“Checking in with Rod” [Issue 824]
 I have had some folks contact me regarding my article and the section regarding the EBI issue thinking I may have implied the Chief may have done something wrong. Not the case at all, I firmly believe the Chief did not do anything wrong. I pointed out that the City Council had reviewed outside employment and was fine with city employees being engaged in outside employment as long as it was cleared by the city manager. Chief Snowden followed that process exactly by obtaining approval from the City Manager.

In fairness I disclosed since retirement I have become close friends with the Chief and thus I might be perceived as having a conflict. Anyone that knows me, that when it comes to good governance friendship would not alter my opinion or comments. I also stated third parties involved in the issue had contacted me and validated matters. As to the issue of conflicts, I said Mr. Goldberg who is doing the heavy accusing has a conflict because he was arrested and appears to be holding a grudge against the Chief and department.

I believe the City of Beverly Hills was and

Margo files for school board race; Newman, Paysinger pull papers

Jason Newman

Noah Margo

In what is shaping up to be the most competitive Board of Education race in over a decade, longtime educator Jason Newman pulled papers for the November 3rd Board election Monday.

"I was an educator here for 40 years and I think I've seen what works and what doesn't," Newman said. "I want to expand the things that do work and fix the things that don't. I would offer the voters not only my experience as an educator, but also my life experience as a resident, parent and former student of our schools."

Newman, a 1969 Beverly High graduate, coached basketball, tennis and golf and taught courses K-12 during his 40-year career in public education. He concluded his career as Beverly High Dean of Students in 2014.

Former Beverly High Principal Carter Paysinger has also pulled papers. When asked how he felt about Paysinger, his longtime friend, entering the school board race, Newman responded with encouraging words.

"[Paysinger] is not only my colleague but he's also been a great friend over the years," Newman said. "I have a lot of respect for his service to the schools and this community, but this campaign needs to be focused on how we ensure that our students get the 21st-century education that they deserve. I would welcome anyone that has the passion and the commitment to run for the Board to try and make a difference for our students."

Board of Education member Noah Margo filed Wednesday afternoon.

"It's official. Today we reached another milestone in our campaign to put education first in Beverly Hills," Margo said in a statement. "I've had an incredible time leading our schools forward and I'm thrilled to be on the ballot and have the opportunity to continue our great work together. We are running a positive, spirited campaign that will lead to a brighter future for our children."

Incumbent Board member Brian Goldberg has told the Beverly Hills Courier that he intends to run again. Incumbent Lewis Hall has not yet announced his plans.

The last day to file a candidate statement is August 7. If Hall and Goldberg do not file by that date, then the deadline will be extended to August 12 for non-incumbents.

St. John's hospital foundation sues Meehan estate

Paula Kent Meehan

The Los Angeles Times reported Tuesday that St. John's Health Center is suing the estate of Paula Kent Meehan, alleging that the Redken founder reneged her $5-million pledge to the hospital's foundation.

The lawsuit seeks damages from Meehan's charitable foundation and from the executors of her estate, who include Beverly Hills Courier publisher Marcia Hobbs and Wendy Karzin.

Meehan withdrew her pledge to the foundation—one of her "largest philanthropic endeavors"—in 2013, following the "ouster of the hospital's top executives and the proposed sale of the nonprofit Catholic hospital."

Though many philanthropic experts oppose the foundation's decision, the St. John's foundation might have a legal claim to the money. Meehan signed an "estate pledge commitment" that said her gift would be "legally binding on me and my heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives and assigns."

Meehan, who passed away last June at 82, purchased The Courier in April 2014. The newspaper is reportedly for sale.

Council adopts amended Historic Preservation Ordinance

BHUSD legal expenditures for the fourth quarter fiscal year amounted to $1.76 million, bringing the current total for Fiscal Year 2014-2015 to $5.4 million. The sum covers all payments made through July 17 for legal services provided July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015.

According to BHUSD Chief Administrative Officer La Tanya Kirk-Carter, there are additional invoices that need to be processed, so the year-end total is expected to climb.

Of the $1.76 million, $1.29 million was charged to the general fund and $466,590 was charged to the Measure E fund. The $1.76 million reflects a $564,549 increase from the previous fiscal quarter.

Fees paid to former BHUSD General Counsel Vincent Ewing, whose contract was not renewed June 30, are represented through the law firm Alvarez Glasman & Colvin. Attorney Fred Fenster of the Greenburg Glusker firm represents the district in the litigation involving former BHUSD Facilities Director Karen Christiansen and former Beverly High Principal Carter Paysinger; the latter was settled early June.

