"Pro-Gaza Public Comment Sparks City Council Reaction" [Issue #1262]

The faulty premise of the issue #1262 news brief is stated right in the title: 'Pro-Gaza Public Comment over Flag Display Sparks City Council Reaction.'

At the December 6th City Council meeting I did indeed comment on the council's decision to display 1,400 flags of Israel in Beverly Gardens Park across from city hall. I said I thought it was a powerful symbol and it found no disagreement from me.

However I did suggest to our councilmembers that they represent many constituents with varying points-ofview on this conflict. I stood on the side of human rights, I added, and said that I wished that our elected representatives would also acknowledge the thousands of men, women and children killed in Gaza.

Of our five councilmembers, only Vice Mayor [Les] Friedman even obliquely referenced my comment. And he did so with respect and class. That is hardly a 'city council reaction.' Had it only been the misleading title of the news brief, I wouldn't bother to rehash it.

However the news brief goes on to amplify Mayor Julian Gold's personal attack on me later in the meeting which had nothing whatsoever to do with my earlier comment. Why was it included in a news brief about Gaza?

The Weekly might instead have questioned why the mayor would use his pulpit to name-and-shame a member of the public for simply expressing his opinion in a letter to the editor; and asked whether that is a proper response when a personal attack from the council dais can only be intended to intimidate. I see it as the mark of a petty tyrant.

What seemed to get the mayor's goat was my letter's suggestion that there is a hidden hand that wields great influence in city hall at the expense of residents' concerns. Is that even a debatable proposition? Indeed it is politics. Would a PAC otherwise have spent $100K to reelect the mayor in 2020?

I can't help but feel that our city would be better-served if the mayor used those five minutes that he took to deliver his prepared remarks and instead reflected on the concerns that we who rent housing have expressed to city council. We are 6-in-10 of the mayor's constituents but we can't seem to ever get his ear. But I've learned that all it takes is a simple letter to the editor.

Beverly Hilton Reaches Deal With Hotel Workers' Union

Unite Here Local 11 has reached a tentative agreement with the Bevery Hilton, covering more than 500 unionized workers, according to a joint statement posted on X. They also struck a deal covering workers at the Waldorf Astoria.

The union previously presented the City of Beverly Hills with a Notice of Intent to circulate a proposed ballot measure requiring a wage increase for hotel workers in the City as contracts covering 15,000 local hotel workers expired.

"This new contract will allow me to spend more time with my kids, and retire with dignity. I am proud of all my coworkers for sticking together, and we will make sure our sisters and brothers in other Beverly Hills hotels get the same," said Ana Cortez, housekeeper at the Beverly Hilton.

Thousands of hotel workers have been walking off the job in intermittent few-day spurts ever since the Fourth of July. The union has demanded a $30 minimum wage, which would be the highest in the nation if granted.

The hotel industry, led by Hilton, Hyatt and Marriott, previously presented an economic proposal that "did not have one penny more for wages, pension or healthcare," according to the Union.

The City of Beverly Hills previously alleged that the protesters have caused a public nuisance in violation of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code. Throughout the summer, residents complained of noise that included the banging of drums, whistles being blown, and shouting and screaming outside Beverly Hilton and Waldorf Astoria.

The contracts are still awaiting a vote by workers and the union has not announced the proposed wages and other details of the agreements.

"Hotel workers at the Beverly Hilton are eager to kick off the awards season now that Hollywood is back in full swing because they have a contract with a living wage," said Kurt Petersen, co-president of UNITE HERE Local 11. "The Beverly Hilton is a leader in Beverly Hills, and we challenge

Planning Commission Expected to Discuss L'Ermitage Project

During its Thursday meeting, the Planning Commission is expected to review multiple requests from L'Ermitage, including modifications to current entitlements that allow hotel operations within the Beverly Hills R-4 Zone, along with an amendment to the city's zoning code.

The hotel's eight stories and its 119 guest rooms will be preserved, along with the current underground parking facilities that can accommodate 129 vehicles, according to a city staff report.

