

LILLIAN RAFFEL
Charitable Solicitations
Commission Chair

"My resolution is to spend more time with family and friends.

This past year I've lost several dear friends and family members and I'm sad I did not spend more time with them. This year I'm not going to have that happen again, I'm going to spend more time with family and friends and treasure every moment."

HOWARD FISHER
Planning
Commission Chair

"My resolution is that we become aware of our differences with one another and embrace those differences. Then we will truly appreciate each other and this will lead to true peace."

ILENE NATHAN
Design Review
Commissioner

"My resolution is to enjoy all the good things in my life and not worry about the little annoyances."

GLENNA BARON
Beverly Vista PTA
President

"My New Year's Resolution is to spend more quality time with my family, without the distraction of my iPhone around and buzzing all the time. I promise to hide my phone and "un-plug" from the outside world each day for awhile, so I can be more present for my family and for myself."

CHRIS BUSHEE
Beverly High
Chemistry Teacher

"My personal resolution is to spend as much time as I can with family; my kids are grown now but they're still living at home so it's nice to be able to spend a lot of time with them. My wife and children come first for me. I would really like to spend time with them and travel. Every year we pick two or three destinations and we travel together."

DANIEL NEWMAN
Beverly High
Senior Class
President

"My resolution is to not waste any more time and to always be proactive.

There are only a certain number of hours in the day and I want to use them effectively. I want to give back to the community that has nurtured me and allowed me to reach my goals and ambitions. Last semester, I started a talent show and I gave students the opportunity to showcase themselves in front of a large audience—which was an opportunity that many of them hadn't had before. As I reach my second semester [as Senior Class President] I feel like I'll have a lot more time help the students and community at large."

ISABEL HACKER
Citizens' Oversight
Committee
member

"To start running again, for the next marathon."

BARRY BERNSTEIN
Architectural
Commission Chair

"I'm a very positive person in life. When it comes to the Architectural Commission, I look forward in this coming year to work along with my fellow commissioners and future applicants to make suggestions which will help better the final design of a project—this will be beneficial both to the applicant as well as the city. On a personal note, my wife and I look forward to having fun helping with all our seven grand children, whose ages range from 6 months to 9 years. We also look forward to being able to continue to contribute to several different charitable organizations such as the Wounded Warriors Project. Closest to our hearts are children's charities, such as St. Jude Children's Research Hospital."

a scholarship this spring and will be part of the team facing Florida State in today's 101st Rose Bowl Game, which is also the first College Football Playoff Semifinal.

"He is one of our best special teams players," Oregon running backs coach Gary Campbell said. "He's grown into a real dependable running back. He fakes out our guys on defense all the time because he's such a quick guy and has such great moves."

Campbell also described Bassett as a "really good pass receiver," an "outstanding person, great character kid (who) does a great job in the classroom."

Bassett has played in all 13 games this season, running for 134 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries and catching two passes for 36 yards. He is also a blocker on the kick-off return and punt return teams.

"Just contributing to the team has been great," Bassett said.

Bassett ran nine yards for his first collegiate touchdown in Oregon's season-opening 62-13 victory over South Dakota Aug. 30 at Eugene, Oregon.

Bassett ran 19 yards for Oregon's final touchdown in its 51-13 victory over Arizona in the Pacific-12 Conference Championship Game Dec. 5 in Santa Clara.

Bassett said he became part of the Oregon program after telling then-linebackers coach

Don Pellum "I had nowhere to go," and becoming a recruited walk on.

Bassett played on the scout team as a freshman in 2010 and was twice honored as Scout Team Player of the Week.

"Putting him on the scout team gave our defense a look at the kind of players they were going to be facing," Campbell said.

Bassett suffered his second torn ACL during spring practice in 2011, making cut, and was sidelined until spring practice in 2012.

"There were a lot of people that asked me if I still wanted to play, but it was really hard for me to turn away from football because I love it so much and love this team so much," Bassett said.

Bassett made his college debut in the 2012, playing in seven games, rushing for 40 yards on 16 carries and was a second-team selection to the Pacific-12 Conference's Football All-Academic Team, thanks to a 3.31 grade point average based on a 4.0 scale.

Bassett played in six of Oregon's first seven games in 2013 and on one play in the 30-7 victory over Texas in the Alamo Bowl.

Bassett graduated in June, majoring in finance, and is now a graduate student in finance. He said he expects to receive his master's degree this summer and hopes to work in finance with the athletic apparel firm Nike.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF RALPH EHRENPREIS
Case No. BP157815

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of RALPH EHRENPREIS

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Howard Banchik in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Howard Banchik be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Dec. 29, 2014 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 9 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

(This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on January 12, 2015 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 9 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