As of October 2014, Haight, Brown & Bonesteel was working on oil relations; Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo was working on human resource matters; Best, Best & Krieger was being retained to handle general counsel affairs, such as bond funds and bond projects; Horvitz & Levy represented the District in the CEQA appeal regarding Metro's proposed Purple Line extension project; Murphy & Evertz represented the district in the CEQA case against Metro in opposition to the Purple Line extension route.

Waldow remain opposed to the amended document.

"This doesn't raise the bar for landmarking, it takes the bar off the bracket and breaks it," said Waldow.

The Council conducted a first reading of the ordinance at their June 16th meeting. All regular ordinances require two readings.

THE ROTARIAN WAY

Newly appointed Rotary Club President Alissa Roston on her plans for the coming year

By Mina Riaz

You served two terms on the Board of Education from 1999 to 2007. How did serving in elected office prepare you for being president of the Rotary Club?

I think being in a leadership role helped me with Rotary. I also think that learning to be organized [helped me.] I ran so many different meetings on the school board, that for our Rotary Board meetings, we also adhere to Robert's Rules of Order, [which is] the same thing we did on the school board. So I'm comfortable with that.

In issue #666, former Rotary president AJ Willmer, who also served on the Board, said, "In the areas of service outside the club, international service is becoming more and more important to our club. We concentrate on potable water projects in the developing world." Can you give us some examples of the work Rotary has done?

Our club has financed the building of a well at a Catholic orphanage in Myanmar, formerly known as Burma. We've also done water projects in Panama, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, Thailand and Nigeria as well. We are currently working on a very large project in Uganda with an organization in Malibu, it's a non-profit called RainCatcher.

How did you get involved with the Beverly Hills Rotary Club?

I joined the club about 15 years ago when I was running for the Board of Education. I was invited by my neighbor Fred Nason, who is a longtime member of Rotary, and he was one of my sponsors into the club.

How has the club changed in the past 15 years?

As AJ [Willmer] mentioned, we have become much more active internationally than we were when I came in. We also have more women in the club than when I joined. When I joined, I was one of the younger members, and now we have even more young people joining. I think this happened after AJ—we now have a satellite club which is called the Young Professionals Rotary Club. That club is for young people between 22 and 32. The club is growing and I think it's appropriate for people who want to be involved in Rotary but aren't able to make Monday noon meetings and can't really quite handle the financial requirements of our club.

What are some of the projects the Rotary has planned for the next year?

Well, along with the Young Professionals [Club], we are putting together a mentorship program where the members of Rotary will mentor the members of the Young Professionals Club, and then in turn the young professionals are going to be mentoring members of our Rotary high school, which is called an Interact Club. We're also working on projects in the City of Asuncion in Paraguay. That is a project with a clinic that we help to fund, where they do cleft palate surgery as part of Operation Smile. One of our Rotary members, Tony Sokol, who is a Beverly Hills plastic surgeon, has traveled all over the world doing these surgeries. We're also funding a water project in Panama, and in January, the district Rotary—because we're part of a larger district—is planning a humanitarian trip. So we'll go down and see what's going on in that project. We're also doing another project in Port Harcourt in Nigeria; this will be our second project with the Rotary Club there.

What makes the Beverly Hills Rotary Club unique?

I think what makes us unique is we have members who have been a part of the club probably for over 50 years—some of whom have probably not missed more than 10 percent of the meetings to members that have been around for quite a long time. We are also bringing in new members all the time.

Our turnover rate of people coming in and leaving is very low. Last year, under the leadership of Sean O'Donnell, the outgoing president, we gave away a record amount of money to local charities. I think we have fun at the same time that we try to do good work locally and globally.

About a year ago, Rotary moved their meetings from the Beverly Hills Hotel in protest of the Sultan of Burnei only to return a few months later. What is your position on this?

I did feel that we should leave at the time that we did. It was a tough decision to be made and I personally felt that it was the appropriate one at the time. However, there was some dissent among our members who felt that we shouldn't have left. In large part because Rotary traditionally stays out of politics and that's part of the reason why the organization has been able to do so much internationally—because it doesn't take sides in politics. Rotary International's ability to almost completely eradicate polio worldwide is because we have been able to go in and inoculate children in areas of tre-

Tell us about your family.