The proposed project includes the following amendments:

- Increase the number of tables and chairs within the outdoor dining area along Burton Way, from seven tables and 20 chairs to 10 tables and 26 chairs.
- To allow for amplified sound in the inside of the restaurant to the outdoor dining
- Increase the time that all guests must exit the restaurant's outdoor area, from 10:30 P.M. to 11:00 P.M.

- Remove the requirement to pick-up trash across the street from the hotel on the south side of Burton Way.
- Reduce the cash penalties that are currently imposed for violations of the conditions of approval.

Currently, the expansion of restaurants in legally nonconforming hotels is not permitted. However, the suggested amendment to the zoning text aims to change this restriction. The proposed modification would authorize the expansion of hotel restaurants and the creation of dining and bar areas on the rooftops of hotels located in the R-4 Zone. This would apply specifically to hotels that had a rooftop pool in existence as of Jan. 1, 2022.

Specifically proposed amended code language would allow the hotel to apply for the following:

- The expansion of the dining and bar area in the existing ground floor restaurant through the conversion of existing meeting rooms into new private dining rooms and back of kitchen areas.
 - The establishment of a new restaurant

Consultant Gaby Reims Alexander sent out an email to members of the community urging people to call in during the hearing to remind the commission of "surrounding support" as a way to combat "neighboring opposition."

She urged people to call in and state that they "hope [the commission] will support this longtime Beverly Hills business in their efforts to invest in" the City.

If the commission provides direction to approve the zone text amendment and additional requests, city staff will prepare draft resolutions recommending final approval to the City Council.

Appeals Court To Decide If FBI Violated Constitution When It Seized $86 Million From Deposit Boxes

FBI agents seized the contents in safe deposit boxes from a Beverly Hills business accused of money laundering even though many of the box holders were not accused of a crime. An appeals court will decide after hearing arguments last Thursday if the FBI violated the box holders Fourth and Fifth Amendment rights when it seized $86 million in cash and jewelry during the raid.

The Institute for Justice filed two lawsuits on behalf of clients who had property seized from their safety deposit boxes in a March 2021, FBI raid on U.S. Private Vaults, a Beverly Hills-based company that was located at 9182 West Olympic Blvd.

According to the Institute for Justice, Don Mellein was never accused of a crime, but his security deposit box was seized in the FBI raid. They allege that after the government gave up on trying to take his savings, it failed to return 63 precious metal coins worth more than $100,000.

It is further alleged that the same thing happened to Jeni Pearsons and her husband Michael Storc. The FBI returned some of their property, but not the $2,000 cash they stored below a liner in their box, according to the suit

In each instance, the FBI claimed there was no property to return and said it had done nothing wrong by failing to return it, the Institute for Justice alleges.

The plaintiffs filed separate lawsuits demanding that their coins and cash be re-

Beverly Hills attorney Ronald Richards has also represented four other box holders.

"We had three of the four box contents returned. We take the position you have to prove the money came from an illegal transaction. Other parties just sued the government claiming the search was illegal and refused to provide the identity of the box holder. The Court is now weighing whether the search in its inception violated the 4th Amendment," Richards told the Weekly.

A federal judge ruled two years ago that the search and seizure was constitutional. The now-defunct company was fined over $1 million last year for money laundering after admitting it sought drug traffickers and other criminals as customers who would keep cash that was obtained illegally in their deposit boxes.

"If the 9th Circuit finds the search illegal, then this will help all the anonymous box holders. If the Court affirms the denial of the suppression motion, then the box holders will have to appear, reveal their identity, and contest a forfeiture case on the merits," Richards said

A decision is expected from the panel in the next several months.

Municipal League and Southwest Beverly Hills Homeowners Association Request to Hold Candidate Forums

City Holds Last Mayor's Cabinet Meeting

The City held its last Mayor Cabinet meeting on Monday before new commission chairs will take over in the new year.

During the last City Council election, controversy between Vice Mayor Les Friedman and Former Mayor Robert K. Tanenbaum arose at a forum hosted by the Municipal League of Beverly Hills.