I have been married to my husband [Dr.] Warren [Roston] for 34 years and we have four children. Matt is our eldest and he is an attorney in Beverly Hills. After Matt is Sam, and he's in the film business. David is 26 and he's an artist, poet and filmmaker and has a space downtown that he rents for photo and film shoots and art galleries. Leah is 24 and she is in marketing. All the kids went through the Beverly Hills schools. Matt graduated from Pitzer College and Southwestern Law School. Sam and David both graduated from the University of Michigan and Leah graduated from USC.

A year from now, what do you hope to have accomplished as president?

I have four goals for the coming year. The first is to actually grow our membership and bring in new members. The second one is our mentorship program and then to continue doing the work that we're doing internationally and maybe do even more. And then to do more hands-on community service projects.

Architectural Commission reviews new rooftop enclosure for L'Ermitage

SPF Architects' Zoltan Pali and Damon Surfes attended the July 15th Architectural Commission meeting to receive preliminary design feedback on a proposed rooftop enclosure for L'Ermitage.

"In the end, what we're trying to do is create a space on that roof that is being used as a space for events," Pali said.

Rooftop bars can be a revenue generator for hotels. The rooftop bar at the Sixty, formerly the Thompson, is a popular destination.

"We put a simple beam along the top of the building and we created a structure that slopes slightly in, about 30 degrees, and is ringed with another steel element," Pali

REDISCOVERING A CLASSIC

Julie Goler on the new book everyone is talking about
By Mina Riazi

How will this change the teaching of To Kill a Mockingbird, which is a staple of 9th grade curriculum?

That's what I've been thinking about the most. This is not a perfect book, and it's nowhere near as good as To Kill a Mockingbird. It's not tight, there are some sections that you could easily skip over and that don't really add to the development of anything. But there's a story here, and it's about Scout's disillusionment with her father when she comes back to Maycomb as an adult. There's definitely a real story here, but it's not as good. What I envision doing with it—and I don't teach freshmen, I only teach sophomore honors—is talking about the process of writing. At least from a teacher's point of view, this is a call to action—when you see the two works side by side—to edit your work. It shows the impact that an editor can have on a work. What I read was that Harper Lee submitted this book first and that the editor came back and said, "No, you need to change this to a kid's point of view, and the story needs to be much more focused."

Go Set a Watchman has the adult Scout and the young Scout, but in different sections. As a teacher, there are a lot of possibilities about really hitting home the point that great writing doesn't happen in a first draft, it's multiple drafts. And To Kill a Mockingbird is just a much tighter and more focused work due to Harper Lee's careful revision.

What do we learn about the characters of To Kill a Mockingbird in Watchman?

The book is about Scout's disillusionment with her father, Atticus, who was her personal hero. Atticus is the great father of literature—he really is, in American literature anyway. And in Watchman, his ethics are more fluid and he's more complicated than he was in To Kill a Mockingbird. He's not always a good guy. It's how [Scout] looks at her father after she basically walks in on him at what might be perceived to be a clan meeting. I would say the theme of this particular book is the disillusionment of youth. It's been so long since I've taught To Kill a Mockingbird; I mean, I guess it's kind of the same theme, but it's very specific to her father. [Atticus] is the hero of To Kill a Mockingbird, and he's depicted as much more nuanced in this book.

"I would say the theme of this particular book is the disillusionment of youth."

--Julie Goler

Beverly High Honors English teacher

Are you personally surprised that this was discovered after so many years?

Absolutely. I was so excited. I downloaded the book Monday night at 12 a.m. and then I woke up early and finished it on Tuesday. The experience of reading it was like excavating a really important work for the first time and seeing what its origins were.

Much has been written about the fact that Atticus Finch makes some racist comments in the book. Do you feel this is overblown?

I feel like it's overblown and I feel like he's a product of his time [in Watchman] in a way that's probably more true than To Kill a Mockingbird. I believe if you haven't read the book it's easy to make assumptions on the basis of what the media has reported. The interesting thing to me, as an educator and as a book group facilitator, is so much about the development of what became a great novel. I view this book as an early draft of To Kill a Mockingbird.

Why do we still teach To Kill a Mockingbird after 50 years?

I read once that Mark Twain said that, "All of American literature is based on two things: race and space." In the 19th century, the novel that addressed that the best was arguably Huckleberry Finn in American literature. In the 20th century, it was To Kill a Mockingbird. And so the universal themes that are identified in the book—racism, small-town life, compassion, dignity—make it a classic. To Kill a Mockingbird will be read 300 years from now as a snapshot of what was happening in America. But race, to me, is always going to be a central theme in America. I don't think we're living in a post-racial world. And this book shows us what it was like at one time in America. This country is still in its adolescence, it's a young country, and it was founded with premises intact that we're still trying to correct today. All you need to do is look at [the] Ferguson [shooting] and [the] Baltimore [riots] and the Charleston massacre to see evidence of that. So if I were teaching To Kill a Mockingbird right now, I would be making all sorts of connections to things that are happening in the headlines.

Commissioner Barry Bernstein wondered how the rooftop lights might affect the neighboring residents.

"I think the rendering shows it a little brighter than it's intended," Pali said. "We think we're improving the situation by controlling the acoustics, and just like we can control the acoustics, we can control lighting."

Based on the current proposal, the project requires review by the Planning Commission and City Council for various land-use entitlements.

Located on Burton Way, L'Ermitage is currently undergoing a $40+ million renovation lead by SFA Architects.

"I think it's going to be an exciting concept," Commission Vice Chair Gidas Peteris said.

The project site was posted with an on-site notice on July 8.

YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST DATED 06/03/2014. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. On 08/14/2015 at 11:00AM, TD FORECLOSURE SERVICES, INC. as the duly appointed Trustee under and pursuant to Deed of Trust Recorded on 06/09/2014 AS INSTRUMENT NUMBER 20140590698 of official records in the Office of the Recorder of Los Angeles County, California, executed by: KATERINA WEST, A SINGLE WOMAN, as Trustor, WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH (payable at time of sale in lawful money of the United States, by cash, a cashier's check drawn by a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state). At: BY THE FOUNTAIN LOCATED AT 400 CIVIC CENTER PLAZA, POMONA, CA 91766, all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it

under said Deed of Trust in the property situated in said County, California describing the land therein: AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED ON SAID DEED OF TRUST The property heretofore described is being sold "as is". The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 9336 HAZEN DRIVE, BEVERLY HILLS, CA 90210. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said note(s), advances, if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to-wit: $696,016.25 (Estimated). Accrued interest and additional advances, if any, will increase this figure prior to sale. The Beneficiary may elect to bid less than the full credit bid. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located and more than three months have elapsed since such recordation. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (818) 708-7272 or visit this Internet Web site www.servicelinkASAP.com, using the file number assigned to this case 15-25876. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. 7/17/15 TD FORECLOSURE SERVICES, INC. 5023 N. Public Notice – People of the US Declared To Be Free of Corrupt Rule
In Will of the People Constitutional Authority court and counsel of the people, a national local governing body.
In the Matter of THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES
by THE PEOPLE OF THE UNTIED STATES OF AMERICA TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF THE U.S., ITS OFFICERS AND OFFICIALS, AND ANYONE CLAIMING HOLD OF POWER, AUTHORITY, OFFICE, SEAT, SEAL OR SWAY
OF THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, WHETHER ELECTED, APPOINTED, OR HIRED, FOR FAILING TO ACKNOWLEDGE, SUBMIT, AND RELINQUISH TO THE ORDER OF THE CONSTITUTION ESTABLISHED IN THE FIRST AND TENTH AMENDMENTS RIGHTS AND POWERS OF THE PEOPLE, AND MADE KNOWN BY THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS (2012) AND FEDERAL RECALL (2014), HAVING BEEN DULY NOTIFIED:
By ORDER of this honorable body, the Federal Government of the U.S. is cited as defaulting on its duties to the Constitution of the United States when required by law and reason to comply, having failed to show cause, whether just, why THE PEOPLE OF THE UNTIED STATES OF AMERICA should continue to dwell under destructive federal powers for oppressive economic tactics encouraging middle-class disenfranchisement and imposing societal controls under the guise of security concerns, and failing to answer notices or show to appear for mediation with members of this agency, as in proper authority asserted by will of the people. This ACTION forever terminates all corrupt rule by authority that may exist outside of the Constitution and ORDERS that THE PEOPLE OF THE UNTIED STATES OF AMERICA be declared forever free from any such subjugation.
For, the Federal Government of the U.S. has weakened the Bill of Rights unto unjust aims, and has acted to keep the people from stopping it, as EXPOSED by Will of the People Constitutional Authority in great detail and its excerpts made public electronically. In the course of these acts, it is DETERMINED the Federal Government of the U.S. has overstepped and violated significant provisions of law: U.S.C. A(5) (general malfeasance), 18 U.S.C § 371 (conspiracy for economic benefit), 18 U.S.C. Part I, Ch 73 § 1505 (obstruction of an agency), and has shown to conflict with or erode provisions in Articles I, § 2, Par. 3, § 8, Last Par.; II, § 1, Last Par.; III, § 2, Par. 1 & 2; V; VI, Last Par.; Amendments I; II; III; IV; V; VI; X; XIII; and XIV. This constitutes a breach of constitutional duty to the public trust.