During the questioning process at that forum, Tanenbaum presented an aggressive series of questions specifically tailored toward Friedman that some audience members objected to

At one point, Tanenbaum grilled Friedman over the rise in crime during his first term on the council and implied that he was responsible for the smash and grabs because they did not occur until after he was elected. Tanenbaum also questioned why Friedman sought after the LA County Democratic Party endorsement even though he did not get it, while he did not ask then-candidate and now-Councilmember Sharona Nazarian, who actually got the endorsement.

In comparison, Nazarian was asked during the forum about her experience as an immigrant, her credentials, her work on the Rotary Club, and her thoughts on safety.

"It was a personal attack by that moderator and I don't think that anybody else should be subjected to that," Friedman said during Tuesday's meeting. "I do not think there can ever be a repeat of that."

BHPD MAKE ARREST IN ALLEGED HATE CRIME ASSAULT

Elderly Man Beaten in Apparent Anti-Semitic Attack; Legal Proceedings Postponed to Examine Defendant's Mental Competency

By Danielle Berjikian

A man has been arrested in connection with the assault of an elderly man that appears to have been racially motivated. However, legal proceedings against the alleged attacker were halted on Tuesday when a defense attorney raised concerns about the defendant's mental competency, according to The Times of San Diego.

"During the commission of the crime, the suspect made anti-Semitic statements to the victim," Beverly Hills police said. Alan Tzvika Nissel, the victim's son,

The victim was treated by the Beverly Hills Fire Department at the scene and did not require further medical attention.

There is no relationship between the suspect and the victim.

After the attacker had fled the scene, police were able to quickly identify a man who matched the suspect's description after he was witnessed fleeing by a BHPD Senior Forensic Specialist.

"Our officers quickly apprehended the suspect and he is in custody," said Beverly Hills Police Chief Mark Stainbrook. "This despicable act of hate against a member of our community will not be tolerated."

Jarris Jay Silagi, 44, of Los Angeles, was arrested and charged with the following: assault with a deadly weapon, attempted robbery, hate crime, and elder abuse

BHPD informed ABC 7 that Silagi had been apprehended earlier on the same morning of the attack for an unspecified misdemeanor offense. As part of the County's controversial no bail policy, he was issued a citation and released following the initial arrest. Subsequently, he was taken back into custody hours later for the assault.

Silagi has an extensive criminal background, comprising a minimum of four felony convictions by 2014. He has been arrested multiple times in Beverly Hills dating back to at least 2009, and has been listed in Beverly Hills Weekly's arrest summary in issues 499, 895, 1016, 1037, 1054, 1065, and 1071.

Southwest Homeowners Association President Ken Goldman said the new moderator requirement would be counterproductive and expensive. The Homeowners Association also believes that they have had no incidents over the course of 40 years of holding forums.

"We have always invited all candidates and have given all candidates equal opportunity to respond to questions. Each of you [the City Council] has appeared at our Forum and each of you knows how fair we have always treated all candidates," Goldman said. "Given our long history of fairness and inclusion, we should not be burdened with unfair, unwieldy and costly requirements caused by incidents of which we were not a part."

The Homeowners Association has requested that the Council rescind this new requirement.

"In the spirit of transparency and public inclusion, we ask you to rescind your new requirement for an 'outside moderator' for us to use the Council Chambers once again for our Candidates Forum. Otherwise it is very possible that we will cancel our upcoming Forum, in which case the public will not be widely exposed to the can-

City Council Approves Open Air Dining Ordinance

The City Council approved the first reading of the Open Air Dining Ordinance in an effort to more easily allow this type of dining to be established, at its Monday special meeting.

The program, formerly known as Open-BH, was initiated amid the pandemic to temporarily relax the City's current regulations pertaining to open-air dining on both public and private premises.

The ordinance incorporates the proposed code changes that would update regulations pertaining to the City's existing program. The City Council also extended the current program in order to cover the period in which the ordinance will become effective.

The primary changes would be to update the existing regulations to allow more types of open air dining proposals to be approved, and to allow director-level review of the majority of other dining requests.

Another change is in relation to right-ofway lease fees and other processing fees that are required to be paid for the use of public property. This regulation would allow parklets located in the public rightof-way to be approved ministerially, upon meeting the standards outlined in the Parklet Design Guidelines.