The Federal Government of the U.S. is HEREBY reprimanded of such illegitimate use: stripped of its present authority, which is REVOKED. For, higher law DICTATES the people more than have the right to protest every law, in which, exists for removal of protections for the people or may exist for the people's detriment, in the First Amendment right "for redress" (correction). And, if governance is "not in the people's interests" the people have "power under the [U.S.] Constitution" to "recall their [public] servants", as stated by George Washington in a letter to his nephew in 1787, defining Tenth Amendment "reserved powers" of the people. And, if that Federal Recall fails concerted attempts at enforcement, the people have the inalienable human right "to alter or abolish" that "destructive government", as set by legal premise in the Declaration of Independence for governing by consent. IT IS SO DETERMINED.
For, Continental Congress met in 2012 to resolve these grievances in accordance with sufficient representation for applicable law. And, a legal Federal Recall election was held January 14, 2014 to enforce that decision by the people's Congress to restore protections for the people in the Bill of Rights and REQUIRED a return to a government authorized of the Constitution.

Petitions, legal notices, and warrants were sent to governmental representatives, courts, and agencies ORDERING compliance following Recall obstruction. The President-elect continued to send notice for relinquishment of seat and office, calling for leaders IN CONTEMPT of the order to be subject to legitimate constitutional authority. The President-in-waiting was sworn in by notary on Feb. 13, 2015, who issued SANCTIONS on Washington, D.C. against its defiance to law under the Constitution. Final notice was presented to President Obama, calling for a mandatory meeting on July 1 to cease civil unrest and to present the following corrective actions: a) expose questionable laws and acts, and their purpose; b) restoration or defense of the protections of the people; and, c) transition to constitutional administration to ensure enforcement amidst the corruption. As such, constitutional rights and powers of the people HAVE FAILED. THEREFORE, Order of the Declaration of Independence is now in full force and effect, WHEREAS, the people are granted the higher authority to ALTER OR ABOLISH destructive government in accordance with their consent of the governed powers. HOWEVER, the People of the United States of America chose rightly to keep and enforce their Constitution, reserving the provisions of the Recall under their Declaration powers, and to stand as precedent for all future rulings and decisions. Accordingly, constitutional amendments codified from the petitions of the people in Continental Congress and suffrage, for good government and social-economic equity, are THEREBY ratified by uncontested DEFAULT, whose Mode of Ratification exists in the presence of higher authority, as legitimate constitutional governments are FOUND absent. For, such consent authority to enforce the Continental Congress mandate, is understood to supercede the Constitution when constitutional order spe-

The Recall of 2014 is RENDERED in effect for the removal and installation of such offices. Accordingly, each Head of State and all those having seniority for each house of each branch at the time of the Recall must vacate, as follows: the Supreme Court Chief Justice, President, Senate President and Vice President, Leaders of the House of Representatives, Associate Justice Antonin Scalia, Senators serving more than one term, and Representatives serving more than two terms. Elections held since are subject to the Recall. However, an elected official is FORGIVEN of any related election fraud or obstruction upon return to order by reaffirmation of the U.S. Constitution in front of the President by Recall. All laws and acts are HEREBY now subject to laws of the people. Accordingly, any decision rendered, law enacted, or negotiation with foreign powers sought by the U.S., that declares or grants an ability to "fast track" or impose legislation without oversight or correction, or for corporate personhood, unrestraint, inequitable power, or the like (i.e., ATDP, NDRPA, FISA, US PATRIOT ACT, NSSE, GRABIF a.k.a. Anti-trespass, NDAA, PIPA, SOPA, TARP, AHCA; e.g., CISPA, ECPA, TPP; etc.), even regarding Iran, are HEREBY overturned and nullified by will of the people and Order of the Declaration. SO ORDERED. Attested by my hand and seal by the court and counsel in the authority of will of the people, effective this 7th day of July, 2015
[Seal]