The Subcommittee recommended allowing restaurants to extend their outside dining area beyond the facade of the restaurant. The code currently allows open air dining to be located directly adjacent to the building of the restaurant; however, there are some existing parklets that extend beyond a restaurant's frontage. City staff did not recommend that the proposed code changes allow this type of configuration due to the complexity of property use rights.

The temporary program previously allowed the use of the public right-of-way for non-dining uses, such as temporary setups of outdoor hair salons. The City Council did not direct staff to include these types of uses in the permanent update to the code.

The Planning Commission previously reviewed the draft ordinance and recommended changes, including the removal of the parking requirements for all open air dining located on private property, and to add a threshold that would require discretionary review for open air dining areas located closer than a certain distance from residential properties.

The fee system introduces a tiered structure for open-air dining, distinguishing between establishments on public sidewalks and those in street parklets. The tiered fees were developed by evaluating the streets where the majority of open-air dining is concentrated, taking into account the associated city maintenance services necessary for implementing the new regulations. Subsequently, restaurants on streets with a higher concentration of open-air dining, demanding increased city maintenance services, would face a slightly higher license fee

The fees are applied by the squarefoot/month ranging from as high as $2 to $1. There are also one time discretionary review fees, including a fee of $2,781 for dining director-level review, $4,940.00 commission-level discretionary review, and $2,626 for architectural Review. This does not cover additional inspection fees or other general charges.

In order to avoid noncompliance, a restaurant with an existing permit and agreement prior to this may file an application no later than March 1. All requirements are required to be met in Oct.

Held on December 5, the sixty-eighth anniversary of the Montgomery Bus Boycotts, the program, "Perspectives on Black-Jewish Relations in the Fight for Civil Rights," explored the relationship between Jewish values and the establishment and defense of civil rights. Additionally, the Howard I. Friedman Memorial Graduate Essay Prize was presented to Ph.D. candidate Erin Faigin.

The program was inspired by the Karsh Foundation gift and the Skirball's current exhibition, This Light of Ours: Activist Photographers of the Civil Rights Movement.

OBITUARIES Robert Seizer 64 Year Resident of Beverly Hills

Bob always wanted to be a sportswriter and became a very talented and successful one.

His family moved to Los Angeles from Des Moines, Iowa, when he was a high school senior. At UCLA he was for several years the Sports Editor of the Daily Bruin. That is where he met fellow editor Fern Victor (BHHS Class of '52), and they have been happily married for 68 years. He lived in Beverly Hills 59 years.

In 1954 he went from the Daily Bruin right to the Los Angeles Times, working as a sports reporter at both its morning and afternoon papers for eight years. He left to write a daily radio show for football legend Tom Harmon, which aired nationally and was broadcast from around the world.

He switched to television, writing many shows and specials and directing the official film for eight Olympic games. He wrote sports news for KTLA, a weekly column critiquing TV sports for the Hollywood Reporter, and several books, among them Instant Replay and The Wooden-Sharman Method, and golf instructionals with Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus.

He then created, directed and produced a daily interview show which aired nationally for 20 years and over 1000 shows. It was called Sports Look, then later Up Close, and won many Emmy and Ace Awards. He was a member of the Directors Guild of America. His focus was always on human interest stories, and he could recall the players, teams and events of his 70- year-long career.

Bob was a player as well, good in tennis and golf. He often played with his son and grandsons at Brentwood Country Club, to which he belonged. He enjoyed travel, bridge, theater and restaurants – but mostly people. He was funny, ethical, widely respected and well-loved. He considered himself "a lucky pup".

But what he loved most and considered his greatest achievement was his family. Fern had a long career with nonprofit organizations. She was the Executive Director of the Venice Family Clinic for many years, and was a Board Member with the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and St. John's Health Center.

Fern is a Beverly Vista and Beverly High graduate, as are their children. Susan has a Ph.D. in cultural anthropology and is a Professor Emerita at Indiana University in Bloomington, where she lives with her wife Catherine and their two sons, Keith and Forrest. Steven is a family physician in Santa Monica, where he lives with his wife Claudia and their three sons, Daniel, David and Andrew.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence. priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan. com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-18-835709-BF. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 916-939-0772, or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-18-835709-BF to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OC-CUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney.
